BUSINESS PARALYZED

Chicago Suffering From the Effects of the Big Strike.

THE SITUATION IS UNCHANGED.

Further Riotous Demonstrations by Strikers.

CHICAGO, July 2.—Business in Chicago is seriously paralyzed as the result of the present labor difficulties. Transfer business on the Belt railway of Chicago is entirely blocked by the American Railway union. This business is freight interchange between all eastern and western roads centering in Chicago, and so long as the B. & O. railway is tied up the interstate business between eastern and western lines cannot be moved.

It is absolutely necessary that this channel of interchange of interstate business should be open, otherwise the roads that use it for their transfer must continue to be paralyzed.

A gang of 30 strikers broke into the Panhandle switch tower at West Pullman yesterday afternoon, and with abusive epithets, chased the telegraph operator out of it, and threatened to kill him if he ever returned.

A mob of 300 men gathered at Riverdale with the avowed intention of making an assault on train No. 31, carrying mail and a Pullman sleeper and dining car. Sixty-five United States deputy marshals have been stationed at Riverdale crossing. The Illinois Central trains have been coming through without interference, but one of their trains was stopped near Harvey and held about an hour. Deputy marshals boarded train No. 21 at Bolton, but no attempt was made on the part of the mob to commit any overt act, the strikers being overawed by the large force of deputy marshals and marshals.

At 1 p. m. the Illinois Central started a train out of Cairo for the north with Pullman sleepers attached. About 2:37 p. m. the Illinois Central started a train out of Cairo for the south with Pullman sleepers attached.

Some Trains Moving.
On the Chicago and Alton, passenger trains in Illinois are moving in both directions, about on time with the usual equipments. Passenger trains to and from Kansas City and St. Louis, and Chicago were stopped at Slater, Mo., where engines are changed, by reason of the firemen refusing to go on trains hauling Pullman equipment. The company has arranged for a United States deputy marshal to go to Slater to remove the blockade.

On the Atchafalaya, Topeka and Santa Fe at Chicago the situation is unchanged. Passenger trains have departed and arrived on time. Passenger trains are now running through to Grand Junction and Denver. Train No. 909, which was held up at Grand Junction Saturday, left there at 6:40 p. m. yesterday with Pullman and the men at that point have all returned to work.

In Colorado the only point tied up is Trinidad. There is now no obstruction to moving trains, freight or passenger, on the Atlantic and Pacific. The Southern California railway is still tied up.

On the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, passenger service in Chicago is intact, and no trouble is anticipated. Everything is quiet along the line and at outside points.

The Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific has posted a bulletin announcing all trains abandoned until further notice. This is done for the reason that the road is blocked with freight and is full of derailed switches from here south, and the strikers are in an ugly mood. The general manager of the Rock Island says: "We shall open our road just as quick as we can get men to operate it, and afford those men protection."

The Baltimore and Ohio attempted to start a freight, but the train now stands at South Chicago minus links and pins, which strikers have taken. The Michigan Central switchmen at Kensington Junction, at which point the Michigan Central strikes the Illinois Central to come into the city, were driven from their post by the mob. Considerable difficulty is experienced in getting trains past Kensington Junction.

Want Not Come Out.

The following message was sent to Fort Dodge and Cherokee, Ia: "To All Employees: All Chicago and Pacific lines have struck to enforce the Pullman boycott. Take same action and all men will be guaranteed full protection, irrespective of organization. Form a committee and send the chairman's name to us. It is not necessary to have money at present. They can settle when they get it."

Engineers and firemen of this division immediately sent Debs the following: "E. V. Debs, Chicago—At a meeting of the engineers and firemen of the Chicago division of the Illinois Central Railroad company, held at Cherokee, July 1, it was resolved that the engineers and firemen of this division have no grievance against said company. We have always been well treated by the company; when grievances existed we have had them adjusted to our entire satisfaction."

"We do not work for the Pullman company, and think this strike unjust and uncalled for on the Illinois Central system. We propose to remain with our engines and the company, and will do our utmost to protect the company's property when called on to do so."

Firemen Won't Strike.
TERRE HAUTE, Ind., July 2.—Chief Sargent of the Locomotive Firemen authorizes the following official statement: "The Locomotive Firemen, as an organ-

Then, like other sensible men, he would take Johann Hoff's Malt Extract for relief. Johann Hoff's is cooling and strengthening, invaluable for indigestion and the enervating effects of hot weather. Look for signature of "Johann Hoff" on neck label and do not be imposed upon with worthless imitations. EISNER & MENDELSON CO., Sole Agents, New York.

ization, can take no part in this boycott, as its laws do not permit it. We shall in no way antagonize the American Railway union in its present struggle."

Protected by Law.
SAN FRANCISCO, July 2.—Judge Ross of the United States district court has granted an injunction restraining interference with prompt and safe movement in any way, shape or manner of trains on the Southern California, a part of the Santa Fe road.

For Obstructing Mails.
HAMMOND, Ind., July 2.—United States Marshal Hawkins has left here for Indianapolis with nine mob leaders, arrested for obstructing and retarding the passage of the United States mails.

To Take in Boston.
BOSTON, July 2.—It is said that an organizer of the American Railway union will visit this city with a view of organizing the various local railroad men's organizations into the American Railway union.

No Obstruction.
CINCINNATI, July 2.—A most ominous quiet prevailed here yesterday. All passenger trains on all roads with Pullman cars arrived and departed as usual. The railroad managers feel confident the engineers and other trainmen will not go out. They have been employing many new switchmen.

Troops Ordered Out.
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 2.—Governor Altgeld last night called out six companies of militia to proceed to Danville at once. Three additional companies were ordered to Decatur. The troops are sent upon application of the railroad managers.

General Tie-Up Imminent.
INDIANAPOLIS, July 2.—A general tie-up is imminent here. The police are being concentrated. United States deputy marshals have been called in hastily and the United States arsenal force is ready to move at a moment's notice.

Obedient Debs' Order.
DENVER, July 2.—The local American Railway union men decided to comply with the order of President Debs, and stopped work on the Union Pacific.

The College Standing.
The college baseball season was concluded last week. The standard of playing among the larger colleges has been higher than ever before. Harvard alone suffers by comparison with past seasons. A summary of the games won and lost by the five leading teams gives an accurate index of their relative strength.

Diamond Tips.
Nichols is pitching $5000 ball. Barnie is still after more players. Dwyer made his first error in 21 games on Friday.

The Savannah and Atlanta clubs have disbanded. Clymer has been doing splendid work for Buffalo. The season is dead in all western cities save Pittsburgh. Umpire Meagher of the New England league has "given it up."

The champions have twice knocked Brettstein out of the box. The Cleveland club has loaned Pitcher Knauus to the City club. Latham has made more errors than any other third baseman in the league—39.

Cincinnati will yet outdo Washington. Twenty players have been tried thus far. Every one of the regular players of the Boston team have made at least one home run.

In one stretch of 15 games this season, Dan Richardson of Louisville scored once. Shindle has taken a great brace this season. In 24 games he made but two errors.

The Altoona club of the Pennsylvania league is about to disband for lack of patronage. Dan Ebonthers is acting captain of the Baltimore in the absence of Catcher Robinson.

Boyle of Philadelphia leads the first basemen. He has made one error this year on first.

The double championship season is being tried in the Pennsylvania league, and has proved a failure. Baseball must be pretty dead in Cincinnati when only 110 people turn out to see a championship game.

Reilly, Cross and Delehaney are having a great struggle for the Philadelphia Press prize for the most popular player.

Vice President Ruckstuhl of the Louisville club and ex-President Drexler, his brother-in-law, have over $30,000 invested in that club.

In but three out of 49 games did Keeler of Baltimore fail to make a hit. In 18 successive games he made 38 hits with a total of 60. Shades of Brooklyn!

UNCLE SAM STEPS IN.

Will Not Permit Trains to Be Stalled by Striking Mobs.

RECKLESS VIOLATIONS OF LAW

Will Be Suppressed by the Troops of the Nation.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—The United States government has reached the point of action. It will see that the business of the country is not paralyzed by violence and interference with trains by mobs.

This action will be taken under authority of the court order granted in Chicago yesterday, which order was the result of a conference between the president, Attorney General Olney, General Schofield and others charged with the maintenance of the government under the constitution.

The injunction which was issued by the federal court at Chicago yesterday against the strikers was granted on a bill prepared under the direction of Attorney General Olney. The government alleges violations of the anti-trust act of July 2, 1890, the interstate commerce act, and also the laws against obstructing or attempting to obstruct the United States mails.

That the interstate commerce act, as well as that against interfering with the United States mails, is also violated, the attorney general has no doubt. In speaking of the matter he said that the government was now in a position to act, and the whole strength of the government would be used to prevent any interference with railroads doing an interstate business.

It did not matter whether the trains carried freight or passengers, the railroads were guaranteed by the laws of the United States from any interference by violence on the part of strikers or others, and they would be protected if the entire army of the United States could afford protection.

The government officials realize that a decisive battle between law and order and lawlessness is now on, and as to the result there seems to be only one opinion, and that is that the laws of the land will be enforced at whatever cost. They believe that the time for temporizing has passed, and that if resistance is made the strong arm of the government must and will crush it, and that speedily.

When the news that Judge Woods had issued his omnibus injunction at Chicago against further interference with the railroads by the strikers reached the war department it found the department fully prepared to meet the emergency. Major General Schofield had been kept fully advised of the phases of the strike and the contemplated legal proceedings, and has been in communication with General Miles.

When he heard of the granting of the injunction, and was asked what he intended to do, he said very quietly, but very determinedly and slowly: "We have made all necessary preparation and will now carry out the orders of the United States courts with decision, with vigor and with promptness."

The tone of the commanding general of the army, even more than his words, carried with it the conviction that mistreatment awaits any man or any number of men who now attempt to stand in the way of the enforcement of the laws of the land, for upon them will be laid with full force the entire weight of the military of the United States government.

Major General Nelson A. Miles, commander of the department of the Missouri, with headquarters at Chicago, was in this city last night, and his arrival resulted in an extended conference at the White House, lasting from 9 o'clock until midnight, between the president, Secretary Gresham and Secretary Lamont, Major General Schofield, Attorney General Olney and Major General Miles and his aides.

The situation was reviewed in detail, and the general policy of the administration, as outlined above, was reiterated. The views expressed were to the effect that while the strike was likely to fail of its own weight, and from lack of thorough organization, yet it is necessary for all authorities to be on the alert and to check at the outset any overt and lawless act.

INTERFERENCE WITH MAILS

Will Not Be Tolerated by the United States Government.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—News has come to Washington that in addition to the troubles at Trinidad and Raton, Colo., the United States mails have been stopped at Los Angeles on the Southern Pacific railroad. Attorney General Olney called on the president and afterwards at the war department, and steps were taken to relieve the situation there, in line with the policy definitely determined on, of having the mails go forward at all hazards.

Representative McGinn, who, as chairman of the labor committee, is regarded by laboring men as one of their chief spokesmen in congress, had a talk with Assistant Postmaster Jones and other officials of the postoffice department. From them he learned that the precedent established by Attorney General Olney in the Northern Pacific strike will be adhered to in the present troubles.

Mr. McGinn was told that the officials intend to insist that no actual physical resistance shall be made against the running of the regular mail trains; that they shall not be sidetracked, stopped or interfered with. No legal obstructions will be made against men stopping who are engaged on the mail trains, if they desire, because the officials consider such action a personal matter.

TRIAL TRIP OF NEW STEAMER

Delightful Sail, Jovial Company, a Banquet and Speeches.

From the sweltering heat of Monday it was indeed a delightful outing for the 225 invited guests who took the trial trip of the City of Quincy. Many gentlemen from Boston arrived by train at Quincy at 1.30, and were met by city officials and prominent citizens of Quincy. A train of electric trolleys left in a few minutes for the steamboat landing at Quincy Point, the Atlantic band enlivening the ride, and drawing attention of the people along the route. The new spur track on Wharf street has been laid and the cars went directly to the wharf. Here a delegation of the prominent citizens of Weymouth (that is those who did not get left) joined the party, and as stated above 225 embarked on the new steamer.

At the outset they were pleased with the craft—everything new, clean and attractive. A description of the boat is given in this article. It not only fulfilled the expectations in appearance, but proved a good sailer, standing up well and showing speed.

The names of some of the more prominent of the party are given: John R. Graham of Quincy, Rev. A. B. Hudson, Senator John F. Merrill, Hon. William N. Eaton, E. W. H. Bass, A. G. Durgin, Col. William Moore, John E. Drake, Capt. Joel S. Sheppard, Eben Sheppard, J. C. Sanborn, A. C. Kendall, Col. C. H. Porter, R. F. Cladin, William H. Gallison, D. J. Wiseman, Wesley A. Gove, J. E. Lynch, F. O. Wellington, Capt. M. P. Doane, Dr. J. H. Gilbert, Representative F. P. Bliss, John A. Duggan, Fred H. Smith, Arthur Burnham, Winthrop Coffin, Roger H. Wilde, Dr. William A. Drake, Douglas M. Easton, H. M. Federhen, Benjamin Johnson, postmaster James F. Burke, William C. Earle, F. D. Thayer, James Ford, W. J. Dunbar, Maj. F. A. Bicknell, B. F. Thomas, D. O. Wade, Col. A. C. Drinkwater and Emory L. Crane.

The boat steamed out of the river amid cheers and salutes. The Philomena weighed anchor and accompanied her. Out through the East Gut we sped, round the light and the Brewsters and in through Shirley Gut; then through the West passage off Great Hill, and across the inner bay to the Nantasket landing at Sagamore hill, receiving many salutes.

It was a jovial party, and none were seasick. They enjoyed every moment, also the lemonade, colored and uncolored, and the cigars kindly supplied by the company. The Atlantic band stationed on the upper deck discoursed sweet music in variety and in their new uniforms made a favorable impression.

At Nantasket they made the landing at dead low tide, and were received by salutes and summer residents generally. Messrs. Kittredge, Ewell and Crane were on hand to pull in the ropes, and the guests were soon marching behind the band to the large tent, where a spread of salads, cold meats, ice cream, etc., was served.

Then came a few speeches. Col. Hawkins presided and he called upon President John R. Graham, J. R. Lynch, Senator Merrill, Col. Moore, Douglas Easton, Col. Drinkwater, Dr. Drake, Rev. Allan Hudson, M. E. Hawes, R. F. Cladin, Hamilton A. Hill and Major Bicknell.

Then a march over the hill, and shortly after 6 o'clock the homeward trip was begun. Quincy Point was made about 7 o'clock and with cheers for the boat and President Graham, the outing was over.

The boat will make two trips today, and five on and after July 4.

The crew of the boat will be: Capt.—J. W. Hopkins.
Mate,—J. F. Gott.
Purser,—J. H. Webb.
Engineer,—P. Barton.
Fireman,—Charles Nickson.
Deck Hands,—Fred Hopkins and Lester Baxter.

Steward,—Isaiah Lennell.

CHURCH WEDDING.

An Ashmont Physician Leads a Quincy School Teacher to the Altar.

Again has the old First church been the scene of a grand wedding, and seldom has it been more prettily decorated than Monday evening under the direction of Miss Georgiana Lane, assisted by bridesmaids and ushers. Elder was the most prominent, the flower and the green making a solid background. Above the pulpit was a marriage bell, from which descended white streamers.

Miss Elizabeth Adams Souther, the bride, has taught very successfully in our High school, and the groom, Frederick Roscoe Hiley, M. D., is a promising physician at Ashmont.

The marriage ceremony took place at quarter before eight. The bride entered the church accompanied by her father, and preceded by the ushers and maid of honor. Near the middle of the broad aisle the ushers parted and the bride was met by the bridesmaid and escorted to the altar, where they were joined by the groom and best man.

The maid of honor was Miss Maude Morrison Souther of Dorchester; the best man, Mr. Herbert Chester Hiley of Chelsea, a brother of the groom; the bridesmaids, Miss Mary Adams Souther, a sister of the bride, Miss Gertrude Maud Hiley and Miss Charlotte Hiley of Chelsea, sisters of the groom, and Miss Ella Imogen Cass of Boston; the ushers, Mr. Henry Lincoln Souther, brother of the bride, Mr. William Flint Rogers of Boston, Mr. Arthur Langdon Spring of Boston, Mr. Theodore Wheeler Souther of Dorchester, Mr. William Augustus Wheeler of Allston and Mr. Harry L. Rice of Quincy.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. George Alcott Phinney of the M. E. church, Dorchester, assisted by Rev. Elly Channing Butler of the First Church, Quincy. The bride was given away by her father. Her gown was of white bengaline silk with chiffon and point lace, and she carried a bouquet of white pinks and maiden hair fern. The maid of honor was gowned in yellow crape, and carried a bunch of mignonettes. The bridesmaids' dresses were of white dotted muslin and their bouquets white lilies. Mr. James F. Harlow presided at the organ.

A reception followed at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Edward B. Souther, No. 2 Foster street, from eight until half past nine. The house was prettily decorated by Mrs. Edward W. Souther and Miss Madeline Fish. Dr. and Mrs. Hiley were assisted in receiving by Mr. E. B. Souther, Mrs. Tilson Anderson Mead the bride's sister, and Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Greely Hiley, the groom's parents. There was a beautiful display of numerous and costly presents.

Dr. and Mrs. Hiley will reside at No. 24 Rowena street, Ashmont, and will be at home Tuesdays after August fifteenth.

FIRECRACKER BLAZE

Causes a Loss of Over Half a Million at Hudson, Mass.

MANY HOUSES WERE BLOWN UP
In Order to Save the Town
From Destruction.

HUDSON, Mass., July 5.—Shortly before
4 o'clock yesterday afternoon fire was discovered in Chamberlain's shoe factory, Woods square. The fire had gained considerable headway, and with a strong wind blowing the flames soon got beyond the reach of the firemen and spread with rapidity.

The fire department, which is a call department, was poorly manned, as a number of its members were on an excursion.
Within half an hour the factory was burned to the ground. One cause for the rapid spread of the fire is assigned to the explosion of several barrels of naphtha
and oil used in the shoe business.

The flames spread to the Union depot,
the public telephone office and Higgins'
shoe factory. The firemen were helpless, and assistance was summoned from surrounding cities and towns. The postoffice, with its contents, was totally destroyed, and the loss in this department cannot be fixed. There were several registered packages which had come in on the morning mail, but had not been delivered on account of it being a national holiday.

A large number of dwelling houses were destroyed, together with their contents. The neighboring cities responded as quickly as they could, but when they arrived nearly 16 acres had been burned over. The firemen's efforts seemed to be in vain until it was deemed necessary to blow up a number of houses in order to save the entire town from total destruction.

The loss is estimated at between $500,000
and $750,000, and it is said that it is mostly insured.

Some of the Losses.
The following buildings were burned:
Assabet factory, occupied by F. H. Chamberlain; S. Wood & Co.'s block, A. K.
Graves' block, Lewis block and tenement buildings, Atkinson's boarding house, Frank Brown's residence, one of F. Brigham & Co.'s factories, Manson's block, Peters' store, H. W. Chase's block and tenement building, Cockran's block, the Manson House, Mongovin's stable, C.
W. Holden's block, Hastings' block, Stratton's store, Stratton's tenement block, Dr. Soule's house, Underwood's block, H. Tower's house, John Fosgate's house, occupied by C. M. Randall.

The following tenants of business blocks were burned out: H. W. Chase, Dr. Carpenter, R. B. Lewis, Wood & Co., Dr.
Cochrane, Mrs. S. A. Holt, postoffice, E.
F. Worcester, A. M. Mossman, Enterprise newspaper, V. M. C. A., C. E. Read, Odd Fellows, A. S. Campbell, C. I.
Woodbury's Sons, A. K. Graves, G. W.
Poor, C. W. Eddy, H. M. Clark and Durfee's billiard hall.

The fire was stayed at the Hudson
House, and under control about 6 o'clock,
after a determined fight.

Dr. Jackson's block was considerably damaged.
The high school building and town hall
were opened for the reception of goods saved. Help was requested from surrounding towns, and engines came from Fitchburg, Clinton, Boston, Waltham and Worcester, and a horse carriage from Maynard.

The Boston and Maine station building and others were on fire, and saved only by determined efforts. Supposed cause, firecrackers.

A MISPLACED SWITCH

Causes a Serious Railroad Collision at Seymour, Conn.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., July 5.—At 6 o'clock last night a collision between a passenger and excursion train occurred at Seymour. The excursion train was standing on a siding when the passenger train dashed into it. Annie Evans was fatally injured and Josie McCormack received serious internal injuries from which she is expected to die.

The passengers on both the trains were thrown indiscriminately about, many of them receiving serious cuts and bruises.
The collision was caused by a misplaced switch. The engineers and firemen of both trains, when they saw that the collision was imminent, jumped and saved their lives. Both the engines were telescoped.

IN ABBOTT'S FAVOR.

Eckhardt Gives Him the Decision in the Contest With Myers.

BOSTON, July 5.—Stanton Abbott received a decision over Billy Myers at the Boston theater last night, but it will remain an open question with the local sporting men as to the superiority over the Illinois lad.

Myers did all the leading and fighting for 14 rounds, the Englishman landing effective work in the last with the result that Myers was groggy when call of time came at the close. Referee Eckhardt immediately declared Abbott the winner,
amid a storm of hisses, hoots and cheers.

Round 15 and last—Hardly had the pair reached the center when Abbott shot out his left. Myers was hardly prepared for it, and as a result it caught him on the nose. He staggered back, but encouraged by the shouts of his followers Abbott was on top of him, and again did the left find a resting place, this time on Myers' right optic. The westerner was groggy, but he managed to grab Abbott around the neck. Referee Eckhardt stepping in just in time to allow Abbott to get Myers twice on the neck and jaw.

Again did Myers clinch. While in this position Abbott was working right and left on the westerner's body, and Billy really seemed anxious to let go his hold.
He rallied toward the close of the round,
and when the call of time came he seemed equally as strong as his opponent.

The spectators clamored for a decision, and Referee Eckhardt stepped to the front of the stage and gave the award to Abbott. Myers himself seemed astounded at the verdict and walked threateningly to the referee, but at this juncture Police Captain Warren stepped in, and upon his advice all parties left the stage.

A RIDICULOUS CEREMONY.

Remnant of the Cockey Army "Buries
the Goddess of Liberty."

WASHINGTON, July 5.—The Cockey com-monwealers went through the spectacular performance of "burying the goddess of liberty" in front of the Capitol yesterday.
It was the sequel of the demonstration of May 1, when, according to Cockey and Brown, liberty was mortally wounded and lingered until she expired on the fourth of July.

Captain Austin and a force of 10 mounted and 20 unmounted policemen were on hand with two patrol wagons. A small crowd was attracted by the novel performance. The commonwealers marched four abreast, 245 strong, with many banners and other devices.

At their head rode Carl Browne in a remarkable disguise. His beard had been removed and his face powdered. A wig of yellow hair fell to his waist. His arms were bare and powdered. A liberty cap was on his head and his body was wound
with the emblematic garments of liberty.
It was not intended that Browne should be known in the disguise, and the name of the goddess was announced as "Sarah Elkhart, an Egyptian."

After marching through Pennsylvania avenue the army formed a company front around Peace monument, where Goddess Browne delivered an apostrophe to the bronze goddess on top of the Capitol. As he closed his address, he dropped in a badly simulated swoon from his horse, and his comrades, catching him placed the pale faced marshal in an impromptu hearse and laid him at full length, with flags and crepe over him.
The hearse was inscribed: "Liberty is Dead."

The procession then moved away to Mulligan Hill, where the goddess stopped from the hearse and the commonwealers closed the day with dancing and speeches.

BEAUTY IS NO INHERITANCE.

Cosmetics do not beautify, but often destroy a healthy complexion. A natural rosy and healthy complexion cannot be had by the use of cosmetics, but only through the health of the body in general.
Nothing is better to secure this result than the genuine imported Carlsbad Sprudel Salt when taken early in the morning, before breakfast (about a small teaspoonful dissolved in a tumblerful of water). It clears the complexion and produces a healthy color.
Best taken when out-door exercise can be had. Obtain the genuine article, which has the signature of "EISNER & MEN-DELSON CO., Agents, New York,"
on the neck of every bottle.

WEYMOUTH.

The Celebration of the Fourth—The Winners of the Races.

The Fourth of July sports at the Landing were well enjoyed by a large number. The parade of bicycles which took place early in the morning, was participated in by many wheelmen, the Norfolks winning the prize for numbers, and the Lovells for good riding.

In the 5 mile men's race with seven starters, the first three finishing were Pratt, Hayward, Lord. Time, 15 minutes, 5 seconds.

Four started in the boys' 4 1/2 mile race and E. Guttererson crossed the line first, followed by G. Holbrook and W. Holbrook. In this race Charles Guttererson was thrown from his wheel on the hill from Lincoln square to starting point, he landing on his head, and it is feared received congestion of the brain.

A slow race of 200 yards was run from depot to square in about 15 minutes.

The finish of the one mile race was as follows: Parker, Tibbitts and Lord. This race was through East Braintree to start. Time, 3.02, 3.03, 3.04.

The 1st, 21 and 3d prizes were gold medal, silver medal and some article of bicycle furniture.

The National band of Hingham furnished music and gave three concerts on the park.

In East Weymouth the usual spirit of jubilation was rampant, an effigy being suspended from an electric light post in the square.

Crackers, horns and torpedoes furnished all the noise that was necessary to keep alive the memory of the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

In the afternoon the people thronged to the beaches and to Boston to see the fireworks on the Common.

The street at Shaw's Corner has at last been graded.

Quite a few East Weymouth people were noticed on the City of Quincy on the 4th. They say she is a beauty.

HOUGH'S NECK.

It was the liveliest day of the season at Hough's Neck on the Fourth of July. The electric cars ran half hourly trips and came well filled. There was also many barges and single teams, and a large number enjoyed a holiday at the seashore.

The cottagers who make daily trips to Boston are very much dissatisfied with the street railway timetable on week days, as the hourly trips often cause people to start a half hour earlier than they desire. They think the company could well afford to run half hourly trips in the early morning and between 5 and 7 P. M.

The opening of the chapel last Sunday was successful beyond expectation. At the church service 50 were in attendance, and at the Sunday School 32. Rev. E. A. Robinson of Wollaston preached very acceptably. Next Sunday the chapel will be dedicated. Rev. C. W. Wilder, Rev. Preston Garney, Mr. Edward Southworth and Mr. Theophilus King will assist.

Mrs. Jane Dooley and family of Randolph are at their cottage for the season. Miss Emma has just returned from Manchester, N. H., where she prepared the graduating class at Mt. St. Mary's academy for commencement day.

It costs more for salves and liniments to heal the bites of spiteful flies and mosquitoes than will pay for a whole set of our window screens. Just think of the comfort, too, 25 and 30 cents, screen doors $1.25. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

Braintrees Win at Home.

The game at Braintree on the morning of the Fourth was exciting from first to last. The home club allowed the North Abingtons to score six runs in their first, but more than evened things up in the third and then both clubs settled down to business as the score shows:

Two for Tailenders.

The Randolphs not only won their first game in the Old Colony league on the Fourth, but also another. They took the Holbrooks into camp at Holbrook in the morning by a score of 11 to 9, and again in the afternoon at Randolph by a score of 14 to 4.

Last June Dick Crawford brought his twelve-months-old child, suffering from infantile diarrhoea, to me. It had been weaned at four months old and had always been sickly. I gave it the usual treatment in such cases but without benefit. The child kept growing thinner until it weighed but little more than when born, or perhaps ten pounds. I then started the father to giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Before one bottle of the 25 cent size had been used a marked improvement was seen and its continued use cured the child. Its weakness and puny constitution disappeared and its father and myself believe the child's life was saved by this Remedy. J. T. Marlow, M. D., Tamaroa, Ill.

GIRL ASSAULTED.

An Isolated Spot on the Squantum Road the Scene.

Miss Lottie Peterson of Squantum, was seriously assaulted by an unknown ruffian Monday evening. She had been to Quincy and was returning home alone, having missed her father, whom she expected to meet.

When near the farm of R. E. Townsend on the Squantum road, a man suddenly sprang from the bushes where he had been concealed, and seizing the frightened girl, attempted to drag her into the bushes.

She screamed loudly for help, but as the spot where the assault occurred is isolated there seemed no help for her, and although she resisted the ruffian for a time, her strength was failing when an approaching team caused him to let her go and to run away.

The police were notified and are making every effort to find the villain, but as she cannot give a very good description of the man, it is doubtful if he is apprehended.

AT THE BEACH.

Our Scotch Citizens Enjoy a Picnic at Mosquito Woods.

There are many varied ways of celebrating the glorious Fourth. Some people love to inhale the odor of gunpowder and burned paper, and fairly revel in noisy explosions and ear-splitting sounds. The growing tendency towards athletic sports, and the many avenues through which these tastes may be gratified, provide opportunities of pleasure for many. The roads fairly teem with bicycles and pedestrians, while popular seaside resorts are besieged with visitors of all degrees. Among these methods of spending a holiday, there are probably none more generally enjoyable than a day's outing near the seashore where the breezes invigorate the body, and the company of friends and acquaintances stimulates the mind, and makes men and women forget the cares and worries which are common to the routine of every day life.

Early on the morning of the Fourth a company numbering between fifty and sixty, mostly representatives of "the land of the thistle," set out for "Mosquito Woods," intent upon a day's enjoyment. Accompanying them was an abundance of refreshments suitable for the wants of both old and young.

A few energetic spirits had preceded the main party and erected tents, swings, tables, etc., which materially added to the general comfort. A special feature of the occasion was a clam bake cooked at an extemporized fire upon the grounds, while the excellent facilities for bathing which the beach affords were fully taken advantage of by a large number.

The slight thunder-showers which fell during the afternoon did little to dampen spirits of the company, as sufficient protection was afforded by the shelters previously erected. Much of the success of the day's outing was undoubtedly due to the excellent management of Mr. James Young of Granite street, whose energy and foresight was highly appreciated by all.

Cantley-Scammell.

A very pretty home wedding took place on Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Scammell on Gloucester Place, their daughter, Miss Lydia Ann Scammell, being united in marriage with Mr. Robert Cantley of Brooklyn, N. Y. A large number of relatives and friends were present to witness the ceremony, which was very impressive. Rev. Edward Norton, pastor of the Evangelical Congregational church officiating.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was prettily attired in Japanese silk, en traine, with pearl trimming and point de chene lace. She wore a tulle veil fastened with bride roses and carried a bouquet of the same flowers. Her only ornament was a solitaire diamond worn at the neck.

The bridegroom, Miss Ida J. Steer, was gowned in white dotted muslin. The bridegroom was attended by his best man, Mr. Frederick Scammell, brother of the bride.

A reception followed the marriage ceremony.

The presents, which were numerous, were beautiful and costly.

After their wedding tour, Mr. and Mrs. Cantley will reside in Newark, N. J., after a stay of five weeks in Brooklyn, N. Y.

MRS. IDA CASLER.

Her Advice to Over-Ambitious Women.

(SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.) Mrs. Ida Casler, of 126 Olive Street, Syracuse, N. Y., believes that there is no amount of money large enough to equal a good, sound, healthy constitution.

Here is a history of her case:— She was so ill with falling of the womb and leucorrhoea that she could not stand. She was attended by several doctors without benefit, and was completely discouraged.

One evening she heard that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other women, and decided to try it, together with Mrs. Pinkham's Sanative Wash, and it is well she did, for she says:—

"I am now well and strong. I am not troubled with either trouble, and all owing to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

"If more women would use the Compound there would be less suffering in the world. Many women bring on their troubles by over-work. Remember good health will outlast riches every time."

CRISIS IS AT HAND.

Vandalism and Bloodshed in the Streets of Chicago.

MAYOR HOPKINS TAKES ACTION.

Strikers' Side of the Situation Explained by Debs.

CHICAGO, July 6.—The sun went down yesterday on by far the most turbulent and critical day thus far in the unparalleled railroad strike and boycott. When it opened, there was a general feeling that its passing would go far toward clearing the atmosphere, if, indeed, it did not practically lift the embargo on commerce which has had the city in its grip for the past week. That expectation was chiefly based on the presence of federal troops in the most dangerous districts. Looking at the situation at the close of the day, however, it must be confessed that the hope indulged in at the opening in this regard has not been justified. The troops were few in numbers at best, and when they were divided into squads and distributed at points, separated by very considerable distances, it soon became evident that their prestige as overawing bodies had been dissipated at the same time. Instead of disappearing before the faces of the veterans, as was expected they would do, the turbulent thousands surged about the little band of soldiers, jeered and hooted at them, cast vile epithets at them and literally played hide and seek with them, stopping trains at will and generally rendering the embargo in the military district more effective, if possible, than before.

The throngs of strikers did not resist Uncle Sam's police. Again and again, when there were thousands of them about a train, which it was sought to move, they gave way like a flock of sheep before the leveled bayonets of a single company of infantry, or the tramping of a single squad of cavalry.

Vandalism by Strikers. Like water, too, they closed in again at a point just beyond. They burned switches, derailed freight cars in front of the slow moving trains, and played all sorts of railroaders' tricks, with which the soldiers were unacquainted. Thus it was that the troops at the stock yards, in perseverance and patience, spent the entire day in vain endeavor to get one train load of dressed beef out of sight of the starting point.

Another and more pleasant thing this experience showed, and that was the admirable coolness, self-poise and discipline of the troops throughout an exasperating 12 hours. Not a shot was fired; not a man was pricked by a bayonet, which argues that with force enough the soldiers would have done the work which was expected of them. The quality was there; merely the quantity was lacking.

Aside from the immediate neighborhood where the troops were operating, there was plenty of excitement and disorder. Great mobs gathered on the Lake Shore, Rock Island, Alton and Western Indiana tracks, and proceeded to obstruct them by overturning box cars, breaking switches and the like. At one point they set fire to a switch tower and an interlocking switch box, though the flames were extinguished before serious damage was done.

Cases of Bloodshed. In two instances there was bloodshed on the Western Indiana tracks; a hard pressed special policeman fired at his pursuers, wounding a striker in the leg. On the Lake Shore road an official of that company in charge of a train, which he was endeavoring to force through, emptied his revolver point blank into the massed strikers about him, wounding two or three, it is believed. He was saved from the fury of the mob by his engineer, who put on steam and ran back to the point of starting.

Shortly after noon a mob numbering 200 started north on the Lake Shore tracks at Thirty-seventh street, overturning cars and obstructing the line in every possible way. They were not checked until they reached Twenty-second street, where a heavy force of police was massed and succeeded in turning them back.

During the afternoon Mayor Hopkins and Chief of Police Brennan went down the Lake Shore road with an official of that road, intending to go to the stock yards. Their passage was obstructed and they were compelled to finish the journey on foot.

Of the strike in general it may be said that it has broadened. The night closed down with a very uneasy feeling touching future developments.

Mayor Hopkins Takes Action. After personal inspection of the scenes of violence near Fortieth street, Mayor Hopkins issued the following proclamation: "The events of the last 24 hours render it necessary that extraordinary measures be taken to preserve public peace and order. The mayor of the city of Chicago has the legal right to demand the services of every able-bodied man in the city, and to call out the militia if necessary to suppress riots or other disorderly conduct, and he will certainly exercise every power vested in him by law for the protection of property and the preservation of the public peace.

"He expects every citizen to do his duty in preserving the peace by avoiding all places where crowds are congregated, to attend strictly to his own particular affairs and to see that all women and children are kept away from the public streets and railway tracks.

"The police are hereby directed to disperse every assemblage of persons in the public streets or on railroad tracks, and to promptly assist all persons who refuse to disperse on demand."

Mayor Hopkins sent a letter to Chief of Police Brennan, ordering him to use every effort to put down riots, and asking him to suspend all police officials who were present and witnessed the acts of disorder, but did nothing to put down the trouble.

Debs' Statement.

President Debs makes the following address to the public: "So many misleading reports have been given currency in reference to the great railroad strike now in progress that I am prompted, in the interest of justice and fair play, to give the public an honest, impartial statement of the issues involved.

"The Pullman employees who struck May 6 last did so entirely of their own accord. Officers of the American Railway union used all their influence to pacify the employees and advised them not to strike, but bear patiently their grievances until a peaceable settlement could be effected.

"But the grievance of the employees had become so aggravated that patience deserted them, and they abandoned their employment rather than submit longer to conditions against which their very souls rebelled.

"The Pullman company owns the town of Pullman, and wages are so adjusted to living expenses that in a large majority of cases the employees are barely able to support their families. At the time they struck the employees were in arrears to the Pullman company $70,000 for rent alone. Wages had been repeatedly reduced, but rent and other expenses remained the same.

Willing to Arbitrate.

"The employees, from the beginning, have been willing to arbitrate their dispute with the company. That is their position today. The company arrogantly declares that there is nothing to arbitrate.

"Up to June 12 the trouble was confined to the Pullman company and its employees. How, then, did the strike extend to the railways?

"The day before the order of the delegates declining to haul Pullman cars went into effect, the General Managers' association passed a series of resolutions declaring that they would uphold the Pullman company in its fight upon the employees, and that they would stand together in crushing out the American Railway union.

"It will thus be seen that the railway companies virtually joined forces with the Pullman company, went into partnership with them, so to speak, to reduce and defeat their half-starved employees. In this way the trouble was extended from line to line, and from system to system, until a crisis has been reached.

"The American Railway union simply insists that the Pullman company shall meet its employees and do them justice. We guarantee that the latter will accept any reasonable proposition. The company may act through its officials or otherwise, and the employees through their chosen representatives. The question of the recognition of the American Railway union or any other organization is waived. The mutual concession and compromise should animate and govern both sides, and there will be no trouble in reaching a settlement that will be satisfactory to all concerned.

"This done, let the railway companies agree to restore all their employees to their situations, without prejudice, and the trouble will be ended. The crisis will thus be averted, traffic will resume and peace will reign. It is remarked what sense is there in sympathetic strikes. Let the corporations answer. When one is assailed, all go to the rescue. Labor, in unifying its forces, simply follows their example. The corporations established the precedent. If the proceeding is vicious and indefensible, let them first abolish it. In this contest labor will stand by labor."

Cleveland to Altageld.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—President Cleveland has sent the following reply to Governor Altageld, who demanded the removal of federal troops from Illinois:

"Federal troops were sent to Chicago in strict accordance with the constitution and laws of the United States, upon the demand of the postoffice department that obstruction of the mails should be removed, and upon the representations of the judicial officers of the United States that process of the federal courts could not be executed through the ordinary means, and upon abundant proof that conspiracies existed against commerce between the states. To meet these conditions, which are clearly within the province of federal authority, the presence of federal troops in the city of Chicago was deemed not only proper, but necessary, and there has been no intention there of interfering with the plain duty of the local authorities to preserve the peace of the city."

Nothing to Give Out.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—At midnight a cabinet conference called to discuss the strike broke up, and all except Secretary Lamont, who remained at the White House all night, came down stairs and drove away in their carriages. The cabinet officials looked tired and very grave, and each and all, when asked to enlighten the newspapers as to what had happened in the conference and what news they had received from Chicago, declined to make any statements whatever. General Schofield added that they had no information from Chicago not already contained in press dispatches.

Firemen Going Back to Work.

COLUMBUS, O., July 6.—Chief Arthur of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers arrived in the city yesterday and held a conference with the engineers of the C. H. V. and T. railway, advising them to return to work, as they had no grievance. The firemen decided to return to work.

No Strike at Omaha.

OMAHA, July 6.—General Master Workman Sovereign has left for Chicago to confer with President Debs of the American Railway union. It is believed here that no order for a general strike has been issued as yet.

Freezeout For A. R. U. Men.

KENT, O., July 6.—The Erie railroad shops here were closed for an indefinite period yesterday, and about 300 men were discharged. It is believed that the company made the move to freeze out members of the A. R. U.

Knights of Honor Picnic.

Merry Mount lodge, K. of H., held its annual picnic at the farm of Mr. George Pawsey, Rock Island, on Thursday, the weather being all that could be desired. The committee arranged a most enjoyable programme consisting of egg and spoon races, wheelbarrow race, three-legged race, and 200 yards run. After a closely-contested race of 4 heats amongst the ladies Mrs. C. Nash won the first prize a piece of silver ware.

Miss Pawsey first and Miss Bradbury second in the girl's race, both receiving beautiful presents.

Mr. James Moody, after a very hard struggle won the gent's prize a splendid pipe.

G. Framingham was first in the boy's race.

After the races all hands sat down in a large tent, kindly loaned by Mr. Pawsey, to a clam bake and other refreshments consisting of fruit, ice cream and cake.

Singing, music and dancing occupied the rest of the day. They returned home by the electric cars which Mr. Weeks, the Superintendent, had kindly run to suit the members with their wives and children, all being well satisfied with the arrangements made by the committee.

Designs for Battle Monuments.

The New York State Board of Commissioners of Chattanooga Monuments, consisting of Gen. Daniel Butterfield, Col. Lewis R. Stegman and Clinton Beckwith, have decided to offer $100 in premiums for designs for the three best sketches or designs for monuments suitable to mark the positions of New York regiments on the battlefields of Chattanooga, Lookout Mountain, Manhatsee and Ringgold. Fifty dollars will be given to the first choice, and the second and third will receive $30 and $20 respectively, with such additional compensation as may be agreed upon in case the designs are used. The verdict is to be given by the commissioners, and they have adopted the rules fixed by the Gettysburg Monument Commissioners.

SCOTCH PICNIC.

The Winners of the Prizes in the Athletic Games.

The thirteenth annual picnic and Scottish games of Clan McGregor of this city were held Thursday at Lovell's grove, and as the day was all that could be desired an enjoyable time was had.

The Granite City band was in attendance all day and when not listening to the selections rendered by them, the people were enjoying themselves in the dance hall where William Elrick was in charge, or in witnessing the numerous games and sports that were being held in another part of the grove under the direction of Chief Thomas Johnston, who officiated as ring master and director of ceremonies.

The several games resulted as follows, being confined to Quincy people:

Throwing hammer, $3 and $2.—John D. McLennan, 103 feet 8 inches; Dr. R. McLennan, 102 feet 7 inches.

Putting shot, $3 and $2.—Dr. R. McLennan, 42 feet 4 inches; F. Smith, 38 feet 3 inches.

HOUGHS NECK.

A Serious Accident to Mrs. H. G. Pratt of Quincy.

Mrs. Henry G. Pratt of Edwards street met with a serious accident Thursday at Houghs Neck. Mr. and Mrs. Pratt with daughters and sons had been at the beach over the Fourth and they were about to return home.

In order to accommodate all, an open wagon was used, a settie being placed in back for the ladies.

Mr. Pratt was driving, and the horse which had not been used much was rather lively, and the younger ladies being frightened jumped out leaving Mrs. Pratt, senior alone on the rear settee.

Suddenly the horse jumped and Mrs. Pratt was thrown out of the back of the wagon striking heavily on the ground.

She received a serious cut under the chin and was severely bruised about the body.

Late in the afternoon Mrs. Pratt was removed in the ambulance to her home and while no bones were broken she received a severe shock and will feel the effects of it for some time.

The summer residents of Houghs Neck had but to make known their grievance against the street railway to obtain what was desired. Supt. Weeks has promptly put on half hourly cars in the early morning and evening to accommodate the business men.

The programme for the dedication of the new chapel on Sunday will be:

MILTON.

The Congregational Sunday School will hold its annual picnic some day next week. The Milton band give an open air concert next Friday evening.

The Fourth was rather quiet in Milton. The night before the boys did their best to wipe out some grudge they had against certain persons, but the larger part went to Mattapan, where they had a genuine night before the fourth.

The grocery and provision stores all closed Wednesday, and it is probable that they will do so on all holidays hereafter.

The Sheldon block near the depot is being rushed along, and a few weeks more will see it completed.

The alarm at 3 o'clock this morning was for a fire in the blacksmith shop at the corner of Mechanic street and Granite avenue. The loss was about $1,000.

The alarm from Box 54 on the morning of the Fourth was for a brush fire on the Hemmenway estate.

BRAINTREE.

Rev. Edward Smith, a former pastor of the South Congregational church, conducted the funeral service of Jonathan Thayer on Thursday. He was assisted by Rev. A. H. Ross, the pastor. The pall bearers were: Ansel O. Clark, Nathaniel Hunt, O. G. Emerson and Andrew Dyer. The interment was at the South cemetery.

CHICAGO, July 7.—Six dead and an indefinite number of injured is the record of casualties in the strike conflicts in Chicago yesterday.

The developments of Thursday went far to convince all thinking people that the gravity of the situation had not been appreciated by the authorities or the people at large, for after 12 hours of as patient and persistent coolness and bravery under trying circumstances military officers were forced to admit that it was still a long march to peace and the resumption of unimpeded traffic on any of the railroads running out of Chicago.

The developments of Thursday night and those of yesterday have but confirmed the conviction that nothing short of an overwhelming armed force with instructions to shoot to kill can settle the trouble, or, as Colonel Crofton put it: "It has ceased to be a mere movement of troops and has become a campaign."

The local and state authorities have awakened to the critical and grave nature of the strike malady and are taking measures to apply adequate remedies.
The city police force has already been recruited up to over 3000 men, and by request of Mayor Hopkins and by order of Governor Altgeld two brigades of state militia have been ordered here to aid in quelling the disturbances.

At the nation's capital, also, the fact is recognized that the prevailing conditions are entirely out of the ordinary, and that provision must be made for such a massing of fighting men as has never before been seen together in the history of this nation in time of peace, if the authority and dignity of the federation and the processes of its courts are not to be laughed to scorn for an indefinite time.

The strike infection has become so widespread and so menacing at many points that the president and his advisers believe it would be unwise to withdraw any more regular troops from the country west of Chicago. It is, therefore, in contemplation, should the forces, federal, state and government, already gathered here,
be unequal to the task of restoring order,
to send here the 10 companies stationed on the Canadian border in the state of New York, with the reserved intention,
if circumstances demand it, of exercising the right to call for 20,000 men from the crack militia regiments of New York and Pennsylvania.

An Eventful Day.

The day in Chicago has been one of constant alarms and calling for police, deputy marshals and soldiers, here, there and everywhere, throughout that wide stretch of territory in the southern part of the city. Riot has been running rampant throughout the day; cars have been overturned, switches broken and tracks obstructed in numerous ways, the torch has been applied in numerous instances to cars.

Switchtowers and the like, not to mention an attempt to fire a part of the great Armour packing places—in fact at one time the incendiary blazes followed each other with such quick succession that the fire department was put to straits to care for all of them. To add to the gravity of the situation it was found that the strikers were interfering with the police railroad and fire alarm telegraph system, and in one or two instances policemen who were using telephone calls were stoned.

On two occasions at least three attacks
were met with accurately aimed lead.
During a riot in the forenoon over an incoming milk train at Kensington, a deputy United States marshal shot and killed two strikers, and during the afternoon the deputies guarding an incoming Baltimore and Ohio passenger train replied to the volley of shots and stones which the strikers showered upon them
by turning their revolvers loose, killing four of their assailants and wounding a number of others.

A new feature was added to the situation when a meeting of representatives of all of the bodies of organized labor in the city favored a general sympathy strike, and appointed a committee of three with full power to act, and at the same time called a meeting of all organized labor tomorrow to ratify their action.

Late in the afternoon the Second regiment state militia was ordered to the stock yards.

May Reach the Atlantic.

Of the situation in general the most significant feature of it is the carrying out of the strike east to Cleveland, tying up all the connections of the seaboard trunk lines there, with the promise that by tonight it will reach the trunk lines themselves, and so practically reach the Atlantic seaboard by tying up the railroads at Buffalo. Thus the strike would be extended from ocean to ocean.

There is no notable relief at the points placed under embargo, and the situation at Kansas City is complicated by the tying-up of the Fort Scott road, thereby involving another southwestern line.

The Pacific coast remains in paralysis, from which there are no indications of relief, and a significant note comes from Seattle, Wash., where the stevedores were called out by the chief of the Knights of Labor to prevent the unloading of a steamer from San Francisco, indicating that Sovereign's promise to Dubs to help him in every way possible was no boast.

Flames Rampant.

With flaming torch lawless hordes of firebugs went to work at a score of points in the south half of Chicago.

Fires raged in every direction among the numerous railroad yards, hundreds of cars and tens of thousands of dollars worth of merchandise have already gone up in smoke or been carried off by the now frenzied mobs of rioters.

Incendiarism is rampant, alarm after alarm followed in quick succession all day, and at midnight the glare reflected from the heavens showed that the dastardly pastime continued unabated.
From early morning until midnight reports of fresh outrages and fires followed each other with startling rapidity, being confined, however, principally to railroad rolling stock and the buildings against which thus far the greater part of the mob's fury has been directed.

Early yesterday morning a blaze started

among some overturned cars at Kensington, quickly communicated to other tracks filled with long lines of cars, many containing valuable merchandise, all of which were soon blazing furiously.
Fanned by strong winds, there was at this point a total of 80 cars wiped out. At the stock yards one blaze after another was reported, and from the outlying districts came urgent calls for police protection, increasing in frequency.

A Terrible Night.

But with the falling shades of night came the climax of the fiery festival. The Pan Handle yards, from Fifty-fifth to Sixty-third streets, were a mass of fire.
Ten tracks containing from 1000 to 2000
cars, half of them loaded, will be a total loss. No water being at hand, the fire must burn itself out. The Pan Handle station at Sixty-third street was also fired and destroyed.

The Grand Trunk yards at Elston were a sea of flames, 500 box cars were burned, and efforts to check the flames were futile. The flag shanties and other railroad property were also burned.

While directing the movement of the Eleventh battalion at this point, Marshal Fitzpatrick was seized by the thoroughly frenzied mob of firebugs and thrown into a pond, from which he was rescued by the police, more dead than alive.

Everything at this point will probably be a total loss. At Hyde Park, near the fair grounds, the ashes of 40 cars are now smoldering, and word has just come in that after numerous efforts the mob has succeeded in firing the Illinois Central shop at Durand.

Fury of the Mobs.

Only one residence has been burned
thus far as a direct result of the incendiaries' work, and that in one of the stock yards districts, and business buildings have escaped altogether, but the wanton destruction of railroad property continues.

unchecked and with increasing destructiveness.

The undressed mobs, worked up to the highest pitch of fury, paralleled the scenes of the commune, and it appears as though nothing short of the miraculous can prevent an armed demonstration against them and the sacrifice of many lives.

To illustrate the tactics resorted to by the incendiaries to hamper the work of the fire department, empty cartridges were forced into the keyholes of the fire alarm boxes, firemen were knocked down with stones and bricks, and while working at the fires the horses of the department were stoned.

At midnight all the cars in the yards had been destroyed. The mob showed much method in its incendiarism and hundreds of cars were rifled and their contents carried away before the torch was applied. The loss in the Pan Handle yard is estimated at $1,300,000.

Military on Duty.

The First regiment, 750 strong, went to Hyde Park and Kensington last evening.
The Second regiment, with about the same number of men, followed shortly after, being assigned to the stock yards district, under direction of Police Inspector Hunt. The Third regiment, 698 men, were placed on duty in the district north of Thirty-ninth street. The Seventh regiment, 700 men, is held in reserve, together with Battery D, at the Michigan avenue armory.

Troops are hurrying south; company
after company, in heavy marching order, hurrying to the turbulent district from the center of the city.

The aggregate of the losses to the railroads will be enormous. Miles of their tracks have been ruined by the fierce heat;
hundreds of switch and signal towers,
with their expensive mechanism, utterly ruined; thousands of cars and untold quantities of merchandise have fed the flames and gorged the larders of thieves;
valuable locomotives have been wrecked and disabled; miles of tangled wires and private poles litter the ground.

Telephone, telegraph, electric light and fire alarm wires are now the especial object of attack, the plugging of fire alarm boxes constituting a new and doubtless dangerous element in the tremendous wave of incendiarism now sweeping over the southwest section of the city, preventing, as it does, notice being received of the state of affairs until a fire has attained such headway that it cannot be stopped except through lack of Cold-Blooded Assassination.

S. R. Ritchie, a special policeman, employed by the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago road, was stoned to death by a mob at the Fifty-seventh street crossing of that road.

Ritchie, who was also a deputy sheriff, caught some boys overturning a switch shanty and compelled them to set it upright again. While he was talking to the boys a mob approached and attempted to burn the shanty.

Ritchie drew his revolver and threatened to kill the first man who approached the shanty. The mob surged around him, but he held it off until his revolver was accidentally discharged, the bullet striking him in the foot.

He was easy prey for the mob then, and

MONATQUOT RACE.

The Gypsy Outrigger the Beatrice on Actual Time.

The first race of the Monatquot yacht club for the season was sailed yesterday off Fort Point, North Weymouth, in a puffy southwest wind. All the boats sailed in one class.

Gipsy, H. R. Drinkwater.	22.08	1.41	1.09.41

Water Street Victorians.

One of the best games ever witnessed between local clubs was played yesterday afternoon on the grounds of the Riversides. The Water Streets are a strong team and have played together the whole season, while the Riversides have played but three games as a team, so that their defeat was not surprising. Up to the seventh innings the score was 2 to 0 in favor of the visitors, but in this inning by bunching hits the Riversides scored four runs. The Water Streets scored one each in the last three innings, the winning run being secured on a wild throw. Harkins was the only man to put the ball in the outfield.

The score by innings:

Water Streets,	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Riversides,	0 0 0 0 0 1 1 1 5

Earned runs: Water Streets, 4; Riversides, 5. Errors: Water Streets, 4; Riversides, 5. Three-base hits: Harkins. Batteries: Dunn and Welch; Colligan and Kunderham. Umpires: Messrs. Lennou and Capafert. Time, 2 h.

"Davy Jones" A Success.

"Davy Jones" has sprung into instant favor with the patrons of the Boston Museum and the audiences have been large at every performance. There has been no theatrical attraction this season that has awakened so much interest, and this is not strange, for "Davy Jones" is tuneful, bright and brand new.

The opening night of the operetta saw one of the largest audiences of the season present—an audience made up of musical and society people who are usually first nighters. It seemed like the good old days at the museum when summer opera was the rage and when not to go was to be left solitary and alone.

The piece is admirably staged and the company a good one. It is refreshing to see such familiar faces as Dan Daly, Mamie Gilroy, Maude K. Williams, Eddie Smith, Lon F. Brine and a host of others. The second week of "Davy Jones" begins on Monday, and the usual Wednesday and Saturday matinees will be given." po

The Weymouth papers put the Holbrooks in the fourth place in the Old Colony league with 4 victories and 5 defeats. The figures should be reversed, as above, and the Holbrooks have 55 per cent. instead of 44. By the Weymouth figures 24 games have been won and 26 lost.

NEW DIRECTORY OUT.

A Thick Volume Containing 7,135 Names—A Large Increase.

The new Quincy Directory has just been published, and it presents a most creditable appearance, being fully "up to date," and of marked improvement over all previous numbers. The fact that there were but 2,552 names in the directory of 1893 and that there are 7,135 in the new book shows that the work has been done much more thoroughly. As the work is now published by W. A. Greenough & Co., it is probably more reliable and accurate than some previous efforts of others.

The publishers say: "We have endeavored to elevate the excellence of the book to a metropolitan standard, enlarging its scope in various ways, and have therefore introduced some innovations which we hope will be received with general favor. Chief among them is the style of arrangement of the names—now in general use among directory publishers—whereby the repetition of printing the surname is dispensed with, thus giving greater prominence to the names of advertisers, and also enabling the public to find a name more readily. We shall constantly strive, regardless of trouble or expense, to maintain a high standard of excellence in the publication of the Quincy Directory, commensurate with the importance and prominence of Quincy in the business and manufacturing world."

The New Magazine.

Sarah Orne Jewett's charming article on "The Old Town of Berwick," in the July number of the New England Magazine will be read not so much on account of its historical value, which is very decided, as on account of its loving pictures of the scenes of so many of Miss Jewett's stories. She has been a loyal daughter of the old Maine town, which has furnished her with the setting and atmosphere for so much that she has written. This beautifully illustrated article of hers has the same kind of value that Lowell's old essay on Cambridge had, or the things which Hawthorne wrote on Salem and Concord.

MILTON.

John J. Murphy and John J. Connors were arrested at Milton yesterday by Chief of Police Pierce for breaking and entering the residences of William Sawtell and Frank H. Dudley on Milton Hill. The houses are at present unoccupied, the families being away for the summer.

Yesterday, Murphy, Connors and another man came to Milton with the evident intention of making a systematic raid upon the unoccupied houses of the town and doubtless would have succeeded had not neighbors notified the men entering the houses and notified Chief of Police Pierce, who succeeded in arresting two of the parties and locked them up. Every year a gang of thieves travel about the country giving their attention to houses where the occupants are known to be away. This is their first appearance in Milton this year and the prompt arrest by Chief of Police Pierce it is believed will put a check on future operations.

Street Railway Street Sprinkling.

The street railway company in Toronto has recently installed a street sprinkling car, which is proving satisfactory. The tank holds 2500 gallons, and can be filled in five minutes. The company has about 40 miles of track, and its sprinkler can earn $25 per day.

THE TEXTILE TRADE

Still Falls to Show the Long-Looked-For Improvement.

THE BLOCKADE OF RAILROADS

Has a Serious Effect Upon the Business World.

NEW YORK, July 7.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade today says: The interruption of business by the railroad strike has been such that signs, whether bright or gloomy, have little value.

Speculation in products has turned largely upon temporary uncertainties, but most products have been higher, with a threatened famine here, and the probability that large quantities will be spoiled at Chicago, while improved crop prospects have depressed wheat 1 1/4 cents.

The crop year ends with narrow exports. Though a little larger than of late, the aggregate for the year has been not far from 165,000,000 bushels, flour included, though at the lowest average price ever known. The year's receipts at western ports were about 158,000,000 bushels, against 234,000,000 the previous year.

Cotton promises so well and the stocks in sight here and abroad are so large that speculation for an advance is difficult. With two months of the crop year yet remaining, over 7,350,000 bales have already come in sight, and there is strong promise of a much larger yield this year.

The industrial world. The iron industry had not yet recovered from the coal miners' strike when it was seriously interrupted by the blockade of the railroads at the west. A large and somewhat lasting reduction in the demand for iron is the natural consequence of disturbances affecting railway earnings.

The demands for boots and shoes are slightly better as to cheaper grades, particularly of women's goods, and the shipments from the east are at present about equal to last year's.

Textile manufactures do not show improvement, two important cotton mills manufacturing colored goods having stopped indefinitely, while the unsold stock of printed cloths against Fall River, Mass., and Providence has reached 1,064,000 pieces, and a downward revision in prices of bleached sheetings is expected. Quite a large number of woolen mills have filled all orders in hand and closed for the present, and in most branches orders fall far below expectations.

Interruption of traffic is felt in these industries, but much more uncertainty exists as to how far foreign goods may be delivered at lower prices than domestic when the new duties take effect, and behind these causes of hesitation lies the fact that with many hands out of work and wages reduced for others and prices of farm products exceedingly low, the buying power of the people is greatly restricted. Minor industries are also affected much in the same way, especially where important changes of duty are expected.

Failures during the week have been 181 in the United States, against 331 last year, and 34 in Canada, against 23 last year, with no important disaster as yet since the new half year began.

England and Immigrants.

LONDON, July 7.—The Marquis of Salisbury, in the house of lords, introduced a bill increasing the powers of existing laws respecting immigrants. He said that the refusal of the United States to receive destitute foreigners made the pressure upon British shores all the heavier, and that if it was once known that Great Britain had the same powers as the United States in this matter the stream would lessen.

Ate Dogberries.

PROVIDENCE, July 7.—Two children of Richard Marsh, a girl 9 and boy 5 years old, were sent to Summit to spend the Fourth. While out berrying they picked dogberries and ate them. They were taken sick yesterday their mother was sent for and attempted to bring them to the city, but both died on the train.

Strikers Escorted Knobsticks.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., July 7.—About 100 of the Wamsutta strikers assembled at the mill gates last night, and escorted some of the ex-strikers who are knob-sticking home. There was no disturbance.

Freight Sheds and Cars Burned.

CAIRO, Ill., July 7.—Two freight sheds 350 feet wide and 600 feet long, respectively, and 23 freight cars were burned in the Mobile and Ohio yards in this city. It is believed the fire was incendiary.

Robbers Got Away.

FAIRFIELD, Me., July 7.—At 3 o'clock in the morning the safe in the postoffice was blown open and its contents taken. All the glass in the building was broken. No trace of the burglars.

Railroad Losses by Fire.

A PROCLAMATION FROM CLEVELAND

Establishing Martial Law in the City of Chicago and Vicinity.

DISPATCH TO GENERAL MILES

Gives an Inkling of the President's Intentions.

Serious Rioting at Hammond, Ind., Culminates in a Conflict Between the Mob and Federal Troops in Which Blood is Spilled—A Number of Small Riots, Cases of Incendiarism and Riots, Resulting From Too Free Use of Whisky, Made It Anything But a Pleasant Sunday For Chicago Guardians of the Peace.

WASHINGTON, July 9.—Just before midnight President Cleveland issued the following proclamation:

PROCLAMATION BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

Whereas, by reason of unlawful obstructions, combinations and assemblages of persons, it has become impracticable in the judgment of the president to enforce by the ordinary course of judicial proceedings, the laws of the United States, within the state of Illinois, and especially in the city of Chicago, said state, and

Whereas, for the purpose of enforcing the faithful execution of the laws of the United States and protecting its property and removing obstructions to the United States mails in the state and city aforesaid the president has employed a part of the military forces of the United States.

Now, therefore, I, Grover Cleveland, President of the United States, do hereby admonish all good citizens and all persons who may be or may come within the city and state aforesaid against aiding, countenancing, encouraging or taking part in such unlawful obstructions, combinations and assemblages, and I hereby warn all persons engaged in or in any way connected with such unlawful obstructions, combinations and assemblages to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes on or before 12 o'clock, noon, on the 9th day of July, instant.

Those who disregard this warning and persist in taking part with a riotous mob in forcibly resisting and obstructing the execution of the laws of the United States, or interfering with the functions of the government, or destroying or attempting to destroy the property belonging to the United States or under its protection, cannot be regarded otherwise than as public enemies.

Troops employed against such a riotous mob will act with all the force and vigor consistent with the accomplishment of the desired end, but the necessities that confront them will not with certainty permit discrimination between guilty participation and those who are mingled with them from curiosity and without criminal intent. The only safe course, therefore, for those actually participating, is to abide at their homes, or at least not to be found in the neighborhood of riotous assemblages.

"While there will be no hesitation or vacillation in the decisive treatment of the guilty, this warning is especially intended to protect and save the innocent."

In testimony whereof, I hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this eighth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eighteenth.

(Signed) GROVER CLEVELAND, General Miles' Power.

The proclamation, which practically declares martial law in Chicago, was decided upon after a full discussion in the cabinet meeting. This is the action which General Miles has desired from the beginning, as it will give him more ample authority in the city.

None of the cabinet officials were willing to discuss the proclamation at the conclusion of the conference, but the following dispatch, which was sent from the war department to General Miles at Chicago last evening, serves in measure to interpret the intention of the president's action:

"In view of the provisions of statute and for the purpose of giving ample warning to all innocent and well-disposed persons, the president has deemed it best to issue the following proclamation. This does not change the scope of your authority and duties, nor your relations to local authorities. You will please make this known to Mayor Hopkins."

It is stated at the White House that the communication said to have been sent to the president by Messrs. Debs and Sovereign has not been received by the president, and will not of course be answered, although it has been published in the newspapers, until officially received.

The Situation at Chicago. CHICAGO, July 9.—Comparative quiet prevailed as a rule within the city Sunday, though there were a number of sporadic instances where little knots of boisterous men were finally scattered by the police.

military protection, the monotony, however, being enlivened by occasional police sallies, when the gathering of idlers watching the work became too large and threatening.

At 4 p. m., when the finishing touches had been put on the work, nearly all the onlookers had disappeared, and troops, laborers and police were withdrawn. No sooner had they got well out of sight, however, than a gang of 800 men suddenly appeared, and with crowbars, picks and shovels tore up about an eighth of a mile of tracks before word could be got to the police department. They fled before another charge of the police and the work of repair is again being pushed forward.

A Fight at Hammond. The rioting at Hammond, Ind., culminated yesterday afternoon in a conflict between the mob and company B, Fifth United States Infantry, in which Charles Fleischer, a laborer, was killed; Victor Vaceter fatally wounded and William Campbell shot through both legs. A number of other people were slightly injured, but were carried away by their friends and secreted, and it will be impossible to learn the exact number wounded.

The trouble began Saturday night. The rioters kept their work up all night, burning cars and disabling engines. Yesterday morning they burned a Pullman car. Most of this work was done inside the Illinois state line, and as soon as the Illinois militia arrived on the scene, the mob retired into Indiana and jeered at the troops.

About 9 o'clock a great crowd gathered again about the Monon depot. Several freight cars were overturned, and the Michigan Central tracks blockaded. The marshals and deputies were powerless to restrain the mob, and as there was no hope of the Indiana militia arriving before late in the evening, an appeal was made to the federal authorities in Chicago.

Company B of the Fifteenth Infantry, 85 men, was sent out at once. The troops were stationed about the Monon depot, as that seemed to be the center of the rioters' attack, and their presence quieted things for a while, and the blockade on the tracks was finally raised at 1 o'clock in the afternoon and several passenger trains pulled through.

Mob Went Crazy. This seemed to anger the mob, and with an increase of numbers its passion grew to frenzy. The regulars were greeted with oaths and shouts of derision and volleys of sticks and stones were hurled at them. The men stood their ground, however, and kept them for several hours from approaching the buildings.

By 3 o'clock fully 5000 rioters were assembled. They had been aroused by their leaders to frenzy, that made them encounter with the soldiers certain. Several times they rushed upon the company of troops, but were met by fixed bayonets and driven back. At last, however, the entire body of strikers made a determined rush toward the spot.

"Make ready, fire!" was the command, and 35 Springfield rifles rang out in response. A second volley quickly followed. The first salvo scattered the rioters, and the second stopped them as effectively as if they had run against a stone wall. Several men were seen to fall, but they were taken away by their comrades and the extent of their injuries could not be learned. A man named Fleischer fell in the front rank of the rioters. He was taken to the hospital where he died in a short time.

In the rush that followed, scores of women and children were trampled under foot and half a dozen fainting. The soldiers then took up a position on the track at the Russell street crossing. The news of the killing spread with remarkable rapidity, and 10 minutes afterward the streets in the vicinity were filled with a threatening mob. Major Hart left his company for a few moments to assist the firemen and doctors and was immediately surrounded by a crowd.

Everything at Pullman was quiet. Riotous mobs, consisting of men, women and children, took possession of the freight yards at Halstead, Morgan and Meagher streets in the afternoon. They burned cars and destroyed property in the yards at Halstead, Meagher and Morgan streets, and a policeman can be found. The police had been detailed to the yards of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy and the Wisconsin Central roads early in the day, and nothing lay in the path of the frenzied strikers and their friends.

An Appeal For Protection. Shortly after 3 o'clock John M. Eagan, at the general manager's headquarters, sent the following message to Chief Brennan: "Is there no way that we can secure protection from the mobs in our yards? They are burning cars and destroying other property in the yards at Halstead, Meagher and Morgan streets, and a policeman can be found."

Chief Brennan at once transmitted the message to Inspector Lewis, who detailed a squad of 30 police officers to the scene of the disturbance. The fire department had been called out on three different occasions, each time to extinguish the flames in freight cars. Thirteen cars were burned. The mob gathered about the firemen when they arrived in response to an alarm, and greatly interfered in the work of extinguishing the fires.

The arrival of the police had but little effect. The bluecoats were hooted at and pelted with stones. The crowd numbered nearly 3000, and were made up of the toughest element of the city. Well-known thieves and other desperate men with whom the police of the Maxwell street station have had considerable trouble mingled in the mob and took an active part in the disturbances.

The police finally made a determined charge and drove the mob to the adjoining streets and from the freight yards, clubbing the leaders freely. The police remained on duty all the afternoon and the strikers were kept from doing further violence.

The mobs commenced to collect in the yards of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy and on the Wisconsin tracks at Western Avenue and Sixteenth street. Threats against railroads and denunciation of the police were heard on all sides, and it only required the move of some leader to start another conflict.

WITHOUT A REASON.

Peaceable Bostonian Stabbed and Killed by an Italian.

THE ACTIVE WORK OF POLICE

Results in the Capture of the Alleged Assassin.

BOSTON, July 9.—One of the most cold-blooded murders that blot the fearful annals of crime in the north and of this city was committed yesterday. John McElene, an inoffensive young man, 26 years old, was passing along Haverhill street shortly before midnight, when he was approached by two Italians, one of whom, without a word, plunged a knife in his abdomen, inflicting a fearful wound, from which he afterward died at the hospital. After the commission of the deed, the Italians ran and were lost in the labyrinth of streets in the vicinity. William Grant, the murdered man's associate, recognized one of the Italians as a former fellow-laborer, and accompanied Special Officers Wise and Tryder and Sergeant Rosetta to a suburb of Medford, where two men, Filippo Piniatello and Filippo Beatrice, aged 31 and 33 years, respectively, were picked out from a menacing gang of Italian laborers living in a shanty there and arrested as the guilty parties. Piniatello is positively identified by Grant as the man who did the cutting.

Victim Was Sober. John McElene, who lived at 119 Charlestown street, and William Grant of 509 Rutherford avenue, Charlestown, were in a North End saloon, in which the former's brother worked, shortly before 11 o'clock on Saturday night. When the crowd left it all the members of it, so Thomas McElene says, were sober.

John M. Elene and Grant were companions of similar tastes, Grant being a bricklayer and the other an assistant in the same trade. At the corner of Haverhill and Travers streets—so Grant's story goes, and McElene's before he died was the same—two Italians came in sight.

Without a word or a menacing look—though even a motion to the pocket on either side, one of the Italians, who was one of the largest of his race, rushed upon McElene. Grant saw a blade flash quickly in its descent; McElene felt it strike him. Then, before either of them could collect his senses, the Italians were away.

Whether or not any provocation was given for the assault may yet be established, although it can have little bearing on the case in court.

It is thought probable that McElene was mistaken by the Italian for somebody else. This somebody else might seem to be Grant, in the light of his previous acquaintance with the Italians and of a possible friction at the Medford works. But Grant is a large man, standing over six feet, and heavy, while McElene was of medium height, considering which the mistaking of the latter for Grant is scarcely reasonable.

So far as the police know there was absolutely no provocation for the deed beyond pure enmity to shed blood. The police of the district say that since the failures of juries in several recent Italian murder cases in the district, that sanguinary class is becoming more dangerous than ever, and that the carnival of blood will continue so long as the murderous denizens of the Italian colony escape the police on technical points, presented to indifferent jurors by astute lawyers.

OLD COLONY LEAGUE.

The North Abingtons Drop Out and the Quincy's Didn't Play.

The Institutes and Randolphs won the only two games played in the Old Colony league on Saturday, defeating the Holbrooks and Braintrees.

The Quincy's did not play because the North Abingtons have dissolved. The games of the latter club are included in the summary below:

	Played.	Won.	Lost.	Per Cent.
Institutes,	9	8	1	88
Quincys,	7	4	3	57
Holbrooks,	10	5	5	50
North Abingtons,	8	4	4	50
Braintrees,	10	3	7	30
Randolphs,	10	3	7	30

Randolphs, 22; Braintrees, 12.

The Randolphs are playing great ball now and have struck a winning goal, winning three games played last week. Saturday they scored 22 to 12 of the Braintrees, and both clubs are now tied, both in per cent. and in games won and lost.

North Abington's Dissolve.

The game in the Old Colony League to have been played Saturday between the Quincy's and North Abingtons did not come off. It had been advertised that the game was to be played on the home grounds but in reality it was to have been played at North Abington. Shortly before the time for the home team to leave for North Abington, word was received that the club had disbanded and no game would be played. Had word been received half an hour later, the Quincy's would have been on the cars and would have had their trip for nothing.

Next Saturday the Quincy's play with the Braintrees at Braintree.

Institutes, 11; Holbrooks, 8.

It was a close contest Saturday, between the Institutes and Holbrooks, the former winning by a score of 11 to 8.

TODAY'S COURT.

Patrick H. Riley of Quincy was fined $5 for going in bathing at Merrymount park without any clothing, in violation of the City Ordinances.

John R. Burns of Weymouth, was arraigned for assault on Officer Fitzgerald with an axe, and was held in $600 for the grand jury.

Wessagusset Sale.

The announcement that Martland's Brockton band would be present at the opening sale of the Wessagusset Land Associates at North Weymouth was sufficient to draw quite a crowd of ladies and gentlemen Saturday. Many too were prospective buyers of lots in this beautiful piece of property.

The sale opened by the serving of a clam bake in a large tent by Caterer Nash, after which the band gave a concert during the afternoon on the high land overlooking the sea.

The lots were not sold at auction as is the case in most land sales but by private sale. This gave those that were present an opportunity to inspect the lots, which were shown by several obliging salesmen while listening to the concert. A number of lots were sold.

The Union Regatta.

The Massachusetts, Savin Hill and Dorchester yacht club had a fresh south-wester Saturday for their union regatta, and it was exciting racing for the 40 to 50 boats entered. The prizes were won as follows:

First,—Harbinger and Beatrice.
Second,—Amorita, Harold and Gipsy.
Knockabouts,—Nike and Hulio.
Third,—Raccoon and Alpine.
Fourth,—Hazelwood and Arab.
Fifth,—Duck and Primrose.
Sixth,—Katydid, Laurel and Princess.

Of course it keeps our competitors guessing how we sell a beautifully decorated imported dinner set for $5.50. But that's our price, beatless too. Others at any price. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

AN ANARCHIST BOMB.

Exploded at Wollaston but It Failed to Accomplish Its Mission.

To cap the climax of the series of outrages perpetrated at Wollaston on the morning of the 4th, it was discovered on Saturday by Mr. George A. Loring, the manager of the Hewitson estate, that an attempt had been made to wreck the Taylor building by exploding a bomb on the roof of the new addition. The bomb made of gas pipe, an anarchist model,—10 inches long and 1 1/2 inches in diameter and capped at each end by regular gas pipe caps screwed on. A quarter inch hole was drilled in one end for the insertion of the fuse. It is evident that the person who made it is something of a machinist and is acquainted with the use of taps, dies and drills.

This bomb was filled with highly explosive powder or dynamite, the fuse lighted and was then thrown on to the low, tarred roof of the building where it exploded with tremendous force, tearing a large hole in the roof. The bomb was laid open as though it was made of paper. Both ends of it were blown out and the iron pipe was tipped open and flattened out. It is supposed that it was exploded sometime between 12 and 1 o'clock, but it did not attract particular attention as at that time there were a number of large American crackers being exploded.

It is probable that Mr. Loring will offer a reward for the apprehension of the parties, similar to that offered by Mr. Baker of Sing Sing, for the conviction of the agents who wrecked the laundry at about the same time.

It would seem from the number of dastardly outrages perpetrated in this beautiful village on this 4th that there should be offered by the city a liberal reward for evidence that will lead to the conviction of the vandals. Unless this is done a regiment of policemen will not be able to preserve the peace on the next 4th of July. To allow such a gang to go at large unpunished is a menace to public safety.

BATTALION DRILL.

One Company Failed to Appear and Rain Somewhat Interfered.

Quite a large number of ladies and gentlemen gathered at Merry Mount park Saturday afternoon, to witness the drill of the 24th battalion of the 5th Regiment.

It was nearly 4.30 before the troops arrived, and then only companies A, K and H. Co. D of Plymouth, which forms a part of the battalion, did not put in an appearance.

The companies that did arrive did not have anything like a full complement of men.

The battalion, which was under command of Maj. Oakes, marched into the field and commenced work immediately. They had hardly commenced, however, when the dark clouds that had been gathering burst and it commenced to rain. This had a telling effect on the spectators who scattered right and left, leaving the field to the soldier boys.

The rain, however, did not effect the boys in blue, who were for nearly two hours kept steadily at work on the extended order and drill.

It is said some Wollaston people thought the companies were en route to Chicago, and some of the boys wish they were.

Moonlight Excursions.

A series of moonlight excursions on the new steamer, City of Quincy, will begin this evening, July 9th.

The Quincy and Boston band, until recently the Boston Cadet band, will furnish music on the boat.

Judging from the remarks of approval of those who made a similar excursion on the steamer last week, these excursions will prove decidedly popular. The steamer is neat, commodious and fast and the music furnished is first class. The scenery from Quincy Point to Nantasket is of the finest in the harbor, and ample time is allowed before the return trip to see all the sights and enjoy the pleasures of that pleasant resort, Nantasket beach. On its return the boat connects with electric to all parts of the city and with trains both ways on the N. Y. N. H. & H. R. R. For time table see last page.

NEW ENGLAND KNIGHTS

Elected Officers and Considered the Great Railroad Strike.

PROVIDENCE, July 9.—The New England alliance of the Knights of Labor met here yesterday. Owing to the expulsion of P. H. Quinn, who was president of the body, the meeting was called to order by third Vice President McCaffrey.

C. A. French, secretary of the alliance, and who is also a member of the general executive board that expelled Messrs. Fowler, Quinn and Wright, did not put in an appearance, nor did he send the minutes of the last meeting. This caused indignation among the delegates and it was openly stated that his absence was part of a preconcerted plan by the general officers to prevent the meeting.

The business was proceeded with, however, a temporary secretary being appointed. A resolution was adopted condemning the action of the general executive board in expelling P. H. Quinn.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Edward McCaffrey of Rhode Island; vice presidents, John J. Galvin, Boston; William Taylor, Rutland, Vt. E. J. Lynch, Meriden, Conn.; Mary McCarthy, Providence, R. I.; E. W. Boynton, Portland, Me.; secretary, Miss Annie Lucitt, Olinville, R. I.

A committee of citizens will make a protest against the order.

A SIX-HOUR MEETING

Nothing Accomplished at the Conference of Democrats.

THE NAVAL APPROPRIATION BILL

Passed After Being Patched
Up With Amendments.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—The first day of the conference of the Democratic conferrees of the two houses was without practical results or visible progress, so far as can be learned. The conference continued for six hours and was uninterrupted, even for meals, but when an adjournment was taken after 6 o'clock no item in the bill had been finally passed upon and agreed to. The day was devoted to a general discussion of the main features of the bill and the principal points
of difference between the two houses.
The conference met again at 10 o'clock
today for an all-day session.

Some of the members desired a night session last night, but Mr. Wilson's physical condition was hardly equal to it.

Naval Appropriation Bill Passed.

Reference was made in the opening prayer in the senate to the lawlessness now prevalent in the country and the necessity for the ascendancy of law and order.

Several bills of minor importance were passed, and a resolution offered by Mr.
Puffer looking to the government control of railroads and coal mines, and the adoption of the single tax doctrine went over until today. The naval appropriation bill was passed with several amendments after a lively debate over the clause in the bill relating to the appointment of naval cadets at large, which Mr.
Allen said would produce a naval aristocracy, but nothing came of it.

Mr. Blanchard made a personal explanation of his action on the final vote on the passage of the tariff bill. He had read a newspaper article, in which it was asserted that there had been a conspiracy between Senators Caffery of Louisiana and Ivey of South Carolina and himself to defeat the tariff bill. He denied that he had any agreement with Senator Ivey
as to how he should vote or with any one else, except his colleague, Senator Caffery.

In the House.
Yesterday was District of Columbia day in the house, and after the passage, by unanimous consent, of a bill for the relief of certain persons whose property was included in an erroneous survey of Jefferson barracks, Mo., a bill to provide an immediate revision and equalization of real estate values in the district was taken up for consideration. Most of the afternoon was spent on this bill, which was finally passed. The remainder of the day was devoted to a street railroad bill, which was not disposed of, when the house adjourned.

Failed to Go Through.
Wednesday, July 10.—An order introduced in the lower branch of the city council, expressing the sentiment of the Worcester city council in favor of arbitration as the method of settling the labor troubles in the west, was rejected.
President Brown of the common council said getting guns were needed more than arbitration.

PULLMAN MUST DECIDE TODAY

Whether He Will Settle Differences With Labor.

Should He Refuse to Do So All Classes of Labor in Chicago Will Be Called Out—Some Doubt, However, as to Whether the Order Would Be Generally Obeyed—Vice President Wickes Emphatically Declares That the Pullman Company Has Nothing to Arbitrate—Merchants and Bankers Endorse the President's Action in Ordering Federal Troops to Chicago—Perceptible Losses by Strikers at the Leading Railroad Centers.

CHICAGO, July 10.—The tread of armed men is still heard in Chicago's streets and the wheels of commerce still lag at the bidding of the American Railway union.
Nevertheless the warcloud which has hung over this city and this land for the past 10 days shows distinct signs of lifting.

Instead of stories of additional railroad tie-ups at various points throughout the country, dispatches almost without exception bring advice of strikers returning to work and an increased resumption of traffic, amounting in some places to a return to normal conditions.

The day in Chicago passed without a serious conflict between the rioters and the armed forces now on duty here. The feature of the day was the action early in the morning, after an all-night session of the federated trades union of Chicago,
in deciding to call out all classes of labor
this afternoon at 4 o'clock unless George M. Pullman should have agreed before the meridian of today to settle the differences between his company and his striking employes by arbitration or otherwise.

For reasons not known to the public,
Grand Master Workman Sovereign of the Knights of Labor and his advisers subsequently decided to postpone the general walkout and paralytic strike which they proposed to inflict upon the business of Chicago until 7 o'clock tomorrow morning. Late in the afternoon, however, the announcement was made that President Gompers of the American Federation has called a meeting of the executive committee of that organization to be held in this city on Thursday, and he would leave New York for Chicago this evening.

In view of this, it is not believed that the federated trades of Chicago will take precipitate action before consultation with him. As President Gompers cannot reach Chicago before tomorrow night
it will be impossible to decide on a line of action to be pursued before Thursday,
and probably if it should finally be resolved to declare a general strike of all these combined forces, it could not be put into effect before Friday morning.

Will Strike Orders Be Obeyed?

Another feature to be noted in connection with the meeting of Chicago's federated labor is the fact which was developed that there was late in the meeting
a large and influential conservative element whose action had practically blocked the plans of the more hot-headed leaders, until the latter, in the excitement consequent upon the reading of President Cleveland's proclamation, made a stampede and carried the strike resolution.

Therefore there is reason to believe that even if the order for a general strike finally goes forth, many of those to whom it is directed will decline to obey, so that the walkout will not be nearly so important as anticipated by the leaders.

What effect, if any, the action of Vice President Wickes of the Pullman company, yesterday, in refusing in the most emphatic manner to even meet a committee to consider the question of arbitration, will have upon the final decision of the labor leaders and their followers remains to be seen.

A joint committee of the city council and of the federated trades unions called on Mr. Wickes and asked him to consent to the appointment of a committee of five citizens, whose functions would not be those of arbitrators, but to determine whether or not the Pullman company has anything to arbitrate. The committee as proposed was to consist of two citizens chosen by the Pullman company, two by the circuit judges and one by these four.

No Arbitration.

Mr. Wickes stated at the outset that arbitration was impossible, but listened while Alderman McGillen, chairman of the committee, talked of the gravity of the situation, and urged that the company take steps looking to an amicable settlement of the strike. At the close of the interview Mr. Wickes retired with his attorney, and returning after a brief consultation, declared that the company could not receive the proposed committee.
Alderman McGillen again urged that the company receive the committee, and intimated that a corporation which derived such benefit from the government as the Pullman company should be willing to make some concessions for the welfare of the city and the country. "We have nothing to arbitrate," Wickes replied. "We cannot receive the committee."

Last night's action of RD & CO.

In respect to President Cleveland's order bringing federal troops to Chicago was foretold by a large number of endorsements of his action sent him by prominent business men of the city. The list of signatures included those of almost every conspicuous merchant and banker of Chicago.

A Distinct Improvement.

Of the situation in general it may be said that in Chicago the railroads were all doing better than on any previous day since the strike began. Passenger trains were moving with more or less regularity and some freight traffic had been cared for. A large number of striking freight handlers of the Illinois Central returned to work, and other roads noted accessions
to the operative forces.

At St. Louis, Kansas City and Denver it was reported that railroad business had about returned to normal conditions.
At Nashville is also reported an improvement. About the only points at which the strike managers showed any gain was in the walkout of firemen at Fort Scott, Kan., the freight men on the Kanawha and Michigan at Charleston,
W. Va., and the strikers of the American Railway union men on the Big Four at Mattoon, Ills. It will thus be seen that at the leading railroad centers the strikers have made perceptible losses while their gains are at comparatively unimportant points.

Regulations which prevailed in the government building were an approach to martial law. The deputy marshals were stationed on every street in the field, will be able to make a further betterment in the conditions in this city and the mobilization of troops and marines at San Francisco and of regulars at other points on the Pacific coast will suffice for all probably to start traffic on the transcontinental lines.

General Miles' Instructions.

The following order was issued yesterday afternoon by General Miles:
To All United States Troops Serving in the Department of the Missouri:
The acts of violence committed during the past few days in the stopping of mail trains and post roads, the blocking of interstate commerce, the violation of the injunctions of the United States courts, the assault upon the federal forces in the lawful discharge of their duties, the destruction, pillage and looting of the commerce property belonging to the citizens of the different states and other acts of rebellion and lawlessness have been of such a serious character that the duties of the military authorities are more clearly defined.

The proclamation of the president, the commander-in-chief of the land and naval forces
and the state militia when called into service, is understood by the military to be in the interest of humanity and to avoid the useless waste of life if possible. It is an executive order for all law-abiding citizens to separate themselves from the lawbreakers and those in actual hostility to the action of the United States court and the laws of the nation and government.

He has defined the attitude of those law-breakers to be that of enemies of the government, and hence is the duty of the military forces to aid the United States marshals to disperse, capture or destroy all bodies of men obstructing the mail routes, and in actual hostility to the injunction of the United States court and the laws of the United States.

This does not change the relation of the federal officials with those of the local authorities, as it is expected that the state and municipal governments will maintain peace and good order within the territory of their jurisdiction. Should they fail or be overpowered, the military forces will assist them, but not to the extent of leaving an unprotected property belonging to or under the protection of the United States.

Riot and Death.

DANVILLE, Ills., July 10.—Mrs. Michael Gleason and Miss Clara James were killed and one unknown man mortally wounded at Westville yesterday afternoon by a volley fired over the heads of a crowd of rioting miners by a company of militia. The miners had been rioting in this vicinity since Sunday afternoon.
Yesterday forenoon a number of cars were derailed at Grape Creek on the Shelbyville branch. When the wreckage had been cleared, the inbound passenger train proceeded without molestation until Westville was reached. When it stopped there it was surrounded by a crowd of miners and held.

Word was telegraphed to Danville and a special train with a company of the state troops started at once for the scene of trouble. About one mile from Westville, a large crowd of miners had collected, and upon the approach of the train bearing the militia began warlike demonstrations, firing several pistol shots
at the soldiers, who returned fire, shooting over the heads of the mob from the train, intending to scare them.

The militia then left the train and charged the crowd, securing three prisoners. After this the crowd dispersed, and, no further resistance being offered,
the troops returned to their train, which had been compelled in front of the passenger train, and the trip to Danville was made without further delay.

No Backward Step.
WASHINGTON, July 10.—The administration will not cease its efforts until the constitutional right of every man to secure employment free from intimidation is thoroughly established. If that should be the outcome of the present struggle, it will be well worth the price paid for it, dear as it has been." This statement by a high official sets out concisely the position of the government today. It means a guarantee, not only to protect the operation of the mails and to keep open interstate communication, but to protect the rights of the individual guaranteed
by the constitution of the United States.

Another Proclamation.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—The president has issued a proclamation substantially like the one issued Sunday night, but referring to troubles in North Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Washington, Wyoming, Colorado and California. The proclamation names 8 p. m., July 10, as the time before which all mobs must disperse and law-abiding citizens return to their abodes.

Editorial Comment.

THE PROPOSED changes in Fountain Square, closing the driveway, met an easy death in the City Council Monday evening. The report of the Committee on Streets was leave to withdraw, and without a word pro or con the report was accepted and the petition dismissed. The matter should not drop here however. While the proposed changes were not deemed desirable, it was clearly shown that improvements are demanded and can easily be made. Will the Commissioner of Public Works show us now how good a job he can do at this point and charge the same to miscellaneous highway expenses? Willen out Washington street by removing the whole or part of the green so that carriages may travel west of the Market street railway. Construct an asphalt platform of good size south of the fountain and put in some stone crossings.

It is the intention of the street railway to equip all its routes at an early date with a system of block signals, that cars at turnouts may know whether the way is clear to proceed. This seems necessary on a single track railway doing the business of the Quincy company, and making so many extra trips.

THE REPORT of the weather and crops by the New England weather service is a weekly feature of the LEDGER. Look for it on Tuesdays.

THE LEDGER's telegraphic reports from Chicago are complete and concise. You get all the news accurate and up to date.

AN ADVENTURE.

Edwards Hill People Have An Exciting Time With A Burglar.

Last Saturday night a family, who live not a thousand miles from Edwards Hill, went away to spend the night and Sunday. As usual in such cases the nearby neighbors knew of the fact, but as they had a perfect right to do as they did, nothing was thought of it. When the alarm from box 441 came, one of the neighbors got up and looked out of the window and was more than surprised to see a light in her neighbors' house, knowing that they were away. As she watched, the light appeared to vanish for a moment only to appear in another room. Becoming alarmed she aroused her son who also saw the light and the shadow of somebody moving about.

This convinced them that burglars were about and no time was lost in getting out another neighbor and his son, who armed themselves.

The four then began to go about the yard to see where the parties got in and finding a basement window open became thoroughly convinced that was the place where the man entered. Reinforcements were needed and another gentleman was routed out of bed and this party were soon joined by a young man who had been doing a little Saturday night courting in the vicinity.

A lantern was procured and marching onto the piazza one held the lantern while the young man before mentioned shading his hands over his eyes looked into the parlor. Having visions of a sofa made for two in his mind it is not to be wondered at that he announced with bated breath that he saw a man crouching behind the sofa.

That settled it and a messenger was dispatched post haste up town for an officer. Upon his appearance keys of all sorts were brought forth and an entrance finally being gained the house was searched from top to bottom, but not a sign of a burglar could be found, yet from the street the light still appeared.

Just then the clock in the steeple struck twelve and almost immediately the are light on the corner of Edwards and Union streets went out and with it the light in the house disappeared.

The armed forces in the street looked at each other for a moment, and then like the Arabs they folded their tents and quietly stole away.

A CONSPIRACY.

The Outrages at Wollaston on the Fourth the Work of Men.

The police have unearthed one of the most heinous conspiracies which has ever been recorded in the criminal annals of this city, almost equalling in ferocity the outrages perpetrated by the Molly Maguires of the Pennsylvania coal regions.

The LEDGER has briefly outlined the attempts to wreck the Taylor building and Sing Hi's laundry at Wollaston on the morning of the 4th. Like all antics which take place on that eventful morning it was laid to the boys, for "boys will be boys, you know," and lightly passed over.

Developments which have taken place the past 24 hours go to show that it was not the work of boys but of a small gang of men—some of them married and having children—who wilfully planned days and possibly weeks before the 4th to destroy the Taylor building and Sing Hi's laundry by bombs.

The morning of the 4th was selected by the conspirators, as under the cover of the usual racket and din and the scurrying laundry and thither of different crowds of boys cutting up the usual 4th of July pranks, their actions would not be especially noticed. And then again they supposed that nobody would ever suspect them or their real motives, which were jealousy and revenge. That they did not wholly wreck the roof of the Taylor building and the laundry was because they misjudged the power of the explosives used.

The police are in possession of the names of the ringleaders and if sufficient evidence is obtained they will be arrested. The penalty for this crime is state prison, the maximum sentence being twenty years.

Indicted.

CHICAGO, July 11.—Slowly, but steadily, calmly and certain, as befits the supreme power of a great nation, throughout all that wide stretch of its domain where evil-disposed persons are taking advantage of an exceptional industrial condition to cause riot and bloodshed, the federal government is moving to the accomplishment of that for which its powers were delegated to it for the preservation of order and the safety of life and property.

At Chicago, in conjunction with the state and the municipality, it has already brought peace out of the condition of war which prevailed last week. At San Francisco, Sacramento, Los Angeles and various points in Colorado and Washington, where the union men are causing havoc, it has slipped the dogs of war in token of its intention to have peace, even if it has to fight for it.

In this city, the military arm having accomplished its purpose, the judicial arm yesterday took up the orderly course of its duties, which include the fixing upon the guilty parties the measure of their crime and the fitting of the punishments thereof.

The step in this procedure was the assembling of the federal grand jury and the delivery of the charge to it by Judge Grosscup. The intention of the national authority, not to be turned aside from an exhaustive inquiry into the cases, was evident at the outset by the brusqueness
with which it swept aside the plea of privacy and privilege which the Western Union Telegraph company, with a disregard for the privacy of the messages of its clients,
were forced to put in when the jury

called for the messages from President Debs to the members of his order which had been transmitted over its lines.

No Delay.
The court held that public safety was paramount to private rights, and so ordered that the dispatches be produced.
That it is the intention of the government not to be too long about the work in hand has been shown from the fact that the footstep of the telegraph official who brought the dispatches had scarcely ceased to echo along the corridor leading to the grand jury room when that body filed into Judge Grosscup's court and announced that it had found a true bill of indictment.

Pending the arrest of the persons put under the ban of the law, his name remained locked in the breast of the lord high executioner, and the public was assured to draw its own conclusions from all the premises and such preliminary data as it had at hand. That President Debs was the man, none doubted, and subsequent developments justified the surmise.

Touching the outlook for the future,
outside of Chicago, it may be said that yesterday's dispatches were almost uniform in tenor to the effect that normal conditions had already been restored, or that they were rapidly approaching that state, and there seems no reason to suppose that the progress toward a complete resumption of trade and traffic will meet with any serious check as the coming days shall succeed each other.

In other words, it does not seem possible, with all the forces of law and order as now arrayed, with their leader put to his own defense at the bar of justice, with their ranks beginning to be depleted by desertions and with the strain which they have already endured that the American Railway union can rally with forces for a struggle which must needs be long and discouraging.

Apparently, therefore, their only hope of final triumph lies in the aid which they hope to get from union labor outside of their organization.

The written orders for all classes of labor in Chicago to go on strike, once has been promulgated. How generally these orders will be obeyed is problematical.

To a good extent their effect has been prevented by the stagnation of business, and it is known that some of the longest-headed labor leaders themselves believe that action has been postponed too long to be fully effective. At sunset today this nation will probably know whether the situation is one of crisis or collapse.

Leaders Indicted.

The federal grand jury, after receiving the instructions of United States Judge Grosscup, returned indictments against Eugene V. Debs, president of the American Railway union; George W.
Howard, vice president; Sylvester Kelher, secretary, and L. W. Rogers, one of its directors, and shortly thereafter the four men were arrested.

They are charged with conspiracy to commit an unlawful act, that is, to block
the progress of the United States mails.
Joined in the indictment with the four leaders of the K. I. W. union was James M. McInerney, a Chicago striker, who threw the switch which derailed a mail train at Blue Island on the night of June 30.

Debs, Howard, Kelher and Rogers were taken into the office of District Attorney Miller immediately after their arrest, and after a few hours' detention were released on bail by Judge Grosscup, their bonds being $10,000 each.

The federal grand jury spent but a short time on the case of Debs and the other leaders of the strike. The case against them for conspiracy had been prepared some days ago by Attorneys Mil-christ and Walker, and the grand jurors had not been at work two hours when the indictment was received and presented in court.

It was based on some of the public utterances of Debs and the other leaders, and this was clinched by the original orders in writing sent out by Debs directing men on the different railways to quit their work and thus stop the running of mail trains.

A number of telegrams sent by Debs
from his headquarters, giving directions which blocked the blockade of trains, were submitted to the grand jury by E. M.
Mulford, manager of the Western Union Telegraph company, under a subpoena issued by the United States court, Judge Grosscup overruling the telegraph company's protest that the messages were privileged documents and exempt from seizure.

The indictment against Debs, Kelher, Howard, Rogers and McInerney (not Martin) is founded on sections 5308, 5309 and 5386
of the federal statutes. While waiting for bail to be arranged, Debs, in an interview, said:

Debs Talks.

"We have been placed under arrest to answer to an indictment found against us by the federal grand jury, in which we are accused of conspiracy to commit and of committing offenses against the United States by obstructing and interrupting the mails of the country. Our bail has been fixed at $10,000, and we do not know
when the case will come to trial.

"Since I have been brought here I have been informed that officers of the court have gone to our headquarters in the Ashland and taken my personal correspondence and some of the records of the American Railway union. I do not know by what right this act has been committed. It seems to me to be an infamous outrage. Not only did they take my personal effects and papers, but carried with them my unopened mail. I have never heard of that before in this country, and I do not wish to speak further about it until I am informed by what right the act was committed.

"The seizure was made by an officer of the court and a postoffice official. I am not running a lottery, and I cannot understand under what law the postoffice authorities are a party to the seizure of my private effects. And you call this a private effect? It seems to me not to be compatible with the Stars and Stripes. It is no longer a question of right in this country, but a question of force, and absolute force at that.

"As to the arrest, I have nothing to say.
We have not committed any offense or crime. We are responsible for our acts and will answer at the proper time and abide the consequences. The arrest will not deter us from our work. We will go on just exactly as we have done. If we

WASHINGTON, July 11.—The Republican members of the conference committee are dissatisfied with the methods adopted by the Democratic conferees in excluding them from participation in the first conference and giving them no intimation whatever of the time and place of meeting.

It is claimed by the Republicans that this is contrary to the usual practice.
They do not complain because the Democrats propose to arrange the differences between the two houses without regard to the Republicans, but insist that they should have been invited to the first meeting to take part in the organization of the conference.

Whether the Republicans should remain after the organization is matter which they claim should have been left to them to decide. It is alleged that upon all previous occasions of conference on a tariff bill all the conferees were notified and invited to be present. They protest, therefore, against being completely ignored.

At the first meeting of the conference committee that dealt with the disagreeing votes on the act of 1883, and subsequently on that of 1890, it is unquestionably true that on both those occasions the Republican members of the conference committee alone considered and arranged
the differences, and the minority members were not invited and did not participate in the work of reconciliation until that work was fully completed by the majority members, when the former were notified and the completed bill was then laid before the full conference committee for final action.

Republicans Will Have Their Say.

One of the Republican senatorial conferrees remarked yesterday that the Democrats would gain nothing by such a course. He said that if the bill was radically changed the Republicans will insist on debating each item, no matter if such course should hold the conferees together for a month. There is no previous question in committee, he says, and that it would not be possible to cut off debate.

Should the Democratic majority resort to drastic measures the fight will be transferred to the floor of the senate. In other words, the Republicans propose to have their say in whatever changes are made, and if they do not get this in committee they will have it in the open session of the senatorial body.

It was suggested by some of their associates that the matter which has been brought before the house, but it was thought best not to precipitate any discussion on the question at this time. It is evident from the feeling which is now manifested among the Republican senators and their friends in both houses that there is going to be some plain and interesting talk indulged in before the tariff bill is finally disposed of.

Satisfactory Agreement Predicted.

The conferees, having disposed of a large number of unimportant amendments to the senate bill, began upon the more important changes yesterday. They have practically agreed to accept the senate amendment striking out the administrative feature of the house bill, accepting Secretary Carlisle's suggestion that it might be better to begin the administration of the new law under an act that had already been construed by the court.

The period of time that will be occupied by the conferees cannot be stated with any degree of accuracy. That will be determined by circumstances which cannot be foreseen. The conference on the McKinley bill covered 10 days. The present conference is not likely to be of shorter duration and will probably extend over a longer period.

It is observed that there is less bitterness of feeling now on the house side toward the amendments of the senate than there was last week, and a greater degree of confidence is manifested that a satisfactory agreement will finally be reached.

The Day in the House.

The house passed a bill opening the Unimpahgre and Uintah Indian reservations in Utah, allotting lands in severally to the Indians and restoring about 8,000,000 acres to the public domain.

Most of the day was devoted to debate
on a bill extending the act of 1890 declaring land granted to railroads not then constructed forfeited to the government,
so as to forfeit the lands of railroads whose roads were not completed within the time specified in the land grants. It excludes from the operation of the act, however, lands acquired in good faith by purchase from railroads, confirming such titles. The bill involved about 54,000,000 acres. It was disposed of.

The title of Mr. Euloe to his seat as representative from the Eliza, Tennessee district, which was contested by B. E.
Thrasher, was confirmed without opposition, the committee on elections being unanimous in the opinion that Mr.
Thrasher had no ground for contest.

Pfeffer's Say.

In the senate Mr. Pfeffer strongly denounced Pullman and his methods, and said it was time that this militarism should cease. He was answered by Senator Davis, who said the Populist was trying to rend the government. The house bill admitting the territory of Utah as a state was called up, and, as amended by the senate, was passed. The vote was taken viva voce—Mr. Cockrell (Dem.
Mo.) alone voting in the negative.

Ladies' Night Excursion.
The third of the series of moonlight excursions will take place tonight. As this is ladies' night on the boat, a special feature to awaken more interest in the already well patronized boat has been added.

After making the regular stop at Nantasket the steamer, with those who desire to see the outside of the harbor, will return towards Hull, and after passing through Hull Gut, will make a short run outside, passing Fort Warren, Boston Light and the numerous other points of interest at the entrance of our famous Boston harbor. Music will be furnished through the entire trip by the Quincy and Boston band, and the boat will return to Nantasket in time to make its regular return trip from there at 9:15 P. M.

QUINCY YACHT RACE.

The Championship Settled in the First Class.

IT IS WON BY THE BEATRICE.

Legs Yesterday Also for the Opeechee, In It and Smoke.

Fifteen boats were entered in the third championship race of the Quincy Yacht club sailed Tuesday afternoon in a good easterly breeze.

The Beatrice easily took the lead at the start in the first class, and continued to increase it at each mark. The Gypsy also had it much her own way for second place, while the other three struggled to keep out of last place. The Moondyne, however, dropped to the rear.

The Opeechee and Maggie were having a hot contest in the second class when the Maggie carried away her throat halyards. The Opeechee, however, had led from the start and it was on the second round when the accident occurred.

The third class kept in about the same relative position from first to last, the In It leading the way.

The Smoke and Niobe had an exciting race and finish in the cruiser class, the former crossing the line less than a minute ahead.

KNIGHTS REMAIN AT WORK.

But Few Obeyed Sovereign's Order,
Even in Chicago.

GRAND MASTER'S PREDICTION

Is That a Million Men Will Quit Work Saturday

But Present Indications Are That No
Wholesale Stoppage of Business Will Occur—The Outlook Generally Improved Except on the Pacific Coast, Where Fatal Rioting Occurred—American Railway Union Charges the General Managers' Association With Interrupting Interstate Commerce.

CHICAGO, July 12.—The ultimate effect of the appeal issued by Grand Master Workman Sovereign of the Knights of Labor, calling on all knights throughout the country and those in sympathy with them to quit work and the order issued at about the same time by the representatives of allied labor in Chicago to do likewise, cannot yet be certainly foreseen.

All that is now definitely known is that the Knights of Labor at all points heard from, including nearly all of the large centers of population in the United States, remained at work, with practical unanimity, and that in this city the attitude of members of the allied trades who remained at work so far outnumbered
those who quit as to make no appreciable change in the industrial appearance of the city.

The leaders, however, say that there is nothing in the situation to cause them discouragement, and that the public, through lack of knowledge of the machinery of industrial organization, has been led to expect results which were not in contemplation when the strike orders were issued.

Sovereign's Explanation.
Mr. Sovereign, for instance, points out that his appeal was not an order to strike; that in fact he has no power to order a walkout, but that persons acquainted with the working of the organization would know that in fact it would be the same as an order.

He was perfectly confident, he said, that by Saturday next, after the various local and district assemblies had time to meet and take formal action on the appeal and rally their friends outside of the order,
the result would show 1,000,000 of men idle as a consequence. The local strike leaders also claim that by Saturday the proposed strike of business would be fully as effective as they had predicted.

Surface indications so far, however, do not bear out the claims of either Sovereign or the Chicago men. It is not recorded yet that any district assembly Knight of Labor has voted to strike. Locally, several of the organizations, members of the federated trades, have given it to be understood that they do not intend to go out.

Furthermore it is known that there was a large conservative element in the representative trades meeting which passed the resolution having a strike in view, and it is understood that they have been earnestly at work ever since to mitigate the results of that action.

Continued Improvement.
In the meantime, continued improvement in the railroad situation here and elsewhere, except at Sacramento and Oakland, is noted. The general public, as well as organized labor, is looking forward with marked interest to the meeting of the executive board of the American Federation of Labor, perhaps the most powerful organization of the kind in the country, and its action is expected to have a marked effect on the outcome of the present industrial struggle.

A new feature was injected into the situation yesterday when it was announced by some of the labor leaders that that they were ready to go before the federal grand jury with proof that the general managers of the railroads had conspired to delay mail trains as a part of their fight against the American Railway union, and would ask that this body indict them.

Workmen Charge Conspiracy.
It is reported that when the federal grand jury concludes its investigation of the American Railway union it will begin an inquiry into the policy and methods of the General Managers' association.

Among the leaders of the workmen
the charge has been made openly and repeatedly that the obstruction of Interstate commerce was due quite as much to the general managers as to the railway union.

It has been stated that the general managers agreed among themselves that no trains should be run on any of the roads until all had gained their points in dispute with the men. This was done, it is charged, to hold back such companies as showed an inclination to treat with its employees and bring about a resumption of traffic on its own lines. It is asserted by the men that they can prove that telegrams were sent out from the General Managers' association ordering certain railroad lines to send out no trains till a designated scheme had been accomplished.

All this, the men insist, is as clear a case of conspiracy on the part of the general managers as the acts of Debs and his associates rendered them indictable for conspiracy.

Debs Gets His Letters.

Judge Grosscup sent for Debs and District Attorney Mitchell yesterday.
He said to the latter: "I understood that among books and papers taken from this defendant there were private letters, some of which were opened. I want to know the truth about this matter."

"It is true," said the district attorney,
"that the books and papers in Debs' office were seized by the government officers, and some of them are private papers, but since they came into the possession of the government the papers have been locked up in the vault of my office and have not been interfered with by any one."

"Mr. Debs," said the court, "stands accused in this court of a grave crime,
but he has all the rights of a private citizen. His private affairs are not to be inquired into, and if you have in your possession any private papers or letters or other documents of that character, it is your duty to return them, and without making any copies of them. If there is any question as to the character of any of the papers, whether they are private or not, the district attorney will bring them
before the court."

Mr. Mitchell said the officers who made the seizure had taken papers which they should not have seized. The papers had not been copied and had not been seen by any one since they were brought to his office. The sealed letters had not been opened. Debs said he was satisfied with the statement of the district attorney.
"I desire to thank the court," he said,
"for the kindness and consideration and the protection given me."

He then accompanied Mr. Mitchell to the latter's office, and the letters which were seized were given to him. All the books of the railway union and the records, filling several large baskets,
were kept for the use of the grand jury.

and while the two were struggling Downing drew his pistol and shot O'Connor

vestigation:

Train Sent Off a Trestle.

SACRAMENTO, July 12.—The first train that left here guarded by troops was ditched on a trestle eight miles from here
at Washington. Privates Burns, Lub-berden and Clarke, and Engineer Clark were killed. Private Duggan's arm has been amputated. Private Ellis was internally injured. Private Wilson was injured about the head.

Two soldiers had been stationed on the engine; one was mangled to death and the other jumped, landing in a pool of water, and was seen to sink, being weighed down by his cartridge belt.

News of the wrecking of the train has stirred up considerable bitterness among the regulars, and some of them are eager to wreak summary vengeance on the strikers.

Marshall Baldwin has just arrested two suspects in a brush near the wreck and is taking them to Sacramento.

Colossal "Nerve."

DIED ON THE TRAIN.

Sudden Death of a Wollaston Lady on Her Way Home.

Mrs. William S. King of Wollaston died suddenly of heart disease while on her way home from Boston on the 7.55 train on Wednesday evening. She died upon peculiarly sad circumstances.

Mrs. King had been to Harvard street, Dorchester, with her husband and grandchild, visiting friends during the day. She started for home by the way of Boston, apparently in good health. Mr. King had some business to attend to which called him in another direction, but he with the little grandchild was to meet the 7.55 train at Harrison Square where he was to join Mrs. King.

Mrs. King on arriving in Boston probably over exerted herself in walking from the N. Y. and N. E. depot to the Old Colony depot. On boarding the train she complained to a gentleman, who sat near by, of feeling a pain in the region of her heart. She grew worse so rapidly that a telegram was sent to Dr. Homer Clark at Wollaston to meet the train upon its arrival at that station. Everything was done that was possible by friends and the railroad officials to make her comfortable but by the time the train had reached Harrison Square she was rapidly sinking. Mr. King was prostrated by the shock when the news was broken to him when he boarded the train at that place. Mrs. King expired just after the train left the station. The body was tenderly laid upon a stretcher and taken from the train at Wollaston.

A husband and one daughter, Mrs. L. Woodbury Pinkham of Wollaston, survive her.

Mrs. King's sad death will be mourned by a large circle of loving friends. She was 63 years of age.

HOUGH'S NECK

The Season Now at Full Blast—Most of the Cottages Occupied.

Things are certainly looking much brighter at Houghs Neck and the remainder of the season promises to be as lively as in previous years. With the closing of the schools people began to arrive and now nearly every cottage is occupied by summer residents or has been let and will be occupied in a few days.

The proprietors of the several peanut and catch-penny stands, however, say they are doing no business and this is doubtless due to the fact that there are not so many transient people coming here this year, and that those who are permanent residents have something else to do than invest their money in the thousand-and-one knick-knacks that are offered for sale.

GRATIFYING GROWTH

In the Ranks of the United Society of Christian Endeavor.

ITS THIRTEENTH CONVENTION

Shows an Actual Enrollment of 2,023,800.

CLEVELAND, July 12.—At Saengerfest hall this morning the Christian Endeavor convention held a largely attended praise and prayer service.

The appointment of committees then took place, and the committee of '94, Rev. J. Z. Tyler, chairman, extended a cordial welcome to the delegates. Governor McKinley was then introduced, and he welcomed the visitors in the name of the state of Ohio. Rev. E. R. Dille, D.D., of San Francisco responded in behalf of the board of trustees of the United Society of Christian Endeavor and the delegates present. The annual report of General Secretary Baer was then read, and the annual presentation of state banners followed. A business men's prayer meeting, conducted by C. N. Hunt of Minneapolis, was held at noon.

It is an ever-lengthening procession that marches by each succeeding milestone. Last year at Montreal our numbers had been increased in a year by 3276 local companies. In the last year, there would it bring forth? The largest number of recruits since the march of Christian Endeavor was begun, 13 years ago. Look along our lines today, and appreciate the fact that there are now 7395 more companies of Christian Endeavor than there were one year ago. Our ranks have increased the past year more than they increased in the entire first eight years of the army's history.

England made the largest absolute gain in number of local companies of any of the many brigades in the last year. There are now 1433 regularly enrolled companies. These figures include the 58 companies in Scotland and 28 in Ireland, representing a mighty brigade of 75,000 "pledged" soldiers.

Australia has 834 enrolled companies from several colonial battalions.

India, of the regiments from foreign lands, comes next, with 72 well-organized and fully equipped companies of Christian Endeavor. Japan's 59 companies are enjoying their second national field day. Then comes 44 companies from the West Indies. Turkey keeps step with 38 companies. And here, fast crowding upon them, are our 23 companies from China.

The next battalion of warriors are from among the natives in the diamond and gold fields of South Africa and from other points on that continent. They have 45 companies. Then come 30 companies from Madagascar, other companies from the islands of the sea, and from every missionary camp, and from France, Spain, Mexico, Brazil, Chili and other countries in every continent, making in all, from foreign and missionary lands, the grand total of 2740 companies in the several regiments and brigades of our first division.

The Second Division.

The second division—the Canadian—At our last field day, which was held within their borders, marshalled 1882 companies. This year their ranks are increased, and they have on their roster 2348 companies, with an individual membership of 134,580. Ontario still leads, with 1281 companies; Nova Scotia comes next, with 391; Quebec has evidently felt some of the benefits of our camp up in their midst last year at Montreal, for they report a gain of 80 companies, and now have a total of 215; Manitoba has 127; New Brunswick, 115; Prince Edward Island, 46; British Columbia, 31; Assinibola, 16; Alberta, 13; Newfoundland, 5, and Saskatchewan, 2.

Ranks of the Third.

The third division is a solid phalanx, with regiments from Hell Gate to the Golden Gate, from Hudson Bay on the north to the Gulf of Mexico on the south. New York state for 12 years has marched in the van, and for the first time will give the "right of line" to Pennsylvania and her 3458 enrolled companies. New York is next, with 3329. Ohio takes the third place this year, with 2274; Illinois is fourth, with 2290; and Indiana, fifth, with 1534 societies.

In all, there are now 38,690 companies in the United States. This figure includes six senior societies (an advance guard), nine mothers' societies (a splendid movement, first started in Kansas), 30 intermediate companies, and it includes the companies in our schools, in our colleges, in public institutions of various kinds, in prisons and schools of reform, to the number of 114.

It includes that regiment of 200 companies known as the North American Union of Christian Endeavor, and the six companies among the "boys in blue" in the regular army of the United States; the company among the policemen and patrolmen; the companies among the Indians of the west and in Canada; our comrades enlisted in work among the life-saving crews, lighthouses and lightships, and the Travellers' Union of Christian Endeavor, an enterprising company. It includes a regiment of 6471 junior companies.

The Juniors.

In March, 1884, the first junior company of Christian Endeavor was organized in Tabor, Ia., by Rev. J. W. Cowan. And today there are hundreds of city battalions of junior companies, some of which are large in numbers. Three years ago 855 companies had been made.

Illinois has from the start marched first, and Montreal had 433 companies enrolled. This year Pennsylvania has passed Illinois, and now is the banner junior state, having 717 companies. Illinois is next, with 678; and New York a close third, with 673; Ohio next, with 415; and California fifth, with 320. With the 91 junior companies enrolled from foreign lands, and the 247 junior companies in Canada, there is now a brigade of 6809 junior companies in the world, with an enlistment of 365,000.

We come from every clime, from every land, our skins vary in color; 460 are red, 18,790 are yellow, 97,020 are black, and 1,907,620 are white, making in all an interracial and international army of over 2,000,000. The actual enrollment, including active and associate members in this 18th year of our history, is 2,023,800, and yet there is one common rallying name for us all, and above that the name above every name.

RELIGIOUS WORKERS

Listen to an Address on the Glorification of God.

STRIKE FOR GOOD CITIZENSHIP

Is the Earnest Plea of President Clark.

CLEVELAND, July 13.—Ten thousand Christian Endeavorers crowded Sengerfest hall, the largest auditorium of the city, yesterday. Rev. C. P. Thwing presided at the evening session. An address was delivered by Rev. M. D. Babcock of Baltimore, who chose for his subject "Glorifying God."

Children ask questions for it is their nature to, and God is back of their nature. The everlasting "why" is as philosophical as the everlasting "yes" and "no." There is a purpose in everything; nothing is for nothing. A man may not ask a question, but he interrogates a new piece of machinery with his eyes, and catches it with his mind, which amounts to the same thing. It is only a fair thing for us to do, to keep on asking questions, finding out what this is for and that, until we reach ourselves.

"What am I for?" is as sensible and solemn a question as any one can ask. How can I glorify God? I cannot beautify that which is already supremely beautiful; I cannot paint the lily nor adorn the rose; how can I glorify God? I cannot. If you mean add glory to God, make him more glorious than he is.

Nature Shows God's Wisdom.

The glory of God then is the revealed character of God. There can be no higher end of living than to make this known, since the self-revelation of God is his highest glory and the greatest good of all created beings. Creation is for the glory of God, for it partly reveals him. All nature shows his greatness, his wisdom.

Can God still be seen? Yes, in us and through us is God yet and now to be known. Here is the aim and life for us all. There can be no classes or distinctions, for, whether I am rich or poor, learned or ignorant, I can reveal God; sick or well, at home or abroad, I can be a divine message to men from God.

Danger In Conceit.

But if a man succeeds in his work, how shall he be kept from pride? The danger with most men is their conceit. If a man fails, that may humble him, but how can the successful man be kept from the foolishness of Nebuchadnezzar, as he paced his walls and said: "Is not this great Babylon that I have built?" Let him live for God's glory. Then he welcomes success, blesses God for usefulness and accomplishment, acknowledges that he is but a tool in the master's hands, a servant in his master's house.

But what if failure has come, if a great hope is lost and home and ride are in the dust? Am I living for the glory of God? For his glory I can fall. Did not men count Christ a failure? But was it not in the hour of his crucifixion that the century glorified God, saying, "Truly this man is the son of God." The light that seems so dim in the daytime, shines with a fine radiance in the dark. The ship that weathers the storm is strong proof of her builders' skill, whose praise untrodden seas had left unused.

What Have We Lived For?

And when at last we face the inevitable, when death brings us to things as they are, then the question comes with a power never before realized. What have I been living for? It is but another opportunity—another phase of life in which to reveal God. And death past, the last earthly test endured, I begin to live beyond as I have tried to live here—still for the glory of God.

Living for self—how limited, how little, how unworthy my life! Living for God—living to make him glorious, how surely must infinity be the scope of my being, and eternity its endless sweep!

President Clark's Address.

President Clark, in his annual address, says: As an organization becomes popular and vigorous it sometimes forgets the principles that gave it strength and vigor. Let that never be said of the Society of Christian Endeavor. What are our principles? If I know anything about them, they are the ideas involved in the pledge, the consecration meeting and the commitment.

Again, Christian Endeavorers, strike once more for good citizenship. Right nobly have you rallied around this standard during the past year. From east and west and north and south, have come the good news—"Christian Endeavor stands for the election of good men, for the enactment of good laws, for sturdy and steady opposition to the saloon, the gambling hell, the lottery, the violation of the Sabbath."

I congratulate you that none of you have beenajoined into making our organization the tail of any political kite. To be a Christian Endeavorer does not mean that one is necessarily a Republican, or a Democrat, or a Populist, or a Third Party man, a Blue or a Grit, a Tory or a Liberal. It does mean that he is necessarily a good citizen, and that he will exert every ounce of his influence, to whichever side he belongs (if the young men will excuse the generic pronoun), for the right.

While Tammany flourishes in New York, and open gambling in Chicago, and licensed prostitution in New Orleans, and the Louisiana lottery has moved only across the street to Honduras, the outlook is dark, but not hopeless.

This last year has seen "Boss" McKane sent to Sing Sing, and Brooklyn twice burned. It has seen Croker fly to Europe. It has heard Woolley speak in Chicago and in-

Sanapoli and Murphy in Boston, and has witnessed a score of other good-citizenship campaigns. It has seen thousands of Endeavorers go to the primaries who never went before. It has seen a splendid verdict pronounced against the saloon in Canada, a verdict that Endeavorers have made emphatic in 100 towns.

Thank God for the year's work! But you have only struck once, Endeavorers. Strike again and again and again, until, if Christ should come to Chicago or New York or Toronto or San Francisco, he would find clean streets, and clean city halls, and clean men in them, with never a brothel or a dive to pollute the air that he should breathe.

San Francisco will get the convention next year, and the one two years hence will be held in Washington.

IS GOWER ALIVE?

Husband of Lillian Nordica Said to Have Recently Been Seen.

BOSTON, July 13.—A private letter received in this city from London conveys the information that Fred Gower, the husband of Mme. Lillian Nordica, who, it was supposed, was lost with a balloon 10 years ago, is in that city. No particulars are given.

Mrs. W. F. Baldwin of Dorchester, a sister of Mme. Nordica, was seen in regard to the dispatch, and said that she had heard nothing of the matter. Mme. Nordica at the present time is in Bay-reuth, singing at the Wagner festival, and Mrs. Baldwin heard from her about a week ago. At that time Nordica knew nothing of this report that is now in circulation, for no mention of it was made of it in her letter to her sister.

Says a dispatch from Bangor: Fred E. Miller, clerk in Frauley's pharmacy in this city, says he frequently saw Frederick Gower in 1886 in Lewiston. Miller was clerk in a drugstore then, over which Dr. Garcelon's office was located. Gower came often to see young Garcelon, and sometimes passed a week in that vicinity. Frequently he would appear in the condition of a man who had spent his last cent and had pawned his dress suit, and suddenly again he would drive down from Farmington or come in from Boston dressed like a nabob and with plenty of money.

Miller firmly believes in the supposition that Gower was the inventor of the telephone which made Bell famous. He was a genius and a mechanic of the finest order. He turned off many small inventions, among them a rapid-firing gun, which did not prove successful, and a steering gear for steamboats which was fairly successful. He was a strange fellow, Miller says, and just the sort of man he would expect to go up in a balloon and disappear for a term of years and return.

The following interview was obtained with Dr. Burford in Bangor, Me.: "I have known Gower since he was a boy in Sedgwick, Me. After his balloon ascension I, with every one else, thought him dead, until the year 1887, when I met him face to face in San Francisco. At first he attempted to break me by without recognition, but on my persistence finally acknowledged his identity. There is no possible doubt of his being actually in the flesh."

Strikers' Places Filled.

LOUISVILLE, July 13.—Division Superintendent Pike of the Louisville and Nashville railroad has issued an order requiring all members of the American Railway union in the employ of the road to withdraw from the order. Application for reinstatement by strikers has been refused, and the men were informed that their places had been filled.

The number of slaves exported from Africa during the eighteenth century is calculated at six million. In 1748, nearly one hundred thousand were shipped from the west coast alone.

Great Aquatic Show.

Prof. Oldreive, who appeared at Nantasket a few years ago, and who has since given exhibitions throughout the country with great success, has been engaged at considerable expense to give his show here; at Quincy Point on Saturday at 3.30 p. m., and at Houghs Neck on Monday at 8 p. m. He is known as "the human water spider" and has flattering testimonials from the newspapers. He also gives a realistic naval engagement, and there will be a good display of marine fireworks. It will take a long "train of electricity" to take the people to Quincy Point on Saturday.

Well we have a strike here in Quincy, and every day hundreds of workmen are striking for the furniture establishment of C. W. Guy and W. G. LARGE TRANSFER.

Catholics to Have a Cemetery on Sea Street.

THEY OBTAIN SEVENTY ACRES.

The Tract of Land Known as Quincy Woods at Houghs Neck.

It is reported today that the Catholics of the Quincy parish have made a large purchase of land on the Houghs Neck road for a cemetery. The tract is said to comprise about 70 acres, and the purchase price to have been in the vicinity of $50,000.

As one rides to Houghs Neck he will notice on the right, just beyond Breakneck hill, a fence running from Sea street to a creek. This is the westerly boundary, and the land includes all between the street and water as far as Palmer street, and on both sides of Palmer, well into Germantown.

The LEDGER was unable to see Mr. Whitman, the agent for Mr. John Quincy Adams, this morning. Neither were we able to find Rev. F. A. Friguglietti or any of his assistants, all being away this morning, but the information is given on good authority.

It is said the purchasers did not desire to purchase so large a tract, particularly the woods and low land, but Mr. Adams would sell the whole or none, and the whole was taken.

It is a well known fact that the Catholic cemeteries of the city are crowded and more land was necessary. The new tract will make a beautiful cemetery, and although the price seems high, it is considered a bargain by those who know, and will doubtless prove a good investment.

At a town meeting some two years ago the members of the fire department were accused of observing the sun by day and the moon by night, through the bottom of a tumbler or through the ruddy glow of strong drink. But, now, alas! for the frailties of human nature, how the star of virtue has descended, even as the star of ancient Rome, in a mire. For they mixed the punch so strong, that it made them all go wrong, and they had to tell it to M. F. D.

WEYMOUTH.

Last June Dick Crawford brought his twelve-months-old child, suffering from infantile diarrhoea, to me. It had been weaned at four months old and had always been sickly. I gave it the usual treatment in such cases but without benefit. The child kept growing thinner until it weighed but little more than when born, or perhaps ten pounds. I then started the father to giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Before one bottle of the 25 cent size had been used a marked improvement was seen and its continued use cured the child. Its weakness and puny constitution disappeared and its father and myself believe the child's life was saved by this Remedy. J. T. Marlow, M. D., Tamaroa, Ill.

A COMMON NUISANCE.

He Is In Evidence Everywhere, and He Is Known as the Croaker.

May the saints have pity on a town or city with a croaker in it! If it has two, three or half a dozen croakers living in it, it is to be commiserated that much more. The croaker comes in two forms—dead and alive. The croaker has moss on the north side of him, no matter whether the winter be mild or severe. The moss indicates nothing especially, except that he should be removed from the community at once. The croaker always views his own town from a pessimistic point of view. He has no word of praise for any one nor anything that tends to assist in the progress of the community. You tell a croaker that much is going to be done toward bettering the town and exploiting its superior advantages, and he will say: "Well, you go ahead—advertise it, boom it, I'd like to see you do it," with a shrug of the shoulders. "You'll never boom this town."

The croaker is generally too lazy to labor under an impression. He may have made some money in his life, but he does not live—he simply exists. If he is in business and is asked to advertise, he says his goods do not need advertising, and besides he is located on a prominent corner, and everybody sees his goods as they pass. Yes, "as they pass," for they rarely go in. The croaker never gives his neighbor or fellow man credit for anything he accomplishes.

If you go to a local merchant and show him a plan or suggest to him an enterprise which if carried out will be of great benefit to all concerned and ask his co-operation, and he says: "Well, who is in this? Go and see the other business men, and if they go into it I may do so, too," look out for him. He may not be a croaker, but he has dangerous symptoms. He is vaccinated, and the probabilities are that it will take unless something is done for him. He needs a hypodermic injection of "enterprise" to cure him of the "follow your leader" habit. He is the first to expect benefits that accrue from the united efforts, energy and enterprise of others, but is the last to lend a hand. The croaker is a pusillanimous, insignificant, inconsistent encumbrance.

THE SCHOOL BANK.

It Inculcates Habits of Saving and Teaches the Value of Money.

In no other way can the habits of thrift and economy be so well instilled in the youthful mind as by means of the banking system as it is practiced in many of the most progressive public schools. Ordinarily deposits of from a cent up are received by the teacher upon the morning of a certain day each week, and pupils may draw money upon that day by giving previous notice. Every child is furnished with a bankbook, in which are printed regulations. Checks, receipts and deposit slips are also given by the board of education, and every scholar above the infant grade is required to fill out all blanks necessary in the transaction of business. This is done not only for the practical ideas it gives the pupil, but as a protection to the system. The money received each week is placed in a local national bank, which, for the honor of being the custodian of the children's funds, is always ready to pay legal interest and allow it to be computed semiannually.

Thus each succeeding six months the bankbooks are written up and the earnings added. Exuberant expectation is shown in the proceeding from the tot with a dollar to her credit to the youthful Croesus who has ten. Girls as well as boys vie with each other as to their holdings, and ample appreciation is evinced of the earning power of money as the interest rapidly compounds itself to the respectable proportions of the principal.

But an hour of the school week is given to the business of the banking department, and when are taken into consideration the benefits derived to the child in after life by thus early inculcating the principles of saving and of the value of the currency of the land it must be allowed that no other hour is likely to be more profitable in results. A child taught that of its earnings or gratuities at least one-half must be saved will never want for the necessities of life and perchance may be able to indulge in some of its luxuries.

Support the Local Newspaper.

The immense power a local newspaper possesses in attracting trade to the town in which it is published or diverting it into other channels can hardly be estimated. Further, it is a matter that is seldom considered as an important factor in a town's prosperity, for the simple reason that business men generally do not give it a thought. He who will impartially consider this assertion will be convinced of the truth of it. The local paper is very naturally biased in favor of the place of its publication, and if given a fair living patronage by home business men will guard well their interests, just as the merchant guards the interests of his individual customer.

But if a niggardly support is doled out to it, and it is compelled to solicit custom from neighboring cities, it cannot in justice to those patrons exert itself in behalf of its own town as it otherwise would. Try a system of liberality in the matter of advertising expenditure and mark the result.

Getting Rid of Smoke.

Discussing the smoke nuisance in its sanitary aspect, The Medical News says: "We can indeed foresee that no distant day such energy as is to be obtained by coal will be produced at the mines and transmitted to centers of population in the form of electricity, to be again converted into light, heat and power. The sanitary gain that will thus result will certainly not be inconsiderable. The avoidance of smoke, ashes, deleterious gases, bulky fuels and care of furnaces must certainly tend to increase the duration of life and to make it more enjoyable."

HISTORIC BOSTON.

What a Quincy Boy Saw in a Few Hours One Morning.

AN OPEN LETTER TO SUPT. LULL

Are All Ledger Readers as Well Acquainted with Boston?

The following letter was written by a pupil of John Hancock Grammar school to the Superintendent of Schools. The production shows that the boy had his eyes open on the visit, and that previously he had been a diligent student. He is probably better acquainted with historic Boston than many LEDGER readers. It is a matter of surprise often, how few have climbed to the top of Bunker Hill monument and the dome of the State House, or are at all acquainted with historic spots of "the Hub."

QUINCY, MASS., June 14, 1894.

Dear Mr. Lull:

I had been thinking for a long time of visiting the places of interest in Boston.
At last an opportunity came.

Mr. Atkins, principal of the John Hancock school, asked us, one day, if we would like to visit the historical places in Boston. We all raised our hands, and the date was fixed as the 28th of May.

Monday seemed as far away as a year because I was waiting for it. At last Monday morning dawned clear and bright.
I arose, dressed myself, and was impatient for the hour to start. Finally I got under way and, as I neared the station, I saw many of my classmates there and the rest coming.

The ten minutes of eight train came and we boarded it and were soon on the way to our destination. We sped along and landed safely in the Kneeland street station at about half past eight.

We started up South street and came to the spot on Summer street where Daniel Webster once lived. We spent a little time in examining the Webster building which now stands there.

We next passed to Milk street where Benjamin Franklin was born. Then we moved on and came to the place where the men fell in the Boston Massacre. There is a circular spot in the pavement in memory of those who fell.

We then went to Faneuil hall, but could not get inside as we were too early. I saw some looking through the keyhole, so took a peep myself. I could see only a few pictures.

Our route was next through Quincy Market. One man asked a group of us if we were going to buy him out. I said that I had left my money at home.

After leaving this place we passed through a number of streets and came to the birthplace of Paul Revere. The house in which he was born is still standing in North square.

The Old North church that we hear so much about in history, was the next place to visit. The first rector is buried under the altar. The church bells were being repaired so could not go up into the tower.
There is a bust of Washington near the window through which Robert Newman jumped, after hanging the lanterns on that fatal night of April eighteenth, 1775.

King George III gave an alms plate and other valuable things to this church.

We next visited Copp's Hill cemetery.
I looked across the street and saw the house where General Gage had his headquarters. It was here that the Boston boys came to complain of the soldiers for breaking their ice on Boston Common. I looked about for the oldest grave and the oldest one I found was that of an early settler, 1649. The superintendent of the ground showed us the grave of Deacon
Moses Grant, the organizer of the Boston Tea Party.

I looked out upon the water and saw the Dolphin, the Wabash and the Monitor.
We also saw the Bunker Hill Monument in the distance.

We next went to the State House and took the elevator for the top floor. Then we began our ascent to the dome. Once or twice I thought I had reached the top, but it was only a turn in the stairs. We were all laughing because it was such hot work for some of us. At last I reached the top. I looked out and what a beautiful landscape met my eyes! I tried to see my native city, but failed to find it among the hills and valleys.

We came down and went into the House of Representatives. The House was just getting in order. There was a man, as I thought, excited about something on the Charles river.

Time was scarce, so we went back to the Senate chamber. There was a kind man here and he motioned for me to come up and sit in the President's chair. I did so and found it a soft place to sit upon. I then looked around and saw a sword, gun and drum, captured from a Hessian soldier at Bennington. This same man showed us the flags carried in the Civil War. There was one in particular that I noticed. It was so torn and dark. I asked him about it and he said, "Did you ever hear of Sergeant Plunkett?" I said that I had,
but was thinking of Sergeant Jasper.

Plunkett belonged to the 21st Massachusetts Volunteers and was a color bearer.
At the battle of Fredericksburg he lost both arms and stained the flag with his blood. That accounts for the dark red spots which I had noticed. After the war he was given a position in the State House
and died a little while ago.

There is not much more to be told for we were anxious to attend school in the afternoon. We left the place that we had enjoyed so much and came back to Quincy
on the twelve o'clock train.
I felt tired, but was fully satisfied with my trip.
Yours respectfully,
EUGENE DALEY.

THE SITUATION IS EASIER.

Much Depends Upon the Decisions of the Federation of Labor.

MANY IMPORTANT SUGGESTIONS

Are Now Being Considered by That Body.

President Cleveland Will Appoint an Arbitration Committee to Consider the Great Strike—Trouble at the Chicago
Stock Yards Now a Thing of the Past.

Henry George Would Have Railroad Property Destroyed Rather Than Preserved by Force of Arms—Situation on the Pacific Coast Is Less Alarming.

CHICAGO, July 13.—The strike situation throughout the country is, in general, one of quietness. The central point of interest has been the meeting of labor leaders, with President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor at their head, in this city.

It is admitted that the action of that body, if taken unanimously, will have a marked effect on the situation, and persons well informed as to the predictions of persons composing it, express the opinion that unanimous action by it, except in the direction of quieting the present agitation, or turning it into other channels, is unlikely. It is known that several suggestions are being considered by these leaders. Among these are the following:

First, that the striking Pullman employees, on patriotic grounds, appeal to President Debs to declare the strike off, because of the infinite damage which is being done to the business of the country.

Second, that the leaders unite in appeal to the public to quit patronizing Pullman sleeping, drawing room and dining cars.

Third, that President Cleveland be requested to appoint a commission to investigate the strike and the causes which led up to it, in the expectation that the report of such commission would justify the action taken by the strikers and free them from the charges of rioting and disorder.

Fourth, that immediate efforts be made to secure the impeachment of Attorney General Olney.

Fifth, that an effort be made to secure the passage of a compulsory arbitration law by congress.

Sixth, that complaints be lodged looking to the indictment of the railway managers for conspiracy to obstruct the movement of the United States mails by refusing to run mail cars except in connection with Pullman cars.

The conference lasted until 12:30 this morning, and was marked by several heated arguments, the hotheads being in favor of a strike at once, while the more conservative counsel moderation. No decision was reached, however, before the meeting adjourned.

An Invitation to Cleveland.

The following telegram was sent to President Cleveland by the American Federation of Labor conference:

The gravity of the industrial situation of the country demands extraordinary and exceptional action of a conciliatory character
at the hands of all men. Recognizing this fact,
the executive council of the American Federation of Labor and the undersigned executive officers of national and international trades unions and brotherhoods of railway organizations of America are in conference in this city.

We ask you in the name of the working people and the entire citizenship of the country to lend your influence and give us aid, so that the present industrial crisis may be brought to an end, and the peace and commerce of the people of this country and the institutions under which we live. We therefore ask you to come to Chicago and meet this conference, or if the state of public business does not warrant such a course, that you will deputize
some one as your representative.

Deputies Were Rattled.

United States Deputy Marshal Peter
Fische and an 18-year-old boy, Arthur Gregory, were fatally wounded last night in a fusillade between deputies in Kensington. Some unknown person had placed on the Illinois Central tracks several torpedes, which were exploded by an outgoing train. When the explosions occurred two parties of deputy marshals rushed out from cars, in which they were sleeping, on opposite sides of the tracks.

They seemed rattled by the unexpected incident, and began discharging their revolvers recklessly and with the result named above. The boy Gregory was one of a number of residents of the vicinity who rushed out at the sound of the shooting. Several other people had narrow escapes. Five of the deputies were arrested by the police.

Deputies Killed in an Accident.

Two deputy United States marshals met their deaths and two others were more or less seriously injured in a collision between freight trains on the Wisconsin Central tracks, near Jackson street crossing. Two locomotives and several cars were wrecked in the accident, and a three-story brick warehouse was partly destroyed.

The Baltimore and Ohio and Wisconsin Central jointly use this track, and by some misunderstanding of orders both trains were moving toward each other on the same track. They met on a curve, and the impact as the two engines came together was tremendous. Both engines were buried under the mass of shattered cars they were hauling, and the hapless deputies, who were riding on top of the cars next the engines, were caught and crushed beneath the debris.

All Quiet.

The strike at the Union stock yards is now seemingly a thing of the past, and within a few days all business connected with tie yards will be running as if no strike had ever taken place. The strikers and the sympathizers are now eager to go back to work. With the exception of one or two minor scuffles no disorder has been reported.

Numerous Minor Riots.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 13.—Since the horrible work at the trestle west of San Francisco the strike situation in California has been less alarming. In Oakland there was rioting of a more or less serious nature yesterday. The trouble began at daybreak, when a mob of several hundred strikers rushed into the yards at the Mole. They killed all the locomotives that had been fired up, in order to further blockade the tracks, derailed one locomotive and a long line of coaches.

Later in the day another crowd of strikers ran to the yards and wrecked a train
by shoving a heavy freight car into a pit.
Damage was also done at the roundhouse. The railroad company deputy sheriffs and deputy United States marshals offered very little resistance.

The riotous troubles on the Mole came to an end last evening, however, when a force of 35 United States marines from Marine Island were landed there. Their equipment includes five Gatling guns and several Hotchkiss cannons.

At Sacramento the conditions of martial law prevail. No trains are running there, however, and Captain Fillmore states that no more regular trains would be run before Saturday, by which time
he hopes to have repaired the trestle.

Spurred on by the heavy rewards offered for the apprehension of the men responsible for the disaster at the trestle, the peace officers at Sacramento are unusually active. The railroad company has offered a reward of $5000. Attorney General Olney has offered $2000, and Governor Markham has offered a reward of $500.

The trains are running regularly out of San Francisco on the coast division.
In southern California the blockade is broken, though very few trains are run
there without a military guard.

A Remarkable Demonstration.

New York, July 13.—The labor demonstration held last night in Cooper Union, to express sympathy with the strikers in Chicago and the west, was a vehement
one in the manner it expressed its convictions. Daniel Harris presided, and introduced Henry George, who was the star
speaker of the evening.

Vehemently he denounced the use of federal troops to put down the strikers.
Governor Altgeld and Governor Stone were right in the stand they took, and the action of the president in sending out the troops was an arrogant assumption of authority. Mr. George said he would rather see all the railroad property of the country burned up, all the rails torn up, than to see them preserved by force of arms.

Mr. George then entered into a lengthy condemnation of President Cleveland and his appointment of federal troops in the west. Every mention of the president's name was received with hisses, and when Mr. George asked, "What are you going to do about it?" a voice shouted:
"Impeach him!" "Hang him!" shouted another.

Nearly everybody followed with suggestions until the hall was in an uproar.
After Mr. George had finished, a telegram was read from Samuel Gompers in Chicago, asking that the verdict of labor might be heard from New York, and advising calmness and assuring them of final success.

The resolutions, which were unanimously adopted, commended the decisive action of the American Railway union in demanding arbitration. Little sympathy was expressed with violence, but the resolutions demanded the repeal of conditions provocative to violence. Of the authorities at Washington, the resolutions said:

BESET WITH COMPLICATIONS.

Great Strike Not Endorsed by the Federation of Labor.

PULLMAN IS A PUBLIC ENEMY.

Sympathetic Strikers Advised to Return to Work.

Debs Is Willing to Declare the Strike Off, Provided the Men Who Went Out Are Reinstated—Railroad Officials Are Considering the Matter—Bloody Battle Between Strikers and Regulars in Sacramento.

CHICAGO, July 14.—Following is the text of the proposition made by President Debs to the railway managers:

CHICAGO, July 12.

GENTLEMEN—The existing troubles growing out of the Pullman strike having assumed continental proportions, and there being no indication of relief from the widespread business demoralization and distress incident thereto, the railway managers, through the board of directors of the American Railway union, respectfully make the following proposition as a basis of settlement:

They agree to return to work in a body, and provided they shall be restored to their former positions without prejudice, except in cases, if any there be, where they have been convicted of crime. This proposition, looking to an immediate settlement of the existing strike on all lines of railway, is inspired by a purpose to subserve the public good. The strike, small and comparatively unimportant in its inception, has extended in every direction, until now it involves or threatens not only every public interest, but the peace, security and prosperity of our common country.

The contest has waged fiercely. It has extended far beyond the limits of interest originally involved, and has laid hold of a vast number of industries and enterprises in whose responsible for the difference and disagreements that led to the trouble. Factory, mill, mine and shop have been silenced; widespread demoralization has away. The interests of multiplied thousands of innocent people are suffering. The common welfare is seriously menaced. The public peace and tranquility are in peril. The future of the nation is at stake. This being true, and the statement will not be controverted, we conceive it to be our duty as citizens as well as men to make extraordinary efforts to end existing strife, and avert approaching calamity, whose shadows are even now upon us. If ended now, the entire country would be in a state of peace and harmony. The lessons shall be taught by experience, the troubles, now so widely deplored, will prove a blessing of inestimable value in the months and years to come. The difference that led up to the present complications need not now be discussed.

At this supreme juncture every consideration of duty and patriotism demands that a remedy for existing trouble be found and applied. The employees propose to do their part by meeting their employers half way. Let it be stated that they do not impose any condition of settlement, except that they be re-instated in their former positions. They do not ask the recognition of the organization or of any organization.

Believing this proposition to be fair, reasonable and just, it is respectfully submitted, with the belief that its acceptance will result in the prompt resumption of traffic, the revival of industries and the restoration of peace and order. Respectfully,

EUGENE V. DEBS, President, GEORGE H. HOWARD, Vice President, SYLVESTER KEELER, Secretary, American Railway Union.

The Federation's Views. The conference committee of the Federation of Labor presented for adoption an address to the public.

President Gompers read it. P. H. Morrissey, vice grand master of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, and T. W. Arnold, secretary of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, made stirring speeches in opposition to the endorsement of Debs and the course pursued by the A. R. U.

P. J. McGuire, first vice president of the Federation of Labor, urged that the Pullman strike was purely local and should be dealt with by the people of Chicago. A resolution was adopted condemning both the Republican and Democratic parties and pledging support to the Populists. The address was finally adopted, as follows:

The great industrial upheaval now agitating the country has been carefully, calmly and fully considered in a conference of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor, and the executive officers and representatives of the national and international unions, and brotherhoods of railway men, called to meet in the city of Chicago on July 12, 1894.

In the light of all the evidence obtainable, and in view of the peculiar complications attending the situation, we are forced to the conclusion that the best interests of the unions affiliated with the American Federation of Labor demand that they refrain from participating in any general and local strike which may be proposed in connection with the present railroad troubles. In making this declaration, we do not wish it understood that we are in any way antagonistic to any labor organization now struggling for right or justice, but rather to the fact that the present contest has become surrounded and beset with complications of such a nature that we cannot consistently advise a course which would but add to the general confusion.

The trades union movement is one of reason, of deliberation, and, depending entirely upon the voluntary and sovereign action of its membership, it is democratic in principle and actions, conservative in its demands and consistent in its efforts to secure them. Industrial contests cannot be entered into at the behest of any individual officer of this conference, regardless of the position he may occupy in our organization.

While we may not have the power to order a strike of the working people of our country, we are fully aware that a recommendation of

from this conference to them to lay down their tools of labor would largely influence the members of our affiliated organizations, and appreciating the responsibility resting upon us, and the duty we owe to all, we declare it to be the sense of this conference that a general strike at this time is inexpedient, unwise and contrary to the best interests of the working people.

We further recommend that all connected with the American Federation of Labor now out on sympathetic strike should return to work, and those who contemplate going out on sympathetic strike are advised to remain at their usual vocations.

In the strike of the American Railway union we recognize an impulsive, vigorous protest against the gathering, growing forces of plutocratic power and corporation rule. In the sympathetic movement of that order to help the Pullman employees they have demonstrated the hollow sham of Pullman's paradise. Mr. Pullman, in his persistent refusal of arbitration, and his heartless autocratic treatment of his employees, has proven himself a public enemy.

Against an array of armed force and brutal moneyed autocracy, would it not be worse than folly to call them out on general or local strike in these days of stagnant trade and commercial depression?

No. Better let us organize more generally, combine more closely with other forces, educate and prepare ourselves to protect our interests, and that we may go to the ballot box and cast our votes as American free men, united and determined to redeem this country from its present political and industrial misrule, to take it from the hands of plutocratic wreckers and place it in the hands of the common people.

The committee voted to appropriate $1000 to assist Debs in procuring counsel. The conference then adjourned.

Bloody Work at Sacramento.

SACRAMENTO, July 14.—Yesterday was one of the most exciting days in the history of the strike. As a result two men are in the hospital, while several others are reported dead or injured. Shortly after 10 o'clock yesterday morning, a switch engine was proceeding along Front street to clear the track. A company of regulars under command of Captain Roberts accompanied the engine.

As they reached I street, it is claimed, a gang of strikers fired on the troops. The soldiers returned the fire, and several men were seen to fall. Two of them were picked up by the police and removed to the receiving hospital. Their names are John Stuart and Frank Buckley.

The former was a marine of the U. S. S. Alliance, and he was attracted to the scene of the conflict by a large crowd. He was shot through the body. Buckley lives in Butte county, and was there on visit. He was shot through the right shoulder. Both men deny that they are in any way connected with the strikers. Stuart has made an ante-mortem statement in which he says he was shot down because he refused to help when ordered to do so by the regulars.

The shooting was heard at the depot, and Colonel Graham, who is in command, ordered the First Corps of Marines, United States marines, and the Third line corps, under Lieutenant Draper, to start from the depot with fixed bayonets. They divided into two squads and extended the dead line to Second street.

Shortly afterward troops of the Fourth United States cavalry, made a flying dash down Second street to J, and thence to Front, sweeping everything before them. United States Marshal Bald was in the lead, and proclaimed martial law. He called upon the people to go to their homes and remain there until the troops had been removed. A few obeyed, but the majority remained on the streets in defiance of the marshal's order.

The streets are now comparatively deserted, and few cars to be seen, and they are being watched.

The railroad succeeded in getting a train to Rocklin. The train was accompanied by two companies of regulars. Later another train left for the east. It consisted of two coaches, two flat cars and several freight cars. Two gatling guns were placed on the flat cars, to be used if occasion demanded. The railroad officials fear that more trouble will occur at Truckee.

The Managers' Position.

Mayor Hopkins and Alderman McGillen had a short and harmonious conference with Chairman St. John and Strike Manager Egan of the General Managers' association. Chairman St. John spoke somewhat disparagingly of Mr. Debs and his associates and declared that the general managers of the various roads running into Chicago did not recognize the president of the American Railway union or his conferees.

QUICK WORK.

Senate Disposes of the River and Harbor Appropriation Bill.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—The river and harbor appropriation bill, which usually gives rise to sharp debate and consumes from three days to a week for its completion, was passed yesterday. Another important bill—the legislative, executive and judicial—was immediately taken up and put well on its way toward passage before the senate adjourned.

The early part of the day's proceedings was enlivened by a discussion of Mr. Hale's resolution inquiring whether there had been a meeting of the conference committee on the tariff bill. Besides the author of the resolution, the Republican conferees, Senators Allison, Aldrich and Sherman, each expressed their condemnation of "senate chamber" method of considering the bill now involved.

Mr. Voorhees replied that he had been accused by an overwhelming desire to hurry the bill through its last stage in not inviting the Republican members to the meetings. It was necessary that the majority should first formulate some line of action for themselves, after which a full conference would be called. Several bills of minor importance were passed. The house agreed to the report of the conference on the pension appropriation bill. The remainder of the day was devoted to the consideration of private bills. Although several were debated none was passed. The evening session was for the consideration of private pension bills.

Editorial Comment.

PRENDERGAST, the ruffian, who shot Mayor Harrison of Chicago, has paid the penalty of his crime.

Nearly nine months have elapsed since the bullet of an assassin deprived Chicago of her chief executive, and yesterday the crime was avenged and Patrick Eugene Prendergast suffered an ignominious death at the hands of the hangman.

It is a pity that many more of his stamp could not be put out of the way, even more quickly than it has been in his case.

AN INTERESTING column in today's Patriot is the "Melange" written by "June." He touches briefly on current events and makes some pointed remarks concerning the same. The first paragraph reads:

The scenic beauties of Quincy are so many and varied, that much may be written in their praise and yet not do justice to them. Its extensive and attractive water front is unexcelled, and is to be, in the very near future, densely populated. To one who looks back to the Quincy of even ten years ago, the city of today presents a decided mark of progress. Within that period numerous public and private improvements have been inaugurated and carried to a successful conclusion.

THE FIRST hearing by the commission appointed to apportion the cost and the care of the metropolitan reservations among the cities and towns of the district, will be held in Boston Monday morning. It is important that Quincy be well represented that the assessment may be an equitable one. The Metropolitan Park Commissioners have taken from the city nearly 2,500 acres of taxable property, valued at from $50,000 to $100,000. The income from this large tract is forever lost to the city, and in itself causes an assessment or increase of taxes.

THE OUTWARD appearance of the building does not indicate that it is much burned, the fire loss being mostly in the current manufactory. The water damage on all floors will be heavy.

The building and stock of the W. H. Doble & Co. was insured by Messrs. Howland and Porter, and will cover the loss.

The fire came like a flash to the clerks employed in the building, for before they were aware that the building had been struck, the whole upper room, known as the current room, was a mass of flames.

The halls on the second floor and the meat market and bakery store on the first floor are badly damaged by water. But little water however entered the grocery and dry goods departments.

Many of the spectators who lined the streets received an unceremonious ducking from the water which every now and then came that way.

It is impossible to estimate the loss at present, but including the damage by water it will not be far from $1000.

Mayor Hodges was an interesting spectator of the fire.

It was rumored that a hay stack on the Job Faxon estate was struck and burned. Other places near by must also have been struck.

The roof of the Wollaston depot was struck during the shower, but the only damage done was to stop one side of the clock and tear off a few of the slate shingles. The clock stopped at 12.50.

Blue Hill Predictions.

During the coming week the warmest days will probably be the 18th and 19th, the coolest between the 15th and 17th, and from the 20th to the 21st. The average temperature of the week will probably be near the normal of this time of year.

General showers are probable on the 18th or 19th. The rest of the week promises to be generally fair, except scattered local showers.—Norfolk County Gazette.

West Quincy Picnic.

A very pleasant picnic was held by the West Quincy Sunday school and their friends on Thursday at Lovell's grove.

Mr. Jonas Shackley looked after the transportation of lunch baskets and other dinner facilities, and was assisted in the ticket and other work by John Nutting, Joseph Shackley and Charles Jose. Miss Lou Shackley, with a number of young ladies spread three or four tables and all were well supplied with a good picnic dinner.

A SECOND ALARM.

The Building of the W. H. Doble Co.

Struck During the Heavy Shower This Afternoon.

Good Work of the Department Saves Building—Large Water Loss.

Quincy was visited by a heavy thunder shower about one o'clock this afternoon and there was considerable sharp lightning and loud peals of thunder.

During the heaviest part of the shower, about 1.10, the building occupied by the W. H. Doble Co., at the corner of Franklin and Water street, was struck.

It is one of the largest business blocks of the city, occupied by a market, grocery, dry goods, boot and shoe and other stores. On the second floor a large hall, and offices, and on the third floor by the Quincy Washed Currant Manufactory.

The fire originated in the currant manufactory, in the section on Water street. An alarm was promptly given from Box 37 on the same corner.

In a few moments four hydrant streams were being poured on the building. The steamer was at the corner of Franklin and School street, but was not in commission.

Two streams were taken to the back of the building, one of which was taken to the roof and the other sent up the elevator. On Franklin street a stream was taken up the stairway into the hall, and a fourth stream was sent on the roof from Water street.

A second alarm was given—10 blows followed by the box number—and all the apparatus responded inside of half an hour in the following order: West Quincy hose, Quincy Point hose, Wollaston hose and Atlantic combination.

The police were promptly at work and a rope was run across Water street on the west side of Franklin street and across Franklin street on the north side of Water street.

The streams were well directed, and the stubborn fire was quenched in quick order, the all-out signal being sounded in just half an hour.

The outward appearance of the building does not indicate that it is much burned, the fire loss being mostly in the currant manufactory. The water damage on all floors will be heavy.

The building and stock of the W. H. Doble & Co. was insured by Messrs. Howland and Porter, and will cover the loss.

Mr. James C. Bates and family of Wollaston will pass the balance of July at Haverhill, N. H. This is the fifteenth consecutive year that they have visited that beautiful village.

The death of Alfred H., the nine year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Hersey was announced yesterday and today is reported the death of a second child, a four year old daughter, Mabel L., both from diphtheria.

Following the sudden death of Mrs. Samuel Ames on Wednesday came the death of her infant grandson, a son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. McCormick, on Friday. The funeral of Mrs. Ames occurs today.

A fire started by boys in Carey's woods, back of the Methodist church in West Quincy, yesterday, was put out with difficulty, but finally succumbed to the water and brooms in the hands of several of the neighbors.

The funeral of Mrs. Samuel Ames who died of apoplexy so suddenly on Wednesday last, will be held at her late residence on West street at half past two this afternoon, and the funeral of the babe of Wm. McCormick, Mrs. Ames' grandchild, will be attended later at four o'clock.

Mr. S. O. Moxon has had an edgestone put in front of his lot on Depot street, and a fine sidewalk made. The city should follow his example now and extend it to Gurney's store. No walk in Atlantic is used so much as this, and it ought to be a good one.

Mr. George N. Nash, the genial manager of the Granite Clothing Co., met with quite an accident Friday afternoon. He was riding a bicycle on School street when his wheel slipped in the mud and throwing him off. The thumb of his left hand was badly sprained and his hand was also cut in several places.

There was quite an exciting time in the City Square, Friday, caused by a mad dog. The animal came tearing down the street and rushed into Miss Hubbard's store, putting the lady clerks in a fright. Then he rushed in and out of several other stores. Officer Ferguson then put in an appearance and put the animal out of misery.

Last June Dick Crawford brought his twelve-month-old child, suffering from infantile diarrhoea, to me. It had been weaned at four months old and had always been sickly. I gave it the usual treatment in such cases but without benefit. The child kept growing thinner until it weighed but little more than when born, or perhaps ten pounds.

I then started the father giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Before one bottle of the 25 cent size had been used a marked improvement was seen and its continued use cured the child. Its weakness and puny constitution disappeared and its father and myself believe the child's life was saved by this Remedy. J. T. Marlow, M. D., Tamara, Ill.

THE LAND DEAL.

The Purchase at Houghs Neck Made by a Syndicate.

Mr. Herbert T. Whitman, when seen this morning in regard to the reputed sale of land at Quincy woods to the Catholic parish, said: It is true that the land, about 70 acres, has been sold, and that the price was about $50,000; but, as far as he knew, the Catholic parish did not appear in the transaction.

The land was sold to a syndicate of Quincy gentlemen represented by Mr. John Cashman, and that was all he knew about it. What the syndicate proposed to do with the property he knew nothing.

An effort was made this morning to see Mr. Cashman, but as he is a very busy man he is hard to find.

A historian says this sale is the second transfer for cash that has ever been made of this land, the first being from the Coddingtons heirs to the Adamses.

On the fourteenth of December, 1835, we find the following: "It is agreed by general consent that Mr. W. Colburne, Mr. W. Aspinwall, Mr. Sampford, W. Balstone and Richard Wright shall in behalf of the town, go and take view at Mount Wollaston, and bound out there what may be sufficient for Mr. William Coddington and Edmund Quincy to have for their particular farm there; and accordingly as they five or four of them shall agree upon to stand, and the same to be entered in this book."

Immediately after this comes the following:—"Item, it is agreed that all the allotments at Mount Wollaston shall be set out by Mr. Coddington, William Colburne, William Aspinwall, Edmund Quincy and Richard Wright, or some four of them; and that every allotment shall have a convenient proportion of meadow thereunto, according to their number of cattle that have the same."

Many grants contained from two to five hundred acres such as those given to Coddington, Wilson, Quincy, Hutchinson and Wheelwright. John Winthrop, Jr., and others, in 1644, received a grant of three thousand acres for the encouragement of iron works.

Quincy Yacht Club.

Ladies' day of the Quincy Yacht club, which is the event in the social world in this city, will take place this year on July 25. The House committed has voted to issue to each club member two guest tickets, good for either ladies or gentlemen. These tickets will admit the holders to the upper hall of the club house where the spread, orchestra concert and hop takes place.

By issuing two guest tickets to each member it gives out a total of 400 complimentary tickets and with the 200 members makes a total of 600 people who are invited to this affair. Messrs. T. D. Cook & Co. of Boston will be the caterers.

Wollaston Cycle Club.

On Friday evening, July 3, the Wollaston Cycle Club, was organized with thirty charter members. The following board of officers were elected for the ensuing year: President,—George W. Brown. PATENTS

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

THERE was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for inventions and improvements in the arts and sciences generally was so great as now.

The convenience of man-kind in the factory and workshop, the household, on the farm, and in official life, requires continual accessions to the apparatus and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense.

The political change in the administration of government does not affect the progress of the American inventor, who, being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiencies, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly conceiving the remedy to overcome existing deficiencies.

Too great care cannot be exercised in choosing a competent and skillful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Inventors who intrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due.

THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, JOHN WEDDERBURN, General Manager, 618 F Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, as well as general periodicals of the country, was instituted to protect its patrons from the unsafe methods heretofore employed in this line of business. The said Company is prepared to take charge of all patent business entrusted to it for reasonable fees, and prepares and prosecutes applications generally, including mechanical inventions, design patents, trade marks, labels, copyrights, interferences, infringements, validity reports, and gives special attention to rejected cases. It is also prepared to enter into competition with any firm in securing foreign patents.

CHRIST, THE WORKER

The Model Which Should Be Followed by Endeavorers.

AN APPEAL TO YOUNG PEOPLE

To Consecrate Themselves to the Work of God.

CLEVELAND, July 14.—In the afternoon

14 conferences of Christian Endeavor officers

in different departments of endeavor

work were held, and they proved to be the most interesting features of the convention

thus far. At Stenger hall in the evening Rev. William J. Tucker D.D., of Hanover, N. H., spoke upon "The Claims of an Educated Life," and Rev. Dr. John

Potts, D.D., of Toronto delivered an address

upon "Christ, the Worker, a Model for All Endeavorers." In the tent Rev.

Joseph K. Dixon, D.D., of Philadelphia

spoke upon the "Common Sense in Church Life and Work."

The committee of '94 was introduced to the convention, and presented with a handsome banner by the United Society for faithful service. The treasurer announced that all legitimate expenses of the convention had been met, and a balance of $10,000 would be turned over to the United Society to assist in paying the expenses of speakers, etc.

Dr. Potts' Address.

Dr. Potts is one of the most eloquent

Methodist preachers in Canada. He said:

It seems fitting that at a convention of the Christian Endeavor society the example of Christ as the model worker for all disciples should be made prominent,

and especially as the Sunday school world has begun a year of study of the life of Christ. This July should begin a great year in the study of the life of our blessed Lord. The study of the life of Christ should enlarge our knowledge of Christ, our faith in Christ and our re-spectance to Christ. The gospel of work must be preached. Christ and his disciples lived it and preached it.

How many there are who call Christ master, and yet do little or no work for him in the church, and yet living selfish lives—professing to believe the word of God, and yet doing nothing to save men

from impending ruin.

How refreshing to contemplate Christ,

the worker, as a model for all Christian workers. An inspired apostle afterward

gave that brief but beautiful description of Christ: "Who went about doing good."

That was the very description of the man

Christ Jesus.

It is something worth remembering that Christian work can be done anywhere, and always. And if we would imitate Christ, the worker, we must have his spirit of prayerfulness, and of zeal for the glory of God.

Jesus Our Example.

Jesus was found in the temple. Many have found Jesus in the temple since then. What a picture of Jesus is the

of the doctors, both hearing them and asking them questions. It would be good for the teaching doctors now to have

Jesus in their midst—Jesus in the midst of our theological schools, Sunday schools,

Endeavor societies and in the midst of all church work.

Young people learn the lesson of early consecration to the work of God from the childhood connection of Jesus. Begin early and be about your business until the end shall come. Let parents and Railway Strikers Keeping Up a Weak Show of Fight.

ARTHUR DENOUNCED BY DEBS.

Anarchistic Utterances of a Colorado Pastor.

CHICAGO, July 16.—The American Railway union officials have determined to make a desperate struggle to regain for the order the prestige it has lost in the strike, now rapidly approaching a close. The executive board of the union held a meeting yesterday, the object of which was to map out a course for the future. After a lengthy discussion, it was decided to send out "revivalists" to all important sections of the west. Agitators had been sent out Saturday, and it was intended to augment this number. "The names of those sent out Saturday will not be given out," said President Debs to a reporter, "for fear of their being arrested for inciting a riot."

It was learned elsewhere, however, that Director Kern was sent to St. Louis to rally the forces there. Hogan was sent out over the Northern Pacific to stir up the employees of that company, and Goodwin was sent over the Northwestern line to use his influence with the employees of that system, and if possible induce them to go out. These delegates are all members of the executive board of the union. Other emissaries were sent out to work with employees of the many lines entering this city.

An enthusiastic meeting was held in Uhlir's hall, President Debs presiding. "The strike," said he, "is now—right now—more prosperous and more encouraging than ever before. We can and must win. The men who have gone back to work will again come back to us, and victory is ours."

"Grand Chief Arthur of the engineers is a scab jobber, and he will go down in history as a traitor to organized labor. He instructs his men to work with scabs, and tells them that scabbing is honorable. He is a tool in the hands of the general managers. "The strike is weaker in Chicago than elsewhere," continued Debs, "but it will grow stronger, just as in the west it is growing stronger every hour."

Fifteen meetings were held in different parts of the city during the afternoon, and evening, several of which were addressed by Debs. He will give out a statement today in answer to the one made by Pullman.

Mr. Debs said that several of his committeemen had reported to him that the Rock Island, Lake Shore, Eastern Illinois, Grand Trunk and Western Indiana men would all be out again today. Nothing could be learned outside to verify this assertion, however.

Anarchistic Utterances. DENVER, July 16.—Rev. Myron Reed delivered an address before a large meeting, held under the auspices of the American Railway union, in which he declared he was an anarchist. He continued by saying: "Jesus Christ was not only an anarchist, but was killed by the representatives of the law, church and state for daring to practice humanity. Jesus Christ was an anarchist and a socialist, but I never heard of his being a deputy sheriff."

"Nothing has discouraged me so much in the past few weeks as to see so many men anxious to take a gun and offer to go out and shoot their fellow men for the mere pittance of $2 per day. I look at this effort now being made by such men as Pullman as an effort to break up all organizations of laboring men, so that they can deal with the workmen, and gradually get them down to pauperism and serfdom."

"I have been criticized for saying that any man had the right to take his labor away from any employer, but had not the right to interfere with any other man for taking his place. "I say now that he has a right to interfere if he does it in a peaceable way. It is right and just for every man to protect his wages and his job. I also say that a man who does not belong to a union and stands ready to take another man's place at less wages is an enemy, a spy and an obstructor, and should be in some peaceable way removed."

Labor Leaders Assailed.

NEW YORK, July 16.—The Central Labor Union met yesterday. Philip Kelley, of the Theatrical Employees' Protective association, started the ball rolling by saying that the strike was a decided success until President Cleveland interfered. "If Chief Arthur had confirmed his convictions the strike would have been won in 24 hours," he declared.

Henry Weissman of the Bakers' union blamed Debs for calling the strike off. "When Debs declared the strike off," he said, "it was a blow at organized labor in this country. If Debs had been wise, he would have conferred with the Federation of Labor as well as the Knights of Labor, instead of forming a partnership with Sovereign. Sovereign assumed too much when he said he would call out 1,000,000 men in this country. He has not the power to do so."

The Attempt Proved Unsuccessful.

SOUTH END, O. T., July 16.—An attempt was made yesterday morning to blow up the bridge which crosses the creek at a distance of about 150 yards north of this town. The bridge was guarded by soldiers. The explosion did but little harm. Two carriage loads of deputies from North End came into End between 11 and 12 o'clock last night, when a number of men attacked them with sticks and stones and chased them out of town. The greater part of the soldiers stationed here were sent to Pond Creek by special train.

CONGRESSIONAL FORECAST.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—There is no settled program for this week in the house. Everything will be subject to displacement in favor of the conference report on the tariff bill, when one is agreed upon.

The house managers will pass a report made this week, are not disposed to allow too much time to be consumed by debate, and especially if a disagreement is reported on the vital differences between the two houses.

Though the time will be limited, it is the desire of the house managers to give sufficient opportunity for the leading house members to place their positions squarely before the country.

The absence of Speaker Crisp, who is expected tomorrow, unless the condition of his son does not improve, makes the business of the house, pending the report from the conference, problematical. Today was supposed to call for attention of some shape. The taking up of the treaty will depend upon whether the managers of the appropriation bills will consent to yield the time for it, and the further consideration of the tariff question will depend upon whether the conferees shall make their report, and, incidentally upon the character of the report when made.

If the tariff conference report shall reach the senate, it will undoubtedly evoke considerable discussion if it should attempt to lower the rates or change any of the material amendments of the senate.

When the senate adjourned Saturday, the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill was under consideration. It is expected that when it shall be disposed of, as it is thought that it will be by Tuesday, the Indian appropriation bill will be taken up, and with that out of the way, the agricultural, District of Columbia, sundry civil and general deficiency bills will be considered, probably in the order named.

These will complete the list. It is possible that there will be more or less debate on all of these bills, but if other questions are not allowed to interfere, all probably can be disposed of during the week.

Zimmerman's Wonderful Work.

PARIS, July 16.—Fifteen thousand people witnessed yesterday the contest between A. A. Zimmerman, the American bicyclist, and Barden, an English rider. The first race, one mile, was won easily by Zimmerman. In the second race, five miles, Zimmerman followed Barden until the fifth mile, when he was overtaken. Then he let himself go and shot ahead with such rapidity that Barden, seeing there was no possible chance for himself to win, retired. Zimmerman then won another race easily. Wheeler finished second.

Death of Inspector Wordell.

FALL RIVER, Mass., July 16.—Police Inspector Isaac Wordell died Saturday evening after a week's illness. A varicose vein in the left leg was partially severed last week, and this confined the inspector to his home. Inflammation of the stomach set in, and heart trouble developed. Mr. Wordell weighed 307 pounds, being one of the heaviest men in the city. He was on the police force 11 years. In December, 1882, he was promoted to be inspector, upon the reorganization of the police department.

No News From the Carlin Party.

MISSOULA, Mont., July 16.—The Colgate searching party sent out by The Evening Missoulian has returned unexpectedly here. They made a thorough search of the river banks and surrounding country for a distance of several miles from the spot where the unfortunate cook was deserted by his companions. Not a single trace of the missing man could be found, nor was there anything to indicate where he had been left.

Miss Russell Restrained.

NEW YORK, July 16.—A permanent injunction has been granted by Judge Gaynor of the supreme court at the instance of Canary & Lederer, managers of the Casino, restraining Miss Lillian Russell from singing or dancing, either gratuitously or for money, in public or private, under any other management than that of Canary & Lederer. The papers were served upon Miss Russell this morning.

A Nihilistic Plot.

LONDON, July 16.—The Standard's correspondent at Vienna telegraphs that the proposed autumn maneuvers of the Russian army near Smolensk have been abandoned. The abandonment of the maneuvers was due to a discovery made of mines that were intended to blow up the building that would have been occupied as the headquarters of the czar.

Shipwrecked Whalers.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 16.—When the steamer Lakme came into port Saturday from Pribiloff island and Dutch Harbor, Captain C. F. Gifford of the lost whaling bark Abram Barker was on board as a passenger. Captain Gifford was brought on board May 7, 40 miles off Cape Naryn. The crew of the Barker was picked up by the whaling bark Horatio.

Arrest of Anarchists.

PARIS, July 16.—Several foreign anarchists have been arrested at Avignon and Montpellier. They will be expelled from the country. A Spanish anarchist named Izet has been placed in custody at Avignon on the charge of being implicated in the plot to murder President Casimir-Perier.

The Greenland Expedition.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., July 16.—The Cook Greenland expedition on the steamer Miranda arrived here yesterday. The expedition secured the services of E. Dunphy, the well-known ice pilot, who was with the Peary expedition on the steamer Kite. The Miranda left here last night.

A COWARDLY ASSAULT.

A Girl Knocked Senseless by an Unknown Scoundrel.

PORTLAND, Me., July 16.—A strange affair is reported from Old Orchard. Mrs. A. A. Dennett and her daughter, Grace, 16 years old, of this city, have a summer cottage there. Last night Grace was alone in the house, her mother being at $aco, when a man knocked at the door and asked if the young lady was alone. He attempted to enter, but the girl told him to keep out. He knocked her down, hitting her on the stomach and leaving her insensible on the floor.

He then went into the parlor, tipped over the furniture, throwing small articles on the floor and did much small damage. He then went up stairs to the young lady's room, took all her dresses and laid them out to pieces with a knife. He also cut open the bed clothes and sofa cushion.

When Mrs. Dennett returned she found the outside door closed and her daughter insensible. A physician found that no violence had been done to the girl. The man's motive is a puzzle. He was a stranger to the girl.

This is the same young lady whose death was printed in a Portland paper, a notice having been received on an anonymous postal card. It is evident that someone has a spite against her. It is reported that the Old Orchard police arrested a man having a sharp knife, but let him go because there was no other evidence against him. The affair has caused great excitement at Old Orchard.

MAY RESULT FATAALLY.

Jealousy the Cause of a Murderous Assault on Pasquale Caputo.

PROVIDENCE, July 16.—A 17-year-old American girl, who has been an inmate of one of the low dives in this city, was the cause of a quarrel last night which will result in the death of one man and the trial of another for murder.

For a few days past, Pasquale Caputo has been trying to obtain the exclusive attention of the girl. Last night her lover, Joseph Marsico, who is also Caputo's brother-in-law, met the former on Cedar street.

Marsico was accompanied by two companions, and the three men set upon Caputo. Marsico drew a revolver and fired several times, and the other men cut him with knives, inflicting serious wounds. The cries of the man attracted the police, and the assailants fled. The officers gave chase and Marsico was arrested.

Robbed His Employer.

PITTSFIELD, Mass., July 16.—It has just come to light that James Egan, who does a large grocery business on Depot street, has been the victim of his most trusted clerk, Barney Curley, who is an embezzler to the amount of at least $3000. Three years ago he entered Egan's employ, and almost immediately, it is alleged, began the systematic robbing of his employer. Curley had charge of the store's best paying route and worked it very shrewdly.

Arrested on Suspicion.

ROME, July 16.—The police of Bastia, Corsica, have received information that led to the arrest of Anarchist Enrico Lucchesi, who is believed to have been the assassin of Signor Bandi.

Lynn Jewellers Robbed.

LYNN, Mass., July 16.—The jewelry store of S. Kimball & Co., 69 Munroe street, was entered by burglars yesterday, and goods to the value of $300 taken.

many. They will realize the promptness more fully when informed that the paper
went to press at 2:30.

Sunday was a busy day with the new steamer City of Quincy, something over 1500 passengers being carried. Every trip went loaded and on several trips all could not be taken that desired to go. Even the band was sent home that the space occupied by them might be given to passengers.

The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. William S. King of Wollaston were held from her late home on Winthrop avenue, on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.
The services were of a simple character and were attended by a large number of relatives and friends. The interment took place at the Watertown cemetery on Sunday.

There was two funerals from one house on Saturday last, when the funerals of Mrs. Samuel Ames and her grandson,
Norman McCormick, were held. Rev. E.
W. Virgin officiated. Charles Goucher, Belle Moir and Mary Gur sang three pieces
at the funeral of Mrs. Ames. The body of Mrs. Ames was buried in the Hall cemtery, and that of the babe in the Mount Wollaston cemetery.

BOSTON CLUB RUN.

Dr. W. G. Kendall of Atlantic Entertainments the Boys.

Whether it was the unique invitation or the established reputation of Capt. Kendall as a host, or much of both, the special run of the Boston Cycle club to Atlantic on Sunday, was the largest attended for years.
Is it any wonder, for who could decline
such an invitation as this:

The plate was sketched by C. W. Reed of Atlantic, the well known illustrator for the Century and Scribner Magazines and a member of the club. The individual with the glasses is supposed to be Dr. Kendall, hob-nobbing with the traditional cyclists'
thirst, and the other faces in the cut are portraits of prominent members, that of the full grey bearded father being particularly good.

It was a all day affair—from 10 A. M. to 6 P. M.—and those who came early started late, held by the doctor's magnetic influence.

The tide was high in the morning, and therefore a dip in the salt sea took precedent, and refreshed the riders of the "silent steed."

Then came the tree climbing but it was not such a difficult task as portrayed above. The tree is in Captain Kendall's estate with accommodations for eight to should not be overlooked. He was there arrayed in his hop scotch stockings which were rivaled only by those of the host. But he ate and ate and then did not seem to satisfy his ostrich stomach.

The party of thirty or more prominent professional men admired the estate of Dr.
Kendall and his fads, which were too numerous to mention, and the host caught their smile with his kodak in a fine group picture.

The Boston Bicycle club is the oldest cycling organization on this continent, having been instituted in 1878. One of the requirements for joining now is that the candidates shall have been a rider for at least ten years. It has members all over the world; in London, Calcutta, Australia, St. Petersburg and elsewhere. Three club runs are provided for annually, but the run on Sunday was an extra one, and that in more senses than one.

SATURDAY'S FIRE.

No Doubt Now that It Was Struck by Lightning.

There was some doubt expressed Saturday as to whether the building of W. H.
Doble company was struck by lightning or whether it originated from some other cause. There is no doubt, however, but that lightning did the business as an Italian woman who lives in the vicinity says that she saw the bolt enter the building through the skylight.

The room where the most of the fire was is what is known as the current room, and besides the machinery there was a large quantity of cartoons, all of which are more or less damaged if not spoiled.

The second floor is occupied by the Granite Cutters' National union, Clan
McGregor, Sons of St. George, Baptist-American society, Quincy Literary and De-bating society and the Ward Three Republican committee.

As soon as the occupants of these rooms
arrived at the fire they armed themselves with brooms and swept the water out as fast as it fell. This saved the furniture considerably and kept the water from going down into the grocery and dry goods departments.

Mr. Arthur H. Doble when asked this morning about the loss was inclined to think that $1000 was too low and that it would reach nearer $2000.

TODAY'S COURT.

Thomas Phelan of Quincy was fined $5
for drunkenness.

Ralph M. Gilmore was fined $5 for riding a bicycle on the sidewalk at Milton.

William McNeil was fined $3 for assault on Perry C. Merriam at Milton.

Ernest Swanson was fined $5 for assault on Carl Pierson at Quincy.

A horse kicked H. S. Sha'er, of the Free-mer House, Middleburg, N. Y., on the knee, which laid him up in bed and caused the knee joint to become stiff. A friend recommended him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did, and in two days was able to be around. Mr. Sha'er has recommended it to many others and says it is excellent for any kind of bruise or sprain.
This same Kennedy is also famous for its cures of rheumatism.

THE AQUATIC SHOW.

A Serious Delay Disappoints the Crowd
on Saturday.

It is difficult to please a disappointed crowd of people, and for this reason many of the 2,000 people who went to Quincy
Point Saturday afternoon to witness Prof.
Oldreive's aquatic show are not saying much in its praise. It was advertised to take place at 3:30, but did not occur until 5, and the crowd had no intimation during all this time when it would begin.

Some Quincy business men got up a few running races for boys and this was all the excitement there was, except the interference with a peanut seller who was cowardly assaulted.

The aquatic show at 5 o'clock was really interesting. The professor walked about upon the water with considerable ease, and discharged bomb and serpents.
Two paper balloons were sent up. The explosion of the two ships was grand and little remained to tell the story. The show will be repeated tonight at Houghs Neck.

The exhibition of avariciousness on the part of a hotel proprietor was so marked that it will be long remembered. People were charged five cents for seats on the piazza facing the water.

Some who went down in carriages left their teams in front of the hotel in the street, supposing that they would be all right. It seems that after they had left their carriages, the horses were taken into the sheds and hitched, and the robes and whips taken into the hotel. When people got ready to go home, 25 cents was demanded of them in payment for horse keeping.

To say that people were indignant is putting it mild, and this coupled with the cowardly assault on a peanut peddler, it is a wonder that some did not get hurt.
As it is, a court case will probably be the outcome.

Editorial Comment.

THE RESOLUTION introduced by Councilman Federhen at the meeting of the Council Monday evening, in regard to constructing a bicycle track upon one of the parks or public playgrounds of the city, will meet a want long felt by the hundreds of riders of the silent steed in this city.
With a good bicycle track, nearly every week would see some events which would not only furnish amusement for the general public, but would keep at home many people who now seek amusement elsewhere.
It is the unanimous wish of all the bicycle riders that the Park Commissioners will carry out the spirit of the resolution.

THE CITY COUNCIL.

Another Scheme for the Improvement of Fountain Square.

WIDENING OF COPELAND STREET

To be Given a Public Hearing Early in August—Other Business.

The absent members at the regular meeting of the City Council Monday evening were Councilmen Adams, Litchfield, Robbins and Snow.

Communications.

Communications from the Mayor enclosing a petition for soldiers aid from Theodore W. Fowle, and from the Chief Engineer for new hose and ladders, were laid upon the table, to be taken up later.

Petitions.

Petitions were received from W. A.
Coffin for a job wagon, Timothy Morrison for a common victualler's license, and Joseph J. Taylor for license for two carriages. The first two were referred to Committee on Licenses, and the latter laid on the table.

Councilman Lamb offered a petition asking that Quarry street from Fallon & Sons' quarry to Hitchcock's quarry be rebuilt and that $3,000 or so much as necessary be appropriated. Referred to Committee on Streets.

Councilman Clark presented a lengthy petition from George H. Watt of Trafford street, setting forth the need of reaching a large number of non-church people with religious services and asking permission to go upon the public places and preach the gospel. This was first referred to the Committee on Streets, then to the Committee on Licenses and finally upon motion of Councilman Moxon to the executive department.

No Vacation Yet.

Councilman Holden moved the suspension of Rule 1, stating that he would then offer a motion that when the Council adjourn it be until the first Tuesday in September.

Councilman Federhen stated that it was necessary that the fire department should have some new hose and he desired the order he was to offer later to go through as quickly as possible.

The motion of Councilman Holden was lost.

The Committee on Sewers and Drains reported a substitute order on the rebuilding of the wall on the westerly side of the brook on Willard street.

The original order called for the approximation of $300 but the substitute was that the Commissioner of Public Works be requested to rebuild the wall and charge to the appropriation for sewers and drains.

Councilman Moxon thought it illegal as the Council had no authority to reappropriate any of the original appropriation for sewers and drains.

The chair ruled that this was not ordering the appropriation but simply requesting the suspension of the rules the order was passed to be ordained Councilman
Moxon voting in the negative.

The Committee on Streets reported an order, on the petition of E. H. Doble and others for the widening of Copeland street,
for a public hearing August 6, at 8 o'clock.
Adopted.

The Committee on Streets reported order granting permission to the Quincy Quarry railroad to cross certain ways. Ordered to a second reading.

The Committee on Streets offered a substitute order calling for the appropriation of $600 for curbing Fountain square and the building of a stone crossing for foot passengers from the fountain to the church yard. Referred to the Committee on Finance.

Taken from Table.

The communication from the Chief Engineer was taken from the table and Councilman Federhen offered an order appropriating $600 for the purchase of new hose and ladders. Referred, upon request, to the joint committees on Fire Department and Finance.

The petition of Joseph J. Taylor, for carriage license was taken from the table, and Councilman Johnson offered an order granting the same, which was adopted.

The petition of Theodore W. Fowle for soldiers aid was taken from the table, and upon motion of Councilman Lennen it was referred to the Committee on Finance, and a recess of ten minutes taken, during which it could be considered by them.

After the recess the Committee on Finance reported, granting the petitioner
$5 per month, which was adopted.

New Orders.

Councilman Lennen offered an order requesting the Mayor to instruct the Board of Health to abate nuisances on Town brook. Adopted.

Councilman Federhen offered a resolution requesting the Park Commissioners to construct a bicycle track on one of the playgrounds. Adopted.

Councilman Sullivan offered an order requesting the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department to locate a fire alarm box at the corner of North and South streets.
Adopted.

Adjourned at 8:40 to meet Tuesday, July 24.

—Lack of wind prevented the knock-abouts of the Hull Yacht club from finishing within the time limit on Saturday, and the race was declared off.

BY A CHANCE BLOW.

The Harlem Coffee Cooler Knocked Out
by Peter Maher.

BOSTON, July 17.—Last night, after two rounds of as hot fighting as Boston has witnessed this season, Peter Maher, the Irish-American hero from Ireland, stood waving his arms over the prostrate body of Frank Craig, the colored wonder from New York, and to say that the crowd was wild is but mildly expressing it.
Cheer after cheer tore the air, and it seemed as if everyone was bent on hailing
the victor.

It was a chance blow of Maher's, a right-hand on the jaw, but Craig was fortunate enough in falling to strike on his face, and lay in that position until long after the 10 seconds had gone by. It took but five minutes to settle the darky's championship aspirations, but Craig and finally in Craig's own corner fought him a stiff upper cut, full in the face.

Before the darky could realize his position, Maher caught him a light one with the left again. Out shot his right arm and fell to the floor with a bang that could be heard all over Music Hall. He tried once or twice to raise himself to a sitting position, but what the blow might have lacked in force sufficient for a knockout, was more than redoubled by the crack on the floor, and try as he would, Craig couldn't get up until Timekeeper Din Murphy notified the referee that the 10 seconds were up, and the negro's seconds lifted him to his feet.

A NOVEL MATCH.

Horsemen and Cyclers Engage in a Race For Supremacy.

NEW YORK, July 17.—A six days' race,
to determine the question of superiority
between the bicycle and horse, was begun
yesterday at Manhattan field.

The contestants were Albert Shock, the champion long distance bicycle rider of the world, and Jack Prince of Washington, holder of the 72 hours' record against horsesmen; Henry Hecanauer, riding manager of the F. H. Avenue Riding academy, and Jack Alexander, a southern rider.

It was arranged that there will be 12 hours' racing each day, the horses in relays of each two miles and the cyclists to relieve each other every hour.

Alexander and Shock were the first contestants. The first mile was a dead heat, the time being 2:48 1/2. At the end of the second mile Alexander gave an exhibition of changing a res which would do credit to the old-time pony express riders. Shock then made no effort to keep up with the horse, and at the end of the third mile was an eighth of a mile behind.

Affairs at Korea.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The latest reports received here indicate that the Korean situation is substantially unchanged. The Russian government has expressed itself satisfied with the reply of the Japanese government, which disavowed any designs upon Korean territory, but which declined to withdraw the Japanese troops from Korea until some action was taken to prevent the constant recurrence of the disturbances in that country, which constitute such a dangerous menace to Japanese interests.

Collision in Boston Harbor.

BOSTON, July 17.—Steamer Stamford, plying between Boston and Plymouth, was run into at 7 o'clock last night while coming up the harbor by the steamer Kennecott of the Boston and Kennebec steamboat line, bound for Bath, Me. She struck the Stamford on the port side forward of the wheelhouse, tearing off the entire side of the vessel. Two hours before the collision with the Kennecott, the Stamford ran into the tramp steamer
British Queen, anchored near the same place. No great damage was done.

Traffic Delayed.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., July 17.—The four tracks of the Consolidated road at Fairfield were blocked for five hours last night by a freight wreck, which occurred about 9 o'clock. An east-bound freight car jumped the track near a bridge and several cars were thrown over on their sides.
The accident was caused by the breaking of a journal on one of the cars. A brakeman named Murray was seriously injured. All the Boston express trains were delayed several hours by the wreck.

Open For Business.

FITCHBURG, Mass., July 17.—The Burbank hospital was opened yesterday to receive patients. There were no formalities.
The late Gardner S. Burbank left his estate of about $400,000 for this hospital, the money to become available after the death of his wife. But Mrs. Burbank has been anxious to anticipate the provisions of the will, and recourse was had to the legislature, which authorized a loan of $100,000 in anticipation of the legacy.

Anarchists to Be Looked After.

ROME, July 17.—The senate has approved the anti-anarchist bills. Prime Minister Crispien stated that the government was studying a means for sending the worst characters to a distant Italian dependency, and an inspector connected with the ministry of the interior had left Italy for the purpose of ascertaining if any small African towns were suitable.

Drowning Accident.

AUGUSTA, Me., July 17.—Three boys,
Edward, age 17 years, and David, 5 years, sons of Daniel Regan, of Manchester, and Ray, aged 9, son of James A. Clark of Everett, Mass., were drowned in the pond
at Hensley's lodge, 10 miles from Augusta, yesterday, while bathing. The bodies were recovered.

Chinese Gun Factory Destroyed.

SHANGHAI, July 17.—Gun factory Chang
Ching-shang's new gun factory at Hsuan-shan has been destroyed by fire, involving a loss of over 1,000,000 taels. The fire is supposed to be of incendiary origin.

Disgruntled Workers.

CHICOPEE, Mass., July 17.—Sixteen men employed in the polishing department of the Weymouth wheel works went out on strike, yesterday, in sympathy with a disgruntled foreman.

Larchmont Yacht Race.

NEW LONDON, July 17.—The Larchmont
yacht fleet left here this morning at 10 o'clock. The run over will be a race.

Assessments for Metropolitan Park Reservations Delayed.

WHAT ARE PLANS PROPOSED?

The Park Commissioners Unable to Give the Information.

Quincy was represented Monday at the hearing of the commissioners to apportion
the Metropolitan park assessments by Mayor Hodges and City Solicitor Blackmun.
There was a large array of legal talent present, most of the cities and towns being represented and also the Metropolitan Park Commission.

Felix Rackemann, for the latter, outlined the case stating that the question involved is one of taxation and sinking funds, since the act of 1893 contemplates the establishment of sinking funds, to which the cities and towns affected are to contribute, and which will in the course of 40 years reimburse the State for its expenditures now.
The scale and proportion of assessments remains fixed after being settled for five years, whatever the requirements in the matter of appropriations now unforeseen by the park commission may be. He pointed out that by amendment this year of the act of 1893 there is no limitation placed upon the amount that may be expended by the park commission in the acquisition and preservation of the park system in the metropolitan district.

The provisions of the numerous statutes
under which the park commission exercises its authority, namely, the original park act of 1893, the boulevard act, the Revere Beach act and the Charles River act, were explained. By the first $1,000,000 was appropriated, a considerable portion of which has been spent; by the boulevard act of 1894, $500,000 was appropriated under which nothing has as yet been done; the same is true of the $300,000 appropriated by the Charles River act, while the amount appropriated by the so-called Revere Beach act, $500,000, was simply an addition to the original $1,000,000 given and was not to be spent specifically for the improvement of Revere Beach alone.

He explained that the park commission had done certain things under the park act, but that nothing could be definitely forecast as to what lands are to be taken in the future, or as to the prospects of the ultimate cost even of those already taken.
He admitted that the problem to be solved
by this board is a much more difficult one than that which confronted a similar board which a few years ago assessed the cost of the construction of the metropolitan sewer upon the municipalities affected.

City Solicitor Blackmun, in common with most of the solicitors who spoke, urged an adjournment of the hearing for several months, until plans and specifications could be submitted by the Metropolitan Park Commissioners as to all the takings and the proposed boulevards. He considered it unfair to all, to apportion the assessments now. In the case of Quincy the land taken was in the outskirts, from three to six miles from City Hall, and in the quarry region. With a boulevard making it assessable, it would be one thing, but otherwise quite another.

The solicitors were anxious to learn whether the cost shall be assessed proportionate as to population, valuation or upon the basis of actual and direct benefit to the several cities and towns. These are the questions involved. Whether a city or town which has no park within its limits,
should be obliged to pay an equally proportionate part of the expenses of the metropolitan park system with those cities and towns which are directly affected by their territory being directly contiguous to the park system, so that values will be benefited.

One suggested that it may turn out that the simplest and most just way of settling this matter will be to consider this whole district as one great metropolitan city so far as park purposes are concerned, and assess the expenses upon the basis of valuation or population, but there was some objection to this.

It was urged that there could be no harm and no delay of any embarrassment in postponing this hearing, because the state treasurer will not send out his warrants calling for the contributions of the cities and towns before next June anyhow.
Meantime there will be an opportunity for this matter to mature and for the committee to lay out some more definite scheme.

The Metropolitan Park Commissioners opposed delay, but an adjournment was made until Nov. 14.

ALLEN'S COMPOUND EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA THE HONEST KIDNEY

Receives the Highest Praise from the Best Physicians.

DR. H. F. MERRILL, the wonderful specialist of Augusta, Maine, after giving it a thorough trial in his practice, writes the following convincing letter of praise:

GENTLEMEN:-

I have of late been using some of your medicine in my practice with the most pleasing and satisfactory results. I find that it acts like a charm upon the whole nervous system, and in scrofula and all cutaneous diseases. Its curative properties are fully equal to the claims made for it, and I do not know of one instance where it has not fulfilled all its claims. In cases of General Debility and Nervous Prostration it has proved itself invaluable. It also gives quick relief in Dyspepsia and Canker of the stomach, and is a remarkable fine restorative remedy. It is a great pleasure to be able to recommend such a remedy, as the results following its use are so wonderfully satisfactory. One great thing in its favor is its freedom from superfluous alcohol, and all injurious ingredients.

DR. H. F. MERRILL.

PROF. W. H. MORSE, M. D., F. B. S. Sc. of Westfield, N. J., author of "New Therapeutic Agents", the standard text book of the newer materia medica, Consulting Chemist and Therapeutist, one of the most widely known men among the medical profession gives it his highest endorsement, as testified by the following voluntary statement:

"Allen's Sarsaparilla commends itself to me therapeutically, chemically and clinically. Its therapeutical power, physiological activity, and chemical purity, are all noteworthy; and the reason is to be found in the fact that it is true to its name, or honest, as the word goes. That is, it is vegetable alterative, and tonic. Perhaps the highest praise that may be given it is that its action represents that of mercury, less the faults of that drug; for, has not Pereira said, "A perfect mercury would be a perfect alterative."

W. H. MORSE, M. D., F. B. S. Sc.,
Westfield, N. J.

Although Allen's Sarsaparilla is such a valuable remedy it is not at all expensive, being the largest bottle on the market for $1.00. Trial bottles 50 cts.

IN A PRISON CELL.

Debs Will "Have a Few Days of Rest and Quiet."

WOULDN'T FURNISH $3000 BONDS.

Howard, Rogers and Kelher Keeping Him Company.

CHICAGO, July 18.—Eugene V. Debs, George W. Howard, L. W. Rogers and Sylvester Kelher, the officers of the American Railway union, were committed to jail yesterday by Judge Seaman in the United States circuit court for alleged violation of the injunction issued by Judge Wood and Grosscup.

The four leaders of the strike in reality went to jail in default of bail, for the court offered them their liberty until next Monday, when they will have a hearing on the charge of contempt. Their bail was fixed at $3000 each, but the men did not give it and the court committed them.

Debs and his companions were taken to jail by Marshal Arnold, and before they left the courtroom Judge Seaman instructed the marshal to keep them in the jail at any reasonable time or times, in order that they may have abundant opportunity to consult their attorneys between this and next Monday. District Attorney Mitchell filed an information in court charging the officers of the union with violating the injunction, and asked for a writ of attachment for contempt. It was not necessary to issue a writ for Debs, for he was in court when the information was filed.

When the injunction was issued by Judges Grosscup and Woods, the usual chancery summons was issued, and those named in the injunction were directed to appear in court to answer. That was what brought Debs into court with the attorneys who have been retained to defend him and his brother officers. The information was read to the court by District Attorney Mitchell.

When Mr. Mitchell had finished the reading of the information, Attorney George R. Peck, representing the receivers of the Santa Fe system, took the floor and read a petition for writ of attachment against the defendants on behalf of that railroad. The petition asked that the defendants be punished for contempt for violating the order appointing the receivers as well for violating the general injunction as it applies to the Santa Fe. A number of acts of violence were alleged and interference with trains.

The Court Proceedings.
The formal proceedings began at 2 o'clock, when Attorney Irwin for the defendants asked that they be released on their personal recognizance. Judge Seaman finally decided to set the case for next Monday, and fixed bail at $3000 each. The four men made no attempt to furnish bail and were committed to jail until Monday. The attorneys for the defendants said their clients could not secure bondsmen, but Debs did not corroborate that when asked if he could give bail. He said he would not give bail to the amount of 5 cents.

A telegram was produced in court, sent by Debs on July 2 to North Butte, Mont. It read: "General managers are weakening. If the strike is not settled in 48 hours, complete paralysis will follow. Potatoes and you are out of sight. Save your money and buy a gun."

While seated in jail awaiting the preparation of his cell, Debs said: "Well, this means a few days of rest and quiet at least. I have not had much rest for over a month, and I am badly in need of it. No, sir; we shall not give bonds. Our bonds are $3000 each, but we wouldn't give bonds if they were 5 cents each. We are not posing as martyrs, neither do we ask for sympathy."

"All I have to say about our arrest is that matters have come to that point in this free country when it is held to be a crime to advise a man what to do when he seeks your advice. We are guilty of no crime, unless the simple expressing of an opinion is a crime. We are not responsible for this strike, Pullman is responsible for it."

The men were placed in the debtors' department of the jail, Debs and Howard being given a cell, and Kelher and Rogers one adjoining.

Notes.
The Railway Times, the official organ of the American Railway union, which has been publishing daily bulletins since the beginning of the strike, announces that hereafter it will issue on alternate days.

The stockyards receipts yesterday amounted to 10,000 hogs, 2500 cattle and 2000 sheep. A number of striking butchers returned to Swift's slaughter house.

Dynamite For Troops.

POND CREEK, O. T., July 18.—Troop A, United States cavalry, of Fort Reno, under command of Captain J. O. Mackey, which has been detailed to guard the Rock Island road, narrowly missed death at the hands of the Pond Creek train wreckers. Two explosions of dynamite occurred immediately after the special train carrying the troops from Enid to Pond Creek station had passed here. One of the shots exploded immediately under the train, but did no damage, but the other blew out a cattle guard and shattered the rails, and would have completely demolished the train had it exploded a few seconds later. The night, with a full moon, was as clear as day, and the dynamiters touched off their shots in full view of the train, when so close that it could not be stopped until it had crossed the spots.

Fillmore's Terms.
SACRAMENTO, July 18.—General Superintendent Fillmore and the mediation committee of the A. R. U. have had a conference. Fillmore showed the committee the contract between the company and the Pullman company to run sleepers, and said the strikers could return to work without prejudice, with the exception of those arrested for crimes.

Tracks Are Clear.
ST. PAUL, July 18.—The Northern Pacific line is declared open and in operation throughout its entire extent for all passenger traffic. The freight business has to a great extent been resumed, and all are moving along satisfactorily.

Under Military Guard.
BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 18.—The situation here is one of business and uncertainty. The arrival of the militia has had a quieting effect, but it is their presence alone which prevents a more serious state of affairs. All railroad shops in the city are guarded by detachments of soldiers, with a heavy reserve camp. A large indignation meeting of the citizens was held yesterday. Governor Jones was unanimously endorsed for his promptness in placing troops.

Gompers' Opinion.
NEW YORK, July 18.—President Gompers said in an interview: "Although the strike failed in a way, it will be of great benefit to the people. It is a convincing argument in favor of government ownership of all railroads. It has done more than 10 years of agitation could for the nationalization of the railroads."

Strikers Will Be Taken Back.
COLUMBUS, O., July 18.—The strike of the employees of the Columbus, Hooking Valley and Toledo railroad was settled last night by the acceptance of a proposition from President Waite to restore all the strikers to their old places except the leaders. The A. R. U. is not recognized.

A Northern Pacific Wreck.
MISSOULA, Mont., July 18.—An east-bound Northern Pacific train, the first in 16 days, was wrecked yesterday near here by a dynamite cartridge. Nobody was injured. A trestle 100 feet long near here, and one 120 feet long on the Couderd-Alene branch, were burned.

To Return as Non-Union Men.
READING, Pa., July 18.—The Trainmen's Brotherhood lodge has given up its charter, and Philadelphia and Reading employees who belonged and have been discharged will be reinstated.

Hoosiers In Love With Debs.
PERU, Ind., July 18.—The State Federation of Labor endorsed the course of Eugene V. Debs in connection with the railroad strike, and endorsed him as a candidate for governor.

DIRTY BALL PLAYING

Got the Bostons Into a Serious Scrape at Philadelphia.

TUCKER'S CHEEK BONE BROKEN

In a Riot Resulting From an Unsatisfactory Game.

PHILADELPHIA, July 18.—The most disgraceful scene ever witnessed on the baseball grounds in this city, and which finally terminated in a riot, occurred in the game between Philadelphia and Boston. Tucker had his cheek bone broken by a blow, and several other Boston players were roughly handled.

The game was a close and exciting one from the beginning, and at the end of the seventh inning the score stood 2 to 1 in Boston's favor. At this juncture the weather became threatening, and it looked as though there might be a down-pour of rain at any moment.

The home team went in, and by hard hitting scored seven runs in the eighth inning. After the seven runs had been scored, the Boston players began throwing the ball about the field and jumping out of the way of easy ground hits, evidently playing in the hope that rain would stop the game and give them the victory.

Umpire Campbell, who officiated in St. Louis, warned Captain Nash to play ball. Nash and his men paid no attention to Campbell's warning, refusing absolutely to put the home players out, they having run out of line and bat foul before they were declared out by the umpire. Thompson, the third man out, had to cut across the diamond.

From First to Third.
Before the side could be put out, Nash and his team then walked slowly in from the field. Hallman of the home team handed Umpire Campbell a watch, and the latter, after waiting a few minutes for the Boston players to proceed with the game, gave the home team the decision by 3 to 0.

The Boston players, who were packing their bats away, started to leave the ground. Tucker had left his big glove on the base line. He started across the field toward first base. The crowd, which had surged on the field, gathered around him. One of the crowd jostled Tucker, and it was the signal for a riot. Some one in the mob struck Tucker on the left cheek, breaking the bone.

Grady, Boyle, Weyhing and as many of the Philadelphia players who could get around Tucker attempted to prevent a further assault, but he was roughly handled before he was conducted to the dressing room by officers. The crowd then turned its attention to the other players, and Sergeant Ezzell sent for a squad of policemen. When the latter arrived, the Boston players were taken to their dressing room.

After the crowd had dispersed, the players were escorted to their coach. As the coach went down Broad street, it was followed by 1000 men and boys, who hooted and jeered the players.

Rogers' Lecture.
Colonel Rogers, the principal owner of the Philadelphia club, met Captain Nash of the Boston team in the dressing room after the trouble, and gave him a verbal dressing down. He said: "The Boston team have brought this trouble upon themselves. The Philadelphia patrons will not stand dirty ball playing. The crowd was led by three or four irresponsible persons, who were worked up to fever heat by the unsportsmanlike tactics of your own players."

William Leonard and Lewis Saylor, two of the crowd who surrounded the Boston players, were arrested. Both men deny that they had anything to do with the assault on Tucker, and they will probably be released. Campbell, who umpired the game, has umpired many of the big college games, and has always given satisfaction. He was selected by Chief of Umpires Wright to take the place of Stage, who is sick.

LAST NIGHT'S EXCURSION.

One of the Party Writes of the Pleasures of the Nantasket Trip.

The sea has ever a fascination for people. Its various moods are admirably attuned to every degree and quality of taste. Whether lashed into fury by winter winds or lying placid and still beneath a summer's canopy, it is equally interesting. It has been an object of awe and inspiration to countless generations. Primitive men have worshipped at its shrine. Poets have sung its praises. No form of its changeable appearance but has been reproduced and preserved. It is interesting in daylight while reflecting on its surface the infinite expanse of blue, but it is particularly attractive when the curtain of night envelops it around. No wonder that the moonlight excursions of the city of Quincy's new maritime namesake have been freely patronized. They contribute one of the most enjoyable experiences of the season.

Through the courtesy of Superintendent Weeks a special car was sent to Pleasant and Water streets Tuesday night, and conveyed a large party from that neighborhood to Quincy Point. Together with the other passengers they taxed the capacity of the boat to its utmost extent. The thicker the crowd, however, the more keen the enjoyment. The gathering twilight on the first round of the voyage was keenly marked. The moon, like a big ball of fire rose slowly behind the land. Now obscured by a light cloud, again emerging into view, higher, paler, clearer every passing moment. It was an ideal night for such a sail. Scarcely a ripple broke the surface of the water. The few stray clouds that floated overhead served only to lend a picturesque charm to the scene. The air was tempered into softness by just the faintest suspicion of a breeze. The spirits of the company on board were roused into activity by the genial surroundings. Songs, ancient and modern, echoed across the water. Passing ships were saluted with boisterous chorus. Cheer and gladness effectually dispelled the usual restraints of social intercourse. Only the hopelessly morose could afford to be unaffected by the harmony of the elements.

The short time on shore gave but little opportunity to see all the attractions of the famous Nantasket resort, yet the hurried glimpse indulged in, and the moisture partaken of added zest to the return voyage. If possible, the incoming scene was brighter than the outgoing. The lights along the shore glittered as sunbeams. The white sails of yachts flitted to and fro. The white trail of the moon was reflected on the water in an unbroken line. When the shore was again reached, the only regret expressed was that the time passed on the water was too short. On the arrival of the party at its original destination, at the call of Mr. Henry McGrath, three cheers were lustily given for the accommodation provided by the electric railroad, and three more with a tiger to Mr. Eugene O'Connor, through whose efforts the company had chiefly been brought together, and who by his cheerful presence and bright humor added incalculably to the success of the occasion.

The short time on shore gave but little opportunity to see all the attractions of the famous Nantasket resort, yet the hurried glimpse indulged in, and the moisture partaken of added zest to the return voyage.

TODAY'S COURT.

William Smith of Quincy was fined $50 for keeping intoxicating liquor with intent to sell.

Andrew Selberg of Quincy was fined $5 for drunkenness.

The liquor seized from James Lynch of Weymouth were forfeited.

The liquor seized from Catherine Sullivan of Weymouth were forfeited.

Laura Nason was arraigned for being a common night walker at Holbrook. Case continued until Thursday.

Unicycles and Icicles.

Josiah Quincy and Victor Belanger have given up the unicycle after experiments of several years. The Gazette has described in detail the progress of this wonderful machine, which Mr. Belanger claimed could be ridden over stone walls and through great snow drifts at the rate of a hundred miles an hour. It was not a new idea, for the Gazette printed a picture of a similar contrivance, in which the man sits within the wheel, invented years ago by a Connecticut man, with about the same success as that obtained by its second inventor. Another man, in the West, is trying the same scheme, with about the same promise of success.—Worcester Gazette.

The new Catholic cemetery at Houghs Neck will not be under the direction of the church but will be owned by a corporation, and the purpose is to make it one of the finest in New England. A horse kicked H. S. Shafer, of the Freemeyer House, Middleburg, N. Y., on the knee, which laid him up in bed and caused the knee joint to become stiff. A friend recommended him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did, and in two days was able to be around. Mr. Shafer has recommended it to many others and says it is excellent for any kind of bruise or sprain. This same Remedy is also famous for its cures of rheumatism.

BY HIS OWN HAND.

A Young Man Meets Death While Trying to Kill His Father.

NORTHFIELD, Mass., July 18.—George P. Wentworth, a young farmer, living in the outskirts of this place, attempted to murder his father, John P. Wentworth, at their home last night, but met a terrible retribution, for he was killed by the accidental discharge of the gun, with the stock of which he was attempting to beat out his father's brains.

The elder Wentworth attempted to interfere in a fight between his son and a Frenchman on the road near their house and was knocked down by the son. Returning to the house the quarrel was renewed. Young Wentworth seized a gun and rushed at his father. Clinging the gun the young man brought it around with a powerful swing, aimed at his father's head. The stock of the gun grazed the father and struck the door casing behind him.

There was a deafening report, and when the smoke had cleared away, there, on the floor, lay the would-be patricide, fatally wounded by his own hand. Before his death the young man expressed himself as sorry he had not been able to finish his father. Both father and son had been drinking.

TROOPS NOT NEEDED.

Federal and State Troops at Chicago Broke Camp Today.

WAR AGAINST THE ROCK ISLAND

Continues to Be Waged With Torch and Bomb.

CHICAGO, July 19.—At 8 o'clock last night General Miles appended his signature to the general order removing federal troops from Chicago. The infantry today took trains for their respective posts, while the cavalry and artillery marched to Fort Sheridan, and will remain there until such time as General Miles thinks it best that they be sent to their posts.

The order for breaking camp came from the war department last evening, after General Miles had informed the department that he thought the situation had so far improved that it was perfectly safe to withdraw them from the city.

Strikers Return to Work.

The stampee of Pullman strikers has begun. It had been expected ever since Debs sent his letter to the railway managers offering to surrender if his men were given employment again. The break came from a quarter least expected. About 150 Hollanders, who had once been ballasting railroad tracks behind the foundry, came back of their own accord and asked for work. They were told to report for orders.

Word was passed around in Roseland that track ballasters could go to work if they wanted to, and 200 of them crowded around the foreman asking for work. He accepted 150, telling 50 to come back later. The men began where they left off when Kensington rioters scared them from the work. No attempts were made to interfere with them.

Another Bridge Burned.

NORTH END, O. T., July 19.—The war of the torch and bomb along the line of the Rock Island road in the Cherokee strip continues, the burning of a 90-foot bridge, one mile north of Waukomis station, shortly after midnight, being the latest outrage. The bridge was burned just after the passage of a passenger train going south, and was completely destroyed. The passenger trains were transferred at the burning bridge.

The railroad company has abandoned freight traffic. Another company of United States troops from Fort Leavenworth will arrive here today.

Mayor Franke of Pond Creek has received this message from Acting Governor Lowe in reply to his request for territorial and federal aid to enforce the city ordinance regarding the stoppage of trains next Saturday: "I have requested the Rock Island Railroad company and its attorneys and president to obey your ordinances through our request. I think an application for a mandamus to compel the company to stop in accordance with your ordinance would be granted."

McKillop Pleads Guilty.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 19.—Daniel McKillop, arrested at Fontenau on the charge of violating the federal court restraining orders by interfering with movements of trains on the Big Four, pleaded guilty yesterday. McKillop's plea was a surprise. President Debs' attorney failed to appear for McKillop as had been expected. The federal officers here believe that McKillop knows more about the Fontenau wreck than he has as yet told.

A Pessimistic Prediction.

AUSTIN, July 19.—Governor Hogg was presented with a gold watch yesterday by officers of the state militia, and in response took a gloomy view of the future. He predicted that within six weeks martial law would be declared in California, Kansas, Colorado and Illinois, and that the anarchists of Chicago would use dynamite and "baptizer the lofty buildings of the city with the hearts, lungs and livers of citizens."

Illinois Militia Relieved.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 19.—Adjutant General Orendorf issued an order last night directing the entire second brigade, Illinois state troops, and the first battalion of naval militia, on duty at Chicago, to proceed to their homes at once, using special trains. Colonel Smith, in command of the troops at Mounds, was also wired to send his three companies to their homes.

Many Looking For Work.

DANVILLE, Ill., July 19.—The last two companies of militia here have been sent home. The Chicago and Eastern Illinois shops have started up with new men, and it is said but few of the old ones will be taken back. Chicago and Eastern Illinois engineers and firemen in large numbers made applications for positions yesterday.

No Trains Running.

BUTTE, Mont., July 19.—The tie-up of the railroads at this point is complete. Utah and Northern trains come no further than Dillon. No Northern Pacific trains are moving to this city. Troops have not yet arrived. There was no trouble yesterday at Missoula.

Strike Declared Off.

MEMPHIS, July 19.—At a mass meeting of switchmen, resolutions were adopted declaring the strike off at this point as far as they are concerned. The local officers of the A. R. U. were denounced for the manner in which they managed the strike.

Dirty Work of Strikers.

FOREST, Miss., July 19.—Conductor McKillop and a negro non-union brakeman were shot and probably fatally wounded by strikers as their train, a local freight, was pulling into Newton. The sheriff has put bloodhounds on the trail.

BATCH OF BILLS

Disposed of by the Senate—But Little Done in the House.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The Indian appropriation bill was under discussion in the senate, but final action upon it was not taken. The only important appropriation tacked on to the bill in the senate was for $18,750 for the St. Joseph's Indian industrial school in Wisconsin.

Bills were passed authorizing Rear Admiral John G. Walker, Surgeon General J. Rufus Tryon and Commander C. H. Davis to accept medals or decorations from foreign countries.

The following additional bills were passed: To authorize the president to appoint delegates to the meeting of the International Geodetic association; directing the secretary of state to accept a painting, entitled "Love and Life," from G. F. Watts; to provide for the reservation, sale and settlement of certain lands, and to allow the Metropolitan Street Railway company of Washington to change its motive power from horses to pneumatic or underground power. The conference report on the naval appropriation bill was agreed to.

An interesting and somewhat animated colloquy sprang up in the house over a statement by Mr. Baker correcting the record of Tuesday's proceedings, which showed him, according to the report of the tellers, to have been present and not voting.

This gave Mr. Reed an opportunity to contrast the efficacy of the system of counting a quorum in vogue in the Fifty-first congress with that recently adopted by the house. He insisted that the experience of mankind demonstrated that the former was the better.

Speaker Crisp defended the present system, asserting its superiority over any that had gone before it; that it eliminated the liability of intentional error.

The senate bill to regulate enlistments in the army was passed. The general George S. Greene was passed, authorizing the president to place General Greene on the retired list as first lieutenant of artillery, no pension to be hereafter paid him.

The agricultural appropriation bill was referred to conference.

ROMISH CHURCH EDICT

Calls For the Expulsion of Saloon Keepers From Catholic Societies.

NEW YORK, July 19.—The Press today says: Mgr. Sattoli, the apostolic delegate, has just rendered a decision, condemning the liquor traffic. He approves of the expulsion of liquor dealers from Catholic societies. This decision was called forth by an appeal from the ruling of Bishop Watterson of Columbus, O.

During the last Lenten season Bishop Watterson addressed a letter to the clergy and laity of his diocese, dealing with the temperance problem. Bishop Watterson said: "I hereby withdraw my approbation from any and every Catholic society in this diocese that has a liquor dealer or saloon keeper at its head or anywhere among its officers, and I suspend every such society itself from the rank and privileges as a Catholic society until it ceases to be collected. No one who is engaged, either as principal or agent in the manufacture or sale of intoxicating liquors, should be admitted to membership."

One of the societies laid the matter formally before Mgr. Sattoli. To this appeal the apostolic delegate has just responded. It sustains the position of Bishop Watterson, and says:

"The liquor traffic, and especially as conducted here in the United States, is the source of much evil, hence the bishop was acting within his rights in seeking to restrict it. Therefore, the delegate apostolic sustains Bishop Watterson's action and approves of his circular and regulation concerning saloons, and the expulsion of saloon-keepers from membership in Catholic societies."

Rev. Alexander P. Doyle, general secretary of the Catholic Total Abstinence union of America, said that the declaration of the apostolic delegate is the most important ever pronounced by the church in this country, and he thought its effect would be far-reaching.

Ravages of Cholera.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The marine hospital bureau is informed that cholera situation in St. Petersburg is worse. On Monday there were 218 cases, and more than 1500 cases have appeared since July 1.

BERLIN, July 19.—A post mortem examination of the remains of a cook belonging to a ship which arrived at Lubbeck from St. Petersburg shows that death resulted from Asiatic cholera.

BRUSSELS, July 19.—During the past three days there were five deaths from cholera at Jemeppe, province of Liege.

An Appeal to Congress.

CHICAGO, July 19.—The following telegram was forwarded to Washington last evening: "The whole country demands that congress terminate the pending tariff legislation immediately. Failure to dispose of this question quickly will work incalculable loss and irreparable injury to financial and industrial interests." It was signed by 20 banks and 80 leading business houses of the city.

A Protest Against Lynchings.

BROOKLYN, July 19.—At a meeting of the colored citizens of Brooklyn, resolutions were adopted to the effect that as the president had already called out the federal troops to protect property in Chicago, he should afford the same protection to the colored citizens of the south who are being lynched daily.

Zeigenthaler Goes Free.

ST. LOUIS, July 19.—The trial of Collector of Revenue Zeigenthaler came to an end yesterday, a technical demurrer being sustained by the court, and the jury ordered to acquit the defendant of the charge of embezzlement of city funds, upon which he was indicted.

Peabody Men Won.

SALEM, Mass., July 19.—Peabody men captured both first and second prizes at the firemen's muster. The Maine men labored under the disadvantage of going without sleep for two nights previous. The prizes were $25, $100, $50 and $25.

Editorial Comment.

RANDOLPH, HOLBROOK, AVON, STOUTON and even Brockton may be classed among the fortunate towns and cities, not being liable to an assessment for the Metropolitan Park Reservations. Several acres were taken from Randolph however for the Blue Hill's reservation, and it loses taxable property, but the town borders on it for two or three miles,—for a longer distance in fact than does Quincy—and in addition to this the Randolph turnpike to Boston passes directly through the center of the reservation, making it very accessible to all the towns mentioned above. An electric car line from Brockton, through Avon and Randolph, has its terminus within a mile of the reservation, and doubtless will be continued.

The cities and towns included in the park system are Boston, Cambridge, Chelsea, Everett, Lynn, Malden, Medford, Newton, Quincy, Somerville, Waltham, Arlington, Belmont, Braintree, Brookline, Canton, Dedham, Dover, Hingham, Hull, Hyde Park, Melrose, Milton, Needham, Nahant, Revere, Saugus, Stoneham, Swampscott, Wakefield, Watertown, Weston, Weymouth, Winchester and Winthrop.

Some of the towns are near one reservation and some another, but towns like Hull, Hingham, Weymouth and Dover will not be benefitted as much as others not included. The district should be enlarged so that the assessments may not only be smaller but more equitable.

BUSINESS MEN of City Square were surprised, yes, indignant, to hear the driver of the steamer asking last night: where is the hydrant? They think the permanent firemen, at least, should be thoroughly posted on the location of hydrants, particularly about City Square.

THE OFFERING of a reward by the city generally results in stopping incendiaries, if it does not capture past offenders, and it would seem that the occasion had arisen to offer a reward.

THE TAX rate of the city of Northampton will be but $10 per $1000, and that on a valuation of $10,084,475, and gain of but $74,148. It is the lowest for years.

HOW WOULD "Woodlawn-by-the-Sea" do for a name for the new cemetery on the Houghs Neck road?

GROCERS' DAY.

How They Went and What They Will Do—Missed Like the Bad Boy.

The second annual outing of the Old Colony Grocers' Union, of which Quincy is a part, is being held today at Downer Landing, and as a result an unusual quietness prevails about the city.

Just when the Quincy members and their ladies left for the scene of the day's festivities is hard to tell, for they did not go together. Some started early this morning to walk to Hingham. This was not because they wanted to save their car fare but because they wanted exercise and wanted to be on the scene of the rendezvous early so as to have their pick for the day among the female portion of the party.

Others drove the fiery steeds that were wont to be used in delivering groceries, while still others went on the cars. All went early, for when the 9 o'clock train left for Hingham, the only representative of the association from this city was Joe Johnson. Plain Joe, there was no lady about it. This leads us to believe that the others who went by rail took the 8 o'clock train.

The outline of the programme is to leave Hingham at 9:30 and march to the music of the Abington band to the gardens. Here there will be amusements of all kinds until 5 o'clock.

Among some of the numerous amusements not down on the programme might be mentioned:

That Osborn Rogers will try to blow the lung testing machine off the ground.

That John W. Nash will try and pull the handle of the lifting machine out of the socket.

That Lester M. Pratt will try and absorb electricity enough from the shocking machine to illuminate his store equal to kerosene.

That ——— will try and convert the missing links at Little Walter.

That John Burbeck will try the capacity of his stomach in storing away colored lemonade.

That Bob Johnson will hang about the bath houses with his hat off. Reserved seats for bald heads.

That George Wilson will try and explain to the spectators what he doesn't know about playing ball.

Of course in handling a quantity of window screens, some get bruised a little, just as good for service, however. Now for the abused and orphaned ones, 25 cents while they last. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

INCENDIARISM.

The Grain Store of F. H. Crane & Sons Set on Fire.

SUSPICIOUS PERSONS SEEN.

The Presence of Kerosene Inside a Broken Window Leaves No Doubt.

It was about 10 o'clock Wednesday evening when the police were notified that F. H. Crane & Sons grain store was on fire.

Officer Hanson rushed to Box 26 to give the alarm and Officer McKay to the fire. The latter officer seeing the location smashed in the window and saw a canvas bag blazing on a pile of grain. He secured a bucket of water which he dashed on to the flames and by that time the apparatus from the central station arrived and the fire was extinguished with trifling loss.

An investigation after the fire showed that the bag referred to was saturated with kerosene and had evidently been pushed through a broken light of glass in the window and lighted, for Officer McKay says that when he arrived there one of the lights in the window was broken.

As usual, when Box 26 is sounded, a large crowd soon gathered. The cities and towns included in the park system are Boston, Cambridge, Chelsea, Everett, Lynn, Malden, Medford, Newton, Quincy, Somerville, Waltham, Arlington, Belmont, Braintree, Brookline, Canton, Dedham, Dover, Hingham, Hull, Hyde Park, Melrose, Milton, Needham, Nahant, Revere, Saugus, Stoneham, Swampscott, Wakefield, Watertown, Weston, Weymouth, Winchester and Winthrop.

Some of the towns are near one reservation and some another, but towns like Hull, Hingham, Weymouth and Dover will not be benefitted as much as others not included. The district should be enlarged so that the assessments may not only be smaller but more equitable.

George B. Nash says that he came out from Boston on the train due here at 9:30. When he went down Coddington street on his way home he saw one man on the corner apparently on the watch and another standing near the side entrance. While Mrs. Harris says she saw three men, Mr. Nash saw but two.

The police are investigating the matter and it is hoped that the parties will be apprehended and brought to justice.

TODAY'S COURT.

It was "fine day" today at the local session of the district court. There was a fine large audience and most of the sentences were disposed of by fines.

Thomas Judicia was fined $5 for drunkenness at Quincy.

John Grady was fined $5 for drunkenness at Quincy.

Lawrence Sutton of Randolph was fined $13.47 for assault on John Sutton.

Laura Nason of Holbrook, who was arraigned Wednesday for being a night walker, was this morning placed on probation for six months.

Thomas B. Hayes of Quincy was arraigned for violating the city ordinances by using profane, indecent and insulting language on the public highways and was fined $10.

James D. Taber of Weymouth was arraigned for breaking and entering the stone sheds of E. C. Willison, and the larceny of two bush hammers valued at $12, the property of Thomas Walker. Case continued until Saturday.

John Hanson of Randolph was arraigned for beating his young daughter Mary. Case continued for two weeks.

Lawn Party.

Some of the young people of the Epworth League gathered on the grounds of the Methodist parsonage, Wednesday evening, for a lawn party.

Ice cream and cake were served; and good cold water from Mr. Fuller's Shawmut Spring. Chinese lanterns were hung about the grounds, which were not all lighted on account of the wind. Fireworks furnished by Miss Emma Kimball enlivened the occasion. A part of the company enjoyed music and the pictures and photograph albums of the pastor in the house. A very pleasant evening was spent, and quite a company of small folks looked on from the street.

The Midnight Trip.

In response to a general request by a number of prominent citizens, the City of Quincy will make a midnight excursion this evening. The steamer will leave the wharf at Quincy Point at 10 o'clock for a four hours' sail, going as far as Minot's, if possible, before returning. Light refreshments will be served during the trip and ice cool lemonade will be on tap during the whole voyage. This trip will be a sort of a novelty, and if as many participants as it is expected, a jolly good time will be had.

The yearly salary of Ida Lewis, the famous keeper of the Lime Rock light-house, at the south end of Newport harbor, is $750 and two tons of coal. She is past fifty now, her hair slightly streaked with gray, and her face somewhat rugged and weather-beaten, but she is still alert and strong, and can man her boat in the roughest weather.

An electric car left the track on Bent's hill, Wednesday night, and brought up head on against a telephone pole. No little damage was done and no one was injured.

A lawn party will be given at the residence of Mr. J. J. Lord on Hancock street, Wollaston, this evening, in aid of St. Chrysostom's Episcopal church. An orchestra will furnish music.

At the drive-party on Wednesday evening, Mrs. S. A. Miller, Coddington street, won the lady's prize, and E. W. H. Bass the gentlemen's prize. After returning from the fire they enjoyed some of Wales' nice ice cream and cake.

Most everything about the centre in the way of stores, with the exception of the drug and news stores is closed up. Many of the proprietors and clerks are at Downer's while others have gone to other places. A very few perhaps are at home hoeing the weeds from their gardens.

The yacht Mudjewis is on her return from Bar Harbor having on board Dr. Edwin E. Davis, Mr. Leon M. Abbott, Dr. Frank S. Davis and Mr. Frank B. Tallman. All are well and have thus far enjoyed a very delightful cruise although they have been detained by fogs somewhat.

The yacht with all on board left Rockland Wednesday morning for Boothbay. Weather permitting, the party will reach Quincy, Sunday, July 22.

Friends of Howard S. Freeman, who was principal of the John Hancock school in this city about two years ago, will be pleased to learn of his success, having been appointed superintendent of schools in Fairhaven and also principal of the High School there. They also congratulate him on getting away from that unpleasantness at Sandwich, Bourne and Mashpee, where one town wants one superintendent, and another another.

W. H. Nelson, who is in the drug business at Kingsville, Me., has so much confidence in Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy that he warrants every bottle and offers to refund money to any customer who is not satisfied after using it. Mr. Nelson takes no risk in doing this because the Remedy is a certain cure for the diseases for which it is intended and he knows it.

THE SHAWMUT SPRING.

The Shawmut Spring is located at the base of a high hill near the Metropolitan Park reservation, on land owned by the undersigned.

This water has been in constant use by workmen from all the quarries in the vicinity, as well as residents of immediate surroundings, for fifty years at least.

Workmen and other persons have come from miles away to get water from this spring, while other springs and wells are very much nearer to them, thus showing their appreciation of this water.

The water is very cold in summer, and never freezes in winter.

The location being at the base of the hill, with nothing but trees and rocks above it, no wash from cultivated fields or other polluted ground can enter it.

The unsatisfactory waters we are compelled to drink, and the earnest solicitations of friends, induce me to offer this water to the public at a normal price, trusting that its merits will sustain the reputation with patrons that it now has with those who have long known it.

This water will be furnished to all patrons in such quantities as may be desired.

Yours truly, F. J. FULLER.

West Quincy, July 1894.

Having made use of Shawmut Spring water in my family, I take great pleasure in recommending it to others as superior in taste and purity to any other spring water I know of.

CARY FOR GOVERNOR.

People's Party of Massachusetts Passes Resolutions of Labor Men.

BOSTON, July 19.—The People's party of the state of Massachusetts assembled in the Arcade hall yesterday. The state ticket nominated was as follows:

Governor—George Howard Cary of Lynn.

Lieutenant Governor—W. O. Dwinell of Danvers.

Treasurer and Receiver General—Dr. M. W. Moran of Boston.

Auditor—M. W. Landers of Pittsfield.

Secretary of State—Carlton S. Beals of Brockton.

Attorney General—James Sumner of Newton.

After the convention was called to order by Henry R. Legate, chairman of the state committee, Dr. P. P. Field of Boston was unanimously made chairman of the day and W. E. Everson of West Hanover secretary.

E. G. Brown made a speech upon the question of platform—the point which he insisted upon being that the only remedy for the evils heaped upon labor by capital is to be found in the ballot box and in voting for candidates of the People's party. Mr. Brown concluded by reading the resolutions adopted June 18 by the representatives of the labor organizations of Massachusetts, and moved that they be adopted as the platform of this convention.

The principles in these resolutions, briefly stated, are set forth in the following propositions: The abolition of all kinds of issue, and that the government shall issue money direct to the people; the establishment of a postal savings bank; the restoration of silver to the place it held prior to 1873; public ownership of the railroads, telegraph and telephone companies; that the public lands be declared inalienable except to actual settlers; legislation by initiative and referendum; denounce the use of the government fiat to create interest-bearing bonds; favor a graduated income tax; that sworn returns of personal property be insisted upon for purposes of taxation; repeal of the special privilege voted to the electric light monopoly which prevents municipalities from doing their own lighting; legislation against stock watering; strengthening of the laws relating to the employment of women and minors in factories; laws for the protection of life and limb in all occupations; universal suffrage on an educational test; abolition of the sweating system; sanitary inspection of all places where labor is employed; abolition of the contract labor system; an eight-hour day; the sale of liquor on the Norwegian system.

The general impression is that the accused will be convicted.

TOOL THIEF CAPTURED.

Arrested in a Boston Pawn Shop with Tools Stolen Tuesday Night.

For the past two or three months Quincy seems to have been selected by a gang of thieves as a place where they could break and enter and carry away a quantity of tools and not be detected, but like the pitcher that was carried to the well, they came once too often and thanks to the efforts of Chief Hayden and Officer Ferguson one of the gang is in the clutches of the law.

Ever since the first break these officers have been on the alert, and although up to the present time they were unable to capture the parties it has not been because they did not try.

Wednesday morning it was reported to the police that the sheds of E. C. Willison and W. A. Smith at South Quincy, had been entered and 30 bush hammers valued at $180 taken.

Word was sent to police headquarters Boston, and shortly after an Italian named Antonio G. Carissino was arrested by officers of station 4 in a pawn shop on Kneeland street in the act of pawning four of the hammers taken from Quincy Tuesday night.

Notice was immediately sent to Quincy and Officer Ferguson was sent in Boston and he brought the man out.

He is a comparatively young man, and although he doubtless can speak English if he chooses, he was silent, and all efforts to make him talk were without result.

Although this is only one of the gang it is hoped that his arrest will lead to the apprehension of the others and that the gang will be broken up.

Carissino was arraigned in the District Court this morning.

THAT OLD MILE STONE.

Not As Valuable Perhaps As an Historical Relic As It Might Be.

Attention was called a few days ago to an old mile stone said to have been lately unearthed at Norfolk Downs, which is thought to indicate that the old road from Boston to Plymouth must have formerly passed near that spot. In July 1892 Mr. Charles F. Adams with Edwin W. Marsh and Mr. H. T. Whitman visited Norfolk Downs for the purpose of examining a stone with the inscription given in the article; Mr. Whitman having reported the existence of such a stone in that locality. They found the stone supporting a fence corner upon the farm formerly owned and occupied by Mr. Rawson. After careful investigation they concluded that it was placed there by Mr. Rawson, whom they knew to be a worker in slate, from the refuse of his shop.

First, because they knew that the old road was located much farther west, and second, because they knew that before the turnpike was opened there was no way by which Boston could be reached from that locality without travelling a much longer distance than that given upon the mile stone.

The following wills were allowed at Dedham Wednesday: Caleb Foote, Milton; Nancy McQue, Dedham; L. P. Hawes, Providence, R. I.; Fidelia Grant, Wellesley; C. E. Perry, Milton; E. T. Nelligan, Weymouth; E. A. Delgado, Wellesley; P. W. Pierce, Brookline.

Letters of administration were granted on the estates of C. H. Hardwick, Quincy; Michael Cullinane, Hyde Park; George Harvey, Brookline; L. J. Byden, Foxboro; A. L. Cook, Bellingham; A. S. Moore, Randolph.

There were several accounts allowed, inventories filed and guardians appointed.

The Old Headstones.

Editors of the Daily Ledger:

In a recent issue of the LEDGER the attention of our Historical Society is called to errors upon certain headstones in our old cemetery, and the suggestion is made that some effort should be made to correct the errors which are represented to exist.

One of these errors, as represented, is on the stone erected to the memory of Lieut. Alexander Marsh, on which, it is alleged, his death is recorded as of March 7th, 1628. We find by the Braintree records that "Lt. Alexander Marsh died the seventh day of March, Anno Domini, 1608." The inscription upon his headstone, as correctly quoted in Patee's History, page 134, gives the same date, March 7th, 1608. A new inscription upon the stone shows that the old inscription was renewed in 1824 by my grandfather, Wilson Marsh, who knew very well the date of the death of his great grandfather, and would be very sure not to make an error in perpetuating it.

A careful inspection will show that a small flake has been broken from the stone, leaving a ridge running from the bottom of the figure 9, leading your observer to mistake it for a figure 2.

The Massachusetts Board of Health

IN THEIR 24th REPORT (1893)

make the statement that Sarsaparillas containing Iodide of Potassium are unsafe to use, excepting under the supervision of an experienced physician, and that their continued use tend to impoverish instead of purifying the blood. Also that in many cases they act as a DIRECT POISON, and cause serious trouble, defeating the object for which they are taken.

ALL THE LEADING SARSAPARILLAS were analyzed and found to contain this poisonous chemical in various quantities, EXCEPTING ALLEN'S, which was found entirely free from Iodide of Potassium or other chemicals, and to be purely vegetable, thereby verifying our claim that it is the "HONEST KIND."

This is an unprejudiced statement made by the most scientific body of men in New England as a WARNING TO THE PUBLIC against the use of dangerous and injurious medicines. ALLEN'S is the HONEST KIND, the safe kind, and the kind that CONQUERS DISEASE.

Physicians and druggists unite in its recommendation.

THE SENATE MEASURE

Is Favored by Republican Conferencees on the Tariff.

THEY INTEND TO PROLONG DEBATE

If Many Radical Changes Are Made in the Bill.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The program for handling the tariff disagreement when it is reported to the house has been substantially agreed on. Mr. Wilson will make a brief verbal report as soon as the house convenes. Mr. Catherings thereupon will present a special rule allowing two hours' debate, at the end of which time a vote will be taken on again sending the bill to conference. It is expected that there will be some objection to this rule. When the bill is again sent to conference there will be no change in the personnel of the house conference. The Democratic conference resumed their work on the tariff bill yesterday. They were arranging their report for a general disagreement. Chairman Voorhees, in his statement to the full committee, did not mention all the items of disagreement. He confined them to sugar, coal, iron ore, lead ore, woolen and cotton goods. There are numerous other disagreements on iron, steel, glass, pottery and hop schedules. In fact, there is a general disagreement all along the line.

The Republican conferencees express themselves as unable to understand why they were called in today. It appears that the Democratic conferencees of the senate conferencees insisted that the Republican conferencees should be called in, and that Voorhees and his associates had committed a blunder. In not calling them in at the outset. In difference, therefore, to these Democratic senators, the Republicans were called in. The Democratic conferencees used their utmost endeavors to get the Republican members to discuss several of the items of disagreement, especially sugar, but they emphatically refused to discuss the sugar question, or give any intimation as to their attitude, or how they would vote on any of the articles in dispute.

They subsequently informed the Democratic conferencees that they favored the senate bill as it passed, and proposed to pursue a line of policy that would secure the adoption of that measure, it being more nearly on Republican lines, and less disastrous to the important industries in the eastern and middle states. The Republican managers gave notice to the Democratic leaders that if an agreement was reported they would not introduce any further opposition to the passage of the bill, but they threaten, if there are radical changes, to reopen the fight and prolong debate to an indefinite period.

Big Gathering of Republicans.

CONCORD, N. H., July 19.—The meeting of the Republican state committee last evening attracted this morning the largest gathering of Republicans from all parts of the state ever known on a similar occasion. The committee was called to order in the Republican state headquarters by Chairman Jewett at 8.30 o'clock, and the selection of times and places for holding the various conventions was at once proceeded with. It was decided to hold the state convention in White's Opera House, this city, on Sept. 1, the first district congressional convention at the Weirs Music Hall on Sept. 6, and the second district congressional convention in White's Opera House on Sept. 5. After fixing the convention, senatorial district and county conventions the committee adjourned.

Germany Willing to Compromise.

BERLIN, July 19.—The government, it is said, does not propose to make reprisals in consequence of the new American sugar tariff. A general tariff war against the United States, it added, would ruin the German export trade, and Germany will therefore seek to arrive at some agreement with the United States.

Cold Comfort For Suffragists.

ALBANY, July 19.—The committee on suffrage in the administration of government does not afford the progress of the American inventor, who, being on the alert, and ready to perceive the existing deficiencies, does not permit the affairs of government to determine him from quickly conceiving the remedy to overcome existing deficiencies. Two great cars cannot be expected in choosing a competent and skillful attorney to prepare and prosecute an application for patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed in innumerable instances by the employment of incompetent counsel, and especially is this advice applicable to those who adopt the "No patent, no pay" system. Investors who intrust their business to this class of attorneys do so at imminent risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a quick endeavor to get an allowance and obtain the fee then due. THE PRESS CLAIMS COMPANY, John W. Wedderburn, General Manager, 618 F Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, as well as general periodicals of the country, was instituted to protect its patrons from the unsafe methods heretofore employed in this line of business. The said Company is prepared to take charge of all patent business entrusted to it for reasonable fees, and prepares and prosecutes applications generally, including mechanical inventions, design patents, trade marks, labels, copyrights, infringements, and validity reports, and gives especial attention to rejected cases. It is also prepared to enter into competition with any firm in securing foreign patents.

Reduction of Bail Wanted.

PITTSFIELD, Mass., July 19.—The case against ex-Receiver Hobbs of the Stockbridge Savings bank for embezzlement has been continued until the next criminal term of court. An attempt will be made to have his bail reduced from $30,000 to $10,000.

Fire in the Fall.

CHIPPewa FALLS, Wis., July 19.—Forest fires are burning furiously in the vicinity of Boyd. Northern Wisconsin is like a tinder box on account of the long drought. Unless rain comes soon great damage will be done to pine and hard wood tracts.

Gillen Badly Beaten.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., July 19.—Paddy Sheehan, lightweight champion of the L-high valley, boxed Peter Gillen of Philadelphia in a six-round contest here. Sheehan floored Gillen 21 times and pummeled him horribly. The stake was $100.

Carpet Works Idle.

THOMPSONVILLE, Conn., July 19.—Several departments of the carpet works here shut down today for an indefinite period. About 400 operatives are thrown out of employment. Business depression is the cause.

An Important Capture.

BRUSSELS, July 19.—The Official Gazette announces the arrest in Serbia of Baron von Sternberg, chief of the international band of anarchists.

A Mining Disaster.

GALENA, Ill., July 19.—By a premature blast in the Sally Waters mine John McKenna was killed and John Quirk fatally injured. Two others received injuries.

CLEVELAND'S LETTER

The All-Absorbing Topic at the Na- tional Capital.

ITS EFFECT UPON THE SENATE
Is Now Anxiously Awaited by Both Parties.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The news of the reading of President Cleveland's letter was not long in traveling from the house to the senate. Mr. Wilson had kept his secret of the possession of the letter well guarded, and it proved a decided sensa- tion.

A copy was taken into the Democratic cloak room and read in turn by groups of senators of four or five, one of them generally reading it aloud to the others, and in other instances two of them look- ing over the shoulders and reading with the senator holding the copy.

After senators became familiar with its contents they again gathered in groups to discuss the document. So intense and general was the interest that for two or three hours very little attention was paid to routine proceedings on the floor of the senate. While no senator hesitated to express his views privately, the Demo- cratic senators were loath to submit to interviews for publication.

They said that their circumstances were unusual, and that their action as a body being opposite to the position taken by the president, they could not give pub- licity to their opinion.

During the afternoon there were several conferences among the Demo- cratic leaders, and at first there was a dispo- sition to refuse further conference on the tariff bill. This was advised by quite a number who felt very much aggrieved at the course taken in the house.

Upon the suggestion of a senator, known as conservative, it was agreed that a peaceful policy would be the best. Ac- cordingly several well-known Democrats went about and advised moderation in the coming speeches. They suggested that having got thus far, it was now best to devote every effort to secure the adop- tion of the bill and to avoid any friction.

Waiting For Developments.

On the house side the question as to whether the tariff situation had been simplified or further complicated by the president's letter was the subject of much speculation after the proceedings of the day. Members on both sides of the cham- ber agreed that it would have a profound impression on the situation, but there was a disposition to wait until its effects on the senate had been seen before prophesying the result.

The letter, together with Mr. Wilson's speech, constituted a declaration of policy which was very satisfactory to the revenue reform element in the house. It was construed to mean that the house would never yield its principle of free raw materials, and in this it had the strong support and influence of the president.

As to the effect of the latter on the sugar conflict there was wide divergence of opinion. The Louisiana members pro- fessed to be well pleased with the presi- dent's letter, and said that it clearly recog- nized and approved the policy of raising revenue from sugar. On the other hand, those members who have most persistently urged free sugar expressed apprehension over the letter. They said it seemed to make a deadlock certain.

The Republican View.

From the Republican standpoint the general view was expressed by Repre- sentative Hopkins of Illinois, a Republi- can member of the ways and means com- mittee:

"President Cleveland's letter is without precedent in the history of the country," said he, "the Queen of England—even the Georges in their most arbitrary day—would not have dared to express such views to a legislative branch of govern- ment. It absolutely precludes the possi- bility of the passage of a tariff bill. The senate cannot yield after such a letter without humiliation and disgrace, and the house cannot yield without disre- garding the views of the president, and if in any event the house should yield to the senate bill, the plain meaning of the letter is that the president would veto the bill. The president has therefore made a tariff settlement impossible."

Endorsed by Mills.

Senator Mills said: "I endorse the senti- ments expressed in the president's letter, especially what he says concerning lead and iron ores. If I had my way, all ores would be on the free list. If the bill can be defeated let those who advance the ex- treme ideas expressed in the senate bill bear the responsibility."

Representative Sperry of Connecticut, one of the Democrats who voted against the Wilson bill after making a hard cam- paign for protection for the tobacco in- terests of his state, is inclined to think that congress is involved in a deadlock. He said that he did not see how either the senate or the house could yield, particu- larly as the senate conferees did not have the necessary votes to pass any other than the senate bill. "The president's letter," he said, "cuts both ways."

Senator Hawley (Rep., Conn.) said: "It is the greatest mistake ever made by a president of the United States and ought to be resented."

Senator Hill said: "I prefer to say nothing at this time as to the propriety or wisdom of the letter. It comes rather late and may complicate the whole situa- tion and defeat all tariff legislation what- ever. If the president, instead of writing a letter, had exercised his influence to as- sist me in getting votes for free raw ma- terials, when I was making the fight in the senate, the present unfortunate com- plications might have been avoided. I trust there will be more votes now for free raw material when I bring forward the proposition again in the senate, which I expect to do. The skies are threaten- ing."

BUSINESS IMPROVING.

Heavy Receipts at Chicago Packing Houses—Many Men Working.

CHICAGO, July 20.—The Debs manifesto, warning all railroad men at the stock- yards to desist from work or be "branded as scabs," seemed to have little effect on the men to whom it was addressed, or upon the situation at the stockyards gen- erally. Railroad employees returned to their work as usual, switching was con- tinued and the packers seemed inclined to treat the matter as a joke.

The receipts of the different packing houses showed that business was improv- ing. There came in 13,000 head of cattle, 28,000 hogs and 5000 sheep.

The stockyards company will endeavor to solve the problem of securing protection for its men outside of working hours by lodging and boarding them in its own buildings. Cots were placed in some of the houses yesterday.

The rough treatment of workmen by strikers still goes on, and coupling pins are being used on heads nearly as often as on trains. Considerable alarm is felt lest the fire of Wednesday night should prove to be only the first of a number of outrages.

The federal grand jury yesterday re- turned 29 indictments and was dis- charged. District Attorney Mitchell re- fused to give the names of any of the in- dicted persons, beyond admitting that there were several new indictments against Debs and the chief officers of the Railway Union.

Youth Charged With Forgery.

BOSTON, July 20.—Many a Charlestown mill shed a silent tear last night when it was learned that George Steele, a popular youth of 19, had strayed from the straight, but narrow path, and fallen in shame by the wayside. Some persons are sad because he has gone, and others be- cause they cannot find him. Among the latter none feel worse than the Monu- mental National bank people, and they es- timate their grief at just about $900. They allege that he kept up his rapid pace of living he has forged upon them several worthless checks, which they would like accounted for.

North Dakota's Republican Ticket.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., July 20.—The Republican state convention nominated the following ticket: M. N. Johnson, re- nominated for congress; for governor, Roger Allin; lieutenant governor, John H. Fancher; attorney general, John W. Gowan; supreme judge, J. M. Bartholo- mew.

A Costly Joke.

NEWPORT, R. I., July 20.—Thomas Sweeney, an aged man, died yesterday from concussion of the brain, after a sick- ness of a week, during which he was un- conscious. About a week ago he tried to stop Albert Burton's horse, partly joking, but the latter struck Sweeney over the head, the police claim, with the butt end of a whip, and death was due to the blow. Burton has been arrested, charged with manslaughter.

May Carry It Into Court.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., July 20.—The mill agents of this city held a private meeting yesterday for the purpose of con- sidering the enforcement of the weavers' particulars bill. Some of the agents gave it as their opinion that the bill is uncon- stitutional, and it is understood, ex- pressed a desire to test its constitution- ality.

Duel In a Barroom.

BALTIMORE, July 20.—John E. Fagan, saloon keeper, and Harry Portis, a former bartender, had a duel with pistols in the former's saloon last night. The trouble arose over paying for some drinks. Samuel Laviz, an innocent party, was shot in the shoulder. Fagan and Portis will die.

Carelessness Cost $176,000.

EL PASO, Tex., July 20.—The careless handling of a lighted match by a young lady who was heating a curling iron in the basement of Schaefer's dry goods store cost a number of residents of this city an aggregate of $176,000.

In Camp With Co. K.

It was intensely hot at the camp of the second brigade at Framingham on Thursday, and the soldiers suffered. One man in the fifth regiment was overcome by heat and taken to the hospital. An incident of the day occurred in the afternoon, when a civilian attempted to jump the guard fence of the fifth regiment and was arrested. He escaped, the full guard was called out, and he was rearrested. While trying to avoid a bayonet of one of the guards he put his hand behind him, receiving a bad thrust through that member. It is said that every guard house in camp is full.

GROCERS AT DOWNERS.

A General Holiday in Quincy and the Old Colony District.

All were grocers yesterday and Downer Landing was the objective point. The departure of the Quincy contingent has already been noted. They met at Hingham about 9 A. M., where were also large delegations from Braintree, Weymouth, Randolph, Holbrook Hingham and elsewhere. Just previous to taking up the line of march at 9:30, Miss Ethel H. Studley, in behalf of the ladies, presented the union with a beautiful banner of purple, inscribed: "Old Colony Grocers' and Provision Dealers' Union." President Humphrey responded.

In the procession were several advertising features, making it about a mile long. It was headed by Andrew McNeil as chief marshal and escorted by the Abington brass band.

All day long there was a continuous series of sports with valuable prizes, but all found time to partake of one of the famous shore dinners and enjoy the dance hall, bowling, boating, etc., as pleased their fancy.

The proprietors were easy victors in the great ball match, the score being 19 to 4. The race for the pig was one of the best features of the day, and his hogship was captured by F. H. Holmes of Weymouth.

The obstacle races first for proprietors and afterwards for clerks were of great interest. Contestants had to walk over a rope fence, crawl through a barrel, climb over a hay rack of boxes, pass under a ladder and back.

The sack race was won by William Front of Quincy, and J. Rapson won second prize in the swimming match.

There were also a potato race, high jump, tub race, and two 100 yard dashes. Andrew McNeil and Osborne Rogers were the committee on sports.

Among the incidents of the day might be mentioned the fact that Messrs. Tisdale and Durgin who gambled about together were taken for twins; that Wesley Walsh took good care of the baby; that Pratt and Rogers differed on the conduct of the police officer, that George Nash did not wear a tall hat when he left Quincy, but that he sported one in the gardens which was quite a load for him; that Bob Johnson nearly burst when the officer wanted the crowd to stand back "that the referee might decide to whom belonged the pig."

Blagden-Hobart.

A very pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. Winslow Hobart, on High street, South Quincy, Wednesday, at noon, the contracting parties being his eldest daughter, Miss Emma F., and Mr. Fred P. Blagden, of Hyannis, Mass. Rev. Mr. Hunt officiated. The bride wore a gown of cream white nun's veiling and carried a bouquet of pink pond lilies.

The couple were attended by Mr. Charles A. Hobart, a cousin of the bride, and Miss Alice Hoxie a cousin of the groom. There were many handsome presents. Mr. and Mrs. Blagden left on the three o'clock train for their home in Hyannis, accompanied by friends as far as Boston, there bidding them adieu and wishing them God speed on their journey through life.

Melville Gardens, Downer Landing.

Downer Landing is as attractive as ever, and Quincy people may reach it easily by train to Hingham where barges connect, or it is a very pretty drive from this city. The clambakes and dance hall are ever popular, but these are only a small part of the attractions. The familiar faces of J. D. Scudder, George L. Odiorne and others are there this season, and Quincy people are warmly greeted. Supt. Scudder hopes to see the line of Quincy electric extended to the gardens before another season, and so would Quincy and Weymouth people.

A number of years ago, a member of one of the old churches in Quincy presented it with some elegant satin damask which he had brought from Paris. It was rich crimson in color, and was very effective when hung across one end of the church behind the pulpit. The course of time has faded it, and recently John H. Pray, Sons & Co. had new stuff made in Paris after the color and fashion of the original. About one hundred yards were required, which made a rather expensive drapey at something like $8 per yard.—Boston's letter to Philadelphia Upholsterer.

On Friday afternoon, the 13th inst., the Misses Linnell gave a lawn party in honor of their cousin, Master Fred L. Gross, at their residence in Wollaston Park. Among those present were Misses Julia and Susie Page, Rena Grant, Grace Millberry and Master Hadley Polk. Refreshments were served, which were especially appreciated.

It is said that Alvin H. Dexter and others are negotiating for the purchase of the old Fitchburg depot in Boston, with the view of transforming it into a theatre.

WEYMOUTH.

Forty was the quota which East Weymouth contributed toward the midnight excursion on the steamer Thursday night. Among other well known person were noted the "genial Ben Lovell" and "Dong" Easton. F. D. Thayer was on deck and "Chet" well, the piercing tones of his tenor voice may still be heard outside of Minot's light, so it is said. All enjoyed the occasion and some are planning for a grander party in the near future.

F. H. Holmes, the popular young grocer on High street, is the possessor of a young pig which he caught in quite a greasy condition at Downer Landing at the Grocer's picnic.

Other prizes also came to Weymouth, E. W. Hunt winning the obstacle race and the 100-yard dash, and Eugene Smith the swimming race. F. H. Holmes won third prize in one of the obstacle races and second in the 100-yard dash, and Fred L. Loring a third prize in one of the obstacle races.

Picnic of the Methodist Sunday School at Lovell's Grove today.

Cyrus Washburn of East Weymouth has presented East Bridgewater, his native place, with a public library building to be erected on the site of the Catholic church burned a few years ago. Mr. Washburn at an early age engaged in building in company with his father. He removed to East Weymouth, where he engaged in business, and as the iron trade was then in its booming days he was financially interested in the work of the enterprises here. He put his money into real estate, and it proved to be well invested.

HOUGHS NECK

Mails close for Quincy at 8 A. M. and 5 P. M. Arrive at 8:50 and 6 P. M.

A letter hanging in the postoffice is a warning against directing letters to "Manet Beach." This letter mailed at Brockton went to Manomet Beach and thence to the dead letter office, but finally reached its destination at Houghs Neck. The post office is Houghs Neck and that is the generally accepted name of the summer resort.

The question now is not what the courts will do with Debs and his associates, but what can we do to keep cool. There are various methods of keeping cool, but the best way is to lay in a supply of rattan furniture, which is the coolest thing made. C. W. Guy and W. G. Shaw carry a full and complete line of rattan furniture. Give them a call at the Quincy Coliseum.

The unclaimed body at Brookville, Avon, has been claimed by a West Brookfield man. A careless piece of business somewhere.

Wollaston Campers.

Bisby of Holbrook are camping at Sherman's Point, Camden, Maine. Although each of these couples have become engaged during the past year, the young ladies have been re-elected to their positions and will teach the coming year. They are having splendid weather for their coast outing.

PRESIDENTIAL LASH

Has Caused Some Smarting on Demo-

KEY TO THE TARIFF POSITION

Is Still Held by a Small Coterie of Senators.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The fight is on. The gauntlet has been thrown down, and no one can predict what is to be the outcome of the contention between the two houses.

The belief is now very general that the house will not yield to the senate. The belief is equally strong that the senate will stand firmly by the position which they have taken. In other words, that the Gorman-Brice-Smith-Camden combination will never yield, and that the production of Cleveland's letter will defeat the purpose of those who produced it.

The publication at this particular time, it is believed, will have the effect of widening the breach that already existed. It will unquestionably strengthen and reassure those who advocated the original Wilson bill. But that it will convince or create the attitude of the senate bill is inconceivable.

It is admitted that the little coterie of Democratic senators hold the key to the position; that no tariff legislation can pass that does not meet their approval. They took that position early in the controversy, and have repeatedly announced, and they now announce again, that it must be the senate bill or nothing.

Can They Hold Out?

Will the little band of Democratic senators maintain their influence over the 37 Democratic senators who yielded to them in the first instance? Will the 37 still continue to stand together now that they know the position of President Cleveland and his administration on the pending tariff legislation? Will they persist in their attitude?

The Democratic senators generally, as did also the Republicans, felt sure that the lower house would finally rather yield than to have no tariff bill. Now, however, the situation is changed. The president has touched a tender spot in the Democratic creed concerning tariff reform, which they not only promised, but pledged themselves to the people to secure in the event that success crowned their efforts.

Will there be any tariff legislation at the present session? The consensus of opinion among distinguished observers here and also among the Republican minority in both houses is that the tariff bill is in greater peril now than it has been at any time since congress assembled, and that what was once merely a difference of opinion as to public policy has been crystallized into a sentiment of personal vindication and self-defense. Tariff legislation, as a rule, is a matter of concession and compromise, and in that light it can be approached with dignity. Transformed into matter of discipline and coercion, it bristles with every form of difficulty.

South and West Satisfied.

Many of the Democratic senators regard the publication of the president's letter as amounting to an accusation against those who framed the bill, and, in fact, every senator who voted for the amended measure. Many prominent Democratic representatives in the south and west now take the position that they can go to their constituents and make a better and more successful contest for re-election in their present attitude than to yield to the dictation of a few Democratic senators who are endeavoring to secure the passage of a tariff bill which, in the judgment of a large majority of their party, is little better than the McKinley bill.

The senate is now the focus of public attention. The game of battle which has been flung into the arena was taken up and will be contested to the bitter end. It is evident from the indignation manifested, and the tone of their conversation among their friends, that the Gorman combination is smarting under the sting of the presidential lash.

Yesterday's Debate.

Emphatic as were the declarations on the Democratic side of the senate chamber yesterday, and important and interesting as the proceedings were as a whole, there was nothing in them to definitely mark the situation with reference to the tariff bill.

When the senate adjourned, after five hours of exchange of views on the part of Democratic senators, the senators expressed themselves as being as much at sea as when the day's session began. While all of them confessed the futility of an effort to outline the future of the bill, in view of the expressions of the day, they did not, as a rule, hesitate to express their individual views. These were of different and varied shades, ranging all the way from a prediction that an amicable understanding would be reached before the meeting on Monday to the defeat of the bill. There was no effort on the part of Democratic senators to conceal the fact that the adjournment till Monday was taken for the purpose of making an effort to bring the diverging elements of the party together.

There is no doubt that Monday will be mainly devoted by a large element in the party to cause Senator Vilas to withdraw his amendment to the sugar schedule providing for a recession by the senate from the portion of the sugar schedule of the senate which provides a differential duty of 1-8 cent a pound on refined sugar. The introduction of this amendment by the Wisconsin senator was the one event of importance yesterday bearing upon the fate of the bill.

The amendment, if it should prevail, would strike the bill in what the members of the finance committee believe would prove to be a vital part, and they will exhaust all their resources to have it withdrawn. It is generally believed at this time that if a vote is taken upon the amendment in any shape it will prevail. The temptation is strong with many Democrats to take this course, and the only thing that will restrain them is the fear of the defeat of the bill if it should carry.

In the House.

Half a dozen bills were passed in the house without opposition or debate. One was the bill providing for consular inspection of immigrants and that every immigrant entering the United States must exhibit a certificate of fitness signed by the consul of the port from which he sailed.

Another was a bill inspired by the troubles between the state officials of South Carolina and the United States courts over the collection of taxes from railroads in the hands of receivers, which strips the United States courts of control in the matter of state, county and municipal taxes.

A third important bill revises the whole system of the appointment of United States commissioners, making the term of office limited, materially scaling down their fees and providing that arrested persons shall be brought before the nearest commissioner for settlement. Most of the day was devoted to the discussion of the resolution to amend the constitution by taking away from congress authority over the election of United States senators, and empowering the states to prescribe the times, places and manner of holding elections for senators. No vote was reached.

VAST CROWDS INTERESTED

In the Proceedings of the Baptist Union Convention at Toronto.

TORONTO, July 21.—"Standing room only" was the sign displayed when the Baptist convention resumed last evening. After service Rev. Dr. Lawrence made a strong appeal for funds. He said that he had been promised $3000 voluntarily, and now he wanted an additional $10,000. President Chapman said that if their states would make themselves responsible for $200 each, he would give the same amount. Dr. McLaurin of Detroit also pledged $500. New York responded, and Illinois will give $500.

Rev. Frank L. Wilkins, general secretary, made his announcement on educational plans for 1894-95. Rev. Dr. Ellis delivered an address on relations of young people to missions.

At the Metropolitan church the crush was nearly as great as at Massie music hall. After the opening praise services President Chapman spoke of educational plans for next year. Rev. Newry C. Mable made an address on the open-door work among nations. The feature of the evening was the lecture given by Governor Northen of Georgia. His address was entitled "Christ in Young Manhood."

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, J. H. Chapman, Chicago; vice presidents, F. H. H. Field, New York; J. N. Shentstone, Toronto; Rev. George B. Taylor, Georgia; recording secretary, A. M. Brinckle, Philadelphia; treasurer, Frank Morey, Milwaukee. Board of managers—Rev. E. M. Potest, Connecticut; Rev. C. E. Nash, Kentucky; A. M. Brinckle, Philadelphia; Rev. W. F. Taylor, Washington; Rev. Dr. R. S. McArthur, New York; Rev. L. L. Henson, Maryland; Dr. W. M. Lawrence, Illinois; Rev. W. J. Pendor, Arkansas; William Roach, Jr., South Carolina; Rev. F. R. West, District of Columbia; Rev. A. B. Chaffee, Indiana; Rev. E. F. Lovett, Iowa; M. J. Lewis, South Dakota; O. P. Cason, Oregon.

Must Each Give $3000 Bail.

CHICAGO, July 21.—Only two of the men indicted by the federal grand jury gave bail in the United States court yesterday. They were J. J. Hannahan, vice grand master of the Brotherhood of Firemen, and August Hodges, one of the Brighton Park strikers. Hannahan is charged with intimidating and endeavoring to induce firemen to leave his cab. Delia Howard, Kellher and Rogers figure in five of the indictments. The bail under the five new indictments has been fixed at $3000 upon each charge.

Beaten by Strikers.

PROVIDENCE, July 21.—There is a strike among the waiters of the Providence Athletic association. Last night a company of strikers met Henry George, one of the men who had remained at work, and beat him terribly. His nose was broken, his skull split open and he was seriously injured about the body. Alpha Moun is held by the police. George is in a critical condition.

Jordan Dies of His Injuries.

BOSTON, July 21.—Thomas Jordan, an East Boston man, who was assaulted July 15 in the village of Cordaville, died here last evening as the result of his injuries. Jordan was set upon on a lonely road and terribly beaten. He was thrown into the ditch and was not discovered until daylight. Cordaville has been infested by lawless mobs for several months.

Assaulted by a Negro.

BIDDEFORD, Me., July 21.—Miss Vivienne Hill, a student from Saco, who is a waiter at the Old Orchard hotel, was assaulted near Indian Village there by a negro. The man grabbed her and pointed a revolver at her head, threatening to shoot her if she made an outcry. She fainted, and the girl with her summoned help.

The Same Old Story.

KINGSTOWN, Ire., July 21.—The American sloop Vigilant and the British cutter Britannia started in their ninth race yesterday. The times of the two yachts at the finish were: Britannia, 5h. 7m. 48s.; Vigilant, 5h. 9m. 37s. The Britannia therefore won by 1m. 57s., without counting her estimated time allowance of 1m. 10s.

Crispi's Appeal.

ROME, July 21.—Closing a general debate in the senate yesterday, President Crispi said he appealed to the members to grant a truce of God to enable the government to reorganize its finances. The premier called attention to his own act of self-abnegation in accepting office at a time of unparalleled trouble.

LATEST LABOR MOVE

Is Said to Be to Gain Control of the Nation's Militia.

SCHEME INAUGURATED OUT WEST

Receives the Sanction of Eastern Labor Leaders.

New York, July 23.—The Herald says: The report is current and its authenticity is vouched for by an official attached to one of the most influential of the labor organizations in this city that organized labor throughout the country is to unite in an effort for the conversion of the militia to labor interests. This is to be accomplished by the enlistment of labor men in the national guard in several states.

The movement was inaugurated in the west more than a year ago, and labor leaders in this city who favor the scheme point to the recent conduct of the National Guard in California, who refused to do duty in quelling the railroad riots, as an evidence of what the plan may accomplish.

It has been stated that, as a result of a conference following the recent outbreak in Chicago, an order was promulgated throughout the labor organizations in the east directing the men to enlist in the militia. This is denied by the labor leaders, but the fact remains that the applications for admission to the regiments of the National Guard in this state have recently been more numerous than ever, and among the applicants are many members of the labor organizations.

Knights of Labor Interested.
Some of the applicants are members of the Knights of Labor, and this is regarded as significant, because of the fact that after the railroad riots in Buffalo in 1890 the district assemblies of that order passed resolutions requesting their members to refrain from enlisting in the National Guard, and of those already enlisted it was asked that they should retire at the expiration of their terms of enlistment, or earlier if possible.

The officers of the regiments of the National Guard in this city have no knowledge of the move contemplated by the labor men, but they are now watching applications for membership with more than usual care, and particularly with a view to ascertaining whether or not applicants are members of labor organizations.

Colonel William Seward of the Ninth regiment, N. G. S. N. Y., at the last meeting of the officers of the regiment, gave instructions that hereafter all applicants for membership in the regiment shall be interrogated as to whether or not they are members of any labor organization. If so, the colonel directed, their application should be submitted to him for his personal investigation before the men are enlisted.

Diamond Tips.

Harry Lyons is playing a great game in Providence.

"Cliff" Carroll is undoubtedly out of baseball for good.

Larry Twitchell has been appointed a League umpire in the place of Hartley.

Allen and Scranton are now a tie for first place in the Pennsylvania league.

Kelly's shortstop, Sweeney, has been putting up an excellent article of baseball.

George Wood, the veteran fielder, has been playing superb ball for the Allentowns.

Lovett, released by the Boston, has about the lowest batting percentage in the country.

Few clubs in the country have made as few changes in their personnel as the Providence team.

Manager Buckenburger admits that he talked up Pittsburgh to Amos Rusie, but that it was all in a joke.

The Pittsburgh Dispatch says that "Tim Hurst ought never to set foot again in Pittsburgh as an umpire."

A game is to be played in Baltimore July 23 between the actors and a team to be organized by Jake Kilrain.

The Philadelphia club had to surrender to Pitcher Taylor, and that accounts for his reappearance with the team.

Manchester, Lowell and Worcester are partners in baseball misery. It seems impossible to get the game on a stable basis in these cities.

The Worcester Spy says that the club there should have located near the center of the city. Many people who did not have the car fare to spare would not walk to the lake.

Denny Lyons has gone on a spree which has cost him a $100 fine and the $200 bonus promised him if he refrained from drinking during the season. In addition to that he has been suspended indefinitely.

The latest prediction as to the outcome of the championship race comes from Billy Hamilton of the Philadelphia, and this is it: Boston first, Baltimore second, Philadelphia third, New York fourth and Cleveland fifth.

Freight Train Derailed.

WEST WINSTED, Conn., July 23.—A freight train on the Philadelphia, Reading and New England road was wrecked at New Hartford. The storm covered the rails on a sharp curve with dirt and the engine and one car were derailed. Engineer Smith had his ribs broken and side badly wrenched. Brakeman Keenan was thrown 20 feet, but escaped with few bruises.

Kidnapper Kills a Pursuer.

CHICAGO, July 23.—William Fletcher attempted to kidnap his 3-year-old daughter from her mother, from whom Fletcher was separated. Having secured the child, Fletcher was pursued by his wife, screaming for assistance. Fred Effenzler endeavored to stop Fletcher. In the scuffle between the two men, Fletcher shot Effenzler twice, killing him instantly.

Gift to Maiden Hospital.

MALDEN, Mass., July 23.—E. F. Bickford, superintendent of the Boston Rubber Shoe company, has signified his intention to give the Maiden hospital a building to be used as a nurses' dormitory, which is to be located on the hospital grounds. The building will cost $1500, and work on it will be commenced at once.

To Help Debs.

NEW YORK, July 23.—Now that the bitter railroad strike is over, the leaders of the local labor organizations are taking up the matter of securing the proper defense for Eugene V. Debs. This activity is in accord with an appeal issued by President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor.

Fred Herrick Is Missing.

AUGUSTA, Me., July 23.—Fred Herrick, who has been visiting relatives here and in Portland, left the latter place July 10 for Boston, where he was employed. The firm sends word that he has not appeared, and his relatives fear foul play.

A Bullet Through His Heart.

PORTLAND, Me., July 23.—Arthur Westwood, aged 19, committed suicide by shooting himself through the heart. His parents reside in Boston, and young Westwood was visiting friends in this city.

Left Four Orphans.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., July 23.—Mrs. Nellie Bishop, 35, divorced, sentenced to street walking last Thursday, committed suicide in jail here yesterday by hanging herself. She leaves four children.

CONSPIRACY ALLEGED.

Without Alaska Mines Heavily "Salted" to Secure a Sale.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 23.—A. G. Renwick, a British capitalist, has begun suit in the United States district court to recover $45,000. He charges the sale of the Bears Nest group of mines in Alaska was accomplished by gigantic frauds. He accuses James Treadwell, John Treadwell, Captain James Carroll, M. W. Murray, T. N. Fuller and George J. Smith with conspiracy to make the sale by placing gold-bearing rock from the rich Treadwell mine in barren mines adjoining, and treating the core from a diamond drill with chloride of gold to make a showing of rich ore.

He asserts that three British experts were deceived in the sale of the mine. Each one reported it would yield a profit of $1,000,000. The enormous amount of money involved, the prominence of the parties to it and the charges of fraud make this disclosure the sensation of the day in mining circles. The mine was sold to British investors for $2,500,000 in stock and $1,500,000 in bonds drawing 7 per cent interest. This was in 1887, and no gold has ever been taken from it. The projectors of the sale have so far received about $900,000 in money.

ALABAMA STRIKERS

Are Keeping the City of Birmingham in a State of Terror.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 23.—On account of the serious state of affairs growing out of the miners' strike, both the police force and fire department have been doubled. It has been currently rumored that the big fire Friday night was incendiary. There have been rumors that the striking miners intend to march to Birmingham in a body, and attack and set fire to the city and release the 120 strikers now in jail charged with the Pratt mines riot.

The water works company has placed guards along the entire water mains for five miles to the reservoir. Some think that the water was cut off during Friday night's fire by miscreants. Nearly every citizen is armed, and the citizen's reserve force, recently organized, are ready for action.

The Third regiment of state troops arrived here yesterday, replacing the First regiment. The Second regiment is also on duty. Scouts are sent out every hour to watch the movements of any suspicious bodies of men. Governor Jones says that the law will be upheld at all hazards.

A MADMAN'S ANTICS

Create Quite a Sensation in the Streets of Watertown.

WATERTOWN, Mass., July 23.—The quiet of this place was disturbed yesterday afternoon by the antics of Joseph McElroy, a painter, who lives in Wheeler's block on Spring street and has frequently got the officers' trouble.

Officer Conroy was informed that McElroy was creating a disturbance at his home and had abused his family. Chief Parker accompanied Officer Conroy to the scene. McElroy had driven his wife, sister and children out of doors, and, judging from a wound on the side of his wife's face, had struck her a severe blow.

McElroy gave the officers a lively chase around dangerous places, and finally darted through a window into the house and thence made his escape to the street, where, after another long chase, he was finally captured and locked up.

Coxey Shouts For Populists.

NEW YORK, July 23.—J. S. Coxey was at Ridgewood Park, L. I., yesterday, where he was tendered a reception by the representatives of the People's party. General Coxey unfolded the details of his good roads scheme, which he said would give employment to every workman in this country. He urged the people of the United States to condemn the railroads and compel the government to buy them, and called upon every voter to strike at the ballot box on the program laid down by the People's party.

Zimmerman's Victories.

PARIS, July 23.—At the Velodrome bicycle contests, in the 1000 metres race, Zimmerman, who started from the scratch, won easily. In the mile handicap race, some of the contestants had 100 metres start over Zimmerman, who was scratch man. The American won the race easily, finishing several lengths ahead of the next best man.

The Baptists.

TORONTO, July 23.—Most of the pulpits of the city were yesterday filled by distinguished ministers in attendance upon the Baptist convention. The service was conducted by Rev. S. A. Northrop in Massey Music Hall. The sermon was preached by Rev. B. H. Carroll, D. D., and Rev. E. R. Curry delivered a lecture.

GORMAN'S BROADSIDE

Cleveland and Carlisle Knew All
About the Compromise

AND SANCTIONED THE ACTION.

The Tariff Situation Remains Practically Unchanged.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—A remarkable scene was witnessed in the United States senate yesterday, when for 2 1/2 hours Senator Gorman, the Democratic political leader on the floor, delivered his speech against the president and in defense of the senate tariff bill.

The galleries were packed to the doors, and so great was the interest in Mr. Gorman's speech that the members of the house flocked to the senate end of the Capitol, and the house became unable to hold a quorum and adjourned.

Mr. Gorman, with a frankness that amazed those present, discussed party secrets, opened the door to party caucuses, and flashed the search-light into the dark corners of party history.

ARTHUR F. GORMAN.
The president was assailed with keenness and vigor by the leader of his party on the floor of the senate. He defended the senate tariff bill and its preparation, and charged that both Mr. Carlisle and Mr. Cleveland were not only aware of the concessions made in the bill to procure its passage through the senate, but that Mr. Carlisle had been consulted at every step and that Mr. Cleveland had sanctioned all that was done.

One by one he called Senators Vest, Jones and Harris as witnesses to the truth of his statements, and these three gentlemen were forced to confirm them. Then, having freed himself from all restraint, he told the inside history of the conference over the tariff bill. He even went back and told the secrets of the Mills bill and the St. Louis and Chicago platforms, and the demands made upon the national Democratic committee by the sugar senators in 1892.

"Through Fifth and Slime."
His personal attack on the president was full of the most sensational characterizations. He told how he had dared, when others faltered, to walk with Cleveland through the "fifth and slime of the campaign of '88," how he and his colleagues had fought for tariff reform "when cowards in high places would not show their heads," how President Cleveland had tried to "gibbet the senate before the eyes of the country," and said that his action must be attributed to "consuming vanity"—an action that was echoed by those who "chirped when they talked."

His references to the president created so much confusion in the galleries, sometimes of approval and sometimes of disapproval, that the presiding officer was obliged to repeatedly caution to preserve better order. He was listened to with rapid attention throughout his speech, a deep feeling of excitement being printed on every face.

In conclusion, Mr. Gorman practically warned his colleagues that on the material points it must be the senate bill or no bill.

Mr. White of California was the only other speaker of the day. While personally in favor of free coal and free iron ore, he, too, declared it to be the part of patriotism for the Democrats to stand together for the senate bill.

Democrats in Conference.
Immediately after the adjournment of the senate there was a conference of the Democratic leaders of that body. The senators had a long talk, but when they departed no conclusion had been reached as to the best way out of the present delicate position in which the majority find themselves. The proposition for a caucus was discussed, and some of the senators thought it would be wise to have a general conference of all Democratic senators before any step was taken or a vote was had on any of the pending propositions. The matter of calling a caucus was left for further consideration, and will no doubt be discussed among other senators and their views ascertained as to the advisability of taking such a course.

Its Fate In Doubt.
The situation is practically unchanged, and he would be a rash man who would predict the result of the existing tariff complications.

No senator will venture to do so. No member of the house will do it. Even those who were predicting that the administration would triumph and that a bill would become a law at this session which would put coal and iron ore on the free list, and include such a sugar schedule as the president has recommended, now venture no prediction whatever.

SHOULD STAND OVER

Counsel Gregory's Request In the Strikers' Contempt Case.

THE PLEA IS NOT SUSTAINED.

Defendants Deny Every Allegation Against Them.

CHICAGO, July 24.—The hearing of the contempt proceedings against President Debs, Vice President Howard, Secretary Keliher and Director Rogers under the attachment issued by Judge Seaman on Thursday last was the special order in the United States circuit court yesterday.

Judges Grosscup and Woods, the former being the presiding judge, put in an appearance at 10:15, and Special Counsel Walker and District Attorney McIlchrist for the government, Attorney Meagher of the Rock Island, with S. S. Gregory, W. W. Irwin for the defense, followed closely behind.

Special Counsel Walker set the ball rolling by calling attention to supplementary attachments that had been issued for W. H. Overton, J. A. Driscoll, N. R. Curtin, Charles E. Anderson and John Phillips and asked that they be called to the bar. Only the two first named were in court and their cases were set for Tuesday.

At this point it was developed that Debs and his associates were not in court, and the marshal was ordered to produce them instantly. A few minutes later they were ushered in.

Gregory Springs a Surprise.

When all the preliminaries had been adjusted Counsel Gregory caused a ripple of surprise by the announcement that he should ask that the contempt matter should stand over until the trials of the defendants on the indictments found against them, on the ground that the action of the present court would militate against a fair trial for the defendants, and that if they were imprisoned for contempt the preparation of the defense would be seriously interfered with.

Mr. McIlchrist was about to argue on the part of the government the impropriety of such a move when Judge Woods cut him short, and Counsel Gregory entered the formal opinion for the dismissal of the information and the discharge of the defendants, but his plea was not sustained.

The Information and Answer.

Next Judge Grosscup insisted that the information and the answer should be read in open court. Judge Woods suggested that he had already read the information, but his associate was obliged to read it. It took an hour to read the government's information and as much longer to dispose of the reply of the defendants. The latter denied in toto every allegation made against them, and insisted that they had in no way placed themselves in contempt of the court.

After the reading of the information and answer, Attorney Erwin moved that the defendants be dismissed. He also asked that the government elect whether it would try the prisoners on the original indictment or on the injunction. Judge Woods replied that the government would elect by going on now, and Attorney Gregory began his argument in support of the motion to dismiss the bill.

Mr. Gregory was followed by Mr. Walker for the prosecution, who attacked the answer vigorously. He said the answer was not a full reply to the charges in the information.

No Bail For Debs.

MILWAUKEE, July 24.—United States Court Commissioner Bloodgood has rendered a decision in the railroad strike case, holding C. S. McAuliffe, Frank W. Archibald, Eugene V. Debs and several others for trial on the charge of conspiracy to obstruct the mails. Although Debs is mentioned in the decision, no bail is fixed for him, and he is thought to be sufficiently cared for in Chicago.

No Undue Haste.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—The administration has two days in which to determine whether to recognize the new Hawaiian republic promptly, or to withhold its formal recognition another fortnight. There is an impression that the formal recognition will not be made with undue haste on account of the administration's contention that Americans were too active in overthrowing the government, and it would therefore be advisable to let some more disinterested nation take the initiative.

Big Incendiary Fire.

PROVIDENCE, July 24.—Fire broke out at Riverside, a summer resort 10 miles south of this city, at 11 o'clock last evening. In less than an hour nearly $80,000 worth of property had been destroyed. The fire started between two big buildings that constituted Comstock's hotel, and before it was discovered the two structures were in a blaze. Five cottages were also destroyed. The fire is believed to be of incendiary origin.

Stricken With Insanity.

PHILADELPHIA, July 24.—When the steamer Spartan from Boston arrived here yesterday William H. Desage was turned over to the authorities in a deplorable condition. Desage boarded the vessel at Boston and gave no evidence of mental trouble until out some hours. He was coming here for a vacation.

Killed in a Freight Yard.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., July 24.—Robert Strephan, a meat drummer, was struck by an engine in the freight yard of the Boston and Albany, receiving injuries from which he died later.

Steamboat Burned.

NEWARK, N. J., July 24.—The steamboat Favorite, plying between Newark and the Buffalo Bill show in Brooklyn, was burned. The captain and crew escaped. Loss about $50,000.

Reason.

There is a reason for everything.

When the managers of the Fall River Line recently gave us the contract to carpet their magnificent new steamer "Priscilla"—the finest piece of marine architecture afloat—it was not a hap-hazard award, but it was based on careful judgment as to style, quality, and price.

It will be well to think of this when next you need goods in our line.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

People of Quincy and Vicinity.

"The Boston Journal,"

By special arrangements with the publishers of the greatest of all Reference Libraries, the

ENCYCLOPEDIA BRITANNICA

(NINTH EDITION)

Is able to place that King of Books within easy reach of every reader. The new wide margin edition offered

In 25 Large Quarto Volumes,

Is the only Complete and Unabridged Edition of this great work in existence, with American Revisions and Additions covering all topics, both American and Foreign, UP TO DATE, and a complete set of new maps costing $30.00 to produce.

That some sort of an Encyclopedia is a necessity all must acknowledge. That Great Britannica is the very best Encyclopedia none will deny. The great cost, $125 for the Scribner Edition; $200 for the Edinburgh Edition, has prevented its purchase before. At these prices but few could afford it.

There is offered to the people of Quincy and vicinity an edition superior even to the costly Edinburgh edition, at the unheard of rate of

10 Cents per Day,

And the extraordinary low price of $1.98 per volume, former price, $5.00 to $8.00 per volume. This is without question the best offer ever made on a good edition of Britannica.

The Britannica itself needs no endorsement. For 119 years it has stood the crowning work of our English language, the noblest work in all literature, the only adequate representative of the advanced thought and scholarship of the world.

Is the only Encyclopedia in which each principal subject is treated by an acknowledged authority upon that subject. No other Encyclopedia has given Ten Thousand Dollars for a single article, nor Six Hundred Dollars a page for written matter. The fact that

Were expended in its preparation, requiring the labor of 2,000 of the world's greatest scholars, tells the story of its exalted superiority.

This magnificent library has been placed on exhibition at

HEARN'S DRUG STORE,

Editorial Comment.

THE MASSACHUSETTS highway commissioners have set aside the sum of $20,000 for the purpose of building state highways in the county of Plymouth in the year 1895, and a hearing was held at the court house in Brockton on Monday. How is it in Norfolk county? Has a sum been set aside as to Plymouth county? Does Quincy want a state highway?

THE LEDGER has purchased a set of the Encyclopedia Britannica as an addition to its office library. The Boston Journal's offer as advertised on our second page is an exceptional one, and will no doubt enable many to secure themselves a complete reference library.

TODAY'S COURT.

James E. Connell of Weymouth was fined $125 for keeping intoxicating liquor with intent to sell. Appeal.

The continued cases of Antonio Masucci for breaking and entering the store of C. H. Harwick & Co., Fagan & Balbon, E. C. Willison and W. A. Smith, also for larceny of bush hammers, in all seven warrants, came up for trial this morning.

A mass of testimony was presented in each case by the owners of the sheds and bush hammers and by the Boston pawnbrokers where they were sold. The men identified the hammers that had been recovered by Chief of Police Hayden, and the pawnbrokers identified Masucci as the party who had sold them the hammers.

The total value of all the hammers stolen from the above places was over $300 and the most of these had been sold for $2 each.

The court found probable cause to believe the defendant guilty and held him for the grand jury in the following amounts: $200 on one count; $200 on three counts and $400 on two counts; in all $1000. In default he was committed to Dedham.

The Indoor Tournament.

Another tournament was concluded at the Duck's Nest, Wollaston, on Monday evening. The prize, a clock, was won by Mr. Seymour Field.

King and Emery are novices at rifle work but show promise of ranking high before the season is through.

It is a little odd that in the preliminary shoot Field, King, Brainerd and Emery each scored 99 out of a possible 110 but at the shoot off their nerve apparently gave out, as Field won by only 77, Brainerd and King each getting 44 and Emery 33. Nothing but bulls-eyes were counted in this tournament.

Over 1200 cartridges have been fired since the Duck's Nest opened about a month ago.

A new gun case is to be put in and the Wollaston Trap club and Wollaston Gun club will then make that place their permanent headquarters.

The score out of a possible 110 on an inch target:

Preliminary Shoot.—Field, 99; Brainerd, 99; Ed. King, 99; V. J. Emery, 99; D. B. Lincoln, 88; Tucker, 77; Casey, 77. Shoot Off.—Field, 77; Brainerd, 44; King, 44; Emery 33.

A RESIGNATION.

Principal Assessor Bryant N. Adams Resigns the Position.

For some weeks Mr. Bryant N. Adams has been unable to attend to his business at City Hall, but so faithfully has his work been done by his wife that his departments have gone along smoothly.

For some years he has been Tax Collector and City Treasurer. He resigned the position of Tax Collector last January, but was immediately appointed Principal Assessor. He gave his new position considerable attention during the earlier part of the year, but not being able to perform its duties has now resigned. He will continue as City Treasurer, and has also considerable work to collect unpaid taxes of past years.

Mr. Adams has been a hard working man for some years. In addition to the city business he is a real estate agent and auctioneer, and has undoubtedly undertaken too much. For nearly four years he has suffered from a stomach trouble, and now finds it necessary to lay off and recuperate.

FIRST CHURCH PROPERTY.

A Committee Appointed at Parish Meeting to Protect It.

A parish meeting of the First church was held Monday evening which was quite largely attended. The meeting was called to discuss and take some action in relation to the boundaries of the church property which have recently been brought prominently into the discussions before the City Council in closing the way leading from Washington to Hancock streets.

Hon. C. H. Porter was moderator, and after some discussion Mr. John Q. A. Field offered a resolution to the effect that a committee of four be appointed to look after the interest of the church, and protect its property in any action the city might take.

The resolution was adopted and the Parish Committee with Mr. E. H. Dewson were appointed.

OUTLOOK IS THREATENING.

But War Has Not Yet Been Declared

LONDON, July 24.—Dispatches to the Chinese legation from Tientsin show that war between China and Japan has not yet been declared, but it is admitted that the situation is most grave. The opinion expressed in official circles here is that war is inevitable.

A dispatch from Shanghai says that the report that war had been declared between China and Japan was premature, although the outlook is most threatening. It is generally believed that Japan does not desire a Pacific settlement of the Korean dispute. As evidence of this, attention is called to the fact that as soon as one difficulty is overcome Japan immediately raises another.

The latest attitude of the King of Corea in the crisis is supposed to be due to China's decided measures to uphold her claim to suzerainty over the Korean peninsula. The reports that France and Russia will support Japan against China are pronounced to be absolutely groundless.

Strikers Use Dynamite.

UNIONTOWNS, Pa., July 24.—In the town of Dunbar a large bomb was exploded under the house of a non-union workman named Vaughn at 1 o'clock in the morning. The building was blown to pieces, and the larger part of the town was badly shaken by the explosion. The family escaped without injury, which is considered miraculous. A short time later a dynamite bomb was found under the house of William Boden, another non-unionist. The bomb had evidently been thrown at the house, but did not explode. The town is in the hands of the strikers. Nearly 2000 strikers have gathered here for a meeting. Many are armed with guns and revolvers.

Mowbray Talks to New Yorkers.

NEW YORK, July 24.—Anarchist Charles Mowbray last night left his New Jersey retreat and came to New York to address an audience of "The Principles of Anarchist Communism." Nearly every one in the hall seemed to have dropped in to hear Mowbray from pure curiosity, and although it was said the meeting had been called by a group of New York anarchists, this element kept discreetly aloof from the hall. His speech was in the usual anarchistic vein, but was free from violence.

Protests of No Avail.

PARIS, July 24.—When M. Dupuy made his proposition to the chamber of deputies yesterday asking for the rejection of all amendments to the government's anti-anarchist measure, M. Gobelet and others made vehement protests, but all the amendments were offered and promptly rejected, the government majority ranging from 85 to 127.

How Was He Injured?

BOSTON, July 24.—Patrick Dooley is at the emergency hospital suffering from a compound fracture of the skull, which is liable to cause his death. It is not known how his injury was sustained otherwise than that he was struck with a brick. Whether the brick was in the hands of another man or accidentally fell on him is not known.

Knocked Out in the Sixth. PROVIDENCE, July 24.—Patsey Broderick of Providence and Price Williams of Boston fought six rounds last night. Williams was numerically punished from start to finish, and in the sixth round he was knocked out and covered with blood. His left eye was closed at the beginning.

A horse kicked H. S. Shafer, of the Freeman House, Middlebury, N. Y., on the knee, which laid him up in bed and caused the knee joint to become stiff. A friend recommended him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did, and in two days was able to be around. Mr. Shafer has recommended it to many others and says it is excellent for any kind of bruise or sprain. This same Remedy is also famous for its cures of rheumatism.

This afternoon the boat will leave Quincy at 4 P. M. for Winthrop and Nantasket giving the passenger a delightful sail around Boston harbor and leave Nantasket on the regular 5:30 P. M. return trip.

A Serenade.

The good people who reside in the vicinity of Edwards and Union streets, who retire early, as most of them do, must have had their slumbers disturbed Monday night, for about 10 o'clock the Sons of Veteran Drum Corps, which had been holding a meeting for practice, serenaded Mr. and Mrs. Fred Curtis. The corp played two of its choicest selections after which they were invited in and a lunch was served. Before they left for home they gave another selection and three cheers.

HELP CAME AT LAST.

HELP CAME AT LAST.

When a Learned Man Said Hope was Gone.

There is no hope for you," the words are all short, you see. Each word is but one syllable, yet they fall upon the heart like sledge-hammer blows. "If you have never heard the word," addressed to yourself, you are not to understand how Mrs. Eneline Moran uttered them. In three years of her life she had taken a great variety of medicines, that had one thing in common— inability to cure. She was a prey to the worst form of dyspepsia, and would not eat, the doctor said.

And told her of Paskola, the famous food, she got two bottles. Mrs. Moran, May 7, 1894: "My stomach will bear now. When I commenced taking Paskola, I could eat only one tablespoonful of food in a day. Now I can eat almost as much as I want, and I thank God I have been cured at last."

Her condition was a long way from being as well, the doctor said. And told her of Paskola, the famous food, she got two bottles. Mrs. Moran, May 7, 1894: "My stomach will bear now. When I commenced taking Paskola, I could eat only one tablespoonful of food in a day. Now I can eat almost as much as I want, and I thank God I have been cured at last."

The testimony of Charles E. Isaacs, a man street, Worcester, Mass.: "For twenty six years, I have been unable to eat or partake of any meat or fish, or any vegetables, being unable to digest them. I have tried many doctors and all patent medicines. All were of no use. I took Paskola. After four weeks I have gained five pounds, and it has worked wonders. I am feeling like a new man. I am ready to go to my friends, and still taking myself."

Puttable druggists sell Paskola. A trial describing it will be sent free on request.

PATENTSFOR INVENTIONS.

Equal with the interest of those having claims against the government is that of INVENTORS, who often lose the benefit of valuable inventions because of the incompetency or inattention of the attorneys employed to obtain their patents. Too much care cannot be exercised in employing competent and reliable solicitors to procure patents, for the value of a patent depends greatly, if not entirely, upon the care and skill of the attorney.

With the view of protecting inventors from worthless or careless attorneys, and of seeing that inventions are well protected by valid patents, we have retained counsel expert in patent practice, and therefore are prepared to Obtain Patents in the United States and all Foreign Countries, Conduct Interferences, Make Special Examinations, Prosecute Rejected Cases, Register Trade-Marks and Copyrights, Render Opinions as to Scope and Validity of Patents, Prosecute and Defend Infringement Suits, Etc., Etc.

If you have an invention on hand send a sketch or photograph thereof, together with a brief description of the important features, and you will be at once advised as to the best course to pursue. Models are seldom necessary. If others are infringing on your rights, or if you are charged with infringing by others, submit the matter to us for a reliable OPINION before acting on the matter.

WEYMOUTH.

The body of William F. Hancock, who died in Marlboro, was brought here Monday for interment, the funeral being held from his father's residence on Washington street. Rev. Wesley L. Smith of Melrose officiated and a mixed quartette assisted. Mr. Hancock when a resident of this town was connected with the fire department, and many members attended the funeral. The bells were also tolled.

Many were surprised on awaking this morning to find the water coming down from the skies in regular April fashion.

When Duty Calls.

Hard is his lot, indeed, and sad his life. Who needs must leave his happy home, his wife, his babes, his friends—all that the heart in-thralls—

And go to banishment in foreign lands, Or go to war and stain with blood his hands, When duty calls.

And he of different mold is wretched, too, Who has ambitions, longes for something new, Who craves adventures, whom no hap ap-palls,

Yet whom each day brings but the wonted chore, The weary task at office, bank or store, Where duty calls.

Unhappy both! But wretched more—poor wight!— Is he whom fashion and the world polite Drag out to nightly dinners, routs and balls. There, he his moods and tempers what they may, There he must smile and smile, be perk and gay.

Tattle and talk, and dance the night away, Nor then is done, for he has still to pay His duty calls.

—Ladies' Home Journal.

Lines to My Cat.

Upon my desk my cat reclines In customary grace, The mellow yellow lamp lights fall Upon her happy face.

And throw in silhouette her lines Upon the wall. Her back is arched, but not from fright— No cruel dog is nigh, Nor is it that my birds tonight About the chamber fly.

Her face is fixed on mine, but yet She does not purr nor mew, I wonder if she cats forget, Like me and others too?

She does not purr nor stir nor go; She's never blue nor ruffled— Because she died five years ago And then was neatly stuffed.

—William E. S. Fales.

Distant Things.

Oh, white is the sail in the faraway, And dirty the sail at the dock, And fair are the cliffs across the bay, And black is the sea in the hidden springs.

Though a lamp were twice as bright! At our feet it is only white, And bright is the gleam of the distant star, Though a lamp were twice as bright!

The rose that nods beyond our reach Is colder than rose of ours, Of thought that turns our tongue to speech Our fellows leave greater powers.

The waters that flow in the hidden springs Are sweeter than those by our side, So we strive through life for the distant thing And never are satisfied!

—Elyon Irving Hoffman.

The Best Food For Children?

is worthy every parent's study; not only what they can eat, but what gives the most nourishment. No children are better, and most are worse, for eating lard-cooked food. If, however, their food is prepared with the healthful new vegetable shortening, COTTOLINE instead of lard, they can eat freely of the best food without danger to the digestive organs. You can easily verify this by a fair trial of Cottoline. Sold in 3 and 5 lb. tins by all grocers.

WILL HYDE PARK UNITE?

Only Three Candidates in That Town for Republican Senatorial Nomination.

The Herald says, "It is expected that there will be a battle royal for the Republican nomination in the 1st Norfolk senatorial district. This district takes in Braintree, Canton, Holbrook, Hyde Park, Milton, Quincy, Randolph and Weymouth. In the Legislatures of 1893 and 1894 it was represented by John F. Merrill of Quincy. He will not again be a candidate.

"Hyde Park has three citizens who would like to receive the nomination—Francis W. Darling, Wilbur H. Powers and Ferdinand Wyman. Mr. Wyman was the choice of his town in the convention that nominated John F. Merrill. It was generally conceded that the nomination belonged to Hyde Park that year, but the delegates from the other towns in the district would not give the nomination to Wyman. It is not thought he will be a factor this year.

The nomination will lie between Messrs. Darling and Powers. The former has been a member of the House this year and last, this year occupying the position of chairman of the railroad committee. In 1891 and 1892 Mr. Powers represented Hyde Park in the House. He was defeated for a third nomination by Mr. Darling, after one of the hottest fights the town has ever had. That was in the fall of 1892, when Hon. Henry Cabot Lodge was candidate for the United States Senate and Hon. William E. Barrett was also alleged to be a candidate.

Mr. Powers was a strong Barrett man and the fight was made against him on that issue. Both men are shrewd and sharp politicians who know what they want and are not ashamed to hustle for it. It is likely that whichever gets the Hyde Park delegates will receive the nomination. It is said that in Weymouth and Quincy there is a very friendly feeling toward Powers.

The High School Bicycle.

The following letter is self explanatory. The LEDGER would now like to hear from Supt. Lull or Principal Tupper, both of whom are away:

Editors of the Daily Ledger:

Some one sends us a clipping from your paper of an item asking why your High school was overlooked in the presentation of bicycles by our president. We feel sure that one was offered to your High school but in common with some half dozen others we think they overlooked it; at least so far as the writer can learn we received no reply.

The offer was made rather late, however, and we were not surprised at the failure of some schools to accept it and we simply beg to assure you now that if another like offer is made at any time in the future, as possibly will be the case, we shall include your High school if your city is included in the district covered.

Yours truly,

Quincy-Belanger Safety.

Victor Belanger, the inventor, received word that three of his claims on bicycle patents were allowed Friday at Washington. Of course, he is much gratified as Josiah Quincy who is associated with him. The patents referred to are on appliances which will be attached to safety wheels. The main ideas in the Quincy-Belanger safety are those of making the weight of the rider a factor in propelling the wheel and overcoming the dead centre, as the position of the pedals is termed when there must first be a backward motion in order to move in either direction. By means of a gravity wheel the rider stores his power when he has plenty of leverage, that he may employ it when he has none. This is done by lifting the rider's weight and dropping it forward of the dead-centre.

WEATHER AND CROPS

Drought Has Played Havoc In Central New England.

FIELDS ARE BADLY SCORCHED.

Northern Counties Have Been Most Favored.

BOSTON, July 24.—The New England weather service issues the following weather-crop bulletin for the week ending July 23, 1894.

A long, serious drought, with the last few days the hottest of the season, and ending with heavy and damaging thunder showers, tells the story of the weather for the past week in central New England. The 29th was the hottest day of the season in most central counties, and fields and crops were badly scorched by the sun.

The heavy thunder shower of the 21st and the rain during the same night and on the early morning of the 22d were confined mostly to southern New Hampshire and Vermont, northern Connecticut and all of Massachusetts except in the extreme northwest; it was heaviest on the coast north of Boston. At Nantucket the fall was only a trace. At Block Island, R. I., not a measurable amount fell, and at Kingston, R. I., only .01 inch. In Connecticut the amount varied from .01 inch in the extreme south to nearly an inch in the north. At Ipswich in north-east Massachusetts 1.56 inches came and at Boston 1.13 inches. At Newton, just over the line in New Hampshire, only .28 inch of rain fell and at Sanborn in the central part of the state it was only .33 inch with .25 inch of that on the 22d. At Northfield, Vt., the fall was .10 inch, and at Eastport, Me., .01 inch. The deficiency at Eastport since Jan. 1 is 15 inches.

Nothing is suffering in the northern counties; the drought has been temporarily relieved in central districts, but in the south it continues with damaging effects. In New London, Conn., crops are still suffering terribly; wells are drying, and some streams are lower than ever noticed before. Some damage was done by hail at South Hadley, Mass., on the 23d.

Haying Pushed.

Hot and mostly fair weather has prevailed in the northern states during the week, and the haying has been pushed rapidly. In northern counties it turns out very well, and in the vicinity of Caribou, Aroostook county, Me., it is reported to be the largest crop ever gathered. In southern counties where a drought has prevailed, though above the average in amount, it is better than was expected a few weeks ago, and is of such fine quality that some think it makes a full money value; newly cut fields have suffered much here in the past week. Clover, especially, has suffered in Windham, county, Vt. Farmers are cutting their oats for fodder in Buckingham and Merimack counties, N. H.; in Sullivan county, they are heading well in spite of the rust.

In the southeast counties in New Hampshire potatoes have suffered from drought, and a few fields are past help. The crop is progressing well in Aroostook county, Me.; early ones are in the market there. Corn is growing finely. In the warm weather, except in dry places, in southern New Hampshire and Vermont, Apples continue to fall from the trees. Blackberries are ripening, and will be plenty if wet weather prevails. Pastures are holding their feed well.

Heavy Monetary Losses.

The very serious drought in northeastern Massachusetts has been well broken for the time. The rain was heaviest in the section where it was evidently most needed, and great good has been done. The loss from the dry weather will be heavy to market gardeners especially; thousands of dollars will not cover the loss to them in summer vegetables. One farmer near Boston reports that his loss on onions alone will be over $10,000. Blackberries are a total loss in places. Sweet corn has been greatly damaged and was rolling badly.

In central and western Massachusetts most fields of potatoes are green, and with wet weather now they will improve very much. Much haying has been done and the greater part of the English hay has been put in the best of condition. The outlook for the second crop is very poor. Pastures are very dry. Celery plants are being set and are looking well. Apples are dropping badly in the eastern, but hang on well in western, counties.

More Rain Needed.

Notwithstanding the local showers over Rhode Island and Connecticut, more rain is badly needed and most crops are suffering, especially in southern and eastern sections. Potatoes have probably been damaged most of all crops in these states, although market gardens have been very badly injured. Early potatoes, unless on very wet ground, have been injured past recovery, and in some places are reported not worth the digging. In Washington county, R. I., some early potatoes have been dug and are below the average. In Fairfield county, Conn., some tops are still holding green, but the tubers have stopped growing. In a good many places the hopes that have been entertained for the late potatoes have nearly vanished, and the crop must be light.

Market Gardeners Discouraged.

In Westville, in New Haven county, part of the market gardeners have taken off their wagons and discharged part of their workmen, as they have little or nothing to sell. Tobacco is reported very uneven, late set piece failing to start well. Most correspondents say that the rain has saved the corn, though more rain will help it. Turnips have been greatly helped. In Fairfield county onions have stopped making top and are reported to be bottoming down. It has been too dry for buckwheat. The oat harvest has begun in Hartford county. The crop will be nearly an average one, but in Washington county, R. I., it will be below the average.

Haying has been pushed and the quality is extra good. Cut fields have suffered terribly; pastures are dry and brown, and cattle have to be fed much from the barns. Berries are drying badly. Apples are still dropping, but most places report a fair crop in prospect. Pears continue good. Grapes are not doing well in New Haven county, but are pronounced good in Hartford county.

THREE STRAIGHT.

Though Outbatted the Boston by Good Fielding Defeat the Giants.

BOSTON, July 23.—Boston's champion baseball club made it three straight from New York, taking the last game without much trouble, and this, too, when the visitors outbatted them. The New Yorks were unfortunate though, inasmuch as their hits were not bunched. Boston managed to secure three hits in the third, which, with two bases on balls and misplays by Fuller and Wilson, gave them seven runs and the game.

GORMAN'S BROADSIDE.

In connection with the tariff bill have been assiduously exerting themselves to bring about some mode of adjustment of the pending difficulties. The dissatisfied element of the party, Gorman, Brice and Smith, who insisted that the compromise bill should be passed, stand as firmly as ever where they have always stood. It must be, they assert, the senate bill or nothing.

The managers of the bill on the part of the senate realize this, and as one of them remarked yesterday, "What can we do? There is nothing to compromise. We want to the extreme of compromise when the bill was in committee and there nothing further that we can yield except immaterial matters. The house asked us to do something that is impossible, and the president, who knew beforehand what we were compelled to do, has turned and placed the responsibility upon the shoulders of the senate."

A DECIDED SETBACK.

Court Denies the Motion For the Discharge of Debs et al.

ANSWER FILED BY DEFENDANTS

Not Sufficient to Refute the Charge of Contempt.

CHICAGO, July 25.—Debs and the other officers of the American Railway union met with a decided reverse yesterday in their fight against the prosecution for contempt in the United States court. The court decided that the answer filed by the defendants is not a sufficient reply to the charge of contempt, and the motion of their attorneys that they be discharged was overruled.

The court will now hear the evidence of the government to sustain the contempt charges, and the defendants will be given the opportunity to produce evidence in their defense.

The argument in the case was finished shortly before 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and the decision of the court was announced by Judge Woods after he had conferred for a few minutes with his colleagues, Judge Grosscup. In substance, Judge Woods said:

"The main point alleged is that a contempt case like this is a criminal proceeding, and the motion is to discharge the respondents on the ground that their answer denying the contempt is conclusive. It is true that a procedure like this is criminal technically, but not essentially. It is an incident in the main case in equity under the bill filed by the government. No case has been cited here in which the federal courts have sustained the proposition put forward by the attorneys for the respondents."

"If anything should happen to change our minds during the further course of the case, the defendants will have the benefit of the change. As it is now, we are content to rule that the answer is not complete. As the case is to be further examined, it is well that all questions be kept as free as possible from opinions from the court, and we will not give any extended opinion."

To Go On With the Case.
Judge Woods then asked the attorneys in the case to state how long it would require to hear the evidence on the charge of contempt. As he did not wish to remain in the city, he suggested that the matter be referred to a master in chancery to take testimony. The suggestion met with the favor of the counsel for the defense, but the lawyers for the government opposed it. Mr. Milchrist said the evidence for the government could be all presented in a day at the most, while Mr. Gregory suggested that the case be given to a master, with orders to report in 30 days.

The court finally decided to go on with the case today, with the understanding that if it did not make rapid progress it might be sent to a master at any time. During the discussion Edwin Walker, special counsel for the government, made the suggestion that it was within the power of the defendants to end the trouble by declaring the strike off. They are still in contempt, he said, and the government is in possession of information that the injunction is still being violated.

Judge Woods said that if there are further violations of the injunction, a supplemental information can be filed and the guilty parties will find themselves in a much worse position than they would otherwise be in. Attorney Gregory denied that it was in the power of his clients to declare the strike off, or that any trouble that exists on the railroads is within their control. With that the subject was dropped.

The Meigs Company Wins.
BOSTON, July 25.—The Meigs bill for rapid transit in Boston was endorsed by the voters by a vote of 15,492 to one of 14,214, a majority of 1278 in favor of the bill. The day was damp and dismal, and the voters, especially in the "new" wards of Boston, did not turn out in any tremendous numbers, while the other wards, known in the vernacular as the "lower five," voted in goodly numbers for the bill. The Meigs company will begin building at once.

Badly Battered.
BOSTON, July 25.—Two men walked into the Emergency hospital late last night accompanied by another man who had seven wounds in his head, three ribs broken and his ear lacerated. The name of the injured man was given as Anton Brul. His companions refused to give their names or tell how the man came by his injuries. After having his wounds dressed Brul was taken away by his friends.

THE WELLMAN PARTY

Believed to Have Met Death In the Frozen North.

PROFESSOR OYEN AND HIS DOG

Found In a Pitiable Plight on Danes Island.

LONDON, July 25.—Carl Swiers has written a letter to The Standard, in which he announces that he is in receipt of advices from Norway that leave little doubt that the Wellman Arctic expedition is lost.

Experienced skippers, just returned from the Spitzbergen seas, express the same opinion, and Colonel Fielding, who accompanied Captain Nares' Arctic expedition in 1875, shares this belief.

The Pall Mall Gazette is in receipt of advices from Tromsø, all confirming the general belief in the fate of the expedition.

WALTER WELLMAN.

Arctic skippers report that the flow of pack-ice and its density this summer would prove irresistible to any vessel, however strong. They believe that the Regnvald Jarl has been crushed in the ice, and express the belief that there is a remote chance that the members of the Wellman expedition have been saved by managing to get upon an iceflo; in which case they believe that the explorers are in a most dangerous position, as they add that it is most probable that the Regnvald Jarl was crushed without warning.

WELLMAN'S ALUMINUM BOAT

Should the forebodings of the Arctic skippers prove true, and if the Regnvald Jarl was crushed without warning, it is probable that the members of the expedition were unable to take any large quantity of supplies with them upon the iceflo, even supposing that they succeeded in escaping.

WELLMAN'S ALUMINUM SLEDGE.

When questioned in regard to the effectiveness of the aluminum boats in such an emergency the Arctic captains expressed the belief that they would be of no use in such pack-ice as was flowing this summer.

Clews of Professor Oyen.
Mr. Fielden, owner of the yacht Saide, has received clews of Professor Oyen's distress from Captain Johannsen of the sloop Anna. Professor Oyen was left to guard supplies to Danes Island by Wellman. Mr. Fielden instantly ordered the Saide to Danes island, and she reached that spot the next day, but only to be welcomed by the professor's dog.

Oyen was found in his bed in an almost dying condition. He had given up all hope of ever seeing the face of a human being again. Upon a table in the professor's quarters was found a letter containing bitter reproaches against Wellman, whom he accused of having left him in the lurch. Wellman, according to Professor Oyen, promised that a man should stay with him and share his frightful solitude. But, it appears, at the last moment Wellman decided that a man could not be spared, and so the professor had to be content with the company of his faithful dog.

The Saide also reported that Professor Oyen was so badly provisioned when he was found that his early death was a matter of certainty. But in spite of his sufferings and the certainty that death was hovering over him, the professor refused to be taken off Danes island, insisting upon remaining there, faithful to his trust, even though death was the result of his continuing at his post of Arctic solitude.

The Saide, however, left a quantity of provisions with the professor and also presented him with some medicines, of which he stood in great need. Thus was Professor Oyen left in company with his brute friend, probably to die on Danes island, another victim added to the long list of persons who have given their lives in the cause of Arctic exploration.

ASK THEM Why?

Ask the men who are making imitations of COTTOLINE, the new vegetable shortening, why they give up lard and try to trade on the merits of COTTOLINE? Perhaps you can guess why.

ASK HIM Why?

Ask the grocer who attempts substitution, why he tries to sell an imitation when people call for that pure, palatable and popular vegetable shortening, COTTO-LINE? Perhaps you can guess.

ASK YOURSELF Why?

Why should not YOU use COT-TOLINE, instead of Lard for all cooking purposes? It has the highest possible endorsement:
from Physicians as to healthfulness; from Cooking Experts as to superiority; from housekeepers to economy. Use COTTO-

THE CITY COUNCIL.

An Opinion on the Legality of One Man Holding Two Offices.

$2,000 FOR AN INVESTIGATION

Looking to Increase of Water Supply—
$30,000 Recommended for Extension.

It took about an hour Tuesday evening to transact the business which came before the Quincy City Council. Communications were received from the Mayor and Water Commissioners, and the City Solicitor rendered an opinion on an important matter.
The only absentees were the three ward councilmen from Wollaston, Messrs. Litchfield, Robbins and Snow.

Water Extensions.
Mayor Hodges forwarded a communication of the Water Board asking for an appropriation for extension of the mains.
His Honor set forth the needs at length, and recommended an appropriation of $30,000 if legal. Referred to joint committee on Water Supply and Finance.

The communication will appear in full in the LEDGER of tomorrow.

Legal Point Raised.
A few days ago Councilmen Moxon filed in the "question book" in the office of the City Clerk, a question asking the City Solicitor to render at this meeting an opinion as to whether the offices of City Treasurer and Principal Assessor of Quincy could be held by the same person.
The Councilman asked if any communication had been received, and was answered
in the negative.

City Solicitor Blackmur entered later and upon request read a lengthy opinion on the subject, the purport of which was that the office of City Treasurer and Principal Assessor may be held by the same person.

Councilman Fetherlen asked if anything prevented one man from holding all the city offices and was answered in the affirmative where they conflicted.

The Solicitor didn't see where the Treasurer and Principal Assessor conflicted.

Councilman Moxon was still inclined to doubt the legality of uniting the two offices, and had an opinion from good legal authority that it was illegal. As an opinion had been rendered by the City Solicitor it must be accepted. He also understood from the DAILY LEDGER that Mr. Adams had resigned as Principal Assessor.

Petitions.
Application was made by John W. Nash to set gunpowder.

William Everett and others petitioned
for the acceptance of Miller Sile avenue, between Elm and Bigelow streets, and in a separate petition for the closing of the old site running parallel. To Committee on Streets.

Councilman Lennon presented the petition of William J. Sullivan and others for the abatement of a nuisance on Water street near the corner of Summer street and Job Faxon lane. To Committee on Sewers and Drains.

Reports.

The Committee on Licenses reported favorable on the application of W. A.
Coffin to run a job wagon. Granted.

The Committee on Water Supply reported an order making an appropriation of $2000 on a three-year loan for an investigation looking to an increase in source of water supply. To Committee on Finance.

The joint committee on Fire Department and Finance reported an amendment increasing the appropriation for new hose from $600 to $700 and making it a three-year loan. Amended and under suspension of rules passed to be ordained.

The Committee on Streets reported amendments to the order granting the Quincy & Boston street railway a location on Franklin street and Independence avenue which were adopted and the order referred to the Committee on Ordinances.

New Orders.

Councilman O'Brien offered an order authorizing the Chief Engineer to remove the bell on Hose 3 house at West Quincy and locate it on the new hose house.
Passed.

questing the Commissioner of Public Works
to construct a sidewalk on Summer street.
Passed.

Also an order for a new fire alarm box
at the corner of Washington and Canal streets. Passed.

Also an order requesting the Commissioner of Public Works to replace the kersene light on Main street. Passed.

Also an order requesting the Mayor to establish a bureau of registration for the unemployed, that they may be given a share of the public works of the city.
Passed.

The order granting the Quincy Quarry
Co. a location across certain ways of the city, was given a second reading and referred to the Committee on Ordinances.

Adjourned at 8.25 to meet August 6.

WHEELER.—In Quincy, July 24, Mr. John

OVERLOADED ELEVATOR

Falls Five Stories in a New York Brewery With Fatal Results.

NEW YORK, July 25.—The drumhead of a grain elevator at Clausen & Price's brewery snapped in two yesterday afternoon, and the loaded elevator plunged down five stories. Three men were instantly killed and two others seriously injured.

Six men were engaged in piling up 100-pound sacks of meal on a 10x10 freight elevator which is erected in the center of the brewery building. The elevator runs from the fifth floor to the basement.
These men had to take the meal from the first floor to the washhouse in the fifth.
Under the platform, the elevator and across the shaft, two heavy beams were placed, on which the elevator rested.
These beams were to prevent any jerking
as the men threw the heavy sacks of meal
on the platform.

Twenty-five bags were piled up. Then five men jumped on top of the bags, and the elevator with its load, was started toward the top of the building. The sixth man had gone back to get another sack, and as he returned with his burden he saw the elevator moving upward.

The five on the elevator shouted deliriously at him. He looked up the shaft, and as he did so there came a crackling sound and a loud crash. The elevator had dropped like a massive bit of lead,
the two great beams across the shaft which a minute before had supported the platform were crushed like matchwood,
and the elevator car with its load dropped to the cemented basement and shook the building.

Of the five men on the loaded elevator car, two were found dead. All lay in a heap together. The broken sacks had thrown out mounds of meal, which were quickly dyed with blood. The dreadful convulsion had killed Ross and Karl instantly. Schmiedler was still breathing, but died a few minutes after he had been dragged out of the wreck.

Korean troops at Seoul number 600 men,
with several gilling guns.

BOSTON, July 25.—In their monthly report for June the Boston Fire and Police Notification company state that there were 161 fires reported, which necessitated 163 alarms. The estimated loss to property is $45,000. Three persons were killed and seven injured.

LADIES AT THE HELM

The Quincy Yacht Club Entertain Right Royally.

DELIGHTFUL SAIL IN THE BAY.

Music, Lunch and a Hop at the Club House at Houghs Neck.

The Quincy Yacht club might try a hundred times but could not find a more perfect day for its annual Ladies' day than that of Wednesday. In fact, it was an ideal yachtsman's day and the unusually large number that participated in the festivities removed all doubt but what the ladies were aware of the fact also.

It was not long after 2 o'clock before the electric cars began to deposit the ladies and gentlemen who were to accept the hospitality of the club, and a little later all was hurry in getting aboard the various yachts that were in waiting to take out the guests. Fortunate it was that all did not attempt to start from the club's float, for the chances are that some would have received wet feet.

Shortly before 3 o'clock the warning signal was given from the flag ship and then the figure "1" was displayed, denoting the course to sail. At 3 o'clock the yachts sailed away toward Jackknife ledge buoy, passing in review of the commodore's steam launch Athlete and saluting as they passed.

The only other steam launch to participate in the sail was the Marie, or as some of the ladies aboard called it, "Sweet Marie."

On board of this boat was a party of friends of the genial superintendent of the Quincy & Boston street railway, Benjamin J. Weeks, and it goes without saying that Ben made it pleasant for them. The Marie is a handsomely fitted boat, and a view of the several yachts, as they sped away toward Sheep island, from her decks was beautiful.

During the review and sail, the broad verandas of the clubhouse were thronged with ladies who did not care to take the sail. For their amusement an orchestra gave a promenade concert during the afternoon.

It was nearly 5:30 o'clock before the yachts returned, and a rush was made to the upper room where a caterer was trying to appease the appetites which had been sharpened to a keen edge by the sail. It was a great undertaking, and the supply did not hold out.

Before time for the hop to commence, which was to close the day's festivities, a thunder shower came up and a view of the effects of a storm at sea in a small way was had. This, however, did not interfere with the programme, and at eight o'clock dancing commenced and continued without intermission until 11 o'clock.

The boats and their guests who participated in the sail were:

FOR CORRUPT PRACTICES.

Two Leading Politicians of Newfoundland Deprived of Their Seats.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., July 26.—Sir William Whiteway and Robert Bond, leaders of the late government, have been disqualified from election to the legislature for corrupt practices at the election. James Warren, who joined them only a few days before the election, his connection being that of a silent partner, was also found guilty, but he was only unseated, leaving him eligible to again contest the seat.

Whiteway and Bond will not be allowed to again stand for election for three years. They allocated many dollars to spend in employing voters a few weeks before the election. They obtained a great majority of the votes cast, but the judge before whom the case was tried decided that the majority was due to the lavish use of money, and consequently they were deprived of their seats.

The Goodridge government now has a majority of one vote in the legislature, which opened for the session. The government will not be able to pass a revenue bill to legalize the present illegal collection of revenue.

This Preacher Isn't a Democrat.

DES MOINES, July 26.—The prayer of Rev. J. L. Weaver, pastor of the Christian church, at the session of the Republican state convention, invoking the divine blessing on the country, and asked that its enemy, the Democratic party, be merciful as possible, and closed by appealing to omnipotence to assist in expediting the Democratic party from power and lay the hand of divine displeasure on them and restrain them forever from the exercise of government authority. The platform denounced the Democrats, eulogized the Republicans and said nothing on the liquor question.

PROVIDENCE, July 26.—Arthur Ellis, employed in the Riverside mill, disappeared without warning Saturday. He is now accused of having victimized his employers out of a large amount of money. Ellis was thoroughly trusted, but an examination of his books showed that one girl, discharged by Ellis 36 weeks ago, and a man discharged 18 years ago, have been credited with pay each week. Manager Ward admits that Ellis has been taking money that did not belong to him.

Again Before the Public.

HELENA, Mon., July 26.—The Conrad divorce case is again before the people. Yesterday Mrs. Mabel E. Conrad filed an answer to the application of her husband for divorce, denying his charges and bringing counter-charges. Conrad was once Democratic candidate for lieutenant-governor and accounted very wealthy. Mrs. Conrad is a daughter of Mrs. Barnaby of Providence, for whose murder Dr. Graves was convicted at Denver and afterward committed suicide in jail.

The platform denounced the Democrats, eulogized the Republicans and said nothing on the liquor question.

Doctored His Books.

PROVIDENCE, July 26.—Arthur Ellis, employed in the Riverside mill, disappeared without warning Saturday. He is now accused of having victimized his employers out of a large amount of money. Ellis was thoroughly trusted, but an examination of his books showed that one girl, discharged by Ellis 36 weeks ago, and a man discharged 18 years ago, have been credited with pay each week. Manager Ward admits that Ellis has been taking money that did not belong to him.

Again Before the Public.

HELENA, Mon., July 26.—The Conrad divorce case is again before the people. Yesterday Mrs. Mabel E. Conrad filed an answer to the application of her husband for divorce, denying his charges and bringing counter-charges. Conrad was once Democratic candidate for lieutenant-governor and accounted very wealthy. Mrs. Conrad is a daughter of Mrs. Barnaby of Providence, for whose murder Dr. Graves was convicted at Denver and afterward committed suicide in jail.

Classifications Were Unjust.

NEW YORK, July 26.—Insurance companies in this city were agitated when the Equitable Life Assurance announced that it had withdrawn voluntarily its concessions to traffick business in Prussia. The company says that the Prussian government has attempted to assume a dictatorship over its affairs, demanding that classifications be created, which would not only be impolitic from a business standpoint, but illegal as well.

She Went on a Mudbank.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—Just as the Minneapolis was leaving her slip on her recent trial trip, she ran into a mudbank, but was hauled off without apparent injury. Still, the navy department has ordered that the vessel be docked and her bottom be examined. Should any damage be discovered it would fall on the contractors, in whose custody the ship was, to make it good.

All on Board Drowned.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 26.—Word has been received here of the total wreck of the British bark William Le L'cheur, off Cape St. James, on Provost island, 600 miles from Singapore. All on board were lost. The vessel was commanded by Captain Regueles and three officers. The crew consisted of 18 men. The bark was built in 1854, and registered 773 tons.

Father and Daughter Shot.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 26.—John Collins thought he heard thieves in his garden and started to investigate. He was followed by his daughter Maggie. Mrs. Collins heard the two and supposed them thieves and called her son, who shot both father and daughter. The former is dead and the latter dying.

Charges Not Proven.

LOS ANGELES, July 26.—John Craig, an ex-police officer, shot and killed his father-in-law, his mother-in-law and fatally wounded his brother-in-law. He then made an unsuccessful attempt to commit suicide.

Rommel for Governor.

LITTLE ROCK, July 26.—The Republican convention nominated H. L. Rommel, its chairman, for governor. This was the only nomination. The platform favors protection and bimetalism.

Strikers Won't Yield.

HOUTZDALE, Pa., July 26.—The largest mass meeting of miners in connection with the present strike took place here yesterday. It was unanimously agreed to continue the strike.

Four Firemen Hurt.

MONTREAL, July 26.—Labe & Co.'s five-story warehouse was almost totally destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. This loss will amount to $125,000. Four firemen were injured.

HIS VIEW UNCHANGED

Cleveland Adheres to Principles Expressed in His Letter.

VILAS DEFENDS THE PRESIDENT.

Hill Tries to Secure Free Coal and Iron Ore.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—Speaker Crisp was at the White House yesterday, and his visit with the president caused a renewal of the comment as to the interest of the administration in supporting the tariff position of the house. Mr. Crisp declined to say anything concerning the conference, or to even intimate whether the tariff deadlock between the houses was a subject of discussion.

Representatives Kilgore of Texas and Byrum of Indiana, the latter a member of the ways and means committee, also saw the president. Kilgore is endeavoring to stem the tide in the house which has set in for the last two days toward a concession to most if not all that the senate asked. He thinks that the house will yet win the struggle, and so told the president.

To his callers the president expressed the same determination shown in the letter to Chairman Wilson. It was evident to them that he was very fixed in his view of the justice of the contention he had presented, and that there was no disposition to waver from it, except by through such mutual compromise as would give the house at least a good share of the concessions.

Vilas to the Rescue.
Senator Vilas of Wisconsin, who was secretary of the interior and later postmaster general during Mr. Cleveland's first administration, replied at great length yesterday to Senator Gorman's attack upon the president.

For two hours he held the floor amid the rapt attention of the senate and galleries, delivering his scathing rebuke of the Maryland senator. He denounced Mr. Gorman's assault as wanton, reckless and unjustifiable, and though he declared that Mr. Cleveland needed no defense at his hands, he took up sentencing each charge made by Mr. Gorman, and met them with masterly skill and logic.

He made his statement, he said, in the interest of the truth of history. Mr. Gorman was not in the senate at the time, and to this fact the Wisconsin senator called attention with regret. In conclusion, he eulogized the personal character and public integrity of Mr. Cleveland in the most glowing terms, declaring with dramatic fervor that the President of the United States, who had received so many evidences of the honor and respect of the American people, could not suffer from the unjustifiable attack of the Maryland senator.

At the conclusion of his speech Mr. Vilas explained that in view of the fact that Messrs. Gorman, Brice and Smith had assured him that his motion to recede from the one-eighth differential in favor of the refiners of sugar must fail, and the further fact that a Democratic caucus had decided to agree to a further conference, without instructions, he would withdraw the motion.

A Coal and Iron Vote.
After some general remarks by Mr. Stewart against the interference of the executive with the legislative branch of the government, Mr. Hill's motion that the senate recede from amendments placing a duty of 40 cents a ton on coal and iron ore were voted upon and defeated, the Republicans, except Mr. Hansbrough of North Dakota, joining with the Democrats bound by the caucus agreement, against it.

Mr. Ivey of South Carolina was the only Democrat who voted for free coal and iron. The Populists, Allen, Kyle and Peffer, also voted in the affirmative.

Mr. Washburn (Rep., Minn.) renewed Mr. Vilas' motion to instruct the conference to recede from the one-eighth differential on refined sugar, but Mr. Gray immediately made the point against it that it was not competent for the senate to instruct in a full and free conference.

The point of order was debated for some time, but had not been decided when the senate adjourned. There is no doubt, however, that it will be debated and this motion ruled out. The general impression is that the bill will go back to conference this afternoon.

The Present Situation.
Republican tactics prevented the Democrats of the senate from getting the bill back into conference yesterday, as they had hoped to do, but they cleared the way so far as they were able to do so, having Senators Vilas and Caffery withdraw their motions for the instruction of the conferees, and by voting down Senator Hill's motions, with the aid of the Republicans.

But for the fact that the Republican side of the chamber took up Mr. Vilas' idea, the bill could have been referred back before the close of the day's session. The Democrats, having secured Mr. Vilas' pledge to stand with them to return the bill to conference, feel that the breach is healed and count upon a full Democratic vote, with two exceptions, against the motion. These exceptions are Senators Hill and Ivey.

The Republicans claim that besides securing these two Democratic votes, either on the motion direct or against a decision of the chair, they will have the full support of their own party, and also the votes of Senators Allen, Kyle and Peffer, Populists. The only doubtful vote they claim is that of Senator Stewart, whose vote they believe, if given for the motion, would cause it to carry.

Disagreement Anticipated.
Representative Holman, chairman of the house Democratic caucus, says that the house Democrats will probably caucus on the tariff bill when it is returned from the next conference. He does not think an agreement will be reached by the conferees without instructions, and anticipates that another report of a disagreement will be returned to both houses. In that event, he says, a caucus of the house Democrats will be called to decide upon instructions to be given the house conferees.

A Dull Day.
Proceedings in the house were dull in the extreme, and one by one the members left their desks, until by 3:50 o'clock there were not half a hundred members in the chamber. The conference report on the fortifications appropriation bill was agreed to.

NORTON'S BIG FIRE
Started in a Box Factory and Eventually Burned Over Two Acres of Land.

Norton, Mass., July 27.—Fire broke out yesterday in the three-story wooden building owned and occupied by A. H. Sweet & Co. as a box factory. Owing to there being no water system in the town, a bucket brigade was formed, but which proved totally inadequate, and the building was razed to the ground within 30 minutes.

The large lumber yard adjoining the factory was soon ablaze and 2,000,000 feet of lumber were consumed. A stiff wind carried the flames across the street to the boarding house owned by the company, which was speedily a mass of ruins. The residence of Selectman Gady was the next building the fire attacked, and although the fire departments of Taunton and Attleboro fought the flames with desperation, the house was totally destroyed. Two new houses, belonging to Austin Messenger, were also engulfed in the holocaust.

It is estimated that the total damage will be in the neighborhood of $100,000, and was insured about half that amount. The fire is thought to have started in the boiler room, but from what cause cannot be ascertained, but before the fire was under control two acres of land had been burned over.

OFFICERS AND CREW SICK.
Isthmian Fever Made Alarming Progress on the Warship Bennington.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—The reason for the rather unexpected order to the return of the Bennington is the bad state of health of the officers and crew. The Isthmian fever had appeared on board and suddenly began to spread in an alarming fashion.

The surgeon of the ship contracted the disease, and it was necessary to employ a local physician to attend the sick. At present the men are ill, and it was felt to be an unwarranted exposure of the health and lives of the ship's company to keep the vessel longer in such an unhealthy port as La Libertad at this season.

It is positively stated here that the movement of the vessel does not in any way affect the status of the refugees aboard the vessel, and that matter will be adjusted hereafter on its merits.

Not Ready to Be Divided.
QUEBEC, July 27.—Michael Walsh, now in the house of correction in Boston, will not get as much out of the estate of his father as has been generally stated. Instead of getting $75,000, it is possible that he may inherit $30,000.

Patrick Walsh, his father, left seven children. His widow has the use of the entire estate as long as she lives, so that the children may not succeed to it for many years to come. At the death of the widow the estate will be divided equally among the seven children.

A Miniature Riot.
STAMFORD, Conn., July 27.—Members of an excursion party composed of Catholic societies of Orange, N. J., assaulted a man named Devitt and a general fight followed. Devitt's place of business was completely wrecked, and several of the excursionists were injured seriously. One man was shot and slightly wounded. Before the police arrived the excursionists took to the boat and sailed away.

Connecticut Politics.
NEW HAVEN, July 27.—It is understood that General Samuel Merwin of this city will accept the Republican nomination for governor if tendered him. General Edward S. Greely says: "I am not authorized to speak for General Merwin, but I am confident he would not decline such a nomination. He would feel it a call of duty."

Favorably Reported.
WASHINGTON, July 27.—The subcommittee of the committee on immigration reported favorably on the bill to protect American labor on the borders. The bill forbids the employment in the United States of persons who retain foreign residences, and is aimed against Canadians and Mexicans who come across the border to work.

Rose Didn't Work.
NORTH ADAMS, Mass., July 27.—James A. Melvin of this town appeared here last night, to the consternation of his friends, who supposed he was dead. He had left indications in Boston that he had committed suicide as a ruse to bring back his wife, who had left him, but nothing has yet been learned of her whereabouts.

BARRE, Vt., July 27.—Andrew S. Allis of Brookfield fell from his moving machine and died from his injuries. He had been representative in the legislature, selectman, town agent, justice of the peace, and was prominently identified with the "floating bridge" fight in Brookfield.

THRONE AWAITS HIM

King Besolow Will Lead His Nation in Christian Paths.

EVENTFUL CAREER IN AMERICA.

Education Gained by Perseverance and Pluck.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., July 27.—Prince Besolow, aged 29, son of the late King Ahmah of the Vei tribe in Africa, who was converted to Christianity and fled the Dark Continent to Europe to escape the wrath of his people, has been notified of his reinstatement to the throne. He sailed today from New York on the steamship Lucania for England, where he will visit Queen Victoria, and deliver a course of lectures before going to Africa.

PRINCE THOMAS BESLOW.

Besolow's father was a great trader. In 1870 he sent his son heir to the coast to learn the English language that he might act as interpreter with other traders. While there the boy met American missionaries and was converted to Christianity by Rev. M. L. Roberts. The father died broken-hearted, and the Liberian government appointed Ahmah's brother, Dualua, to the throne.

The Boy Came to This Country and after a course of private tutoring entered Wilberham academy. At the beginning of his junior year the colonization society notified the prince that they had decided not to educate any more Africans, as the plan was a failure, and they advised him to return to Africa. He refused to do so and worked his way through the academy by doing chores and giving lectures. In 1892 he entered Williams college. Five months ago he came to this city, since which time he has spoken in many churches.

Recently he was notified that his uncle had lost his influence over the tribe, and that his country was impoverished by internal wars. The people are clamoring for the young prince to return. He accordingly decided to go. His first purpose is the Christianizing of his people, and when that is accomplished he expects to return to America to complete his education.

Minister Kanako.
TOKYO, July 27.—Goza Taten, Japanese minister to Washington, has been recalled to Japan, and Mr. Kanako has been appointed to succeed him. Mr. Kanako has the great advantage of having been educated in the United States, and consequently, being thoroughly familiar with the American language and institutions. Mr. Kanako was graduated at Yale and was a student of the Harvard law school.

Corbett's Intentions.
QUEENSTOWN, July 27.—James Corbett sailed for New York yesterday. He said that he was returning to the United States in order to meet Peter Jackson and arrange a match with him before the latter starts for England. He said that this would be his last fight, and he intended to be in perfect condition when the battle took place.

Gold Reserve at Lowest Point.
WASHINGTON, July 27.—The treasury lost $2,300,000 in gold yesterday, $2,000,000 at New York for European export, $100,000 at Boston for European export and $300,000 at New York for shipment to Canada. This drain on the United States gold reserve reduced it to $58,000,000, the lowest point it has reached.

Fractured Skull Will Cause Death.
BOSTON, July 27.—During a drunken row last evening at 207 West Fourth street, South Boston, John Hession was hit on the head with a beer bottle. He received a fatal compound fracture of the skull. Margaret Callahan, 19 years old, and her brother, Martin Gilmore, were arrested for the assault.

Alger Names McKinley.
CLEVELAND, July 27.—At a reception to Governor McKinley, given by the Tippecanoe club, General Alger of Michigan nominated McKinley for president in 1896. Governor Merriam of Minnesota also used McKinley's name in connection with the presidential nomination.

King Set Free.
PITTSFIELD, Mass., July 27.—The case against Willard King, who was convicted of committing numerous burglaries, which subsequent events have proven were the work of Sherlock and his mates, was not pressed yesterday.

Chill Led to Death.
LONDON, July 27.—Viscountess Baring, whose marriage took place at Paris recently, died of cholera yesterday. On the day following the wedding the viscountess caught a chill, which developed into a serious sickness.

Editorial Comment.

IN VIEW of the resignation of Bryant N. Adams as Principal Assessor, the legality of his holding the office of Assessor and City Treasurer is hardly a live issue. The City Solicitor sees no reason why one person should not hold the two offices, and yet people generally don't endorse it. If the duties of Principal Assessor do not clash with those of City Treasurer, they certainly do with the duties of Tax Collector. Mr. Adams is not Collector of Taxes for 1894, but he is for past years, and the last City Book shows uncollected taxes for 1893, 1892, 1891, 1890, 1889 and 1888, and the receipts of the City Treasurer to July 1 do not show the payment of any of these years in full. As Assessor, Mr. Adams might have voted to abate these old taxes which he is under bonds to collect. The duties of City Treasurer are enough for one man in a city which disburses about half a million dollars annually, and should not again be united with any office, even tax collector. The City Treasurer is also treasurer of the Woodward Fund, the Rock Island Fund, and the Cotton Center Johnson fund, and usually has considerable private business.

It is to be hoped that the water mains may be extended rapidly as prayed by the citizens, desired by the Water Commissioners, and recommended by the Mayor, but having very nearly reached the limit of bonds authorized by the Legislature, it seems probable that there will be some delay. The Mayor, however, was aware of the approach to the bond limit, and possibly sees some other way of making the appropriation. It might be made as an ordinary city debt and transferred next year to the water debt if permission is granted to issue additional water bonds. Under the old water rates a careful computation by the Water Commissioners showed that water taxes paid on an average $15 per year. If they average $12 per year by the new rates, it will require but one hundred takers on the new mains to pay the interest of $1200 annually, and less than one hundred more to wipe out the debt in thirty years. It is surprising how many applications for water are being received daily.

WITH A bureau of registration for the unemployed, the public work of the city might be better distributed among the needy, and people in want of the services of a laborer might also find one readily to the mutual advantage of employer and employee. It might also save the Commissioner of Public Works, Water Commissioners and other boards from much annoyance from personal application for work.

WOULD NOT the junction of Canal, Chestnut and Bigelow streets be a more preferable location for the proposed fire alarm box than at the corner of Washington and Canal streets, which is quite near Box 25 at the corner of Newcomb street? One is needed in the vicinity of Faxon hall.

LITTLE THINGS count and go a great ways. City Clerk Keith caused to be delivered today by the city messenger, to the LEDGER and others, copies of the new Acts and Resolves. They make a book this year of 628 pages, and the new laws should be carefully perused.

BICYCLE PARADES like those of last evening are easily arranged, and afford quite a little amusement for a large number as they can go over a long route. It would not be surprising if there were bicycle club with transparency in the next Presidential campaign.

THREE ONE NIGHT.

A Busy Evening Socially in the Wollaston Ward.

WHICH MAKES IT ATTRACTIVE.

A Lawn Party, a Lantern Parade and a Band Concert.

Wollaston turned out en masse on Thursday evening to enjoy the open air fetes. There were three; the lawn and parlor musical given at the residence of Mr. Frank A. Page in aid of the Wollaston Unitarian Sunday School, the lantern parade of the Wollaston Cycle club, and the band concert by the City Band at the corner of Brook street and Newport avenue given by Mr. L. E. Prince, complimentary to the Cycle club and its guests.

The musical at Mr. Page's attracted a very select crowd of Wollastonians with a goodly sprinkling of Quincy people. The grounds were illuminated with numberless Japanese lanterns festooned from the house and trees. An orchestra stationed at one end of the lawn, discoursed pleasing music. The programme was opened with a vocal trio, "Down in the Dewy Dell," by Mrs. Page, Miss Mulliken and Mr. Rice; this was followed by a cornet solo by Mr. Dickey; a vocal solo by Mrs. Rice; a piano solo, gavotte from Bach—Saint—Saens by Mrs. Alma Faunce Smith; a vocal duet, "Trueman Songs" by Mrs. Page and Mrs. Rice; a zither solo, "Monastery Bells," by Mr. Tucker; a vocal solo, with cornet obligato by Mrs. Page and Mr. Dickey; a zither solo by Mr. Tucker; a vocal solo by Miss Mulliken; a piano solo (a) gavotte in A major from Gluck, (b) valse, Op. 70, No. 1, by Mrs. Smith; and by a vocal trio, "Slumber Song" by Mrs. Page, Miss Mulliken and Mrs. Rice.

It was a very happy thought on the part of the management of the Wollaston Cycle club to give a lantern parade. It was a novelty and was well carried out.

The club had as its guests the Norfolk Cycle club of South Weymouth, twenty-two wheelmen under Capt. C. H. Tinkham. At precisely 8:30 Capt. E. M. McTear, and his field officers, Lieut. H. C. Seymour, 2d Lieut. E. H. Ripley, and Ensign George H. Stevens, had Bugler Raiche sound "boots and saddle" and the men started on the march. There were 90 wheelmen in the procession.

The machines with their brilliant coloring looked like immense butterflies. The beautiful effects which made the riders look as if they were riding on wheels of fire were produced by simply placing Japanese fans between the spokes and then hanging lanterns on each side.

After going over the route published in Thursday's LEDGER the company returned to the club rooms in the Brace building, where a light lunch was served. After the lunch the club and its guests accepted an invitation from Mr. L. E. Prince to visit his ice cream parlor and partake of his hospitality.

Among the members of the Wollaston Cycle club in the procession were noticed:

Struck by Lightning.

A house at Wollaston owned by Henry H. Faxon, Esq., and occupied by Mr. Young, was struck by lightning Wednesday evening, but no one was injured. The chimney was struck and a number of bricks scattered. The fluid passed down the same through several rooms to the kitchen, where it found a copper pump, which it damaged somewhat and then went down the pipe to the water. It was a driven well and the iron pipe was so badly shaken that very large quantities of iron-rust was pumped up.

GREAT STICK WORK.

Brooklyn Kept Boston Busy in Skirmishing for the Ball.

Boston, July 26.—The gentlemen from Brooklyn batted like fiends, knocking Harry Staley out of the box in the third inning, after earning seven runs. Nichols fared but little better, but the visitors couldn't beat them on the "kid." The Boston players were sent leather hunting all over the lot. Pitcher Gastright got quite a drubbing in his three-round go with the leaders, but Boston seemed unfortunate in losing three or four golden opportunities by stupid base running.

At Lewiston—Lewiston, 7; Pawtucket, 3. At Haverhill—Haverhill, 10; Boston, 2. NEW YORK, July 27.—Members of the Endeavor Social club went on an excursion to College Point yesterday. When they returned they left behind them Mary Dooly and William Coffey, who were drowned, and two men named Finerty and Lee. The drowning accident was caused by the upsetting of a rowboat. The arrest of Finerty and Lee was the outcome of a general riot, in which Policeman DeKendrick was struck on the head with a baseball bat. His recovery is doubtful.

A Villainous Wretch. PARIS, July 27.—Theodore J. C. Meunier, the anarchist, was placed on trial here yesterday. Meunier is charged with complicity in the explosion at Leban barracks and at the Cafe Very. The evidence showed that Meunier prepared the bomb which was exploded at the Cafe Very, by which several persons lost their lives. The jury found him guilty, and a sentence of penal servitude for life was imposed.

A Swindler's Great Scheme. CHICAGO, July 27.—A swindler, who has not yet been caught, has secured some thousands of dollars of the United States Express company's money. The man represented himself as a route agent, and in pretended examinations of the books of the scores of country agents secured large amounts. Fifty detectives are now looking for him.

Debs' Visit. CHICAGO, July 27.—At a meeting of the American Railway union, President Debs violently assailed the prosecution in the contempt proceedings. During his speech he said: "If I alone were concerned in this matter, I would permit no defense to be made in my behalf, for I consider it an honor to be in contempt of the court that is going to try me."

Hungry Industrialists. WASHINGTON, July 27.—Large and indignant delegations from the industrial armies camped about Washington applied at the rooms of the house committee on labor yesterday, not to urge their bills, but to plead for assistance. Their leaders had deserted them. They were sent to the local superintendent of charities.

HELP CAME AT LAST.

Even when a Learned Man Said Hope Was Gone.

"There is no hope for you." These words are all short, you see. Each one has but one syllable, yet they fall upon the human heart like sledge-hammer blows. "No hope!" If you have never heard the words addressed to yourself, you are not likely to understand how Mrs. Elnora Muehlenkotter felt when she heard them. Her physician uttered them. In three years of sickness she had taken a great variety of medicines, that had one thing in common—an utter inability to cure. She was a prey to the worst form of dyspepsia, and would never be well, the doctor said.

A friend told her of Paskola, the famous artificially digested, flesh-forming food, Mrs. Morgan got two bottles. She writes under food now. When I commenced taking Paskola, I could eat only one tablespoonful of meal made in a gruel. Now I can eat almost anything I want, and I thank God I have found a cure at last."

So her condition was a long way from being hopeless. This is the testimony of Charles E. Leas of 413 Main street, Worcester, Mass.: "For the last twenty six years, I have been unable to use or partake of any meat or fish and scarcely any vegetables, being unable to retain the same. I have tried many doctors and countless patent medicines. All were of no avail until I took Paskola."

"I have used three large bottles and two half size, and it has worked wonders. I now eat anything that is put upon the table. Herebefore it has been a torture. "In four weeks I have gained five pounds. I feel like a new man. I am recommended by my friends, and still taking Paskola myself."

All reputable druggists sell Paskola. A pamphlet describing it will be sent free on application to

A THIRTY-FOOT FALL.

Mine Cage Falls Down a Shaft With Four Inspectors Upon It.

ONE MAN IS INSTANTLY KILLED.

Another Soon Dies and Two Are In a Hospital.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 27.—A number of Lehigh Valley Coal company officials yesterday went on a tour of inspection of the Exeter mine, one of the company's collieries at West Pittston. The party comprised Superintendent Mason of Pittston, Robert Mercer, the Lehigh Valley engineer in charge of this city, Professor Burrell of the Lehigh university, and Inside Foreman Wilson. With the party was Foreman Gates.

While going up the old air shaft, which is a second opening for the Exeter shaft, the bottom of the carriage gave way and precipitated the men to the bottom. Gates, the foreman, when he felt the timber giving way, grasped the side of the bunting and held on until rescued. Colonel Mason was killed by the shock. Inside Foreman Wilson was fatally injured and died shortly afterward. Mr. Mercer was badly, and Professor Burrell slightly, injured. He and Mr. Mercer were taken to the Pittston hospital.

Shaft Was an Old One. The second opening, where the accident occurred, has not been used as a traveling way, and was in use yesterday because of repairs in the main shaft. Foreman Gates says the accident was due to the carriage getting caught in the side guides, and the rope continuing to pull, the crossbeams at the junction, with one of the uprights, gave way, spilling the occupants out. They fell about 32 feet.

Colonel Mason was born in Bradford county and received his rudimentary education at Tonawanda, where he was fitted for the Susquehanna Collegiate Institute. He completed his studies at Worcester, Mass. He was educated with a view to becoming a civil engineer, but he entered a bank at Scranton, where he remained until 1893.

In 1893 he assisted in raising 350 men when the call was made for volunteers. Before the command reached Harrisburg he was promoted to second lieutenant and further promoted to adjutant the same year. At the battle of South Mountain he was distinguished for bravery and was favorably mentioned by the line officers. After this action he was selected by General Robert E. Meade as a member of his staff.

Wanted For Forgery. PROVIDENCE, July 27.—Police are looking for Harry S. Hamilton, traveling salesman for Burton, Price & Co., New York, a warrant having been issued for his arrest on a charge of forgery. Several business houses in this city have been victimized for sum ranging from $50 to $500, and other checks have come to light in Connecticut towns. As Hamilton was well known, they were cashed without question.

She Is Not Dead. PROVIDENCE, July 27.—Margaret McQuigan disappeared from her home on June 13. Her relatives decided that she was dead, but yesterday, to their great astonishment, she walked into the house. A few days after her disappearance the woman was arrested by the Boston police on an insane asylum. Gradually her reason returned, however, and Tuesday she was discharged.

The Reason Not Known. RENO, Nev., July 27.—Mrs. M. A. Hartly, an artist, last evening shot and killed State Senator M. D. Foley. The cause of the shooting is not known. Senator Foley was one of the most prominent men in the state and had been president of the Bank of Nevada. Mrs. Hartly had known Foley since last October. She is a widow.

A Record Breaker. ST. PAUL, July 27.—As indicated by reports from various points in Minnesota, Kansas, Missouri, Illinois, North and South Dakota and northern Iowa, yesterday was one of the hottest ever recorded in the northwest. From 100 to 112 in the shade is reported. The long continued heat is proving disastrous to crops.

Vegetables and Grain Ruined. PORTLAND, Me., July 27.—Lightning played great havoc on islands in Casco bay. Several cottages on Long Island were struck. A heavy wind accompanied the shower, and trees were uprooted and yachts and boats were badly damaged. Hailstones ruined growing vegetables and fields of grain.

Painter and Printer Burned Out. BOSTON, July 27.—Two alarms were rung in for a fire at 34 Oliver street this morning. The fire started on the third floor, occupied by J. L. Fight Given to Ryan. MINNEAPOLIS, July 27.—The 20-round fight at waterweights for the championship of the world, between Billy Smith and Tommy Ryan, took place at the Twin City Athletic club last night. Although not knocked out, Smith was declared beaten. Joe Choyinski was referee.

MURDER AT BOSTON.

John McManus Is Suspected of Having Cut His Wife's Throat.

BOSTON, July 27.—Margaret McManus, 40 years old, who lived with her husband, John McManus, 38 years old, in two rooms in the tenement house at 99 Haddon street, was murdered yesterday. McManus entered at 4 half drunk yesterday afternoon and announced that his wife had been murdered. Officers accompanied him to his apartment, and there on the bed, half naked, lay Margaret with a frightful gash in her throat.

John told several conflicting stories, one of which was that he had been there a few hours before and he heard his wife in the room with another man. He said that he was unable to gain admittance, and that later he entered and discovered the crime. His stories were at variance with those of people in the house, who say that the pair had been on a week's drunk, and that McManus had frequently abused and beat his wife, so he was arrested.

McManus was until two weeks ago a brakeman on the Boston and Albany railroad. His habits caused his discharge, and he has been down since. The couple were living in the depths of misery, and the crime leaves five children motherless.

COREAN KING A PRISONER.

Eleven Chinese steamers are on their way to Korea. Most of the troops aboard them are coolies, armed with bows and arrows.

Some Chinese steamers which have arrived at Korea have been prevented by the Japanese from landing troops. It is reported that the Japanese artillery sank several of them.

Last June Dick Crawford brought his twelve-months-old child, suffering from infantile diarrhea, to me. It had been weaned at four months old and had always been sickly. I gave it the usual treatment in such cases but without benefit. The child kept growing thinner until it weighed but little more than when born, or perhaps ten pounds.

I then started the father to giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Before one bottle of the 25 cent size had been used a marked improvement was seen and its continued use cured the child. Its weakness and puny constitution disappeared and its father and myself believe the child's life was saved by this Remedy. J. T. Marlow, M. D., Tamaroa, Ill.

and a complete set of new maps costing $30.00 to produce.

That some sort of an Encyclopedia is a necessity all must acknowledge.
That the Britannica is the very best Encyclopedia none will deny. The great cost, $125 for the Scribner Edition; $200 for the Edinburgh Edition, has prevented its purchase before. At these prices but few could afford it.

There is offered to the people of Quincy and vicinity an edition superior even to the costly Edinburgh edition, at the unheard of rate of

10 Cents per Day,

And the extraordinary low price of $1.98 per volume, former price, $5.00 to $8.00 per volume. This is without question the best offer ever made on a good edition of Britannica.

Editorial Comment.

A CORRESPONDENT OF THE PATRIOT of today would improve Fountain square near the First church by widening Saville street to seventy five feet. Just how this will improve Washington street is not apparent, but it would appear as if somebody had designs on Temple street. He would have the Quincy Point cars run on the north of the church to the depot via Saville street, and says "this plan would enable us to discontinue the track on Temple street, which would then have no advantage to justify its remaining." If the only traffic was between Quincy Point and the depot, as he assumes, it might work well, but the business men of City Square would hardly endorse it. They want the Quincy Point people brought into the Square, and the street railway will do what it can to help Quincy rather than Boston.

We are getting away from the subject,
but the best plan in the interests of local tradesmen would be for all the street cars to make a circuit in the Centre, say through Hancock, Elm and Washington streets.
This would take not only the West Quincy people through Hancock street, but also the Quincy Point people, the Atlantic and Wollaston people, and the Houghs Neck people. The cars from Quincy Point could run direct via Washington street as now and return via Hancock and Elm streets and all the other cars could go around the circuit in the same way: The West Quincy cars coming through Elm and Washington and returning by Hancock;
the Atlantic and Houghs Neck cars through Hancock and returning through Elm and Washington. This would take all car patrons by all the principal streets, the banks, public library and Hancock hall, and on Sundays the churches, and would be greatly appreciated.

To come back to the subject it would be rather expensive to widen Saville street, and what would it accomplish? The scheme to close the driveway between the church and fountain would probably be revived, but even then with no better success. Washington street in front of the street railway building must be widened to its fullest extent. The order now before the City Council to curb a small oval plat southeast of and contiguous to the fountain will accomplish all that is necessary for a small sum. It will make the locality much more attractive, which is the aim sought, and will also widen Washington street as needed.

THE BOSTON street commissioners gave a hearing Thursday on the widening of Blue Hill avenue from the junction of Warren and Washington streets at Grove Hall to the Milton line. Beyond that, the town of Milton, with the help of the State, is to widen the avenue, and from the Milton line to the Blue Hill reservation the Metropolitan Park Commissioners are to lay out the new way. The street is to be 120 feet wide throughout when completed, and will be one of the finest boulevards in the State.

If the boulevard is continued through the reservation to West Quincy, and thence down the valley of Furnace brook to Merry Mount park in Quincy, and thence back to Boston by the Bay Shore reservation and a new bridge at Squantum, it will add variety and be a still grander drive for Boston people, and at the same time will make the reservation accessible from Quincy, and the city will reap a little benefit in return for the large annual assessment which now seems probable.

THE LEDGER is informed at City Hall
that City Treasurer Adams, the ex-Assessor, is not tax collector for the unpaid taxes of past years, but that he is deputy to the new appointee. Whether principal or deputy, he as Assessor would doubtless be interested in closing accounts of past years, and it might be easier to abate than collect.

EIGHT of the twelve clubs of the National base ball league have won half of the games they have played. This would not be possible if the first clubs had a great lead, but none have won seventy per cent. In the New England league but three of the eight clubs have won fifty per cent. In the Old Colony league four of the six.

It is said that Mayor Hodges will himself act as Principal Assessor, because of the vacancy in said office, as provided in section 26 of the city charter. This will be a saving to the city, as he will not be entitled to receive any salary therefor.

BUT SIXTY-ONE new houses were built in Woburn during the year ending May 1, 1894, and the tax rate of our twin city will be $18.20. The total tax levy is $181,- 157.04, which includes an assessment of $5,709.37 for metropolitan sewer.

WHEW! The tax rate of Braintree is $21.60 this year. With such an example in our mother town, what could one expect of Quincy this year?

THE WEYMOUTH Gazette heads its assessors' figures, "Vital statistics." Well, they are rather vital at $18.50 per $1000.

ONLY TEN weeks to the Republican State convention. It will be held Oct. 6.

HOUGH'S NECK.

A Season Which Delights the Cottagers
But Not the Hotels.

The season at Houghs Neck is practically at its height, and few are the cottages that are not now occupied. The booth proprietors, however, claim that they are doing no business, for the reason that the visitors are not so many this year as in years past. This can be laid to several causes, principally the lack of money, as many of the people who frequent this place are now out of work.

The principal pastime for the summer residents is bathing, and every day at high tide scores of men, women and children can be seen all along the beach in gaudy bathing costumes, enjoying the refreshing bath.

The minstrel show Wednesday evening
was greatly enjoyed by a very large crowd,
and the general sentiment was, come again.
An entertainment will be given at the Union chapel Tuesday evening, for the benefit of the chapel.

Messrs. E. D. and L. B. West of Milton, with their families, are at the Bellevue.
G. L. Stengert and family of Jamaica
Plain are occupying the Danielson cottage.

F. C. Creber and family of Boston Highlands are at the Cottage Home for the season.

William Agnew and family are at the Idlewild.

The cars of the street railway are being re-painted and varnished at the car house.

E. O. Bartlett and family of Boston are at the Spot and have as a guest Miss Louise Burnham of Melrose.

Mr. O'Neill of Roxbury is at his new cottage on Crosby street.

Fish markets are about as thick as flies on Sea street from the Clam Shell to the car house.

Most time to be thinking of the annual illumination of the cottages.

Stanley Mears is building a 25 feet driveway around Great Hill starting from the car house. The driveway will be known as Highland avenue and will make a beautiful drive.

Mrs. Louise Eastman of Boston is occupying the Dot cottage.

Mr. Simon Hershov of Boston is a guest at the Harbor Light.

W. S. McNary and family are at the Murray cottage.

Mrs. John Robinson and family of Brain-tree are at the Fayol.

C. M. Thayer of Canton is at the Williams cottage on Great Hill.

Packard & Eldridge are building a new house on Rock Island road.

Mrs. J. F. Nolan of the Beatrice has as guests this week Mrs. Emma Shine, Misses Rebecca, Gertrude and Fannie Shine of Portland, Me.; Miss Gertrude H. O'Connor,
Frank D. O'Connor, William Bany, Miss Cleary, Miss Margaret Callahan of Boston; Mrs. F. H. Whitton of Dorchester.

The Hyde Park boys who have been occupying the Bell View cottage go home tonight.

Richard Turner and family of Boston
are at Nip Island.

Capt. Tappen and family of Rosindale, are at the Sea View cottage.

A party from Charlestown and one from Ashmont had an outing Thursday at Pierce's.

BRAINTREE.

The Assessors figures are out, and the large appropriations and decrease in valuation have caused an increase of nearly $5 per $1000. It is the highest in the history of the town, and rather too high for comfort. Here is the report:

Real estate for 1894,	$3,337,600
Real estate last year,	3,328,125
Increase for the year,	9,475

Harry Simmonds is spending his vacation at Dighton.

Mr. Samuel Isaacs, formerly of East Braintree, has returned from his seven weeks' trip to England.

Miss Fanny Hayward is spending her vacation with cousins in St. Johnsbury, Vt.

Annie Hill, assistant at the Braintree post office, has been having a week's vacation.

Rev. George A. Thayer and family of Cincinnati, Ohio, are expected soon at his old home, corner Central avenue and Franklin street.

The telegraph operator at Braintree station, Miss S. E. Thayer, is having a vacation and Mrs. Emma L. Keith of Bridgewater is officiating in her stead.

The subject for the Christian Alliance society for next Sunday will be: "Hearing and doing." The meeting will be under the leadership of Mr. John V. Arnold.

There will be no services during the month of August.

The benefit society connected with the L. K. and L. Autumn lodge, gave a supper on Wednesday afternoon on French's common. A good number were present and a good time was the result.

The Universalist Ladies' Aid society met last Wednesday afternoon with Mrs.
Hathaway. There was a large number present and it was voted to adjourn till Wednesday, Aug. 29, when the meeting will be held with Mrs. Cook.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Mansfield and Mr.
and Mrs. W. A. Sampson returned this week from Braintree. They report having a very lovely time, only one thing to regret; it did not last long enough. During their sojourn Mr. Austin Torrey and Mr. George Stevens, with friends, paid them a visit which was much enjoyed by all.

Rev. L. B. Hatch, pastor of the Baptist church, will leave for his annual vacation, August 6th, and interesting services have been arranged for next Sabbath, it being the last one, before his departure.

Mr. and Mrs. Hatch will spend some time at "Cottage City" and "Old Orchard" and other shore resorts. During his absence, the pulpit will be supplied by the following persons:

August 5.—Rev. Mr. Stewart of North Easton.

August 12.—Rev. W. H. Wyman of North Abington.

August 19.—Rev. S. E. Ellis of Hingham.

August 26.—Rev. W. H. Wyman.

There will be a special praise service
next Sunday evening, under the direction of W. E. Woodward, the efficient leader of music in this society; a brief address will be given by the pastor. All are welcome at these services.

Friday's Experiments.

Prof. Eddy experimented with his tandem kites on Blue Hill Friday, and will continue his experiments during next week.
He found the Blue Hill wind much stronger than at Bayonne, N. J., and Friday's experiments were not entirely successful.

The wind in the morning was blowing from 12 to 25 miles an hour, and had the tendency to drive down the kites instead of elevating them, but a height of 360 feet was reached.

Toward night, when the wind had decreased in velocity, the experiment was repeated, and the top kite of a tandem of four reached a height of 550 feet. Several kites were damaged in the morning, so that the professor had no more to add to the line.

Boys interested in this tailless kite flying will find in today's Herald a diagram of the kites, and also directions for making them.
The kite is a simple affair, the construction of which is easily within the reach of a clever boy.

WEYMOUTH.

Weymouth also has a high tax rate this year. The assessors report a loss of $99,- 116 in valuation making the rate $18.50.
Every gained in real estate, but lost
in personal. The figures:

Real estate,	$5,054,200.00

The Old North Congregational society had its picnic yesterday in Deacon grove, North Weymouth. A large number were present and swings, hammocks and boats
made the day enjoyable.

TODAY'S COURT.

The regular occupants of the free seats
at the District Court room were out in full force this morning, the attraction being the trial of James D. Taber, proprietor of the Montiquot house at North Weymouth, for assault on Louis Dildon, a peanut peddler. Both sides were represented by counsel and considerable testimony was offered upon both sides. That of the witnesses for the defendant and for the government differed considerably.

After a lengthy hearing the court found
Mr. Taber guilty and imposed a fine of $8.

Historical.

It was an odd coincidence that Miss Emma Hobart of South Quincy, who became a bride on Wednesday of last week, was married in the house built by her grand-uncle, the late Mr. Charles Hobart of Penn's Hill, in 1831; and in which he was married the same year; and the same in which he fifty years later, celebrated his golden wedding. Facts which were not thought of by any member of the family at the time of the recent wedding; her folks having moved into the house but a short time previously.

A Dwelling Guttered.

The alarm from Box 47 at 2:15 this morning followed five minutes later by another alarm from the same box was for a fire in a large unoccupied house on the corner of Grove street and Bates avenue, owned by Jeremiah Shehan.

The house was a mass of flames when the department arrived and before it was extinguished the house was badly gutted.
The loss is estimated at $1500.

The second alarm was pulled in by some malicious person.

A STUMBLING BLOCK.

Sugar May Prolong the Sitting of Tariff Conferrees.

TWO TIE VOTES IN THE SENATE.

Tariff Bill Is Finally Sent Back to Conference.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—A messenger from the executive mansion reached the house of representatives half an hour after the senate had voted to send the tariff bill back to conference with a note for Representative McMillin, the ranking house conferee, in the absence of Mr. Wilson, asking him to call at the White House.

This, following the conference between the president and Speaker Crisp earlier in the day, was taken to indicate the solidarity of the president felt on the outcome of the second conference. Mr. McMillin declined to talk of his call on the president.

Messrs. McMillin and Turner are the only house conferees in town, but Speaker Crisp has word that Mr. Montgomery and Chairman Wilson will be here today. The Democratic conferees will hold an informal meeting today, and Senator Jones said late yesterday that the full conference committee, including the Republican members, would probably be called together on Monday.

The general impression about the senate is that the conference will not be as prolonged as the former one, as some of the opinion of the committee either will agree on a report within two or three days after the sittings begin, or within that time decide to report another disagreement. The preponderance of opinion is, however, that there will not be another report of disagreement. In fact, the Democratic conferees assert that another disagreement means the defeat of the bill.

The House of Representatives.

The indications all point to the probability that the sugar schedule again will be the principal point of contention, and that but for the differences on this point an agreement would be reached after a very brief sitting. The Democratic members of the conference went through the bill carefully during their former sitting, and agreed on a vast majority of the items in it, so that they will not need to consider those points again very fully.

It is probable, however, that the Republican members of the committee will ask for an explanation for the many changes, and this action would of course have the effect of delaying the conference report.

Senator Blain had an entirely new sugar proposition to submit to the conference, but it is not regarded as at all likely of adoption. In outlining his proposition Senator Blanchard said that in his opinion the best way out of the complication would be to continue the bounty, diminishing it at the rate of 1-8 cent each year, and to add to the bounty 3-8 cent duty on raw sugars and 5 cent on refined sugars.

"This," he said, "would not increase the price of sugar to the consumer, and would yield to the treasury say $12,000,000 to $15,000,000 a year revenue, enough to pay the bounty from the start, with an ever-increasing surplus each year as the bounty diminishes in amount. The differential on refined sugar would be 1-4 cent, the same as proposed in the Wilson bill as reported from the ways and means committee, and only half as much as under the existing McKinley law. It would also," he added, "return the one-tenth discriminating duty against sugars imported from countries paying an export bounty."

A Lively Session.

The senate at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, after a week of senatorial speeches, agreed to the further consideration of the tariff bill asked by the house of representatives. The test of strength came on Mr. Washburn's motion that the senate recede from that portion of the sugar amendment placing a differential of 1-8 cent on sugars above No. 16 Dutch standard.

After an hour and a half of debate on the pending points of order, the president pro tempore, Mr. Harris, who was in the chair in the absence of Vice President Stevenson, sustained the point of order, and ruled the motion out. The decision was immediately appealed from and a motion made to lay the latter motion on the table. Both motions resulted in a tie vote, Mr. Hill and the Populists acting with the Republicans in the effort to get a direct vote on Mr. Washburn's motion.

A Close Vote.

Intense excitement prevailed, owing to the closeness of the vote. In case of a tie the motion is lost, according to parliamentary law. The effort to sustain the chair on the appeal brought the senate to the direct vote on the Washburn motion. Upon the result hinged perhaps the fate of the measure, but though the Republicans scored the victory in securing the vote on the 1-8 cent differential, it developed that they had no reserve strength, and the vote on the Washburn motion also resulted in a tie and consequently was lost.

All the Democrats—save Mr. Hill and Mr. Ivey—were paired in favor of striking out the one-eighth cent duty on the cane sugar agreement and voted against the motion. The Republicans also presented a solid front. Mr. Quay, who voted for the one-eighth when the bill was in the senate, joining with his colleagues in the hope of beating the bill by this indirect method.

The Populists acted throughout with the Republicans. After these votes no attempt was made to delay matters, and the resolution to agree to a further conference was agreed to without dissent. The chair then resuspended the conferees, Messrs. Voorhees, Jones, Vest, Harris, Sherman, Allison and Aldrich, and the senate, after transacting a little routine business, adjourned until Monday.

No Quorum.

There was not a quorum of members in the house at any time, and the business transacted was by unanimous consent. The message announcing that the senate insisted on its amendments to the tariff bill and agreed to the request of the house for a further conference was received by the house without giving rise to any demonstrations.

The house committee on interstate and foreign commerce has about abandoned its proposed investigation of the late A. R. U. strike.

RAILROADS ARE BUSY

But Other Great Factors Are Helping to Retard Trade.

TEXTILE MARKET IS IMPROVED.

Business in Boots and Shoes Continues Good.

New York, July 28.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review says: The heavy outflow of gold, the fall of the treasury reserve and of the price of wheat to the lowest point on record, and the increasing uncertainty about the tariff, have entirely overshadowed other influences.

Business delayed for months by the two great strikes now crowd railroads and swell returns, and gives the impression of revival in business. But it is not yet clear how far there is an increase in new traffic distinguished from that which has been merely blocked or deferred.

In some branches there has been more activity, but in others less, because events early this week led many to infer that no change of tariff would be made. But the uncertainty is not removed, and much of the business done seems to be in the nature of insurance against possibilities.

Freight, which was delayed by the blockade, now crowds the railroads and doubtless accounts in a large degree for heavy western receipts of wheat. But earnings show little gain.

Wheat and Corn.

Wheat is found deeper still, and has sold below 55 cents, making the monthly average at New York the lowest ever known. Western receipts have been 4,553,574 bushels, against 3,129,395 last year, in part because of delayed shipments, but the movement from the farms has been heavy, while Atlantic exports have been only 1,511,004 bushels, against 2,057,050 last year.

Corn was stronger, with accounts of injury to part of the crop, and the exports are trifling.

Cotton declined 1-16th to 7 cents, though receipts from plantations were small. Official reports count for nothing in comparison with enormous visible stocks. In the stock market there were some wide fluctuations, mainly in trusts affected by pending legislation, or in bankrupt railroads, which are discredited by the disclosures in Atchison. Naturally gold exports and the condition of the treasury check any upward effort.

Textile Industries.

Textile industries have been perceptibly stimulated, according to dealers, by disagreements, which many suppose may prevent a change of the tariff, and there has been more buying of cotton goods, and slightly higher prices for a few, notwithstanding the closing of some important mills.

Sales of wool have been greatly swelled by speculation, in the belief that wool is not likely to decline in any event, but may advance sharply if tariff changes fail. Sales for the week were 9,014,100, against 2,164,500 last year, or 9,118,500 in 1892. In four weeks of July sales have been 22,339,285 pounds, against 10,606,900 in 1893, and 29,250,350 in 1892.

Iron, Boots and Shoes.

While scarcity of coke delays resumption of work in many central and western iron mills, the light inquiry for finished products at Chicago and the disappointment of demand for most kinds at Pittsburgh raises doubt whether material increase can be expected when the tariff question is out of the way.

Editorial Comment.

ONE of the greatest blessings, that our citizens seems to enjoy and appreciate these hot days, is the cool and refreshing water from the old town pump that has occupied a prominent and conspicuous position nearly in front of the PATRIOT office for over half a century. Any pleasant evening a crowd can be seen gathered about the well, waiting their turn for a drink of the sparkling water. So constant is the handle used that the water is always cold and inviting. So attractive is it, as one of our citizens remarked recently, if anyone could own that well he could get rich selling the water at one cent a glass. There is no well of water in this city so much appreciated and constantly used as this.

THE ASSESSORS of Waltham report an increase of $144,184 in valuation and loss in polls. The tax rate is $16.30 against $16.40 last year. Waltham keeps its tax rate very uniform, having ranged from $13.50 to $16.40 the past twelve years.

JOSIAH QUINCY informs the Journal that he is in no sense a candidate for the mayoralty of Boston. Probably he considers the boom premature. Time will tell.

Another One of Those Races.

A lively little scrap took place not more than a week ago between five of Cape Cat boats of Quincy. The entries were as follows:

Tara,—Capt. E. W. Newcomb.
Scylla,—Capt. G. W. Holden.
Kathleen,—Capt. Geo. Newcomb.
Myth,—Capt. Warren Nightingale.
Dorothy,—Capt. Frank Crane.

The course was from Channel Rock to can buoy off Sheep Island and return. The boats were well bunched at the start. On account of the light wind the Tara succeeded in working ahead, going round the can buoy about nine minutes ahead of all the others, but owing to good management the Scylla commenced to crawl up on the others and when Channel Rock was reached she was as usual way ahead of them all. The captain of the Tara, Mr. Newcomb then invited the "gang" all up to dinner but the excitement had deadened the appetites of all and they declined with thanks.

South Quincys, 16; Somervilles, 7.
The South Quincys added another victory to their record Saturday by defeating the Somervilles by a score of 16 to 7. The features of the game were the batting of Birnie and Parley and fielding of Deady and Ingram. The score by innings was:

South Quincys	0	0	3	2	1	0	2	16
Somervilles	0	0	1	0	1	4	0	7

The South Quincys will play next Saturday on the South Quincy grounds, behind Smith's polishing shop, Water street, the Coltons of South Boston. A good game may be expected.

OLD COLONY LEAGUE.

The Quincys Have It All Their Own Way at Randolph.

HOLBROOK DOWNS BRAINTREE.

The Institutes Have a Close Call With the Whitmans.

One tie was dissolved in the Old Colony league Saturday, the Holbrooks now leading the Whitmans. The Braintrees and Randolphs are still keeping each other company. The Institutes and Quincys both won Saturday, and are having a grand struggle for that pennant:

FIFTEEN TO ONE.

The Victorious Quincys Have a Picnic With the Tailenders.

The Quincys visited Randolph Saturday to play their third game with Randolph in the Old Colony league series, which resulted in a crushing defeat for the home team by a score of 15 to 1. At the end of the eighth inning the game was called to allow the visitors to catch the train.

The Quincys completely outplayed the home team, and won without difficulty owing to the loose playing of the home team.

Bair, formerly of Boston Woven Hose team, who was in the box for Randolph, was retired after the second inning, owing to a lame side, Sullivan taking his place, whom the Quincys batted at will.

Connors the champion of the league twirlers was in the box for the Quincys. He was very effective only three hits being made off his delivery.

The game opened up with the Quincys at the bat. Pitts the first man up lined the first ball pitched for a home run and was followed later in the game by home runs by Connors and Burrell and three base hits by Duffy and Slade. The other features of the game was the fielding of Pitts, Slade, Faircloth and Duffy, who could on a pinch cover left and right field as well as centre.

The fielding of Fennell and McAuliffe was of the highest order, while the battery work of Connors and Burrell was simply "out of sight." The summary:

The Braintrees were hardly in it Saturday with the Holbrooks who won easily by a score of 14 to 6.

Some Hot Liners.

Next Saturday the Quincys will go to Holbrook. Look out for another victory.

The Quincys are recorded as being the best batting as well as the best fielding team in the league.

The Institutes and Quincys will not meet until August 25. Look out for the hottest game of the season.

Will the Randolphs please brace up. They ought to win at Weymouth next Saturday.

Two horses in a shed at Scituate were killed by lightning Sunday afternoon.

FOUND MANY VICTIMS.

Severe Storm, Accompanied by Lightning, Swept Over New England.

PITTSFIELD, Mass., July 30.—George B. Castle, 30, a grocer of this city, was instantly killed by lightning at Lake Oneota last evening. Mr. and Mrs. Castle, Charles Johnson, H. J. Wagner, Mrs. Samuel Williams, a nurse, and Miss Lena Wagner, who were camping on the north shore of the lake, were all prostrated by the shock. Every member of the party was rendered unconscious by the shock.

NEWTON, Mass., July 30.—The storm last night did not visit the Newtons in full force, but the lightning struck in several places. Bolts struck a massive elm at Newton Corner on Nonantum street. At Watertown lightning struck an electric light pole in Watertown square and razed it to the ground.

AMESBURY, Mass., July 30.—The most severe electrical storm for 25 years raged here last night. The telephone service was crippled. The cottage and barn of Seth Clark at Salisbury beach were struck. A barn at East Kingston was also struck and burned. The thermometer was at 104.

NEW HAVEN, July 30.—Lightning struck the cupola of the German Lutheran church on George street and damaged it to the extent of about $500. Another bolt struck the new Yale gymnasium, but the damage here was very slight. Thermometer, 94.

DOVER, N. H., July 30.—The Cocheco Manufacturing company's bleachery was struck by lightning, but was not much damaged. Chimneys and trees at Sawyer's were blown down. An inch and a quarter of rain fell.

HAVENHILL, Mass., July 30.—While driving in Bradford during the storm Mrs. Richard A. Splaine and her sister, Miss Mary Daly, were stunned by lightning, which instantly killed the animal they were driving.

HAVENHILL, Mass., July 30.—The residence of Mrs. George Hayden on Lincoln street was struck by lightning during a heavy thunder shower, and the bolt played havoc in the house, causing $200 damage.

WALTHAM, Mass., July 30.—During a thunder storm last night lightning struck the planing mills of the Public Lumber company, setting fire to the large shed. The loss is heavy.

NORWICH, Conn., July 30.—Lightning struck the steeple of the Broadway Congregational church in this city. A big slice was torn out of it. The damage will amount to $500.

NORTH ANDOVER, Mass., July 30.—The storm last evening was very severe. Michael Maloney and Herbert Gill were prostrated by the lightning, but later recovered.

Supposed to Have Been Dead.

CHICAGO, July 30.—John W. Love, president of the board of trustees of the village of Watkins, N. Y., and cashier of the National bank there, was arrested here on a warrant charging embezzlement, and was taken back to Watkins. He is short $70,000. The fact that Love is alive at all will be a great surprise to the people of Watkins as the disclosure that he is an embezzler. Love disappeared on Feb. 8 last. A coat and hat, which were recognized as his, were found on the shore of Seneca lake. The coat contained papers belonging to Love, and his death seemed certain. The erring official was traced through the postmark of a letter received by his wife to Memphis.

Highwaymen Got $500.

PROVIDENCE, July 30.—Dr. Wilbur F. Worth, an aged citizen of Mantion, was held up by highwaymen at 2 o'clock Sunday morning in some woods through which he was passing to make a call. The doctor had returned from Boston on the midnight train from a business trip, bringing $500 with him, which was taken by the highwaymen. The police think the men followed the doctor to this city from Boston.

An Archduke's Fatal Fall.

VIENNA, July 30.—Archduke William III was riding at Weikersdorf yesterday when his horse shied, being frightened by a passing electric car. The archduke was thrown out of the saddle, and in falling, his head struck a stone. One of his feet became entangled in a stirrup, and he was dragged some distance before his horse was stopped. The archduke's injuries resulted in his death a short time afterward.

Bricks Fell on Him.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., July 30.—George Bateman went out on the flat roof of his boarding place, 291 Cambridge street, and strung a hammock from the chimney to a post on the roof and seated himself in it. Being a very heavy man he had no sooner seated himself than the chimney toppled over on him, killing him instantly.

An Unexplained Disaster.

ASHLAND, Pa., July 30.—One of a nest of six boilers at Lehigh Valley colliery, No. 4, exploded, instantly killing one man and injuring three others, two of whom have since died. The cause of the explosion is a mystery. The boilers having been inspected Saturday. The building was wrecked.

Caused a Loss of $150,000.

NEW YORK, July 30.—An explosion last night in the building 82 Fulton street started a fire which did damage to the extent of $150,000. The entire six-story building was entirely destroyed. Three firemen were overcome by the heat, but recovered.

Accident Victim Identified.

NORTH ADAMS, Mass., July 30.—The body of the man killed on the Fitchburg railroad at Braytonville has been identified as that of William Jones of Blackington. He was a Welshman, 45 years old, and was employed as a bleacher.

WEYMOUTH.

As one of our clergymen says: There's no Sunday in East Weymouth. But a small proportion of the former church-going people now attend divine worship, the day being given up to recreation and enjoyment. Nantasket and Downer Landing, as in former years, draws a good many to enjoy their pleasures, while Quincy Point, by its accessibility, has become a popular resort. Some ask, "Is the electric railroad increasing the disrespect for the fourth commandment?"

Officers Pratt, Bailey, Peare and Allen raided the premises of Henry J. Shaw at East Weymouth, Sunday, and seized 6 bottles of beer.

The announcement that Col. Benjamin S. Lovell will be a probable candidate for gubernatorial honors upon the retirement of Gov. Greenhalge, is received with delight by the townsmen, who would be more than pleased to see him elevated to the chief magistracy of the good old Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

There is hardly a better known man among the Grand Army in the State than Col. Lovell, and in the event of his receiving the nomination, the "boys," as he always calls them, would rally with the spirit of 1860 and place him in the governor's chair.

That he is eminently fitted for the position no one doubts and his friends in Weymouth can and will heartily endorse his nomination.

For many years Col. Lovell was commander of Reynolds post, G. A. R., and if the boys had their say he would still be at the head of the post, but the increasing business of the John P. Lovell Arms company, of which he is treasurer, was such that he reluctantly resigned his command, although still retaining his membership, and upon Memorial day when the post turns out to perform its sacred duty, Ben can always be found among the rank and file.

Here's hoping he may be nominated and elected.

Davy Jones Popular.

With a record of four successful weeks to its credit, "Davy Jones" will begin its second month at the museum this evening. There could be no better criterion of the popularity of Mr. Miller's latest effort than for the attendance has increased rather than diminished, and the advanced sale of seats demonstrates that the theatre-going public is looking ahead.

This evening will be a notable occasion, for the members of the John A. Andrew Post 15, G. A. R., will attend the performance in full uniform, and there will also be present many distinguished military officers. This of course means special features from the stage in the way of new songs and business.

The company presenting the opera is an especially good one, and includes such favorites as Dan Daly, Maude William, Mamie Gilroy, Lona F. Brine, Harry Kelly, Eddie Smith, Robert Evans, J. B. McAuliffe, Richard Carle, May S. Boyesen and others. The promenade concerts, half an hour prior to each performance, are very popular.

A Greeting.

How beautiful thou art, O love of mine! The sparkle of thine eye shines in the streams. The fragrance of thy breath wafts from the pine.

The beauty of thy smile is in the beams Of morning sunlight, as it glints and gleams. Thy venture is the verdancy that thrills In new life in the leaf, the spray, the blade, And lies like emerald velvet on the hills And on the bosom of the lush green glade. Brilliant in sunlight, splendrous in the shade.

Once more I seek thee in thy bowers, my sweet. A tired toiler from the city's mart, Once more I seek thee, by the brooklet's feet. To still with touch of thine the fret and smart.

And slow the throbbing of the fevered heart, And, lo! I find thy welcome is as free as air. Today as in the old time, long ago, When, as a child, I wandered forth to thee. Thy smile is only deeper, and I know My own responsive love darts warmer glow.

Oh, as of old, first love of mine, infuse The vigor of thy youth in nerve and vein. Cast out the sordid thought, the soul enthuse With nobler instincts, and in art and brain Breed high desires that bring no after pain. Point with thy luminous finger to the sod Where blossoms grow and toil not, neither spin.

But rest their being beauteous in their God. Content to be far from the city's din, In woodland depths, devoid of care or sin. —Dunting.

Last June Dick Crawford brought his twelve-months-old child, suffering from infantile diarrhoea, to me. It had been weaned at four months old and had always been sickly. I gave it the usual treatment in such cases but without benefit. The child kept growing thinner until it weighed but little more than when born, or perhaps ten pounds. I then started the father to giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Before one bottle of the 25 cent size had been used a marked improvement was seen and its continued use cured the child. Its weakness and puny constitution disappeared and its father and myself believe the child's life was saved by this Remedy. J. T. Marlow, M. D., Tanawana, Ill.

HIS MAIDEN EFFORT.

A Quincy Young Man Occupies the Pulpit of the First Church.

The pulpit of the First church was filled very acceptably on Sunday morning by Charles Hunt Porter, Jr., the talented son of Quincy's first Mayor. There was a large congregation of prominent people of the city, including a great many of his young friends, and it must have been a trying ordeal for the young man.

Mr. Porter was unassisted in the pulpit, but few would have known that it was his maiden effort. The hymns were clearly announced and distinctly read, the Scripture and responsive services read as with a knowledge of the subject, and the prayer fervent.

The sermon was the crowning effort. The text was from Matthew 22:37—"Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul and with all thy mind." Naturally the young preacher was confined to his notes very closely, but he spoke with expression and eloquence and with easy gesture.

He considered the text as a summons to duty, and told how we could show our love for the Maker. Not in some great reform movement but as Christ, who did the duty next to him to do.

Almost the entire congregation remained at the close of the services to congratulate the young preacher and also his happy parents.

The pulpit was very prettily decorated, cat-o'-nine-tails being conspicuous.

HOUGHS NECK.

Those dudes at the beach July 22, are given away by the Dedham Transcript as follows:

Four prominent but modest youths of this town hired a barouche at one of our local livery stables on Sunday last, and set out for a day's outing at Houghs Neck, Quincy. When they left the old shire town they were clothed in their usual Sunday attire, but in their hearts burned a desire to astonish the clam diggers at the seashore; and so, when they had reached a secluded spot near the bridge over the railroad at Mattapan, they drove their team to one side of the road, and, reaching beneath the seats of their vehicle, pulled out sundry bundles. These were quickly undone, and then all four young men, with lightning-like rapidity, proceeded to don their Sabbath garb and don the contents of the bundles. Like butterflies shedding their chrysalides, they, five minutes later, shone forth resplendent in full yachting costumes, white pants, etc. Folding their cast-off garments, they hid them beneath the seats of the carriage, and then drove off toward their destination, happy in the belief that no mortal eye had beheld the living picture of their character change. False hope! A little bird gave them away.

Nelson, who is in the drug business at Kingville, Mo., has so much confidence in Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy that he warrants every bottle and offers to refund money to any customer who is not satisfied after using it. CONFERRERS' REPORT

Likely to Lead to Further Squabbling in the Senate.

THE SENATE BILL OR NO BILL

Explains the Situation as It Stands at Present.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—The proceedings in the senate this week will depend largely upon the conferees on the tariff bill. If they should reach a conclusion during the week, as is expected they will, the report will be made to the senate, that body having granted the request for a conference, and the report will be taken up at the first opportunity.

Whatever the nature of the report, there is sure to be more or less debate upon it. Even should the senate bill be accepted in its entirety by the house, there will be some speeches on the part of the tariff leaders and possibly other senators, though in this event there would be a general disposition to curtail them both in length and number on account of the desire which is felt in the quarters to bring the session to a close at the earliest possible date.

This disposition would not be allowed to control in case the report should indicate any material concessions to the house. In case of reductions on either coal, iron ore or sugar, there are Democratic senators who would resist the report, and another family quarrel on the floor of the senate would be the inevitable result. There are also Democratic senators who would make strenuous opposition to material changes in the metal, woolen and cotton schedules, and the Republicans would be likely to find themselves participating. It is not probable that Senator Quay will submit quietly to any important modification of the metal schedule, nor that Senator Aldrich would permit changes in the rates on woolens to be made without entering a vigorous protest, and the result would be the prolongation of the debate with the end of forcing a return to the senate floor.

Other Business.

The first days of the week will be given up to the sundry civil appropriation bill. This will always arouse a more or less debate. The bill this year will probably prove no exception, and it is likely that two or three days will be devoted to it until it should be sidetracked by the tariff.

With the sundry civil bill disposed of, the general deficiency bill will be the only appropriation bill remaining unacted upon by the senate. It has not yet been considered by the committee on appropriations, but will be taken up as soon as the civil bill shall be reported, and will probably be in shape to be considered by the senate by the time the sundry civil bill is out of the way.

Four of the appropriation bills are in conference, and reports upon these may be expected during the week, with the possibility of more or less debate upon each. If time permits, the general calendar presents a great variety of matter for the consideration of the senate.

The Situation Summed Up.

There has been no meeting of the Democratic conferees on the tariff bill since the adjournment at 10:30 Saturday.

The Democratic managers on the part of the senate are as yet uninformed as to what will be the purport of the reply which the Democratic managers in behalf of the house will make in response to the senate's position that the conference must accept the senate bill.

Having at the Saturday meeting made plain to the house members of the conference why this demand on their part had to be made and why it should be accepted, the senators say that there is nothing for them to do until the house members make known their acceptance or rejection of the proposition. If it be accepted, they think the report can be made after a brief conference. If rejected, they say they see no reason for a long parley, as under the circumstances they cannot abate their demands without endangering the passage of the bill in the senate.

It does not appear that any difficulty has arisen over coal and iron ore in the present conference, and the house members have indicated a willingness to leave them as agreed upon in the senate if the sugar schedule can be changed so as to eliminate the special duty of 18 cent on refined sugars.

Stubborn Senators.

This is the only question of real contention, and the senators are apparently determined to stand firm for the retention of the differential. Furthermore, they do not appear to be holding out for the senate schedule purely on the ground of expediency, but they also contend for the justice of the proposition to give protection to the refiners.

When Chairman Wilson of the house managers advanced the proposition on Saturday that the ad valorem rate of 40 per cent would, on account of the difference in the market price of raw and refined sugars, give the refiners an advantage of 14 cent a pound, he was replied to very sharply by the senate conferees, some of whom displayed figures to prove the contrary, while others said the proposition was too absurd for argument.

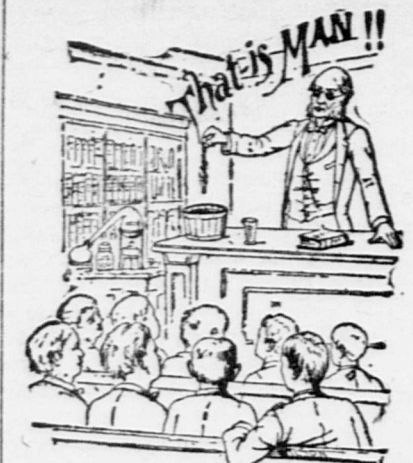

They also went over the argument as to the cost of manufacturing sugar in this and other countries.

It looks very much like a deadlock unless the house conferees yield, as there is no indication of any purpose on the part of senators to do so. The senate conferees talk freely about the situation and plant themselves firmly upon the proposition that the sentiment in the senate is such that it must be the senate bill or no bill.

House Forecasts.

No plan of procedure has been arranged for the house of representatives, as Speaker Crisp wants to keep the way clear for the tariff bill, if an agreement can be reached. The only business set for the week is the Funston-Moore contested election case on Wednesday.

The petition circulated by Mr. Springer for a Democratic caucus Tuesday at 3 P. M. is like to cut an important figure in the proceedings of the week, unless Speaker Crisp and other leaders succeed in having the caucus, as it is construed as a reflection on the house conferees. The latter are up in arms and there is promise of a warm personal controversy if the caucus is held.

Base Hits.

Boston has won six games out of nine from New York.

The Pittsburgh club has decided to give Denny Lyons another chance at third base.

In the ninth inning at Sioux City, Ia., July 21, the Kansas City pitcher, Daniels, gave five men bases on balls.

Captain Anson has given up all hope of winning the pennant this year, and says he will be satisfied if his team finishes in fourth place.

Blake of Cleveland made his first sacrifice hit of the season Friday. Of late he has taken a drop in his batting, but still has over 300 averages.

Out of a series of 16 games at home, July 21 inclusive, Indianapolis won 13 games, lost two and tied one, putting the club well up in the race.

Anderson of the Haverhill team in five games the past week scored nine runs, 13 hits and 10 totals, with 25 times at bat. He has stolen 31 bases and made 70 runs and 95 hits.

Duffy was the first man to reach the century line in hits, and Long in runs. If any one succeeds in reaching that line in hits and runs, it will be Hamilton of the Philadelphia.

In the Pittsburgh-Cleveland game Thursday Killen was hit on his pitching arm by a line-hit ball from George Tebeau's bat. One of the bones was broken and he may never be able to pitch again.

A Bold Escape.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., July 30.—James Golding escaped Sunday from the house of correction, where he was "doing" 30 days for drunkenness, and was also held on the charge of breaking and entering in the night time a private residence. He was recaptured after a long chase. The escape was one of the boldest that has been made in the history of the prison, and that it was successful in broad daylight is a mystery. In his attempt for freedom the prisoner fell a distance of over 20 feet, and it is thought he broke his leg.

Fourteen Hours in the Water.

BOSTON, July 30.—Captain Wiley of the schooner Cactus reports that on July 27, when off Cape Henry, he sighted George Moore in the water and picked him up. Moore stated that he had been a stowaway on the steamer Templemore, had been secured by life preserver and jumped overboard, hoping to swim ashore. The current swept him seaward, however, and he had been in the water 14 hours when taken aboard the Cactus.

Electric Car Collide.

PROVIDENCE, July 30.—Two electric cars collided head on near Ingraham Corners last evening. Both cars were crowded with excursionists going to and coming from shore resorts. The two cars were badly broken, and Albert Holt, a motor-man, and four passengers were seriously injured. Others were badly shaken up, and it was only by rapid work that a terrible fatality was averted.

Probably Died From Heat.

BOSTON, July 30.—Michael Fitzgerald, 26 years old, died suddenly last night at his home in South Boston. He was overcome by the heat Saturday, and his death probably resulted from that, but the medical examiner will positively ascertain the cause of death.

Crossed the Water.

PROVIDENCE, July 30.—It is now known that Arthur Ellis, the absconding employee of the Riverside mill, sailed from New York for England last Wednesday. As the amount stolen is less than $1000 the company will make no effort to bring him back.

Annie McGinnis' Choice.

BANGOR, Me., July 30.—Pretty Annie McGinnis, kitchen girl at the Girard, Bangor's swell family hotel, has eloped with the colored porter, George Walters. Annie was a native of New Brunswick, and had borne an excellent character.

Claims Self-Defense.

FLESHING, L. I., July 30.—In a quarrel yesterday Weymar Frost, colored, was shot and almost instantly killed by John Olsie, a white laborer. Olsie claims that he acted in self-defense, and immediately gave himself up to the authorities.

Ate Poisoned Food.

BOSTON, July 30.—James Casey, 22 years old, died at the hospital last night. He was picked up in the street, suffering apparently from sunstroke, but physicians found that he had been poisoned, probably by food he had eaten.

Lost His Courage.

LYNN, Mass., July 30.—Ruel W. Jameson, 40 years old, committed suicide last evening by shooting himself. He had long been in ill health, and the deed is supposed to have been prompted by despondency.

Iron Chancellor's Wife Sick.

BERLIN, July 30.—A dispatch from Varzin states that Princess Bismarck had fainting fits a few days ago, and has since been confined to her bed.

PATENTS

NOTICE TO INVENTORS.

There was never a time in the history of our country when the demand for improvements in the arts and sciences was so great as now. The progress of man-kind in the factory and the household, on the farm and in the life, require continual accessions to the knowledge and implements of each in order to save labor, time and expense. The change in the administration of the government does not affect the progress of the inventor, who, being on the ground ready to perceive the existing defects, does not permit the affairs of government to deter him from quickly conceiving and ready to overcome existing defects. Too great care cannot be exercised in a competent and skillful preparation and prosecution of an application for a patent. Valuable interests have been lost and destroyed innumerable in the employment of incompetent and unskillful attorneys who do not at risk, as the breadth and strength of the patent is never considered in view of a patent. To get an allowance and obtain the right to use the invention, the inventor should consult with a competent and skillful attorney. The PRESS COMPANY, John Wedderburn, Manager, 615 F Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., representing a large number of important daily and weekly papers, as well as general periodicals of the country, is prepared to protect its patrons by its safe methods hereafter mentioned in this line of business. The said company is prepared to take charge of all business entrusted to it for reasonable compensation and prosecutes applications, including mechanical inventions, patents, trade marks, labels, designs, infringements, violations, and gives special attention to cases. It is also prepared to enter litigation with any firm in securing its rights and instructions and advice.

CRUMBS OF COMFORT

For the Tariff Bill Conference on the House Side.

A STRONG OUTSIDE PRESSURE

Bearing Upon Senators to Make Some Concessions.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—For the first time since the tariff bill has been in conference there were signs of wavering in the strong line that has stood behind the senate bill.

"Senate bill or no bill" was repeated during yesterday, but less frequently and with less emphasis than heretofore. The only explanation for the brief conferences yesterday is the fact that the house conferees feel that the situation is changing in their favor.

There are many reasons advanced to show that this statement has good foundation. It is known that the mails and the telegraph are bringing to the Democratic senators urgent appeals to pass a bill "which will not favor the trusts, and which will be in line with the demands of the party platform."

In fact, these requests upon the senators are endorsements of the positions of the president and the house in the main points of difference. These telegrams are having effect cannot be denied, and have caused the senators who are most insistent upon the senate bill, as regards coal, iron ore and sugar, no little concern.

The house members also find considerable comfort in their analyses of the speeches made by the Democratic senators when the conference disagreement was revised before the senate, in which they felt that but one Democrat besides Mr. Hill made any pledge of his vote, and that was Senator Caffery, who declared that if the Louisiana sugar interests were not protected that he would not vote for the bill.

None of the other senators, it is claimed, burned the bridges behind them, none of them declared absolutely that they would vote against the bill if the one-eighth differential on sugar was not retained, or if the duty on iron ore and coal was stricken out.

But more than this, many of the senators declared their desire to obtain a bill which would secure 43 Democratic votes. It is pointed out that none of these senators, not even Mr. Caffery, have placed themselves in a position in which they cannot support a bill if it is returned without a differential protection to the sugar refiners and with coal and iron on the free list.

Modifications Suggested.
It is known that a great deal of pressure is being brought to bear on the Democratic conferees of the senate to report an agreement, with modifications of the three principal items, a compromise being suggested to the extent of a 14 cent valorem rate on sugar of 45 per cent, with an extension of the bounty to Jan. 1, 1895, free iron ore, coal 40 cents a ton, with a reciprocity provision that coal shall be admitted free from such countries as grant free admission to coal produced in the United States.

While this proposition has not been submitted with any assertion that it is an ultimatum of the house conferees, there is a great deal of talk that such a proposition is likely to be presented. This, it is believed, will secure the votes of the Louisiana senators, the two Populists, Allen and Kyle, and Ivey of South Carolina. In that event it would take three other Democratic senators besides Hill to defeat the bill, and the house members declare the number cannot be found.

It is a fact that the situation, turning as it does on these lines, has caused considerable uneasiness among the Democrats of the senate, and especially those who are known to be steadfast in their demands for the senate bill in its main features.

The reliance of the house upon outside pressure and the Democratic sentiment that seems to be rallying around the president and the house from the country at large, it is claimed, will grow stronger from day to day, until the senate conferees will be compelled to yield.

The prestige which the administration obtained in the conference over the unconditional repeal of the silver purchasing law has been pointed out as being evidence of a determination now, which, with solid backing of the Democratic leaders in the house, will bring about a similar result on the tariff bill.

Deadlock Still On.
The tension between the senate and house was as marked at the close of the session yesterday as it had been at any previous time. The Democratic members of the conference found themselves in a complete deadlock when they met during the forenoon, and the full conference called for 1 o'clock found itself without business before it was convened.

The full time of the conference did not exceed 15 minutes, and the proceedings consisted of a statement by the Democrats to the Republicans that the Democratic conferees had been unable to reach an understanding and a suggestion by Mr. Wilson that the conference adjourn, subject to the call of the chairman, which suggestion was acquiesced in by the Republicans.

Democratic members of both houses appreciate to the utmost the extreme gravity of the situation. The Democratic senators who will say anything on the subject say that to all appearances the house conferees are as unyielding as they have been at any time.

It is stated that at the Democratic conference yesterday the house members an-peared even more determined than ever to maintain their position. Occasionally a Democrat would be found on the senate side who would express the hope that the house conferees would content themselves with this last demonstration of disapproval and subsequently agree to come to the senate terms.

Conferences among Democratic leaders in the senate and between these senators and Democratic members of the house have been frequent during the day since the conference adjourned, and they have been held with the view of harmonizing the differences, if possible. The Democrats will meet in informal conference again today.

HISTORICAL SPOTS

Being Visited by a Party of Pilgrims From the Quaker City.

BOSTON, July 31.—Forty-one of the 42 members of the historical pilgrimage party, comprising members of the Philadelphia University Extension society that left the City of Brotherly Love Saturday to follow as closely as practicable Washington's revolutionary movements, arrived here last night. They were hot and tired, but happy in the reminiscence of a few hours spent in Hartford, their first regular stopping place, yesterday afternoon. They repaired at once to the Quaker House here to rest.

The original and leader of the party, Lyman P. Powell of Philadelphia, is in charge of the party. At Hartford they were met by Charles Dudley Warner and members of the Connecticut Historical society, and after an elaborate lunch were welcomed by Mayor Brainard at the city hall, a building replete with historic interest to the visitors. The site of the Charter Oak tree, the burial place of Thomas Hooker and several other spots of interest were visited.

Today the visitors were formally welcomed in the historic Old South meeting house, and there many distinguished Bostonians met them. After these preliminaries the pilgrims were escorted to Bunker Hill, Faneuil hall and other historic places, at each of which some wise citizen told the story of its place in history. The merry yard, and Copp's hill, where the lanterns that speeded Paul Revere were displayed, were also seen.

Tomorrow the program will be continued in Cambridge and vicinity, and so the pilgrimage will continue in this historic section until Saturday, when this novel trip will be finished in New York and the middle states.

Gorman Asked to Resign.

FREDERICK, Md., July 31.—The tariff reform Democrats of Frederick county held an enthusiastic meeting here last night. Resolutions were adopted endorsing President Cleveland and the house of representatives, and demanding that Senator Gorman resign his seat in the senate, "and give over misrepresenting an honest people in the interest and for the benefit of himself, corporations, monopolists and trusts," and pledged the people to "leave nothing undone to oust him from the seat he disgraces, should he fail to resign the same."

A Vicious Assault.

ORANGE, Mass., July 31.—Albert Southworth was bound over to await the action of the grand jury for assault with a dangerous weapon, upon Charles Southworth, a widow and also his sister-in-law. The assault was probably the outcome of jealousy upon the part of the man. He held her up on the floor of her kitchen, and stabbed her repeatedly with a jack-knife. The woman is in a critical condition.

A Brute In Human Form.

PROVIDENCE, July 31.—The arrest of Jacques Blucher, a Belgian, by Deputy Sheriff Lynch prevented the lynching of the man by enraged citizens of Pontiac. Blucher, incestuously assaulted his 14-year-old daughter, and left her with her mouth full of poison ivy leaves, after beating her into insensibility, lying half covered in a swamp. Blucher then went home to sleep. The girl cannot live.

Farmers Short of Corn.

CHICAGO, July 31.—Live stock receipts yesterday were the largest ever known—hogs, 90,000; cattle, 25,000; sheep, 13,000, or 97,000 head. This extraordinary movement is attributed to the failure of the corn crop. Farmers who had bought stock to be fed and fattened with corn this winter, finding that they would have no corn to feed to the animals, are hurrying them forward.

Was Fouly Dealt With.

AMESBURY, Mass., July 31.—An autopsy was held yesterday on the body of Thomas Burke, who was found in the Merrimack river last Friday with an anchored tied to his neck. The autopsy showed that deceased had met with foul play prior to being thrown in the water. Michael Burke and James Whalen have been arrested on suspicion.

Claims Self-Defense.

BUFFALO, July 31.—William H. Bright of the Genesee oil works was fatally shot by Barney Murray, the night watchman, yesterday. Murray says that Bright owed him between $500 and $600. He went to the office with a gun to enforce payment, and shot Bright in self-defense.

Sunk by a Steamer.

DETROIT, July 31.—The little schooner Glad Tidings was sunk in the Detroit river near Ecorse by the whaleback propeller Pathfinder. The crew of four were all drowned. A misunderstanding of the steamer's signals seemed to have caused the collision.

Pittsfield Loses a Good Citizen.

PITTSFIELD, Mass., July 31.—Deacon James Francis, 89 years old, one of the most prominent men of this city, is dead. He had been sick for nearly a year. He was a successful business man and an ardent and faithful supporter of the Baptist church.

Minneapolis' Big Fire.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 31.—The third disastrous fire in the history of Minneapolis broke out yesterday afternoon in the lumber yards of the Shevlin-Carpenter company. Before it was controlled it destroyed property valued at nearly $500,000.

Jealousy Caused It.

LOUISVILLE, July 31.—Thomas Evans, colored, cut his wife's throat from ear to ear with a razor, nearly severing her head from her body, and then committed suicide by cutting his own throat. Evans was jealous of his wife.

A FEARLESS PRELATE

Accepts the Gauntlet Thrown Down
by Liquor Dealers.

THE DECREE OF MGR. SATOLLI

Accepted Without Reserve by Archbishop Corrigan.

NEW YORK, July 31.—The World today says: Archbishop Corrigan has written a very important letter to the editor of The Wine and Spirit Gazette, in which he makes an authoritative statement with regard to the decision of Mgr. Satolli affecting Roman Catholic liquor dealers.

The archbishop's letter was called forth by an editorial recently published in The Gazette, which says of Mgr. Satolli's decision: "Will it be enforced in the cities of the country? Fully two-thirds of the retail liquor dealers of the country are Roman Catholics. Some of these are liberal contributors to church funds. We appreciate fully the delicate position in which Archbishop Corrigan and the other bishops of the Catholic church in this country are placed by the decree of the papal delegate. We voice the sentiments of a large majority of the liquor dealers of this city and in Brooklyn in saying: 'We dare Archbishop Corrigan to enforce in letter and in spirit the decree against the liquor traffic just issued by Mgr. Satolli, the papal delegate. Let the archbishop do it, and watch the consequences.'"

Will it be enforced in the cities of the country? Fully two-thirds of the retail liquor dealers of the country are Roman Catholics. Some of these are liberal contributors to church funds. We appreciate fully the delicate position in which Archbishop Corrigan and the other bishops of the Catholic church in this country are placed by the decree of the papal delegate. Satolli, the papal delegate. Let the archbishop do it, and watch the consequences.""

ARCHBISHOP CORRIGAN.

The archbishop's letter is in his own handwriting. In it he says: "I have the honor to say that I loyally accept the principles laid down by Mgr. Satolli, both in their spirit and to the letter. More than this, no Catholic can refuse to accept them. As to the fear of consequences, I have yet, thank God, to learn what fear is in the discharge of my duty. Please remember, however, that acceptance of principles is not to be confounded with the blind application of the same on all occasions and under all circumstances."

M. A. CORRIGAN.

Editor Smith's Comments.
The editor of The Gazette, P. J. Smith, has this to say about the archbishop's letter: "The answer does not entirely and squarely meet the issue. It is not a question of accepting a principle laid down by the head of the church, but of the courage to carry out in letter and in spirit the principles just proclaimed by the papal delegate in the face of seemingly adverse public sentiment. The issue is: 'Will the archbishop give orders to refuse admission to Roman Catholic societies to any one engaged either as principal or agent in the manufacture or sale of intoxicating liquors, and will he instruct the clergy to deny the rights and privileges of the church to liquor dealers who sell on Sunday?'"

"The declaration of the archbishop seems to justify the conclusion that in the discharge of his duty he will enforce these principles, although he does not say so in his letter in distinct terms. Future developments will show how far this conclusion is justified."

Russian Thistle Must Go.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—The report of the conference committee on the agricultural appropriation bill, except as to the Russian thistle item, has been agreed to, and the conferees were directed by the senate to insist on this amendment. It appropriates $1,000,000 for the extermination of the thistle in the several western states.

Honors to Debs.

CHICAGO, July 31.—The American Railway union strikers have arranged for a reception to President Debs. All labor organizations in Chicago will be invited to join in a grand demonstration and street parade. Debs will be here Thursday.

Kept the Cargo.

TANGIER, July 31.—A party of Kabyles off the Rif coast captured the vessel St. Vincent, flying the French flag. The Spanish governor of Alhucemas protested and the St. Vincent was given up, but the Kabyles retained the vessel's cargo.

Next!

ALBANY, July 31.—A Chinese laundry trust has made its appearance in the mercantile world under the incorporate name of Dop Song Kong Saw, with a capital stock of $500, to control laundry establishments in this and other states.

No Assets.

JERSEY CITY, July 31.—William G. E. See has been appointed receiver for the Higgins Co., company of Brooklyn. The application was based on the grounds that the corporation had liabilities amounting to $80,000, with no assets.

Smart Forger Sentenced.

LONDON, July 31.—Charles Bertrand, who is described as the most expert forger in the United States or Europe, was yesterday sentenced to three years and six months' imprisonment for fraudulently obtaining money.

In the Married Men's Ranks.

BROOKLYN, July 31.—Jack McAniff, the prize-fighter, was married yesterday to Catherine Row, known on the stage as Pearl Luman. He has started for Bangor, Me., to train for his fight with Griffo.

Milton's Police Telegraph.

The new police telegraph system of the town of Milton, which will go into commission Wednesday, is an up-to-date system, complete in all its details. The system used is the Gamewell and it has all the latest improvements.

It consists of about sixty miles of wire, divided into four circuits and twenty call boxes. At the central station is a handsome oak receiving board upon which are the annunciator drops, relays, ringing keys, automatic receiver and telephone.

In each box there is a telephone and a small dial from which calls can be sent in for a quick wagon, slow wagon, telephone and four numbers for officer's reports.

When an officer opens a box he moves a pointer to the kind of message he wishes to send in and pulls a lever, and in an instant it is recorded at the central station on the automatic receiver, together with the box number and the time the call came in.

When a citizen desires to send in a call he puts in his key and turns it, and a call is recorded for the quick wagon from that box.

Each citizen's key is numbered and after he has given a call he can not remove the key until the arrival of an officer.

When the Chief of Police desires to communicate with any officer he simply turns a lever at the station on the officer's circuit and the minute the officer opens his box a bell commences to ring which notifies the officer that he must communicate with the station immediately by telephone.

The location of the several boxes is as follows:

Corner Washington and Adams streets.
Adams street, near East Milton depot.
Cor. Granite avenue and Spaulding street.
Junction of Pleasant, Centre and Adams sts.
Corner Churchill's lane and Adams street.
Adams street, opposite Associates' hall.
Corner Central avenue and Elliot street.
Corner Randolph avenue and School street.
Corner Randolph avenue and Centre street.
Cor. Randolph avenue and Pleasant street.
Corner Harland and Hillside streets.
Opposite Town hall.

Corner Canton avenue and Harland street.

Junction Brush Hill road and Robbins st.
Corner Brush Hill road and Williams ave.
Corner Brush Hill road and Milton street.
Corner Atherton street and Blue Hill ave.
Corner Canton avenue and Dollar lane.
Junction Brush Hill road and Canton ave.

To complete the system, a handsome new patrol wagon is being built, but will not be ready for service much before the first of September.

Chief Pierce has an efficient department whose reputation is first-class, and he promises even better work with his increased facilities.

Funeral of Miss Fegan.

The funeral of Miss Teresa Fegan, a teacher in the Willard school, was held this morning from St. Mary's church, solemn high mass being celebrated by Rev. F. A. Friguglietti, assisted by Rev. A. F. Roche as deacon, Rev. J. P. Cuffe as sub-deacon, and Rev. F. A. Cunningham as master of ceremonies.

Rev. E. J. Fegan of Hopkinton, a brother of the deceased, was present, as well as several other clergymen and teachers in the Willard building.

There was special singing by a choir of soloists with an orchestra accompaniment. The interment was at the Catholic cemetery, West Quincy.

National League.

The Boston Base Ball club stand high today. She has gone right by the Baltimore, and the score is as follows:

White Iron Beds from $5.00 to $15.00, bright, attractive and cool. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

A horse kicked H. S. Shafer, of the Free-myer House, Middleburg, N. Y., on the knee, which laid him up in bed and caused the knee joint to become stiff. A friend recommended him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did, and in two days was able to be around. Mr. Shafer has recommended it to many others and says it is excellent for any kind of bruise or sprain. This same Remedy is also famous for its cures of rheumatism.

OFFICERS NICOL'S PRIZE.

A Newly Born Infant Found on Water Street Early this Morning.

Officer Nicol had his attention attracted shortly after 4 o'clock this morning by the cry of an infant on Water street near Franklin street and upon investigation he found that it came from an ordinary market basket. Removing a piece of quilt which was covered over the contents the officer found a little girl baby apparently between 5 and 6 days old.

The little girl had on a flannel petticoat and a white dress and near it was a partially filled bottle of paregoric. Officer Nicol brought his find to the police station and from there it was taken to the poor farm.

There is no clew of the mother of the infant.

INTER-COUNTRY SUITS.

The Massachusetts Benefit Life Association sued for $30,000.

A Montreal dispatch says that actions begun by A. Demers against the Boston Association for $17,000, and by C. A. Chenevert for $3000, are the forerunners of a "most sensational insurance case."

Mr. George A. Litchfield of Wollaston is the able president of the association, and will no doubt look carefully after the interest of this large and popular Benefit Association.

Flying Tailless Kites.

The tailless kite experiments made by William A. Eddy, at Blue Hill Observatory, were continued Sunday and good progress made.

The results achieved by the first kite sent out were encouraging, and Mr. Eddy pronounced it the best one of the series of small kites yet made. It flew at a height of about 700 feet with remarkable steadiness from 11.30 A. M. to 5.30 P. M., or during six hours. It was 26 inches in diameter.

Sunday, seven Malay tailless kites, from nine to three feet in diameter were completed and ready for flight. One of these kites is nine feet in diameter, two are six feet, one five feet, one four feet, six inches, one four feet and one three feet.

The nine-foot kite was constructed by Mr. Willard Ferguson of Blue Hill Observatory, and is, so far as known, the largest Malay tailless kite ever made.

On Tuesday special cord capable of standing a strain of 200 pounds will be used, and later on in the week an attempt will be made to carry up a self-recording instrument attached to the kite string about 200 feet below the top of a line of tandem kites.

Glad Tidings' Tent.

Rev. George S. Avery of Wollaston Heights has located his tent for preaching services on Brooks avenue, South Quincy. The first service was held on Monday night with an attendance of about five hundred people. The speakers for the evening were Rev. Mr. Hunt of East Milton, Rev. Mr. Hoffman of Kearney, Neb., Mr. George Watt and Rev. Mr. Avery. The singing was led by Evangelist R. F. True of Boston, assisted by a large choir. The meetings will be held in the tent every pleasant evening at 7.30 o'clock. Mr. Avery is assisted in the work by Mr. Jacob Dumph, a student from D. L. Moody's school at Northfield.

BRAINTREE.

Officer Qualey of Braintree, counts himself out just $1.25. One day last week a young man named L. E. Kalor of Braintree was arrested at Quincy for riding a bicycle on the sidewalk. He telegraphed Officer Qualey to come and bail him out. The officer being generous, hired a team and came to Quincy to do so, but when he arrived another friend had given bail for him. All Mr. Qualey asked for his trouble was for Kalor to reimburse him for his expenses, but as the young man refuses to do so, the officer is out just so much.

A Pleasant Evening Trip.

People who have never taken an evening trip on the steamer City of Quincy have no idea what a cool refreshing and pleasant trip it is. After sweltering in the sun all day a trip on the steamer is like getting a new lease of life. To be sure the moon is not up now, but as you sail along a cool breeze plays about you and the electric lights that glimmer all along the shore from Pemberton to Downer Landing, and in the distance at Winthrop, form a picture well worth seeing. If you have not yet taken an evening trip on the boat, do not fail to do so.

His Last Strike.

President Debs in his speech at Terre Haute, Indiana, on Sunday evening, said: I am a Populist out and out. There is no difference between Democrats and Republicans so far as labor is concerned. I am ashamed to say that I voted for Grover Cleveland three times. Evidence of the control of capital is shown in the power which Havemeyer exercises over the present Government.

In conclusion, Mr. Debs stated that the fight would be continued in a reform political movement, and he declared that the present strike was the last in which he would ever take part.

Swallowed a Silver Quarter.

The six-year old son of Mr. Patrick Barry of Mt. Pleasant, accidentally swallowed a silver quarter Monday evening which lodged in his throat. The child was in great agony all night and at one time its life was despaired of. It was reported as comfortable this morning.

Full yard carpet remnants 25 cents. Large Tapestry and Brussels remnants, 50 and 75 cents. Henry L. Kincaide & Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Munroe returned yesterday from a week's outing in Rochester, N. H. This town will be remembered in connection with Isaac Sawtelle's crime, and while there they visited the barn used by him as a rendezvous, now called Sawtelle's barn, and to the curious they may show a piece of the building.

Among the recent additions to the list of Atlantic people who ride the bicycle are Mr. and Mrs. Roger H. Wilde, Mr. and Mrs. John Carver, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dorman, Miss Ethel Dorman, Mrs. James Curtin, Mrs. E. Yeoman, Miss Florence Priest. These added to those who have been riding some time, gives this section enough riders to form quite a club.

THE TREATY WITH RUSSIA.

Self Respect Demands That the United States Should Abrogate It.

Senator Turpie introduced a joint resolution declaring that it is no longer to the interest of the United States to continue the treaty ratified with Russia last April and that notice shall be given to the emperor that the treaty shall expire at the end of six months, the term prescribed in its text to precede nullification by either signor.

The immediate cause of the introduction of the resolution is refusal by Russia to permit American citizens of Hebrew faith to travel or sojourn in that country. We cannot tolerate this assumption by an absolute despotism of the right to discriminate among American citizens to the advantage of some and the injury of others.

There are clauses in the treaty which should have rendered it obnoxious to the senate and executive of the United States, who ought not to have approved it. It was approved under the illusion that in the Bering sea controversy, then unsettled, ratification of the treaty would insure for us at Washington Russian friendship desirable in the adjudication of the fisheries question.

No matter what the fallacy under which the ratification was effected it was offensive to the people of the United States, who did not submit to it the more willingly because of an implied but improper and irrelevant argument or consideration for its ratification. We gained nothing at Paris by the treaty. We were not entitled to gain anything by it.

So long as Russia continues an absolute despotism, so long as human rights in that country are utterly at the mercy of official caprice in the highest ranks and subject to the corruption or malice of officialdom in the lower planes, it will become a free people to enter into any compact beneficial to Russia and creditable to the institutions of democracy.

Russia has treated us with open contempt in violating the articles of the treaty guaranteeing to all American citizens equal rights within her domain. As she has herself broken an essential part of the treaty, it is demanded by self respect that the United States shall abrogate the instrument altogether and without delay. —Chicago Herald.

Why Few Murder Trials in Boston.

Considerable curiosity has been aroused by the statement that the Corchidi case is the first murder trial in Suffolk county in 10 years. It seems that there have been many murders in the county within the period mentioned, but rather than go to the expense of a trial the government has seen fit to accept the plea of guilty of murder in the second degree and sentenced the accused on that, as it is believed that the ends of justice are as fully met in this way as in trying a man on a charge of murder in the first degree and running the risk of failing to convict. As a rule, juries do not like to bring in a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree even if it is in keeping with the evidence. —Boston Transcript.

UMPIRE BLAMED.

Baltimore "Might" Have Won in the Ninth, but For McQuade's Decision.

BALTIMORE, July 30.—Umpire McQuade shut off the Baltimore chances of winning the game in the ninth inning. Three men were on bases and Reitz attempted to score on Gleason's out to left field. He was clearly safe, but was called out and McGraw went out to short.

Scranton in the Eastern League.

SCRANTON, Pa., July 31.—This city has been admitted to membership in the Eastern league. This decision was arrived at by the circuit committee of the Eastern league, to which was left the transfer of the Troy franchise.

Not Much Done.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—The senate wore an aspect of peace and serenity yesterday in striking contrast to the excitement of last week. Among the bills introduced was one by Mr. Allen to provide for the issue of $50,000,000 in treasury notes to be distributed pro rata among the states "for the relief of the worthy poor." The house joint resolution further extending the appropriation until Aug. 14 was passed.

Beyond the passage of a few unimportant bills by unanimous consent nothing was accomplished by the house. Mr. Boutelle offered a resolution congratulating and recognizing the Hawaiian republic, but on a point of order it was referred to the committee on foreign affairs. Two hours were spent in attempting to secure the adoption of a special order for the consideration of a bill to protect public forest reservations, but the Republicans by absenting themselves succeeded in forcing an adjournment.

Many Victims of Heat.

BERLIN, July 31.—Although tropical heat prevails throughout the empire, the summer military drills have been carried on without any appreciable alteration of program. The troops have suffered intensely. Fifteen soldiers have died of sunstroke at the garrison maneuvers round Bautzen, Zittau and Lelsing. Scores of others who were prostrated by the heat are convalescing slowly.

Against Combines.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—Representative Hutcheson has introduced a resolution for amendment to the constitution to give congress jurisdiction over trusts, providing that "trusts and monopolies dealing in agricultural products or other articles of prime necessity shall not exist in the United States, and congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation."

Under a Cloud.

NEW YORK, July 31.—The stewards of the jockey club have directed all associations racing under the rules of the Jockey club to refuse all future entries made by William C. Dwy, as a result of a suspicious-looking race of a week ago. Daily has been quite a character on the turf for many years, and is known to the racing public as "Father Bill."

One Got Away.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—Captain Willey of the revenue cutter McLane, on duty on the southern Florida coast, on July 25 captured seven Spanish schooners from Havana doing a contraband trade along the coast. One of the vessels escaped in a storm. The others were turned over to the customs officials.

Money at a Low Rate.

NEW YORK, June 31.—The New York Coffee Exchange voted to borrow from Arbuckle Bros. $40,000 to pay off the present mortgage and $250,000 for the completion of the new exchange, Arbuckle Bros. having offered to loan the money for five years at 4 1/2 per cent.

A Little Fellow Shot.

LYNN, Mass., July 31.—Patrick Haney shot Frank McManus, a 15-year-old boy, yesterday afternoon, while the latter was stealing apples from an orchard. A 32-caliber bullet entered the boy's left groin, inflicting a serious wound. Haney was arrested.

Julia Ward Howe Spoke.

NEWPORT, R. I., July 31.—Mrs. Julia Ward Howe addressed a good-sized audience, composed of cottagers and townspeople, in the Channing parlors yesterday, on the subject of "Women in Literature."

Voorhees Is Very Sick.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—Senator Voorhees is very sick. The immediate cause of the illness is inflammation of the stomach. This is aggravated by general debility and complete physical exhaustion.

Evidence of Peace.

HAMMOND, Ind., July 31.—The last of the militia left this city yesterday, two companies having been detained here over Sunday to await the decision as to the time of their departure.

Steel Plant Starts Up.

CHICAGO, July 31.—Twenty hundred men went to work at the Illinois Steel company's plant yesterday. The works had been closed down since the strike began.

WEATHER AND CROPS

Southern New England Is Suffering Severely From Drought.

THE OUTLOOK FOR SECOND CROPS

Very Dubious In Portions of Massachusetts.

BOSTON, July 31.—The New England weather service issues the following weather-crop bulletin for the week ending July 31, 1894:

The week has been one of extreme heat in all southern sections, with a serious drought in the extreme south. At New York city the rainfall has been only .04 inch; at New London, Conn., .06 inch; at Block Island, R. I., .06 inch; at Nantasket, Mass., .14 inch; 31 inch fell at Kingston, R. I.; .33 inch at New Britain, Conn.; and .60 inch at Middleboro, Mass., but in some places all over this southern district not more than a trace came, while the sky has been almost clear and the heat intense.

Only about one-fourth inch fell in the Connecticut valley north of Connecticut, and in most of Vermont. About three-fourths inch fell in central and northern New Hampshire; from half an inch to one inch in most of Maine, and from one inch to over two inches in southern New Hampshire and along the coast from Portland to Boston. The shower of the 29th was particularly heavy in southern New Hampshire, and much damage was done by lightning and wind, with some hail. At Newton one-half inch fell in 15 minutes.

At Boston 2.80 inches of rain have fallen since July 21—more than fell in all the time from May 25 to July 30.

Making Good Growth.

Rain is needed in the vicinity of Eastport and in southern Aroostook county, but for the most part all crops are making extremely good growth. The hay crop is being gathered fast with the bright sunshine; pastures are holding out well. In places the oat crop will be better than was expected a few weeks ago, as they are heading out very well, but in others they are blighting and will not amount to much. The rain and wind on the 24th lodged grain to some extent in Penobscot county. In vicinity of Caribou in Aroostook county potatoes are rusting some, and the crop is not expected to be an average, but farther south the tubers are growing fast with no rust. They are reported very fine in Washington county.

Rain Offset by Wind.

The first of the week was cool, but hot weather has prevailed for the last few days and crops have dried somewhat in southern and central counties. The shower of Sunday night has helped them, though considerable damage was done to corn and fruit by the wind accompanying it. Corn is growing fast, except on the very dry land. Potatoes are pronounced good in the north, but backward in Rockingham county; gardens are in fine shape. Potatoes are doing well in northern counties. Oats promise an average yield in Cheshire county. Pastures are drying in southern counties. Raspberries are very poor in places, and quite a number report that blueberries are not at all plenty. Blackberries promise well. Apples hang on the trees well generally.

Showers Passed By.

All central and southern Vermont seems to have escaped most of the showers of the week and most of the rain of the previous week, and more rain is needed. There has been plenty of sunshine, and it has been improved in rushing work in the hayfield; some have completed haying, with a good crop. Berries are very scarce in the southern counties. Apples are reported to be a good crop in some places, while in other orchards not far away there is hardly an apple to be seen.

Fields Look Bare.

The extremely hot, dry weather has dried the crops and ground very rapidly, and in the western, central and southern districts, where the showers of the 24th and 29th were light or only moderate in amount, all crops are suffering for water. Pastures are probably feeding the need of rain now as much as anything; considerable stock have to be fed from the barn or depend on browse. Rowen is starting very slowly, and the mowed fields look very bare; the outlook for a second crop has apparently not been so poor for years in most sections. Cranberries made a good showing during the week, though this crop is generally reported rather light. Tobacco and corn are growing fast; tobacco is nearly all ready to top in Franklin county. Apples promise abundant crop in the northeast, especially of early varieties. Blackberries are ripening fast, but a small crop is indicated. It is rather dry for cucumbers, and various kinds of seeds for winter truck failed to come well, and hence it will shorten the supply in eastern counties.

No Rain In Providence County.

The weather was very hot and dry, and though a smart shower on the 24th gave some relief in southern parts of the state, in parts of Providence county no rain fell at all and everything is suffering. Haying is about completed. Corn is growing well in most places. In Washington county a number of farmers are digging their potatoes and find that the crop turns out fairly well.

Longest Drought In Years.

The drought continues very seriously in Connecticut, the showers being mostly local and giving very little rain, and only temporary relief where they do come. Fruit is drying up and dropping. Corn and tobacco, which have stood the drought better than most crops, are now drying and being greatly injured. Pastures and meadows are dry and brown, and much feeding is being done from the barn, and milk is shrinking very much. The following report from the weather bureau observer at New London covers the ground well: "The drought continues with increasing vigor; the excessive heat of the past two days has been particularly injurious to all the tops of crops, which are suffering terribly. The drought in this vicinity has been the longest on record."

J. H. Hale of South Glastonbury says: "The extreme heat and drought is now beginning to seriously affect the peaches; trees in soil or lands not well cultivated are drying up or dropping fruit badly. In best cultivated orchards fruit is holding out better, but is at a standstill or making but slow growth."

CHINESE DECLINED

To Avail Themselves of Japanese Consulate—China Ordering Vessels.

LONDON, July 31.—It is stated that the captain of the transport Kow Shing have demanded damages from Japan through the English foreign office for the sinking of that vessel.

A dispatch from Shanghai says that prior to the firing upon the Kow Shing the Japanese commander offered to take off the captain and crew of the transport. The captain, however, refused to accept the offer.

On the day following the fight between the Chinese and Japanese ships a Japanese cruiser encountered a Chinese iron-clad in the Prince Jerome gulf, near Yachuan. The Chinese claim that their vessel was victorious and that the Japanese cruiser was taken off by her consort in a crippled condition.

The Chinese government has ordered the construction of four torpedo boats by German shipbuilders.

Within the last fortnight several prominent merchants in the China trade have offered to sell to the Chinese government a quantity of heavy guns, fast steamers, a number of torpedo boats, fast steamers, a quantity of heavy guns, about 400,000 Mannlicher rifles, and an immense number of cartridges, but at the time no attention was paid to the offers.

Some of these firms have been notified that their offers are accepted on the condition of immediate delivery.

An order has been placed with a San Francisco canning company for 15,000 tons of cut meats with the purpose of sending them to the Rio Janeiro, which sailed a few days ago from that port, took out a large cargo of flour, as did the two preceding steamers.

Chinese merchants admit that their country is stocking up with provisions.

GOVERNMENT THE VICTOR.

Two More Whiteaways Must Give Up Legislative Seats in Newfoundland.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., July 31.—Messrs. Emerson and McGrath, representing Placencia in the legislature, were unseated and disqualified by the court yesterday for corruption in public office. Both were adherents of Whiteaway. Emerson was speaker of the legislature. This is the first time in the history of a British colony that a speaker of a legislative body has been removed for such a cause.

The charges against the two members included the unauthorized expenditure of public money with the connivance of the executive council, the carrying of trainloads of voters to the booths so that they could vote on their side, and the treating of voters. It was shown by evidence that 400 men were employed in the district making roads a few days before the election.

The government is now master of the situation, and will call the legislature together to enact revenue and indemnity bills, as no legal right exists to collect the revenue at present, owing to the expiration of the revenue bill on June 11. The people are now paying duties without any obligation to do so.
